PREFACE.

It is the purpose of this work to furnish suitable tunes for the hymns in "The Sabbath Hymn Book," and to bring the hymns and tunes together, so that both may be easily seen at the same opening of the volume. The tunes are designed to meet the capacity and wants of congregations, though it is hoped they will be found to possess interest and appropriateness for choirs. Every hymn contained in the Sabbath Hymn Book will be found here, and in connection with each hymn, or at the same opening of the book, one or more appropriate tunes. All the tunes are also published in a separate volume, entitled The Sabbath Tune Book. The series therefore consists of three volumes:—
The Sabbath Hymn Book, containing Hymns alone.
The Sabbath Hymn and Tune Book, containing Hymns and Tunes.
The Sabbath Tune Book, containing Tunes alone.

Two principal methods have prevailed, to a greater or less degree, in the Service of Song in Christian worship; that of the whole Congregation, and that of a select Choir. The Congregational was the primitive method, and the only one known in the earlier history of the Church. The method of singing by a choir came into the Church at a later period, with wealth, power, and worldly greatness, and it has been her attendant rather in temporal prosperity, than in poverty and adversity.

At the time of the Reformation, Congregational Singing had become extinct, and the more artistic manner of choirs, consisting mostly of an inferior order of the clergy, singing in a language unknown to the people, had taken its place. Luther, Calvin, Knox, and others, took early measures to rescue the singing exercises in public worship from the hands of the clergy, and to reinstate it as an exercise for the people. As the abuses of the Romish church had led to the rejection of chanting (the primitive form of Church Song) the Psalms were translated, or hymns were written in a stanzic form, and adapted to a simple but dignified form of melody, with special reference to the capabilities of the people. The union of the whole assembly in the exercise was regarded as essential. Other liturgical forms were rejected; but this new one of a metrical Psalmody, for the people's simultaneous utterance of praise and prayer, was received with great favor, and almost universally practiced. It was no attempt on the part of the Reformers to introduce an artistic manner of song, but, on the contrary, a very plain one, a "highway" of Psalmody, in which "the wayfaring man, though a fool, should not err."

The Congregational method, thus restored to the churches, was brought to this country by the Protestant Fathers. It continued to be their only method for about a century and a half. It is not surprising that during this period, amidst the deprivations which the new settlements experienced, attention to song should have been neglected, nor that, neglected by generation after generation, the ability for it should have been well nigh lost. In the early part of the last century the very low condition of the singing in public worship began to attract the attention of some of the friends of religion, and measures were taken by a few of the leading clergymen and others for reform. Hitherto all the singing in the American churches had been unisonous, the melody only having been sung; but in 1720 a book of tunes in three parts, "Cantus," "Medius" and "Basus," was published by Rev. Thomas Walter. The harmonizing of the tunes in parts undoubtedly grew out of the fact that the more elaborate service of choirs had always taken that form both in the Lutheran and the English church. In the Protestant churches of Europe generally, metrical Psalmody continues to this day to be sung, as it was originally, in unison, and it is at least doubtful whether parts in harmony for the choir and unison for the congregation, would not still be the best arrangement for Church Song. This new arrangement of tunes in parts led to the formation of choirs. At first, they were introduced only as helps to Congregational Singing, but this gradually yielded, as it had done before, and the new method advanced with sure and steady progress, until towards the close of the last century it had become the almost exclusive method of Church Song.

And now, within ten or fifteen years, Congregational Singing is again attracting attention, and many persons, especially those who look for a higher religious power in Psalmody, are turning to it, as a remedy for the evils which have grown out of the exclusive method of choirs, and as promising to restore to the Church the almost lost religious aid of song. It is to be regretted that some, in their zeal for Congregational Singing, have supposed it necessary to set their faces against choirs, and have even gone so far as to reject the services of such associations. The fact that choirs have, in a great degree, failed to present a method of song truly religious in its influence, is not to be attributed wholly to them; but probably quite as much to those clergymen and people who have mistaken a mere musical excitement for the " quickening and raising up of the affections to God."

That it is unsafe to depend exclusively upon choirs, is abundantly proved in the history of the Church. The great danger of such a dependence is, that the whole service will degenerate into a mere attempt at musical display. Nor is it safe to trust to the Congregational method alone, for without constant care, the singing will then be very liable to fall into neglect, and become uninteresting, ineffective, and even wearisome. Let the two methods exist together, strengthening one another, Congregational Singing can not be dispensed with by those who seek for the religious influence of Church Song; and choirs may do much to promote the true service of Psalmody, by their guidance and encouragement of universal song. Whenever it is practicable, then, let the people who are desirous of Congregational Singing avail themselves of the advantages to be derived from such choirs as formed from among themselves, and disposed to exert a religious influence in the singing exercises, will enlist the sympathy and cooperation of all the people.

But that the present efforts for Congregational Singing, or that any efforts for the improvement of the Service of Song be in any satisfactory degree successful, we regard it as essential that both methods be practically understood—at least by those who guide this service—since any attempt to build up the one on the basis of the other must, necessarily, in a great degree fail. Those who seek for Congregational Singing on the principles of Choir Singing, will probably soon give it up as impracticable, and return again to the Choir Singing as the only available method.

The Congregational is nature's method of praise. It is in a great degree independent of art culture, being indeed above art. It is adapted alike to the voices of the young and the old, of the uneducated and of the cultivated. It engages all in the simultaneous exercise of the same emotions, furnishes something for every one to do, admits of no listeners, and thus excludes that bane of all true worship, criticism. As individual voices are lost in the chorus of the many, one is naturally led to feel his own insignificance. That essential feature of Chorus Singing, the blending of voices, by which the impurity of individual tones is neutralized, and dissonance harmonized, and in which consists in a great degree its strength and its beauty, is obtained almost without effort when many voices, (even fifty or a hundred,) join in one melody. It is adapted to awaken within us ideas of greatness. It belongs to the sublime in tone; the sublime in nature rather than in art. It may be compared to the mountains, which owe their majesty, not to their fertile soil, nor to any elaboration of architectural skill, but to that Power which commanded the light to shine out of darkness, and brought up from the depths the rough and diversified materials in which consists the "strength of the hills." The mountains are not more necessary to fit the earth to be the habitation of man than is this great method of song to the highest development of that religious life which is perfected through Psalmody.

Choir Singing is the method of art; and although for the common purposes of Church Song no very high degree of artistic attainment is required, yet, that Choir Singing which is worthy of the name, must be the result of the proper training of a suitable number of persons who have a more than ordinary portion of intuitive musical ability. It belongs to the beautiful. It depends upon flowing melody, with measure symmetrical, in such soft, elegant, and delicate style as to awaken delight. It may be regarded as one of Zion's " beautiful garments," so that in the proper union of the two methods, it may be said of the Service of Song, "strength and beauty are in the sanctuary."

That we may, if possible, throw still further light upon a subject which we consider of vital importance to the success of Church Song, we will mention some conditions which are indispensable to Choir Singing, but not to Congregational Singing.

1. It is not indispensable, though it is desirable, in order to qualify one to take a part in Congregational Singing, that one should be able to read written music. Let properly conducted singing schools be maintained, and let all be encouraged to attend them; and especially let all children receive, while they are yet young, appropriate vocal training, and be practically taught the elements both of music and notation. And let all be encouraged, whether they have learned any thing of singing or not, to join vocally in the Psalmody as a religious exercise, regarding it as their duty and privilege.

2. Purity of tone is not indispensable, though it is desirable, to qualify one to unite in Congregational Singing. Although one's tone may be of a nasal or guttural quality, he is not to be denied the privilege of singing his Maker's praises in the congregation of the people. Yet it may often be the duty of others to exercise forbearance, and to do whatever circumstances allow for the removal of the cause of offense by suitable attempts at cultivation. And it is possible that there may be cases where it may be the duty of one to engage only mentally in the exercise, if thereby one may cease to give pain to another.

3. It is not indispensable, though it is desirable, that one should be able to sing in perfect tune, in order that he may join the Congregational Psalmody. There are very few persons whose intonation is not more or less faulty, but although one may not sing individually in tune, there is a "sympathy in sounds" by which, when a multitude sing together, dissonance is resolved, and voices are drawn into unison.

4. It is not indispensable, though it is desirable, that one should be able to appreciate the divisions of time, or, as it is more commonly expressed, to keep time, in order to engage in Congregational Singing. If such a natural, easy movement is taken as is alone well adapted to the singing of a promiscuous assembly, there will be no difficulty in keeping together, and however feeble may be one's perception of a regular movement, he may safely trust his voice with the voices of the many.

5. It is not indispensable, though it is desirable, in order to unite in Congregational Singing, that one's articulation or pronunciation should be exactly right. The words are, indeed, of the utmost importance, the indispensable part of a hymnal service, and although we may join devotionally in the act of worship in song, even when we do not know the particular subject of the hymn, as where the service is in a foreign language, yet we can not be in union with the assembly in definite thought and emotion unless we are in possession of the words. Still, no one should be excluded from Congregational Singing on account of an inaccurate articulation, whether this arise from a natural defect in the organs of speech, or from want of proper culture.

6. Artistic application of the laws of accent, emphasis, and general expression, is not indispensable, though it is important, to qualify one to join in Congregational Singing. There should indeed be appropriate expression; but this in one method is quite a different thing from what it is in the other. The expression of the mountain is not more unlike that of the valley, than the legitimate expression of Congregational Singing is unlike that of Choir Song. Let the singing be habitually regarded as a truly religious act; let the people, old and young, be led to engage in it as such; let this one point be taught and guarded from the pulpit; let God be sought habitually and found in the Psalm, and it will not lack a suitable expression; one consisting not so much in the mechanical observance of piano, forte, crescendo, diminuendo, or any dynamic notation, as in the more legitimate conditions of a good tonal utterance. Let the mouth speak "out of the abundance of the heart," and it will be likely to be done with much more propriety than any utterance, however perfect, which arises from the mere observance of rules of art.

As two principal methods of singing have prevailed in the service of the Christian Church, so three distinct forms of song have arisen: The Chant, The Anthem, The Metrical Tune.

The Chant is supposed to have been the primitive form of Church Song; the same in which the Saviour himself engaged, when, after he had instituted the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, he sung a hymn with his disciples, before he went out into the Mount of Olives. In its simple state it consists in the intoned recitation, or cantilated delivery of the words of the Psalm, being the nearest approach to an impassioned and dignified reading, which a retained pitch, or the absence of inflection will allow. In chunting, the Psalms may be sung in the very words of the sacred Scriptures, the highest form of lyric poetry; metrical arrangement being unnecessary. The Chant is adapted to a clear enunciation of the words, and thus tends to make music subordinate to thought, and song to religious worship. It is totally dissimilar to all the forms of secular music, and seems to preclude the very idea of display. It leaves the mind open to the full impression of the sacred text, and is most favorable to a heartfelt expression. It furnishes the most simple form in which many voices may unite in a simultaneous utterance of words, and hence, is admirably adapted to the Congregational method, to which it properly belongs. Children easily acquire it and take great delight in it; and it is a most interesting form of worship in Sabbath Schools, as we have tested by long experience.

These remarks, however, are applicable to Chanting in its primitive use, and not to such a hurried, "confused and disorderly chattering of the words," or to such a "careless, irreverent manner, without a spark of feeling," as, an English writer observes, is often heard in cathedrals; or to such abuses as have grown out of the modern double and florid chants, and from which Chanting has well nigh ceased to be regarded as belonging to the Congregational method.

The word Anthem is supposed to be derived from the same Greek root as is antiphony, which signifies the alternate or responsive manner of singing said to have been introduced into the Western churches by Ambrose, in the fourth century. Choir singing probably had its origin in antiphonal singing, and hence come Anthems. This form was retained by the English church at the time of the Reformation, though generally rejected elsewhere. In its primitive use it was exclusively by choirs, yet in a simple form it is quite practicable in Congregational Singing, and may be made a feature of much interest and usefulness.

The Metrical Tune is that form which, although known to a limited extent in earlier times, came into general use in public worship, at the time of the Reformation, and has ever since been retained in the Protestant, and in a portion of the Romish church. It was the musical form of the restored method of song, in which the people were the actors, and consisted in a simple melody, which, being within the compass of all voices, was sung in unison by the congregation. In the German and other churches on the continent of Europe, the original character of Congregational Tunes and of Congregational Singing still continues, and almost universally prevails to this day. But in England the influence of choirs soon led to the introduction of the different vocal parts, which, although at first not intended for the people, were gradually introduced into Congregational Singing, though seldom, if ever, in such proportion as to produce any thing like symmetrical harmony.

The Sabbath Hymn and Tune Book is designed as a Manual for Congregational Singing. In regard to the principles which have guided its editors in the selection of hymns, the reader is referred to the Preface to The Sabbath Hymn Book. In setting the hymns to music, we have valued musical art, only so far as it might be made to contribute to the religious purpose in view. Music is employed as a means and not as an end. Our constant object has therefore been to provide for the best religious expression of the words.

The aim has been to secure tunes of not merely negative, but of positive merit—tunes possessing such salient points as are at once marked and relevant, with such agreeableness of melody, and individuality of character as shall cause them to be apprehended, quickly learned, easily sung, always remembered. Tunes free from all such difficulties as would render them impracticable to the musically unlearned, and possessing such peculiar excellences as will render them attractive to all. Nor has it been forgotten that the tunes, generally, are to be sung not only in the larger assembly of public worship (to which some of them more properly belong), but also in social worship, where, often without much musical ability, Christians pray to God, and "command one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs."

It is evident that in preparing a book like the present the most obvious musical material is to be found in the well-known tunes which are commonly used. It was an important object to secure as complete a collection of these as possible. A circular letter of inquiry was therefore addressed to clergymen and those having charge of church music in various parts of the country. Lists of tunes actually in use were thus obtained, all of which were carefully compared and collated, and from them an index was formed, showing what tunes are most used, and what is the degree of their popularity. This index has been employed as a guide in selecting tunes. As many of these tunes are copyright property, it may be well to add that the editors have been able to insert every tune which they desired, a privilege not often enjoyed by the compilers of similar works. Yet notwithstanding all our care and facilities it is quite probable that some persons will miss in this collection tunes which are to them favorites. There are tunes which have become popular in certain localities, but which are not so generally known or of such intrinsic merit, as to claim a place in a collection like this. In the nature of things it is probable that hardly any man will find in any such book, every tune which he would be glad to have inserted.

We have, of course, felt obliged sometimes to sacrifice our own taste to what has appeared to be a public demand, and to admit tunes which we regard as having structural defects as tunes for Congregational Singing.

The repetition of well-known and most useful tunes is a new feature in this book. There are a few tunes which are very widely known and constantly used. If one of these be presented in but one place, it can be in connection with but few hymns, and therefore will not be frequently sung. Such tunes are repeated in this volume, some of them several times, and each of them is therefore in connection with a large number of hymns.

The Sabbath Hymn and Tune Book contains many New Tunes, or such, be they old or new, as are not generally known in our churches. These are needed not merely for the sake of variety, though this might be a sufficient reason for their introduction. There are hymns of new meters which must be supplied with tunes; and there are in some hymns of the more usual meters, peculiarities of stanzaic form, which in singing require tunes of corresponding rhythmic or melodic structure. There are also hymns presenting such new experiences of Christian life, as can hardly find an appropriate musical expression in any of the older melodies. That the new tunes open a wider field of musical expression, we believe will be readily granted as new hymns to now tunes become familiar in religious worship. We should be very sorry to have the good old tunes superseded—the Old Hundredths and the Dundees should be retained, often sung, and handed down, well known and familiar, from generation to generation; but yet there is not only room, but a real demand, for tunes which are new. This department of our work has been enriched by selections from a very wide range of tunes of all denominations of Christians, in different ages and countries. The new tunes have different degrees of merit, yet all of them may contribute to the appropriateness and variety of worship in song.

The large supply of Double tunes may be regarded as a new feature in our work. The importance of Double tunes consists in the fact that such hymns as contain six or more stanzas, often take up too much time when sung through, and that a tune six times repeated may, to those persons whose minds are not intensely fixed upon the hymn service, become tiresome. Almost all these Double tunes are intended to move quickly, and when properly sung, will be to some extent a remedy for that slow manner of singing which Dr. Watts condemned, and will prevent the necessity for that frequent abridgment of hymns which weakens the religious effect of the singing exercise.

The Sabbath Hymn and Tune Book provides an increased number of Minor tunes. The necessity for these, which have been of late much neglected, arises out of man's emotional nature. If there are seasons of sunshine in Christian life, there are also those of clouds and darkness. As, on the one hand, there is in every high religious experience a fullness of joy which can find a suitable utterance only in the most jubilant strains which musical genius has ever conceived, so, on the other, there is a heart-felt sorrow so deep as to be far beyond the expression of any but the more tender accents, the wailings (it may be) of minor strains. But without going to extremes, it may in truth be said of the Major and Minor in music, that the common experiences of Christian life seem to require, perhaps equally, the animating and invigorating strains of the one, and the tenderly sympathizing and plaintive influences of the other. The educational power of music must be much abridged, if it be confined to the Major mode. Still, as some choirs and congregations are unaccustomed to Minor tunes, they will generally find, opposite to the Minor, and at the same opening of the book, a tune in the Major mode, applicable in some degree to the same hymns which can be most appropriately sung with the Minor tune.

In our adaptation of Minor tunes to hymns, we have not been unmindful of the fact that the propriety of this depends not only upon the emotional character of the words, but also upon times and seasons, and we have sometimes followed the beautiful example of the Episcopal church, which, in the time of her Lenten fastings, sings her jubilant canticles in plaintive Minor strains.

The rhythmic form, which is regarded as, in general, the best for metrical tunes, especially for such as are designed for the simultaneous song of many people, is that which, with the exception of the initial and terminal of each line or couplet, consists mostly in tones of equal length. Examples of tunes in this form are on pages 17, 18, 19, 20, 22, 26, 27. "This," says Rev. Mr. Havergal of Worcester, England, "is generally the old form, the traditional form, and the only one which all singers feel to be natural." In this form the older tunes were formerly printed, both in England and in this country, so that in reprinting "The Old Hundredth," "Dundee," and other tunes as we have done in this work, we do not alter them from but restore them to the original. After much observation and practical experience we are fully persuaded that this form furnishes the best movement for metrical Psalms and Hymns. The longer initials and terminals enable all the people to begin and to close the line together, and also afford a moment for rest at the end of each line, while the intermediate shorter tones are most favorable to the simultaneous utterance of each word and syllable as with one voice. But the greatest advantage, perhaps, is that it enables a choir or congregation to sing together in a quicker movement than any other, yet is at the same time conducive to that simple strength and dignity which should ever characterize the union of many voices in sacred song.

That we may not be mistaken as to what we mean by quicker movement, we will add that "The Old Hundredth" has been often sung so slowly as to occupy a minute and a half, or even more, in its performance, whereas we suppose, that if sung in its original time, it would not take more than from forty to fifty seconds. The time of this tune, and indeed of all tunes in this rhythmic form, may be learned by using a pendulum of from thirty-five to forty-five inches in length, each beat of which will give the time of one of the intermediate or shorter tones. We do not mean that all these tunes are to be sung, or that any one tone is always to be sung in exactly the same time; there will naturally be a slight variation, depending upon the hymn, and the circumstances of the occasion. We deem it important, however, to remark that there should never be any apparent change of time, during the singing of a hymn; but one movement should be preserved throughout all the stanzas, however they may appear to differ.

A second rhythmic form, one which has become very popular within the last twenty-five or thirty years, consists of tones mostly of two lengths, as before, but in alternate groups of two. The tunes Holbron, Denfield, Downs, Boylston, afford specimens of this rhythm. A pendulum of from thirty to forty inches will give the time for the shorter tones in these tunes. It is most important in this class of tunes, that every approach to staccato in the short tones be carefully avoided; on the contrary, they should usually be sung quite legato, and sustained to their full length. On the other hand, the longer tones must not be too long. Indeed there may be a little accommodation between the two, so that the shorter tones may be, as it were, a little longer, and the longer tones a little shorter, than the exact time indicated by the notes, but this must be done without breaking up a proper distinction between the two, or disturbing the general choriambic character.

A third rhythmic form consists of tones of two lengths as before, but mostly in groups of four. The tunes Uxbridge and Olden illustrate this form. A pendulum of from thirty to thirty-six inches will give the time. The remark in respect to the accommodation between the tones of different lengths, applies also to this rhythm.

A fourth class includes tunes in which the longer and shorter tones regularly alternate; Ortonville, Ray, Rayford, Anley, and many other Tunes belong to this class. A pendulum from sixteen to twenty-four inches will give the time of quarter notes in these tunes. A somewhat modified form of this general rhythmic structure may be seen in the tunes Becker, Albon, Ware, Albee, and others. These tunes, on account of the prevalence of the shorter tones, require a somewhat slower movement, as indicated by a pendulum of from twenty to twenty-six inches. Again, another modification of the form may be found in such tunes as Bethany and Glyn, which, because of the prevalence of the longer tones, require a somewhat quicker movement, as of a pendulum of ten or twelve inches in length.

Each of the foregoing classes, with slight exceptions, is adapted to a syllabic utterance, or the singing of a single tone to each syllable. The last is, perhaps, somewhat less adapted to Congregational Singing.

A fifth rhythmic form includes tunes in equal (double or quadruple) measure, embracing a greater variety in the length of tones, brought together with less regard to the systematical relation of length, and containing syncopes, suspensions, etc. See Duke Street, Federal Street, Lanesboro', Ernan, Hamburg, Lyte, Ward, Dedham, Medfield.

Tunes in unequal (triple or sextuple) measure, but in other respects similar to class five, may be brought together as the last rhythmic class which we need to present. Illustrative of this class, are Howard, St. Martins, Rothwell, Abridge, Mendon, All Saints, Thatcher. A pendulum of from twenty-five to thirty inches will indicate the time of the quarter notes in the last two varieties.

There may be a few tunes which can hardly be assigned to either of the above classes, but in regard to all, whatever may be the movement, sufficient time must always be taken to speak the words with propriety; for nothing merely musical can justify a movement, be it quick or slow, which shall interfere with an appropriate delivery of the words.

The Adaptation of Tunes to Hymns is a department of our labor upon which most careful consideration has been bestowed, in the belief that it is of great importance to the usefulness of religious song. This has, indeed, been by far the most difficult department of labor in the preparation of this volume. A good hymn may be sung to a good tune, and the two together form an unsatisfactory whole. One may prove a detriment rather than an assistance to the other. The mere metrical fitness of one for the other, though necessary, is a simple, and the very lowest consideration. The music must be suitable to express the emotion which the words describe or imply. A first question then is, what is the emotional condition which the hymn supposes? A second question is, what strains will best assist the expression of this emotion? Is the hymn one of worship, or is it merely didactic, hortatory, or descriptive? Does it imply direct or immediate homage, or only that which is indirect or mediate?

These questions have been minutely considered at every step.

Our experience has led us to reject all such aids to musical expression as the marginal remarks found in some books of psalmody. We are satisfied of the injurious effects of such notation. It encourages, almost necessitates, a dramatic spirit in singing, which is wholly at variance with the spirit of worship.
Careful attention has also been given to such peculiarities of rhythmical and poetical structure as are found in some of the hymns. Instances may be cited in hymns 8, 202, 298, 339, 337, 471, 556, 718, 1004, 1092, 1267, and many others.

It has been supposed that it would be interesting, where it could be done without detriment in other respects, to set the old versions of the Psalms to corresponding old tunes sung also in early times. Instances in which this has been done are in hymns 13, 31, 32, 46, 48, 65, 220, 230, 243, 336.

There will generally be found at each opening of the book two tunes, either of which is adapted to all the hymns upon the two pages. Commonly one of these is a well-known tune; and the other, one which is less familiar, or entirely new. This arrangement has also enabled us, where we have felt compelled in deference to its popularity to insert a tune which we can not regard as free from serious defects, to give in connection with the same hymn a tune of better structure. Care has also been taken to preserve, as far as possible, established associations between hymns and tunes.

The hymns in this book are not arranged in numerical order as in the Sabbath Hymn Book. From the plan of the work, it was impossible that this should be done without sacrificing the proper adaptation of tunes to hymns. Yet it was deemed of great importance, for convenience in using the two books in the same congregation, that the hymns should be numbered alike in both books. It is supposed that the clergymen will always find it most convenient to use "The Sabbath Hymn Book" in selecting his hymns, because of its topical arrangement. When both books are used in the same congregation, it being understood that in the announcement of the page, reference is always made to "The Sabbath Hymn and Tune Book," the hymn may be given out thus: "450th Hymn; 42d page." Those who have only the Hymn Book will then turn immediately to the hymn by its number, while those who have the Hymn and Tune Book, will find it with equal ease by the page.

The Anthems contained in The Sabbath Hymn and Tune Book, are mostly those of the best English composers, and the few new ones are upon the same primitive Anglican model.

A new feature, at least in this country, in a book for Congregational Singing, is the introduction of short, easy Anthems. The words of these are mostly from the Psalms, and are peculiarly appropriate to the various occasions of public worship. The music is easy, and quite practicable to congregations which are willing to make a little effort to learn it. They will be found useful for choirs as well as congregations.

The Anthem No. 14 may derive some interest from the fact that it has been supposed to be an ancient Hebrew melody, and substantially the same as was used in the Temple worship.

Two of the Indexes in this volume refer to the numbers of the hymns, and not to the pages. The pages will be easily ascertained by reference to the Table on page II. It was found that the attempt to include in each case in these Indexes a reference to the page, as well as the number of the hymn, besides occupying a very large amount of space, would confuse the mind, and be inconvenient in many respects.

As we have already remarked, Congregational Singing may be led by a Choir. It may be led by a Precentor; yet he, if he is truly interested in his work, and if he sustains a proper relation to the congregation, would almost immediately gather around him a few aiding voices. In either case the accomplishment of an Organ, Organ Harmonium, or Melodeon, will be important. The choir, who lead, must be content to sing in a plain, simple manner, without any attempt at artistic effect. They should avoid everything which tends to confuse the congregation or to discourage the general participation in the song; and they should furnish a full volume of sound with which the people can readily unite. It is better that all should sing the melody, at least until the congregation become very thoroughly acquainted with it, and, under all circumstances, it is important that this part should be well sustained by men's voices. The singing of the four different parts is in fact singing four different tunes, and this causes confusion to those who have made little musical proficiency. These remarks may apply, also, in part at least, to the manner of playing the organ, which should have for its constant object the assisting of the people, all the people, in their song, and should avoid every thing having a tendency to mislead or confuse them.

Tunes should be used with which the congregation are familiar. New tunes may be introduced, one at a time, with more or less frequency, according to the facility with which the people learn them. The same tunes should be frequently repeated, since familiarity with the tune is necessary to any high degree of religious influence in the singing exercise. It is not an uncommon thing, in the German congregations, to hear the same tune to two hymns during the same service. It is important that every one in the congregation make, and continue, the effort to unite in the singing. If a man utter no sound which can be heard even by the person at his side, a good example, at least, is set which may encourage some one else to sing who would otherwise remain silent.
It is desirable that those who can do so should sing heartily, with open mouth and full voice, and not in the smothered, uncertain manner, which is too common, and affords poor encouragement and assistance to others.

The advantage of occasional meetings for singing need hardly be alluded to. We have reference now, not to the usual singing school, the object of which is to teach those who attend to read music, though it is most desirable that such should be encouraged, but to gatherings of all the people for the purpose of learning the tunes chiefly by rote. These should not degenerate into mere singing, but should be religious meetings. Let the hymns be sung through, and this with meaning. Success in Congregational Singing can not be expected without effort. There must be a willingness on the part of the people to make and persevere in this effort.

Finally, each one should make the song his own, assuming the words as real expressions of the inward sense of his own soul. Even although they may not always be strictly applicable to one’s circumstances, yet sympathizing with others, we should surely in this universal and delightful Song Service, rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. An esteemed writer, already quoted, in speaking of the old tunes, says: “If we would have these old tunes to perfection, we must attain more of the old-fashioned piety with which they were formerly sung.” If music be substituted for religion, and singing for devotion, the best tune and the best voices will neither increase religion, nor aid devotion. Unless Congregational Singing rest upon a religious foundation, it will be like the house built upon the sand. Unless it be conducted as a religious duty and privilege, it will fail to secure its legitimate ends. But where it is attempted and pursued in a right spirit and with proper efforts, there is no danger from the want of artistic culture.

“We now offer ‘The Sabbath Hymn and Tune Book’ to the churches, invoking the blessing of the Great Head of the Church upon our labors, that they may meet the wants of devout worshipers, and especially that they may be found conducive to the spirituality of ‘The Service of Song in the House of the Lord.’”

31. Old Version of the One Hundredth Psalm.

1 All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.

2 The Lord, ye know, is God, indeed,
Without our aid he did us make;
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep, he doth us take.

3 Oh, enter, then, his gates with praise;
Approach with joy his courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

4 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

32. "Glad homage."—Psalm 100.

1 With one consent, let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise;
Glad homage pay, with awful mirth,
And sing before him songs of praise.

2 Oh, enter ye his temple gate,
Thence to his courts devoutly press;
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still his name with praises bless.

3 For he's the Lord, supremely good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

34. "Enter into His gates with thanksgiving."
Psalm 100.

1 Ye nations round the earth, rejoice
Before the Lord, your sovereign King;
Serve him with cheerful heart and voice;
With all your tongues his glory sing.

2 The Lord is God; 'tis he alone
Doth life, and breath, and being give:
We are his work, and not our own;
The sheep that on his pastures live.

3 Enter his gates with songs of joy,
With praises to his courts repair;
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.

4 The Lord is good, the Lord is kind,
Great is his grace, his mercy sure;
And the whole race of man shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom earth and heaven adore.
Be glory as it was of old,
Is now, and shall be evermore!

1 How lovely are thy dwellings fair,
   O Lord of hosts! how dear
   The pleasant tabernacles are,
   Where thou dost dwell so near:
2 My soul doth long and, fainting, sigh
   Thy courts, O Lord, to see;
   My heart and flesh, aloud do cry,
   'O living God, for thee!'
3 Happy, who in thy house reside,
   Where thee they ever praise;
   Happy, whose strength in thee doth ride,
   And in their hearts thy ways.
4 They journey on from strength to strength
   With joy and gladsome cheer,
   Till all before our God at length
   In Zion do appear.
5 For God the Lord, both sun and shield,
   Gives grace and glory bright;
   No good from them shall be withheld,
   Whose ways are just and right.
6 Lord God of hosts, who reign'st on high!
   That man is truly blest
   Who doth on thee alone rely,
   In thee alone doth rest.

132. "Who, in the heaven, can be compared unto the Lord."—Psalm 89.

1 With reverence let the saints appear,
   And bow before the Lord;
   His high commands with reverence hear,
   And tremble at his word.
2 Great God! how high, thy glories rise!
   How bright thine armies shine!
   Where is the power with thee that vies,
   Or truth compared to thine?
3 The northern pole, and southern, rest
   On thy supporting hand;
   Darkness and day, from east to west,
   Move round at thy command.
4 Thy words the raging winds control,
   And rule the boisterous deep;
   Thou mak'st the sleeping billows roll,
   The rolling billows sleep.
5 Heaven, earth, and air, and sea are thine,
   And the dark world of hell;
   How did thine arm in vengeance shine,
   When Egypt durst rebel!
6 Justice and judgment are thy throne,
   Yet wondrous is thy grace;
   While truth and mercy joined in one,
   Invite us near thy face.

196. "In this will I be confident."—Psalm 46.

1 God is our refuge and our strength,
   When trouble's hour is near;
   A very present help is he;
   Therefore we will not fear.
2 Although the pillars of the earth
   Shall clean removed be,
   The very mountains carried forth,
   And cast into the sea;
3 Although the waters rage and swell,
   So that the earth shall shake;
   Yea, and the solid mountain roots
   Shall with the tempest quake;—
4 There is a river that makes glad
   The city of our God,—
   The tabernacle's holy place
   Of the Most High's abode.
5 The Lord is in the midst of her;
   Removed she shall not be,
   Because the Lord our God himself
   Shall help us speedily.
6 The Lord our strength and refuge is,
   When trouble's hour is near;
   A very present help is he;
   Therefore we will not fear.
52. "Be Thou exalted, O God, above the Heavens."—Psalm 57.
1 O God, my heart is fully bent
   To magnify thy name;
   My tongue, with cheerful songs of praise,
   Shall celebrate thy fame.
2 Awake, my lute, nor thou, my harp,
   Thy warbling notes delay;
   While I, with early hymns of joy,
   Prevent the dawning day.
3 To all the listening tribes, O Lord,
   Thy wonders I will tell;
   And to those nations sing thy praise
   That round about us dwell;—
4 Because thy mercy's boundless height
   The highest heaven transcends,
   And far beyond th' aspiring clouds
   Thy faithful truth extends.
5 Be thou, O God, exalted high
   Above the starry frame;
   And let the world, with one consent,
   Confess thy glorious name.

1 Ye hosts of heaven, ye mighty ones,
   Ascribe, with one accord,
   The strength, the power, the majesty,
   To your almighty Lord.
2 Give glory to his holy name,
   And honor him alone;
   In beauty meet of holiness
   Approach his lofty throne.
3 Jehovah's voice of majesty
   Is on the waters wide;
   The God of glory thundereth,
   And on the seas doth ride,
4 Jehovah sits upon the floods,
   And tempests rage in vain;
   Jehovah sits as Sovereign King,
   And evermore shall reign.

1 On, praise the Lord! for he is good;
   In him we rest obtain;
   His mercy has through ages stood,
   And ever shall remain.
2 Let all the people of the Lord
   His praises spread around;
   Let them his grace and love record,
   Who have salvation found.
3 Now let the cast in him rejoice,
   The west its tribute bring,
   The north and south lift up their voice
   In honor of their King.
4 Oh, praise the Lord! for he is good;
   In him we rest obtain;
   His mercy has through ages stood,
   And ever shall remain.

486. "Oh, how I love thy Law!"—Psalm 119.
1 On, how I love thy holy law!
   'Tis daily my delight;
   And thence my meditations draw
   Divine advice by night.
2 My waking eyes prevent the day
   To meditate thy word;
   My soul with longing melts away
   To hear thy gospel, Lord.
3 How doth thy word my heart engage!
   How well employ my tongue!
   And in my tiresome pilgrimage
   Yields me a heavenly song.
4 When nature sinks, and spirits droop,
   Thy promises of grace
   Are pillars to support my hope,
   And there I write thy praise.
11. "Thou, Lord, hast made me glad through Thy work."—Psalm 92.

1 Sweet is the work, my God, my King,
To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing;
To show thy love by morning light,
And talk of all thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest;
No mortal cares shall seize my breast:
Oh, may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound!

3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless his works, and bless his word;
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
How deep thy counsels, how divine!

4 Fools never raise their thoughts so high;
Like brutes they live, like brutes they die;
Like grass they flourish, till thy breath
Blast them in everlasting death.

5 But I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

6 Then shall I see, and hear, and know
All I desired or wished below;
And every power find sweet employ
In that eternal world of joy.

74. "I heard the voice of a great multitude."

1 Millions within thy courts have met,
Millions, this day, before thee bowed;
Their faces Zion-ward were set,
Vows with their lips to thee they vowed.

2 Soon as the light of morning broke
O'er island, continent, or deep,
Thy far-spread family awoke.
Sabbath, all round the world, to keep.

3 From east to west, the sun surveyed,
From north to south, adoring throngs;
And still, when evening stretched her shade,
The stars came out to hear their songs.

4 Not angel-trumpets sound more clear;
Not elders' harps, nor seraphs' lays.
Yield sweeter music to thine ear,
Than humble prayer and thankful praise.

5 And not a prayer, a tear, a sigh,
Hath failed this day some suit to gain;
To those in trouble, thou wert nigh:
Not one hath sought thy face in vain.

6 Yet one prayer more!—and be it one,
In which both heaven and earth accord:
Fulfill thy promise to thy Son;
Let all that breathe call Jesus Lord!
469. Praise to the Trinity.

1 Praises to him who built the hills;
Praises to him the streams who fills;
Praises to him who lights each star
That sparkles in the blue afar.

2 Praises to him who wakes the morn,
And bids it glow with beams new-born;
Who draws the shadows of the night,
Like curtains, o'er our wearied sight.

3 Praises to him whose love has given,
In Christ his Son, the life of heaven;
Who for our darkness, gives us light,
And turns to day our deepest night.

4 Praises to him in grace who came
To bear our woe and sin and shame;
Who lived to die, who died to rise,
The God-accepted sacrifice.

5 Praises to him the chain who broke,
Opened the prison, burst the yoke,
Sent forth the captives glad and free,
Heirs of an endless liberty.

6 Praises to him who sheds abroad
Within our hearts the love of God,—
The Spirit of all truth and peace,
The Source of joy and holiness.

7 To Father, Son, and Spirit, now
The hands we lift, the knee we bow
To God Jehovah thus we raise
The ransomed sinner's song of praise!

And mount, and bear us far above
The reach of these inferior things,—

2 Beyond, beyond this lower sky,
Up where eternal ages roll,
Where solid pleasures never die,
And fruits immortal feast the soul.

3 Oh for a sight, a pleasing sight,
Of our almighty Father's throne;
There sits our Saviour, crowned with light,
Clothed in a body like our own.

4 Adoring saints around him stand,
And thrones and powers before him fall:
The God shines gracious through the Man,
And sheds sweet glories on them all.

5 Oh! what amazing joys they feel,
While to their golden harps they sing,
And sit on every heavenly hill,
And spread the triumph of their King!

6 When shall the day, dear Lord, appear,
That I shall mount to dwell above;
And stand, and bow, among them there,
And view thy face, and sing, and love!

Doxology.

Eternal Father! throned above,
Thou Fountain of redeeming love!
Eternal Word! who left thy throne
For man's rebellion to atone;
Eternal Spirit, who dost give
That grace whereby our spirits live:
Thou God of our salvation, be
Eternal praises paid to thee!
12. "It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord."
Psalm 92.

1 Sweet is the work, O Lord,
Thy glorious acts to sing,
To praise thy name, and hear thy word,
And grateful offerings bring.

2 Sweet, at the dawning light,
Thy boundless love to tell;
And when approach the shades of night,
Still on the theme to dwell.

3 Sweet, on this day of rest,
To join in heart and voice
With those who love and serve thee best,
And in thy name rejoice.

4 To songs of praise and joy,
Be every Sabbath given,
That such may be our blest employ
Eternally in heaven.

22. "The place where Thine honor dwelleth."

1 How charming is the place
Where my Redeemer, God,
Unvails the beauties of his face,
And sheds his love abroad!

2 Here, on the mercy-seat,
With radiant glory crowned,
Our joyful eyes behold him sit,
And smile on all around.

3 To him our prayers and cries
Our humble souls present;
He listens to our broken sighs,
And grants us every want.

4 Give me, O Lord, a place
Within thy blest abode,
Among the children of thy grace,
The servants of my God.
1 To praise our Shepherd's care,
His wisdom, love, and might,
Your loudest, loftiest songs prepare,
And bid the world unite.

2 Supremely good and great,
He tends his blood-bought fold;
He stoops, though throned in highest state,
The feeblest to uphold.

3 He hears their softest plaint;
He sees them when they roam;
And if his meanest lamb should faint,
His bosom bears it home.

4 Kind Shepherd of the sheep!
A weary flock are we;
And snares and foes are nigh; but keep
The lambs who look to thee.

5 And if through death's dark vale
Our feet should early tread,
Oh, may we reach thy fold, and hail
The love which us hath led!

TYTHERTON. S. M.

1 Great is the Lord our God,
And let his praise be great;
He makes his churches his abode,
His most delightful seat.

2 These temples of his grace—
How beautiful they stand!
The honors of our native place,
And bulwarks of our land.

3 In Zion God is known,
A refuge in distress;
How bright has his salvation shone
Through all her palaces!

4 Oft have our fathers told,
Our eyes have often seen.
How well our God secures the fold
Where his own sheep have been.

5 In every new distress
We'll to his house repair,
We'll think upon his wondrous grace,
And seek deliverance there.
54. "Welcome, delightful morn."

1 Welcome, delightful morn,
Thou day of sacred rest!
I hail thy kind return;—
Lord, make these moments blest:
From the low train I soar to reach
Of mortal toys, immortal joys.

2 Now may the King descend
And fill his throne of grace;
Thy scepter, Lord, extend,
While saints address thy face:
Let sinners feel And learn to know
Thy quickening word, And fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Disclose a Saviour's love,
And bless the sacred hours:
Then shall my soul Nor Sabbaths be
New life obtain, Enjoyed in vain.

58. "The day that God hath blessed."

1 Awake, ye saints, awake!
And hail this sacred day;
In loftiest songs of praise
Your joyful homage pay:
Come bless the day that God hath blest,
The type of heaven's eternal rest.

2 On this auspicious morn
The Lord of life arose;
He burst the bars of death,
And vanquished all our foes;
And now he pleads our cause above,
And reaps the fruit of all his love.

3 All hail, triumphant Lord!
Heaven with hosannas rings,
And earth, in humbler strains,
Thy praise responsive sings:
Worthy the Lamb, that once was slain,
Thro' endless years to live and reign.

114. "Praise the Lord from the earth."

1 Angels, assist to sing
The honors of your God;
Touch every tuneful string,
And sound his name abroad:
Come, pour the trembling notes along,
And swell the grand, immortal song.

2 And ye of meaner birth,
Your joyful voices raise;
All ye who dwell on earth,
Your great Creator praise;
Let loud hosannas joyful rise,
Roll round the earth and pierce the skies.

3 Let day and dusky night,
In solemn order, join
His praises to recite,
And speak his power divine:
Let every hill, and every vale,
Re-echo with the sacred tale.

4 Ye winds and raging seas,
With wild tempestuous roar
Resound, in mightier lays,
His name from shore to shore:
Ye thunders, spread his name abroad;
Ye lightnings, flash before your God.

5 Let every creature sing
The honors of our God;
Touch every tuneful string,
And spread his praise abroad:
Come, pour your trembling notes along,
And swell the universal song.
120. Adoration of the Creator. Psalm 148.

1 Ye tribes of Adam, join
With heaven, and earth, and seas,
And offer notes divine
To your Creator's praise:
Ye holy throno, | In worlds of light,
Of angels bright, | Begin the song.

2 Thou sun, with dazzling rays,
And moon, that rul'st the night,
Shine to your Maker's praise.
With stars of twinkling light
His power declare, | And clouds that fly
Ye floods on high, | In empty air.

3 The shining worlds above
In glorious order stand;
Or in swift courses move
By his supreme command;
He spake the word, | From nothing came,
And all their frame | To praise the Lord!

4 Ye vapors, hail, and snow,
Praise ye th'almighty Lord;
And stormy winds that blow
To execute his word:
When lightnings shine, | Let earth adore
Or thunders roar, | His hand divine.

5 Let all the nations fear
The God that rules above;
He brings his people near,
And makes them taste his love:
While earth and sky | His saints shall raise
Attempt his praise, | His honors high.

440. "Chosen of God and precious."

1 Join all the glorious names
Of wisdom, love, and power,
That ever mortals knew,
That angels ever bore:
All are too mean to speak his worth,
Too mean to set my Saviour forth.

2 Great Prophet of our God!
My tongue would bless thy name;
By thee the joyful news
Of our salvation came:
The joyful news of sins forgiven,
Of hell subdued, and peace with heaven.

3 Jesus, our great High Priest,
Offered his blood and died;
My guilty conscience seeks
No sacrifice beside:
His powerful blood did once atone,
And now it pleads before the throne.

4 O thou almighty Lord!
My Conqueror and my King!
Thy scepter and thy sword.
Thy reigning grace I sing:
Thine is the power; behold, I sit,
In willing bonds, beneath thy feet.

DOXOLOGY.

To God the Father's throne
Your highest honors raise;
Glory to God the Son,
To God the Spirit praise:
With all our powers, eternal King!
Thy name we sing, while faith adores.
27. "Peace be within thee."—Psalm 122.

1 How did my heart rejoice to hear
   My friends devoutly say:
   "In Zion let us all appear,
   And keep the solemn day."
2 I love her gates, I love the road;
   The church, adorned with grace,
   Stands like a palace, built for God,
   To show his milder face.
3 Up to her courts, with joys unknown,
   The Son of David holds his throne,
   And sits in judgment there.
4 He hears our praises and complaints;
   And, while his awful voice
   Divides the sinners from the saints,
   We tremble and rejoice.
5 Peace be within this sacred place,
   And joy a constant guest!
   With holy gifts and heavenly grace
   Be her attendants blest!
6 My soul shall pray for Zion still,
   While life or breath remains;
   There my best friends, my kindred, dwell;
   There God, my Saviour, reigns.

1 Let all the lands, with shouts of joy,
   To God their voices raise:
   Sing psalms in honor of his name,
   And spread his glorious praise.
2 And let them say, "How dreadful, Lord,
   In all thy works art thou!
   To thy great power thy stubborn foes
   Shall all be forced to bow.
3 "Through all the earth, the nations round
   Shall thee, their God, confess;
   And, with glad hymns, their awful dread
   Of thy great name express.'
4 Oh, come, behold the works of God!
   And then with me you'll own
   That he to all the sons of men
   Hath wondrous judgments shown.
5 Let all the lands, with shouts of joy,
   To God their voices raise;
   Sing psalms in honor of his name,
   And spread his glorious praise.

118. "A God doing wonders."

1 I sing th' almighty power of God,
   That made the mountains rise,
   That spread the flowing seas abroad,
   And built the lofty skies.
2 I sing the wisdom that ordained
   The sun to rule the day;
   The moon shines full at his command,
   And all the stars obey.
3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
   That filled the earth with food;
   He formed the creatures with his word,
   And then pronounced them good.
4 Lord, how thy wonders are displayed,
   Where'er I turn mine eye;
   If I survey the ground I tread,
   Or gaze upon the sky?
5 There's not a plant or flower below
   But makes thy glories known;
   And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
   By order from thy throne.
6 Creatures that borrow life from thee
   Are subject to thy care:
   There's not a place where we can flee,
   But God is present there.
885. "Am I a soldier of the cross?"

1 Am I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb!
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign:
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thine armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

346. Hosanna to the Name of Christ.

1 Now joyful strains we lift on high,
Amid the faithful throng
Of those who Jesus magnify
In sweet and holy song.

2 We render thanks, and bless the Lord,
Who died our souls to save;
Through whom to heavenly peace restored,
We fear no more the grave.

3 With saints, who all triumphantly
In paradise record,
O'er sin and death, the victory,
We strike the silver chord.

4 With angel-hosts that dwell above,
And weave their golden lays
Around the throne of truth and love,
We glad hosannas raise.

5 We celebrate the glorious name
Of earth's Redeemer King;
Our tongues aloud his power proclaim,
In heart his grace we sing.

378. Christ's Entrance upon His Kingdom.

1 Oh, for a shout of sacred joy
To God, the sovereign King!
Let every land their tongues employ,
And hymns of triumph sing.

2 Jesus, our God, ascends on high;
His heavenly guards around
Attend him rising through the sky,
With trumpets' joyful sound.

3 While angels shout and praise their King,
Let mortals learn their strains;
Let all the earth his honor sing:
O'er all the earth he reigns.

4 Rehearse his praise with awe profound:
Let knowledge lead the song;
Nor mock him with a solemn sound
Upon a thoughtless tongue.

5 Oh, for a shout of sacred joy
To God, the sovereign King!
Let every land their tongues employ,
And hymns of triumph sing.

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore!
81.  "Within the vail."

1 To thy temple I repair;
   Lord, I love to worship there,
   When within the vail I meet
   Thee before the mercy seat.

2 While thy glorious praise is sung,
   Touch my lips, unloose my tongue;
   That my joyful soul may bless
   Thee, the Lord, my Righteousness.

3 While the prayers of saints ascend,
   God of love! to mine attend;
   Hear me, for thy Spirit pleads;
   Hear, for Jesus intercedes.

4 He can raise the poor to stand
   With the princes of the land;
   Wealth upon the needy shower;
   Set the lowliest high in power.

5 He the broken spirit cheers,
   Turns to joy the mourner's tears,
   Such the wonders of his ways:
   Praise his name, for ever praise.

227. A Song of Joy in God's Providence.

1 Thou, who dwellest enthroned above;
   Thou, in whom we live and move;
   Thou, who art most great, most high—
   God from all eternity!

2 Oh, how sweet, how excellent
   When all tongues and hearts consent.
   Grateful hearts, and joyful tongues,
   Hymning thee in tuneful songs!

3 When the morning paints the skies.
   When the stars of evening rise,
   We thy praises will record,
   Sovereign Ruler, mighty Lord!

4 Decks the spring with flowers the field?
   Harvest rich doth autumn yield?
   Giver of all good below,
   Lord, from thee these blessings flow.

5 Sovereign Ruler! mighty Lord!
   We thy praises will record:
   Giver of these blessings, we
   Pour the grateful song to thee.

   Psalm 113.

1 HALLELUJAH! raise, oh, raise
   To our God the song of praise:
   All his servants join to sing,
   God, our Saviour and our King.

2 Blessed be for evermore
   That dread name which we adore:
   O'er all nations, God alone,
   Higher than the heavens his throne.

3 Yet to view the heavens he bends;
   Yea, to earth he condescends;
   Passing by the rich and great,
   For the low and desolate.

4 Decks the spring with flowers the field?
   Harvest rich doth autumn yield?
   Giver of all good below,
   Lord, from thee these blessings flow.

5 Sovereign Ruler! mighty Lord!
   We thy praises will record:
   Giver of these blessings, we
   Pour the grateful song to thee.

261. "The Heavenly theme."

1 Now begin the heavenly theme,
   Sing aloud of Jesus' name;
   Ye, who his salvation prove,
   Triumph in redeeming love.
2 Mourning souls, dry up your tears,
Banish all your guilty fears:
See your guilt and curse remove,
CANCELED BY REDEEMING LOVE.

3 Welcome, all by sin oppressed,
Welcome to his sacred rest:
Nothing brought him from above,
Nothing but redeeming love.

4 Hither, then, your music bring,
Strike along each joyful string:
Mortals, join the hosts above,
JOIN TO PRAISE REDEEMING LOVE!

1 Hail the night, all hail the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born!
When, amid the wakeful fold,
TIDINGS GOOD THE ANGEL TOLD.

2 Now our solemn chant we raise
DULY TO THE SAVIOUR’S PRAISE;
Now with carol hymns we bless
CHRIST THE LORD, OUR Righteousness.

3 While resounds the joyful cry,
“GLORY BE TO GOD ON HIGH,
Peace on earth, good will to men!”
GLADLY WE RESPOND, “Amen!”

4 Thus we greet this holy day,
Pouring forth our festive lay;
Thus we tell, with saintly mirth,
OF INMANUEL’S WONDROUS BIRTH.

5 We in perfect peace would live,
We to God would glory give;
Lauding, with the heavenly host,
FATHER, SON, AND Holy Ghost.

1076. Children's Praise to the Trinity.
1 GLORY TO THE FATHER GIVE,
God, in whom we move and live!
Children’s prayers he deigns to hear;
Children’s songs delight his ear.

2 GLORY TO THE SON WE BRING,
Christ our Prophet, Priest, and King!
Children! raise your sweetest strain
TO THE LAMB, FOR HE WAS SLAIN.

3 GLORY TO THE HOLY GHOST!
Be this day a Pentecost;
Children’s minds may he inspire,—
TOUCH THEIR TONGUES WITH HOLY FIRE.

4 GLORY IN THE HIGHEST BE TO THE BLESSED TRINITY!
For the gospel from above,
FOR THE WORD THAT “God IS LOVE.”

1146. Thanksgiving for a Revival of Religion.
1 FOUND OF EVERLASTING LOVE!
Rich thy streams of mercy are—
Flowing pure from above,
BEAUTY MARKS THEIR COURSE AFAR.

2 LO! THY CHURCH, THY GARDEN NOW
BLOOMS BENEATH THE HEAVENLY SHOWER;
Sinners feel, and melt, and bow:
MILD, YET MIGHTY, IS THY POWER.

3 God of grace, before thy throne
Here our warmest thanks we bring;
Thine the glory, thine alone:
LODEST PRAISE TO THEE WE SING.

4 HEAR, OH, HEAR, OUR GRATEFUL SONG;
Let thy Spirit still descend;
ROLL THE TIDE OF GRACE ALONG,
WIDENING, DEEPENING TO THE END.
1. Be thou exalted, O my God!
   Above the heavens where angels dwell;
   Thy power on earth be known abroad,
   And land to land thy wonders tell.

2. My heart is fixed; my song shall raise
   Immortal honors to thy name;
   Awake, my tongue, to sound his praise,
   My tongue, the glory of my frame.

3. High o'er the earth his mercy reigns,
   And reaches to the utmost sky;
   His truth to endless years remains,
   When lower worlds dissolve and die.

4. Be thou exalted, O my God!
   Above the heavens where angels dwell;
   Thy power on earth be known abroad,
   And land to land thy wonders tell.

103. Brief Call to Praise, from Psalm 117.

1. From all that dwell below the skies,
   Let the Creator's praise arise;
   Let the Redeemer's name be sung,
   Through every land, by every tongue.

2. Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
   Eternal truth attends thy word:
   Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
   Till suns shall rise and set no more!

129. The Glory of God.

1. Come, O my soul! in sacred lays,
   Attempt thy great Creator's praise;
   But, oh, what tongue can speak his fame!
   What mortal verse can reach the theme?

2. Enthroned amid the radiant spheres,
   He, glory, like a garment, wears;
   To form a robe of light divine,
   Ten thousand suns around him shine.

3. In all our Maker's grand designs,
   Almighty power, with wisdom, shines;
   His works, thro' all this wondrous frame,
   Declare the glory of his name.

4. Raised on devotion's lofty wing,
   Do thou, my soul, his glories sing;
   And let his praise employ thy tongue,
   Till listening worlds shall join the song!

Doxology.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!
Praise him, all creatures here below!
Praise him above, ye heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
145. "Thou art from everlasting."—Psalm 93.

1 Jehovah reigns! He dwells in light,
Girded with majesty and might;
The world, created by his hands,
Still on its firm foundation stands.

2 But ere this spacious world was made,
Or had its first foundation laid,
Thy throne eternal ages stood,
Thyself the ever-living God.

3 Like floods the angry nations rise,
And aim their rage against the skies:
Vain floods, that aim their rage so high!
At thy rebuke the billows die.

4 For ever shall thy throne endure:
Thy promise stand for ever sure;
And everlasting holiness
Becomes the dwelling of thy grace.

175. "O God, Most hidden, and Most manifest!"

1 What secret place, what distant star,
Is like, dread Lord, to thine abode?
Why dwellest thou from us so far?
We yearn for thee, thou hidden God!

2 And will the hidden God appear?
We hail thee in the living Word;
Thy heavenly Majesty draws near,
In Christ, our Brother and our Lord.

3 In vain we seek for thine abode;
And wilt thou ever to us come?
The Holy Ghost, the mighty God,
Now makes our souls his blessed home.

4 O Glory that no eye can bear!
O Presence bright, our inward Guest!
O Farthest off! O Ever near!
Most hidden and Most manifest!

1156. "Still we are guarded by our God."

1 Great God! we sing that mighty hand,
By which supported still we stand:
The opening year thy mercy shows;
That mercy crowns it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still we are guarded by our God;
By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own;
The future, all to us unknown,
We to thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or depressed,
Be thou our joy, and thou our rest;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.
DeaL. S. M. Double.

1 Glad was my heart to hear
   My old companions say:
   "Come, in the house of God appear,
   For 'tis a holy day."

2 Our willing feet shall stand
   Within the temple-door,
   While young and old, in many a band,
   Shall throng the sacred floor.

3 Thither the tribes repair,
   Where all are wont to meet,
   And joyful in the house of prayer
   Bend at the mercy-seat.

4 Pray for Jerusalem,
   The city of our God:
   The Lord from heaven be kind to them,
   That love the dear abode.

5 Within these walls may peace
   And harmony be found!
   Zion! in all thy palaces,
   Prosperity abound!

6 For friends and brethren dear,
   Our prayer shall never cease;
   Oft as they meet for worship here,
   God send his people peace!

224. "And all that is within me bless His holy name."—Psalm 103.

1 Oh, bless the Lord, my soul!
   Nor let his mercies lie
   Forgotten in unthankfulness,
   And without praises die.

2 Oh, bless the Lord, my soul!
   His grace to thee proclaim;
   And all that is within me join
   To bless his holy name.

3 'Tis he forgives thy sins;
   'T is he relieves thy pain;
   'T is he that heals thy sicknesses,
   And makes thee young again.

4 He crowns thy life with love,
   When ransomed from the grave;
   He who redeemed my soul from hell,
   Hath sovereign power to save.

5 He fills the poor with good;
   He gives the sufferers rest:
   The Lord hath judgments for the proud,
   And justice for th' oppressed.

6 His wondrous works and ways
   He made by Moses known;
   But sent the world his truth and grace
   By his beloved Son.

223. "Bless the Lord, O my soul!"
   Psalm 103.

1 Oh, bless the Lord, my soul!
   Let all within me join,
   And aid my tongue to bless his name,
   Whose favors are divine.
3 He will not always chide:
   He will with patience wait:
   His wrath is ever slow to rise,
   And ready to abate.

4 He pardons all thy sins,
   Prolongs thy feeble breath;
   He healeth thy infirmities,
   And ransoms thee from death.

5 He clothes thee with his love,
   Upholds thee with his truth;
   Then, like the eagle, he renews
   The vigor of thy youth.

6 Then bless his holy name,
   Whose grace hath made thee whole;
   Whose loving kindness crowns thy days:
   Oh, bless the Lord, my soul!

246. "To the only wise God, our Saviour."
Jude 24, 25.

1 To God, the only wise,
   Our Saviour and our King;
   Let all the saints below the skies
   Their humble praises bring.

2 'Tis his almighty love,
   His counsel and his care,
   Preserves us safe from sin and death,
   And every hurtful snare.

3 He will present our souls,
   Unblemished and complete,
   Before the glory of his face,
   With joys divinely great.

4 Then all the chosen seed
   Shall meet around the throne,
   Shall bless the conduct of his grace,
   And make his wonders known.

5 To our Redeemer, God,
   Wisdom and power belong,
   Immortal crowns of majesty,
   And everlasting song.

968. "Rejoicing in hope."

1 Come, we who love the Lord,
   And let our joys be known;
   Join in a song of sweet accord,
   And thus surround the throne.

2 Let those refuse to sing
   Who never knew our God;
   But favorites of the heavenly King
   May speak their joys abroad.

3 The men of grace have found
   Glory begun below;
   Celestial fruits on earthly ground
   From faith and hope may grow.

4 The hill of Zion yields
   A thousand sacred sweets
   Before we reach the heavenly fields,
   Or walk the golden streets.

5 Then let our songs abound,
   And every tear be dry;
   We're marching through Immanuel's ground,
   To fairer worlds on high.

102. Brief Asscription of Praise, from Psalm 117.

1 Thy name, almighty Lord,
   Shall sound through distant lands;
   Great is thy grace, and sure thy word;
   Thy truth for ever stands.

2 Far be thine honor spread,
   And long thy praise endure,
   Till morning light and evening shade
   Shall be exchanged no more.

   Doxology.
   To God, the Father, Son,
   And Spirit, glory be,
   As was, and is, and shall remain
   Through all eternity!
23. "This is the day which the Lord hath made."
Psalm 118.

1 This is the day the Lord hath made;
   He calls the hours his own;
   Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
   And praise surround the throne.

2 To-day he rose, and left the dead,
   And Satan's empire fell;
   To-day the saints his triumph spread,
   And all his wonders tell.

3 Hosanna to th' anointed King,
   To David's holy Son:
   Help us, O Lord! descend and bring
   Salvation from thy throne.

4 Blest be the Lord who comes to men
   With messages of grace;
   Who comes in God his Father's name,
   To save our sinful race.

5 Hosanna in the highest strains
   The church on earth can raise;
   The highest heavens, in which he reigns,
   Shall give him nobler praise.

60. "Come, see the place where the Lord lay."

1 Again the Lord of life and light
   Awakes the kindling ray,
   Unseals the eyelids of the morn,
   And pours refulgent day.

2 Oh, what a night was that which wrapt
   A guilty world in gloom!
   Oh, what a Sun, which broke this day,
   Triumphant from the tomb!

3 This day be grateful homage paid,
   And loud hosannas sung;
   Let gladness dwell in every heart,
   And praise on every tongue.

4 Ten thousand thousand lips shall join
   To hail this happy morn,
   Which scatters blessings from its wings
   On nations yet unborn.

327. "The unsearchable riches of Christ."

1 To our Redeemer's glorious name
   Awake the sacred song;
   Oh, may his love—immortal flame—
   Tune every heart and tongue.

2 His love, what mortal thought can reach!
   What mortal tongue display;
   Imagination's utmost stretch
   In wonder dies away.

3 Dear Lord, while we, adoring, pay
   Our humble thanks to thee,
   May every heart with rapture say,
   "The Saviour died for me!"

4 Oh, may the sweet, the blissful theme
   Fill every heart and tongue!
   Till strangers love thy charming name,
   And join the sacred song.

483. The Bible the Light of the World.

1 A glory gilds the sacred page,
   Majestic, like the sun:
   It gives a light to every age;
   It gives, but borrows none.

2 The hand that gave it still supplies
   The gracious light and heat:
   Its truths upon the nations rise;
   They rise, but never set.

3 Let everlasting thanks be thine
   For such a bright display,
   As makes a world of darkness shine
   With beams of heavenly day.

4 My soul rejoices to pursue
   The steps of him I love,
   Till glory breaks upon my view
   In brighter worlds above!
797. "I'm not ashamed to own my Lord." 2 Tim. 1: 12.
1 I'm not ashamed to own my Lord,
Or to defend his cause;
Maintain the honor of his word,
The glory of his cross.
2 Jesus, my God!—I know his name—
His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.
3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands,
Till the decisive hour.
4 Then will he own my worthless name
Before his Father's face,
And in the new Jerusalem
Appoint my soul a place.

880. The Heavenly Race.
1 Awake, my soul! stretch every nerve,
And press with vigor on:
A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
A bright, immortal crown.
2 A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.
3 'Tis God's all animating voice,
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye,—
4 That prize with peerless glories bright,
Which shall new luster boast,
When victor's wreaths and monarch's gems
Shall blend in common dust.
5 Blest Saviour, introduced by thee,
Have I my race begun;
And, crowned with victory, at thy feet
I'll lay my honors down.

1016. "Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven."
1 Salvation! oh, the joyful sound!
'Tis pleasure to our ears;
A sovereign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.
2 Buried in sorrow and in sin,
At hell's dark door we lay;
But we arise by grace divine,
To see a heavenly day.
3 Salvation! let the echo fly
The spacious earth around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

1 How honored is the sacred place,
Where we adoring stand—
Zion! the glory of the earth,
And beauty of the land!
2 Bulwarks of mighty grace defend
The city where we dwell:
The walls, of strong salvation made,
Defy th' assaults of hell.
3 Lift up the everlasting gates,
The doors wide open fling;
Enter, ye nations that obey
The statutes of our King.
4 Here shall you taste unmingled joys,
And live in perfect peace;
You who have known Jehovah's name,
And ventured on his grace.
5 Trust in the Lord; for ever trust,
And banish all your fears:
Strength in the Lord Jehovah dwells,
Eternal as his years.
56. "Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem."—Psalm 122.

1 The festal morn, my God, is come,
That calls me to thy sacred dome,
Thy presence to adore:
My feet the summons shall attend,
With willing steps thy courts ascend,
And tread the hallowed floor.

2 With holy joy I hail the day
That warms my thirsting soul away
To dwell among the blest!
For, lo! my great Redeemer's power
Unfolds the everlasting door,
And leads me to his rest!

3 Hither, from earth's remotest end,
Lo! the redeemed of God ascend,
Their tribute hither bring:
Here, crowned with everlasting joy,
In hymns of praise their tongues employ,
And hail th' immortal King.

117. There is a God.

I I sing of God,—the world he made,
The glorious light, the soothing shade;
Dale, plain, and grove, and hill;
The wide and fathomless abyss,
Where nature joys in secret bliss,
And wisdom hides her skill.

2 "Tell them, I am," Jehovah said:
The listening ear did hear in dread;
And, smitten to the heart,
At once, above, beneath, around,
All nature, without voice or sound,
Replied, "O Lord, Thou art!"

703. The Fullness of Christ's Love.

1 O love divine, how sweet thou art!
When shall I find my willing heart
All taken up by thee?
I thirst, I faint, I die to prove
The greatness of redeeming love,—
The love of Christ to me.

2 Stronger his love than death or hell:
No mortal can its riches tell,
Nor first-born sons of light:
In vain they long its depths to see;
They can not reach the mystery,—
The length, the breadth, the height.

3 God only knows the love of God;
Oh that it now were shed abroad
In this poor, stony heart!
For love I sigh, for love I pine;
This only portion, Lord, be mine—
Be mine this better part.

4 Oh that I could for ever sit
In transport at my Saviour's feet!
Be this my happy choice;
My only care, delight, and bliss,
My joy, my heaven on earth, be this,
To hear my Saviour's voice.

DOXOLOGY.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God, whom heaven's triumphant host
And saints on earth adore,
Be glory as in ages past,
Is now, and shall for ever last,
When time shall be no more!
433. "The unsearchable riches of Christ."

1 On, could I speak the matchless worth,
Oh, could I sound the glories forth
Which in my Saviour shine!
I'd soar, and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel, while he sings,
In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin and wrath divine:
I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all perfect, heavenly dress,
My soul shall ever shine.

3 I'd sing the characters he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne:
In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would to everlasting days
Make all his glories known.

4 Well, the delightful day will come
When my dear Lord will bring me home,
And I shall see his face;
Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in his grace.

1154. "The earth is full of Thy riches."

1 Thy mighty working, mighty God!
Wakes all my powers; I look abroad,
And can no longer rest;
I, too, must sing when all things sing,
And from my heart the praises ring
The Highest loveth best.

2 If thou, in thy great love to us,
Wilt scatter joy and beauty thus
O'er this poor earth of ours;
What nobler glories shall be given
Hereafter in thy shining heaven,
Set round with golden towers!

3 What thrilling joy, when on our sight
Christ's garden beams in cloudless light
Where all the air is sweet;
Still laden with th' unwearied hymn
From all the thousand seraphim
Who God's high praise repeat!

4 Oh, were I there! oh that I now
Before thy throne, my God, could bow,
And bear my heavenly palm!
Then, like the angels, would I raise
My voice, and sing thine endless praise
In many a sweet-toned psalm.
18. "Peace be within thy walls."—Psalm 122.
1 With joy we hail the sacred day
   Which God hath called his own;
   With joy the summons we obey
   To worship at his throne.

2 Thy chosen temple, Lord, how fair!
   Where willing votaries throng
   To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
   And pour the choral song.

3 Spirit of grace! Oh, deign to dwell
   Within thy church below;
   Make her in holiness excel,
   With pure devotion glow.

4 Let peace within her walls be found;
   Let all her sons unite
   To spread, with grateful zeal, around
   Her clear and shining light.

5 Great God, we hail the sacred day
   Which thou hast called thine own;
   With joy the summons we obey
   To worship at thy throne.

20. "One thing have I desired of the Lord."—Psalm 27.
1 The Lord of glory is my light,
   And my salvation, too;
   God is my strength, nor will I fear
   What all my foes can do.

2 One privilege my heart desires;
   Oh, grant me an abode
   Among the churches of thy saints,
   The temples of my God!

3 There shall I offer my requests,
   And see thy beauty still;
   Shall hear thy messages of love,
   And there inquire thy will.

4 When troubles rise, and storms appear,
   There may his children hide;
   God has a strong pavilion, where
   He makes my soul abide.

5 Now shall my head be lifted high
   Above my foes around;
   And songs of joy and victory
   Within thy temple sound.

43. "My voice shall Thou hear in the morning."—Psalm 5.
1 Lord! in the morning thou shalt hear
   My voice ascending high;
   To thee will I direct my prayer,
   To thee lift up mine eye;

2 Up to the hills where Christ is gone,
   To plead for all his saints,
   Presenting at his Father’s throne
   Our songs and our complaints.

3 Thou art a God before whose sight
   The wicked shall not stand;
   Sinners shall ne’er be thy delight,
   Nor dwell at thy right hand.

4 But to thy house will I resort,
   To taste thy mercies there;
   I will frequent thy holy court,
   And worship in thy fear.

5 Oh, may thy Spirit guide my feet
   In ways of righteousness!
   Make every path of duty straight,
   And plain before my face.

1 Thou art the Way: to thee alone
   From sin and death we flee;
   And he who would the Father seek.
   Must seek him, Lord, by thee.
2 Thou art the Truth: thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst instruct the mind,
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the Life: the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.

4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life:
Grant us to know that Way;
That Truth to keep, that Life to win,
Which leads to endless day.

529. "Come to the Ark."—Gen. 7: 1.

1 Come to the ark, come to the ark;
   To Jesu ... e breast.
   The pestilence walks forth by night,
   The arrow flies by day.

2 Come to the ark: the waters rise,
   The seas their billows rear;
   While darkness gathers o'er the skies,
   Behold a refuge near!

3 Come to the ark, all, all that weep
   Beneath the sense of sin:
   Without, deep calleth unto deep,
   But all is peace within.

4 Come to the ark, ere yet the flood
   Your lingering steps oppose;
   Come, for the door, which open stood,
   Is now about to close.

1 Walk in the light! so shalt thou know
   That fellowship of love
   His Spirit only can bestow,
   Who reigns in light above.

2 Walk in the light! and thou shalt own
   Thy darkness passed away,
   Because that light on thee hath shone
   In which is perfect day.

3 Walk in the light! and ev'n the tomb
   No fearful shade shall wear:
   Glory shall chase away its gloom,
   For Christ hath conquered there!

4 Walk in the light! and thine shall be
   A path, though thorny, bright;
   For God, by grace, shall dwell in thee.
   And God himself is light!

1087. The happy Home.

1 Happy the home, when God is there,
   And love fills every breast;
   Where one their wish, and one their prayer,
   And one their heavenly rest.

2 Happy the home where Jesus' name
   Is sweet to every ear;
   Where children early lisp his fame,
   And parents hold him dear.

3 Happy the home where prayer is heard,
   And praise is wont to rise;
   Where parents love the sacred word,
   And live but for the skies.

4 Lord! let us in our homes agree,
   This blessed peace to gain;
   Unite our hearts in love to thee,
   And love to all will reign.

Doxology.
Let God the Father, and the Son,
And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
Or saints to love the Lord!
168. "Oh, give thanks unto the God of gods." Psalm 156.

1 Give thanks to God most high,
The universal Lord,
The sovereign King of kings;
And be his name adored:
Thy mercy, Lord, | And ever sure
Shall still endure, | Abides thy word.

2 How mighty is his hand!
What wonders hath he done!
He formed the earth and seas,
And spread the heavens alone:
His power and grace | And let his name
Are still the same; | Have endless praise.

3 He saw the nations lie
All perishing in sin;
And pitied the sad state
The ruined world was in:
Thy mercy, Lord, | And ever sure
Shall still endure; | Abides thy word.

4 He sent his only Son
To save us from our woe,
From Satan, sin, and death,
And every hurtful foe:
His power and grace | And let his name
Are still the same; | Have endless praise.

5 Give thanks aloud to God,
To God, the heavenly King;
And let the spacious earth
His works and glories sing:
Thy mercy, Lord, | And ever sure
Shall still endure; | Abides thy word.

343. Response to the "New Song." Rev. 5.

1 Shall hymns of grateful love
Thro' heaven's high arches ring,
And all the hosts above
Their songs of triumph sing;
And shall not we take up the strain,
And send the echo back again?

2 Shall they adore the Lord,
Who bought them with his blood,
And all the love record
That led them home to God;
And shall not we take up the strain,
And send the echo back again?

3 Oh, spread the joyful sound!
The Saviour's love proclaim;
And publish all around
Salvation through his name:
Till all the world take up the strain,
And send the echo back again!

332. "The Debt of Love."

1 Come, every pious heart
That loves the Saviour's name,
Your noblest powers exert
To celebrate his fame:
Tell all above, and all below,
The debt of love to him you owe.

2 He left his starry crown,
And laid his robes aside;
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died!
What he endured, oh, who can tell?
To save our souls from death and hell!
THE SABBATH HYMN AND TUNE BOOK.

WILTON. H. M.

3 From the dark grave he rose,
The mansion of the dead;
And thence his mighty foes
In glorious triumph led:
Up thru' the sky the Conqu'ror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour-God.

4 While all the powers on high
Their swelling chorus raise,
Let earth and man reply,
And echo back thy praise:
Thy glory own,
God ever blest,
First, last, and best, And God alone!

97. "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty."
Rev. 15; 3, 4.

1 O holy, holy Lord,
Creation's sovereign King,
Thy majesty adored,
Let all thy creatures sing:
Who wast, and art, Nor time shall see
And art to be; Thy sway depart.

2 Great are thy works of praise,
O God of boundless might!
All just and true thy ways,
Thou King of saints in light!
Let all above, Conspire to show
And all below, Thy power and love.

3 Who shall not fear thee, Lord!
And magnify thy name?
Thy judgments sent abroad
Thy holiness proclaim:
Nations shall throng And thee adore,
From every shore, In holy song.

188. "He is clothed with majesty."
Psalm 93.

1 The Lord Jehovah reigns;
His throne is built on high;
The garments he assumes
Are light and majesty:
His glories shine with beams so bright,
No mortal eye can bear the sight.

2 The thunders of his hand
Keep the wide world in awe;
His wrath and justice stand
To guard his holy law;
And where his love resolves to bless,
His truth confirms and seals the grace.

3 Through all his ancient works
Surprising wisdom shines,
Confounds the powers of hell,
And breaks their cursed designs:
Strong is his arm, and shall fulfill
His great decrees, his sovereign will.

4 And can this mighty King
Of glory condescend?
And will he write his name,
"My Father and my Friend?"
I love his name; I love his word:
Join, all my powers, and praise the Lord!

1 Far from my thoughts, vain world, begone!
   Let my religious hours alone:
   Fain would mine eyes my Saviour see;
   I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire,
   And kindles with a pure desire:
   Come, my dear Jesus! from above,
   And feed my soul with heavenly love.

3 Blest Saviour! what delicious fare,
   How sweet thine entertainments are!
   Never did angels taste, above,
   Redeeming grace and dying love.

4 Hail, great Immanuel, all divine!
   In thee thy Father's glories shine:
   Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One
   That eyes have seen, or angels known!

45. "Thou art my God."—Psalm 63.

1 Great God, indulge my humble claim;
   Thou art my hope, my joy, my rest;
   The glories that compose thy name
   Stand all engaged to make me blest.

2 Thou great and good, thou just and wise,
   Thou art my Father and my God;
   And I am thine, by sacred ties—
   Thy son, thy servant, bought with blood.

3 With heart and eyes, and lifted hands,
   For thee I long, to thee I look;
   As travelers, in thirsty lands,
   Pant for the cooling water brook.

4 With early feet I love to appear
   Among thy saints, and seek thy face;
   Oft have I seen thy glory there,
   And felt the power of sovereign grace.

5 I'll lift my hands, I'll raise my voice,
   While I have breath to pray or praise;
   This work shall make my heart rejoice,
   And cheer the remnant of my days.

68. "Abide with us."

1 Sun of my soul! thou Saviour dear,
   It is not night if thou be near;
   Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise
   To hide thee from thy servant's eyes!

2 When soft the dews of kindly sleep
   My wearied eyelids gently steep,
   Be my last thought,—how sweet to rest
   For ever on my Saviour's breast!

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
   For without thee I cannot live;
   Abide with me when night is nigh,
   For without thee I dare not die.

4 Be near to bless me when I wake,
   Ere through the world my way I take;
   Abide with me till in thy love
   I lose myself in heaven above.

71. "I will both lay me down in peace and sleep."

1 Thus far the Lord has led me on;
   Thus far his power prolongs my days;
   And every evening shall make known
   Some fresh memorial of his grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
   And I, perhaps, am near my home;
   But he forgives my follies past:
   He gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep;
   Peace is the pillow for my head;
   While well-appointed angels keep
   Their watchful stations round my bed.

4 Faith in thy name forbids my fear;
   Oh, may thy presence ne'er depart!
   And in the morning make me hear
   The love and kindness of thy heart.

5 Thus, when the night of death shall come,
   My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
   And wait thy voice to rouse my tomb,
   With sweet salvation in the sound.

* When sung to ANNOX, commence the fifth stanza with the second part of the tune.
163. *"So great is His mercy."—Psalm 103.

1 The Lord! how wondrous are his ways!
   How firm his truth! how large his grace!
   He takes his mercy for his throne,
   And hence he makes his glories known.

2 Not half so high his power hath spread
   The starry heavens above our head,
   As his rich love exceeds our praise,
   Exceeds the highest hopes we raise.

3 Not half so far has nature placed
   The rising morning from the west,
   As his forgiving grace removes
   The daily guilt of those he loves.

4 How slowly doth his wrath arise!
   On swifter wings salvation flies:
   Or, if he lets his anger burn,
   How soon his frowns to pity turn!

5 His everlasting love is sure
   To all his saints, and shall endure;
   From age to age his truth shall reign,
   Nor children's hope in vain.

961. "While I live will I praise the Lord."
Psalm 146.

1 God of my life! through all my days
   My grateful powers shall sound thy praise;
   The song shall wake with opening light,
   And warble to the silent night.

2 When anxious care would break my rest,
   And grief would tear my throbbing breast,
   Thy tuneful praises raised on high,
   Shall check the murmur and the sigh.

3 When death o'er nature shall prevail,
   And all my powers of language fail,
   Joy thro' my swimming eyes shall break,
   And mean the thanks I can not speak.

4 But, oh! when that last conflict's o'er,
   And I am chained to flesh no more,
   With what glad accents shall I rise
   To join the music of the skies!

1151. Love of God seen in the Seasons.

1 Our Helper, God! we bless thy name,
   The same thy power, thy grace the same;
   The tokens of thy loving care
   Open and crown and close the year.

2 Amid ten thousand snares we stand,
   Supported by thy guardian hand;
   And see, when we survey our ways,
   Ten thousand monuments of praise.

3 Thus far thine arm hath led us on;
   Thus far we make thy mercy known;
   And, while we tread this desert land,
   New mercies shall new songs demand.

4 Our grateful souls on Jordan's shore
   Shall raise one sacred pillar more;
   Then bear, in thy bright courts above,
   Inscriptions of immortal love.
59. The Day of Christ's Resurrection.

1 Blest morning! whose young dawning rays
Beheld our rising God;
That saw him triumph o'er the dust,
And leave his dark abode.

2 In the cold prison of a tomb
The great Redeemer lay,
Till the revolving skies had brought
The third, th' appointed day.

3 Hell and the grave unite their force
To hold our God, in vain;
The sleeping Conqueror arose,
And burst their feeble chain.

4 To thy great name, almighty Lord,
These sacred hours we pay;
And loud hosannas shall proclaim
The triumph of the day.

5 Salvation and immortal praise
To our victorious King!
Let heaven, and earth, and rocks, and seas,
With glad hosannas ring.

1 O thou, to whom all creatures bow
Within this earthly frame,
Through all the world, how great art thou!
How glorious is thy name!

2 When heaven, thy beauteous work on high,
Employ's my wondering sight;
The moon that nightly rules the sky,
With stars of feeble light;—

3 Lord, what is man, that thou shouldst deign
To bear him in thy mind!
Or what his race, that thou shouldst prove
To them so wondrous kind!

4 O thou, to whom all creatures bow,
Within this earthly frame;
Through all the world, how great art thou!
How glorious is thy name!

259. "Lo! I come."—Psalm 40.

1 O Lord, how infinite thy love!
How wondrous are thy ways!
Let earth beneath, and heaven above,
Combine to sing thy praise.

2 Man in immortal beauty shone,
Thy noblest work below;
Too soon by sin made heir alone
To death and endless woe.

3 Then, "Lo! I come," the Saviour said;
Oh, be his name adored,
Who, with his blood, our ransom paid,
And life and bliss restored!

4 O Lord, how infinite thy love!
How wondrous are thy ways!
Let earth beneath, and heaven above,
Combine to sing thy praise.

799. "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ."

1 Dear Lord, and will thy pardoning love
Embrace a wretch so vile?
Wilt thou my load of guilt remove,
And bless me with thy smile?

2 Hast thou the cross for me endured,
And suffered all my shame?
And shall I be ashamed, O Lord,
To own thy precious name?

3 No, Lord, I'm not ashamed of thee,
Nor of thy cross and death:
Oh, do not be ashamed of me,
When I resign my breath!

4 Be thou my Shield, be thou my Sun;
Oh, guide me all my days;
And let my feet with joy run on
In thy delightful ways!

825. "And I will praise Thy name for ever and ever."—Psalm 145.

1 Long as I live, I'll bless thy name,
   My King, my God of love;
   My work and joy shall be the same
   In the bright world above.

2 Great is the Lord, his power unknown,
   Oh, let his praise be great!
   I'll sing the honors of thy throne;
   Thy works of grace repeat.

3 Thy grace shall dwell upon my tongue;
   While my lips rejoice,
   The men who hear my sacred song,
   Shall join their cheerful voice.

4 Fathers to sons shall teach thy name,
   And children learn thy ways:
   Ages to come thy truth proclaim,
   And nations sound thy praise.

1 Firm as the earth thy Gospel stands,
   My Lord, my Hope, my Trust!
   If I am found in Jesus' hands,
   My soul can ne'er be lost.

2 His honor is engaged to save
   The meanest of his sheep;
   All whom his heavenly Father gave,
   His hands securely keep.

3 Nor death nor hell shall e'er remove
   His favorites from his breast;
   Safe in the bosom of his love
   They must for ever rest.

1073. "Thou and the ark of Thy strength."

1 O thou whose own vast temple stands,
   Built over earth and sea,
   Accept the walls that human hands
   Have raised to worship thee!

2 Lord, from thine inmost glory send,
   Within these courts to bide,
   The peace that dwelleth without end
   Serenely by thy side.

3 May erring minds that worship here
   Be taught the better way;
   And they who mourn, and they who fear,
   Be strengthened as they pray.

4 May faith grow firm, and love grow warm,
   And pure devotion rise,
   While round these hallowed walls the storm
   Of earth-born passion dies.

1116. "Our fathers have told us."—Psalm 44.

1 O Lord, our fathers oft have told,
   In our attentive ears,
   Thy wonders in their days performed,
   And elder times than theirs.

2 For, not their courage, nor their sword
   To them salvation gave;
   Nor strength that from unequal force
   Their fainting troops could save.

3 But thy right hand and powerful arm,
   Whose succor they implored;
   Thy presence with the chosen race,
   Who thy great name adored.

4 As thee, their God, our fathers owned,
   Thou art our sovereign King:
   Oh, therefore, as thou didst to them,
   To us deliverance bring!

5 To thee the triumph we ascribe,
   From whom the conquest came;
   In God we will rejoice all day,
   And ever bless thy name.
26. "Let us go into the house of the Lord."

Psalm 122.

1 How pleased and blest was I
   To hear the people cry,
   "Come, let us seek our God to-day!"
   Yes, with a cheerful zeal
   We haste to Zion's hill,
   And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion, thrice happy place,
   Adorned with wondrous grace,
   And walls of strength embrace thee round!
   In thee our tribes appear
   To pray, and praise, and hear
   The sacred Gospel's joyful sound.

3 May peace attend thy gate,
   And joy within thee wait
To bless the soul of every guest:
   The man who seeks thy peace,
   And wishes thine increase,
   A thousand blessings on him rest!

4 My tongue repeats her vows,
   "Peace to this sacred house!"
For here my friends and kindred dwell;
   And since my glorious God
   Makes thee his blest abode,
   My soul shall ever love thee well.

121. "Jehovah reigns."

1 The Lord Jehovah reigns,
   And royal state maintains,
His head with awful glories crowned;
   Arrayed in robes of light,
   Begirt with sovereign might,
   And rays of majesty around.

2 Upheld by thy commands,
   The world securely stands,
   And skies and stars obey thy word:
   Thy throne was fixed on high
   Before the starry sky:
   Eternal is thy kingdom, Lord!

3 Let floods and nations rage,
   And all their powers engage;
   Let swelling tides assault the sky:
   The terrors of thy frown
   Shall beat their madness down:
   Thy throne for ever stands on high.

4 Thy promises are true;
   Thy grace is ever new;
   There fixed, thy church shall ne'er remove:
   Thy saints, with holy fear,
   Shall in thy courts appear,
   And sing thine everlasting love.

860. Christian Concord.—Psalm 133.

1 How pleasant 'tis to see
   Kindred and friends agree,—
   Each in his proper station move,
   And each fulfill his part,
   With sympathizing heart,
   In all the cares of life and love!

2 Like fruitful showers of rain,
   That water all the plain,
   Descending from the neighboring hills,
   Such streams of pleasure roll
   Through every friendly soul,
   Where love, like heavenly dew, distills.
110. "Praise ye Him, all His hosts."—Psalm 148.

1 Begin, my soul, th' exalted lay;
   Let each enraptured thought obey,
   And praise th' Almighty's name:
   Lo! heaven and earth, and seas and skies,
   In one melodious concert rise,
   To swell th' inspiring theme.

2 Ye angels, catch the thrilling sound,
   While all th' adoring throngs around
   His boundless mercy sing:
   Let every listening saint above
   Wake all the tuneful soul of love,
   And touch the sweetest string.

3 Let every element rejoice;
   Ye thunders, burst with awful voice
   To him who bids you roll:
   His praise in softer notes declare,
   Each whispering breeze of yielding air,
   And breathe it to the soul.

4 Wake, all ye soaring throngs, and sing;
   Ye feathered warblers of the spring,
   Harmonious anthems raise
   To him who shaped your finer mold,
   Who tipped your glittering wings with gold,
   And tuned your voice to praise.

5 Let man, by nobler passions swayed,
   Let man, in God's own image made,
   His breath in praise employ;
   Spread wide his Maker's name around,
   While heaven's broad arch rings back the sound,—
   The song of holy joy!

899. Battle-Song of the Reformation.

1 Fear not, O little flock, the foe
   Who madly seeks your overthrow;
   Dread not his rage and power:
   What tho' your courage sometimes faints!
   This seeming triumph o'er God's saints
   Lasts but a little hour.

2 Fear not! be strong! your cause belongs
   To him who can avenge your wrongs;
   Leave all to him, your Lord:
   Though hidden yet from mortal eyes,
   Salvation shall for you arise:
   He girdeth on his sword!

3 As sure as God's own promise stands,
   Not earth, nor hell, with all their bands,
   Against us shall prevail:
   The Lord shall mock them from his throne;
   God is with us, we are his own;
   Our vict'ry can not fail!

4 Amen! Lord Jesus, grant our prayer:
   Great Captain! now thine arm make bare,
   Thy church with strength defend:
   So shall all saints and martyrs raise
   A joyful chorus to thy praise,
   Through ages without end!
109. "To-day, if ye will hear His voice." Psalm 95.
1 Come, let our voices join to raise
A sacred song of solemn praise:
God is a sovereign King; rehearse
His honors in exalted verse.
2 Come, let our souls address the Lord,
Who framed our natures with his word:
He is our Shepherd, we the sheep
His mercy chose, his pastures keep.
3 Come, let us hear his voice to-day;
The counsels of his love obey;
Nor let our hardened hearts renew
The sins and plagues that Israel knew.
4 Seize the kind promise while it waits,
And march to Zion's heavenly gates:
Believe, and take the promised rest;
Obey, and be for ever blest.

111. "While I live will I praise the Lord." Psalm 118.
1 Praise ye the Lord! my heart shall join
In work so pleasant, so divine:
My days of praise shall ne'er be passed,
While life, and thought, and being last.
2 Happy the man, whose hopes rely
On Israel's God: he made the sky,
And earth, and seas, with all their train;
And none shall find his promise vain.
3 His truth for ever stands secure;
He saves th'oppressed, he feeds the poor;
He helps the stranger in distress,
The widow and the fatherless.
4 He loves his saints, he knows them well,
But turns the wicked down to hell:
Thy God, O Zion, ever reigns;
Praise him in everlasting strains.

154. "Oh, that men would praise the Lord for His goodness!"—Psalm 107.
1 Give thanks to God; he reigns above;
Kind are his thoughts, his name is love;

His mercy ages past have known,
And ages long to come shall own.
2 Let the redeemed of the Lord
The wonders of his grace record;
Israel, the nation, whom he chose,
And rescued from their mighty foes.
3 He feeds and clothes us all the way,
He guides our footsteps lest we stray;
He guards us with a powerful hand,
And brings us to the heavenly land.
4 Oh, let the saints with joy record
The truth and goodness of the Lord!
How great his works! how kind his ways!
Let every tongue pronounce his praise.

157. Providence and Grace of God.—Psalm 93.
1 High in the heavens, eternal God!
Thy goodness in full glory shines;
Thy truth shall break thro' every cloud
That vails and darkens thy designs.
2 For ever firm thy justice stands,
As mountains their foundations keep;
Wise are the wonders of thy hands;
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.
3 My God, how excellent thy grace!
Whence all our hope and comfort springs;
The sons of Adam, in distress,
Fly to the shadow of thy wings.
4 From the provisions of thy house
We shall be fed with sweet repast;
There, mercy, like a river, flows,
And brings salvation to our taste.
5 Life, like a fountain, rich and free,
Springs from the presence of my Lord;
And in thy light our souls shall see
The glories promised in thy word.
48.

The Morning Sacrifice.

1 Awake, my soul, and with the sun
   Thy daily stage of duty run;
   Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
   To pay thy morning sacrifice.

2 Awake, lift up thyself, my heart,
   And with the angels bear thy part,
   Who all night long unwearied sing
   High praises to th' eternal King.

3 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
   And hast refreshed me while I slept;
   Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
   I may of endless life partake.

4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew:
   Scatter my sins as morning dew;
   Guard my first springs of thought and will,
   And with thyself my spirit fill.

5 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
   All I design, or do, or say;
   That all my powers, with all their might,
   In thy sole glory may unite.

65.  "Hide me under the shadow of Thy wings."

1 Glory to thee, my God, this night,
   For all the blessings of the light:
   Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings,
   Beneath the shadow of thy wings.

2 Forgive me, Lord! thro’ thy dear Son,
   The ill which I this day have done;
   That with the world, myself, and thee,
   I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
   The grave as little as my bed;
   Teach me to die, that so I may
   Rise glorious at thy judgment day.

4 Be thou my guardian while I sleep,
   Thy watchful station near me keep;
   My heart with love celestial fill,
   And guard me from th’ approach of ill.

5 Lord, let my soul for ever share
   The bliss of thy paternal care!
   ’Tis heaven on earth, ’tis heaven above,
   To see thy face, and sing thy love.

6 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
   Praise him, all creatures here below;
   Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
   Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

87.  "Bid us all depart in peace."

1 Dismiss us with thy blessing, Lord;
   Help us to feed upon thy word;
   All that has been amiss, forgive,
   And let thy truth within us live.

2 Though we are guilty, thou art good:
   Wash all our works in Jesus’ blood;
   Give every burdened soul release,
   And bid us all depart in peace.

160.  "Slow to anger, and plentiful in mercy."

1 My soul, inspired with sacred love,
   God’s holy name for ever bless!
   Of all his favors mindful prove,
   And still thy grateful thanks express.

2 The Lord abounds with tender love,
   And unexampled acts of grace;
   His wakened wrath doth slowly move,
   His willing mercy flies apace.

3 As high as heaven its arch extends
   Above this little spot of clay,
   So much his boundless grace transcends
   The best obedience we can pay.

4 As far as ’tis from east to west,
   So far has he our sins removed,
   Who, with a father’s tender breast,
   Has such as fear him always loved.

5 Let every creature join to bless
   The mighty Lord! and thou, my heart,
   With grateful joy thy thanks express,
   And in this concert bear thy part.

19. "Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth."—Psalm 48.
1 Far as thy name is known,
The world declares thy praise;
Thy saints, O Lord, before thy throne,
Their songs of honor raise.
2 With joy thy people stand
On Zion's chosen hill,
Proclaim the wonders of thy hand,
And counsels of thy will.
3 Let strangers walk around
The city where we dwell,
Compass and view thine holy ground,
And mark the building well—
4 The order of thy house,
The worship of thy court,
The cheerful songs, the solemn vows;
And make a fair report.
5 How decent, and how wise!
How glorious to behold!
Beyond the pomp that charms the eyes,
And rites adorned with gold.
6 The God we worship now
Will guide us till we die;
Will be our God, while here below,
And ours above the sky.

1 How beauteous are their feet
Who stand on Zion's hill!
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal.
2 How charming is their voice!
How sweet the tidings are!—
"Zion, behold thy Saviour King!
He reigns and triumphs here."
3 How happy are our ears,
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found!
4 How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light!
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.
5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
6 The Lord makes bare his arm
Through all the earth abroad;
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

1027. "The Head-stone of the corner." Psalm 118.
1 See what a living stone
The builders did refuse!
Yet God hath built his church thereon,
In spite of envious Jews.
2 The scribe and angry priest
Reject thine only Son;
Yet on this rock shall Zion rest,
As the chief corner-stone.
3 The work, O Lord, is thine,
And wondrous in our eyes:
This day declares it all divine;
This day did Jesus rise.
4 This is the glorious day
That our Redeemer made:
Let us rejoice, and sing, and pray;
Let all the church be glad.
5 Hosanna to the King,
Of David's royal blood!
Bless him, ye saints! he comes to bring
Salvation from your God.
6 We bless thine holy word,
Which all this grace displays,
And offer on thine altar, Lord, Our sacrifice of praise.
137. God present everywhere.

1 God of almighty power,
   How glorious are thy ways!
   Angels thy majesty adore,
   All creatures speak thy praise.

2 Wherever earth is fair,
   Or brighter worlds extend,
   Almighty Sovereign! thou art there,
   Creation's Lord and Friend.

3 And where the stars are not,
   Nor sun hath ever shone,
   Beyond the flight of human thought,
   There thou art God alone.

4 Heaven is thy glorious throne,
   Earth does thy footstool seem;
   But souls redeemed thou lovest to own
   Thy richer diadem.

5 And, while they bless thy name,
   Hell trembles at thy rod:
   Earth, heaven, and hell, thy power proclaim;
   All things proclaim thee God!

GOLDEN HILL. S. M.
209. "I will love Thee, O Lord, my strength."
Psalm 13.

1 Thee will I love, O God, and own
My strength is in thine arm alone.
Jehovah is my rock, my tower,
My Saviour in the darkest hour;
My God, my strength, my confidence,
My buckler, helm, and high defense:
On him I call, and bless his name;
Ne'er shall my hope be put to shame.

2 With forms of death on every side,
Beset with foes, my courage died;
Hell compassed me with horrors dread,
The snares of death were round me spread:
In my distress to God I prayed,
I called upon my God for aid;
He heard my cry; it reached his throne:
Thee will I love, O God, alone.

14. "Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house."
Psalm 84.

1 How pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are!
With long desire my spirit faints,
To meet th' assemblies of thy saints.

2 My flesh would rest in thine abode;
My panting heart cries out for God:
My God! my King! why should I be
So far from all my joys and thee!

3 Blest are the saints, who sit on high,
Around thy throne above the sky:
Thy brightest glories shine above,
And all their work is praise and love.

4 Blest are the souls, who find a place
Within the temple of thy grace;
There they behold thy gentler rays,
And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.

5 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate:
God is their strength; and thro' the road
They lean upon their helper, God.

6 Cheerful they walk with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

1 Great God, attend, while Zion sings
The joy that from thy presence springs:
To spend one day with thee on earth,
Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.

2 Might I enjoy the meanest place
Within thy house, O God of grace,
Not tents of ease, nor thrones of power
Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.
3. God is our sun—he makes our day;
   God is our shield—he guards our way.
   From all th' assaults of hell and sin,
   From foes without and foes within.

4. All needful grace will God bestow,
   And crown that grace with glory, too;
   He gives us all things, and withholds
   No real good from upright souls.

5. O God, our King, whose sovereign sway
   The glories host of heaven obey,
   Display thy grace, exert thy power,
   Till all on earth thy name adore!

30. "Who is this King of glory?"—Psalm 24.
1. On, hallowed is the land and blest,
   Where Christ, the Ruler, is confessed!
   Oh, happy hearts and happy homes,
   To whom the great Redeemer comes!

2. Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates!
   Behold, the King of glory waits:
   The King of kings is drawing near;
   The Saviour of the world is here.

3. Fling wide the portals of your heart:
   Make it a temple set apart
   From earthly use for heaven's employ,
   Adorned with prayer, and love, and joy.

4. Redeemer, come! I open wide
   My soul to thee; here, Lord, abide!
   Thankful and glad my song I raise,
   And give to thee a life of praise.

33. "Before Jehovah's awful throne."—Psalm 100.
1. Before Jehovah's awful throne,
   Ye nations, bow with sacred joy:
   Know that the Lord is God alone;
   He can create, and he destroy.

2. His sovereign power, without our aid,
   Made us of clay, and formed us men;
   And when, like wand'ring sheep, we strayed,
   He brought us to his fold again.

3. We are his people, we his care,
   Our souls, and all our mortal frame:
   What lasting honors shall we rear,
   Almighty Maker, to thy name?

4. We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,
   High as the heaven our voices raise;
   And earth, with herten thousand tongues,
   Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.

5. Wide as the world is thy command,
   Vast as eternity, thy love:
   Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
   When rolling years shall cease to move.

37. "Oh, sing unto the Lord a new song.
1. Unto the Lord, unto the Lord,
   Oh, sing a new and joyful song!
   Declare his glory, tell abroad
   The wonders that to him belong.

2. For he is great, for he is great;
   Above all gods his throne is raised;
   He reigns in majesty and state,
   In strength and beauty is he praised.

3. Give to the Lord, give to the Lord
   The glory due unto his name;
   Enter his courts with sweet accord;
   In songs of joy his grace proclaim.

4. For lo! he comes, for lo! he comes
   To judge the earth in truth and love:
   His saints in triumph leave their tombs,
   And shout his praise in heaven above.
44. "Early will I seek Thee."—Psalm 63.

1 Early, my God! without delay,
I haste to seek thy face;
My thirsty spirit faints away,
Without thy cheering grace.

2 So pilgrims on the scorching sand,
Beneath a burning sky,
Long for a cooling stream at hand,
And they must drink or die.

3 I've seen thy glory and thy power,
Through all thy temple shine:
My God! repeat that heavenly hour,
That vision so divine.

4 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move,
Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
As thy forgiving love.

5 Thus, till my last expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King;
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my lips to sing.

333. "Thou dear Redeemer, dying Lamb."

1 Thou dear Redeemer, dying Lamb,
I love to hear of thee;
No music's like thy charming name,
Nor half so sweet can be.

2 Oh, may I ever hear thy voice
In mercy to me speak;
In thee, my Priest, will I rejoice,
And thy salvation seek.

3 My Jesus shall be still my theme,
While on this earth I stay;
I'll sing my Jesus' lovely name,
When all things else decay.

4 When I appear in yonder cloud,
With all his favored throng,
Then will I sing more sweet, more loud,
And Christ shall be my song.

334. "The Lamb is the light thereof."

1 O thou, who art enrobed with light,
How pure the soul must be,
When placed within thy searching sight,
It shrinks not, but with calm delight
Can live and look on thee!

2 Lord, how can I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim,
Before thy radiant light appear,
And on my naked spirit bear
Thine uncreated beam?

3 Is there a way for man to rise
To that sublime abode?
Thine offering and thy sacrifice,
Thy pains, and groans, and tears, and cries,
Thy death, O Lamb of God!—

4 These, these prepare us for the sight
Of Majesty above;
The sons of ignorance and night
Can dwell in the eternal Light,
Through the eternal Love.

609. "Be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee."—Matt. 9: 2.

1 My Saviour, let me hear thy voice
Pronounce the word of peace,
And all my warmest powers shall join
To celebrate thy grace.

2 With gentle smiles call me thy child,
And speak my sins forgiven:
The accents mild shall charm my ear,
Like the sweet harps of heaven.
3 Cheerful, where'er thy hand shall lead,
The darkest path I'll tread;
Cheerful I'll quit these mortal shores,
And mingle with the dead.

4 When dreadful guilt is done away,
No other fears we know:
That hand which scatters pardons down,
Shall crowns of life bestow.

668. "Dear Refuge of my weary soul."
1 Dear Refuge of my weary soul,
On thee, when sorrows rise—
On thee, when waves of trouble roll,
My fainting hope relies.

2 To thee I tell each rising grief,
For thou alone canst heal;
Thy word can bring a sweet relief
For every pain I feel.

3 Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
And shall I seek in vain?
And can the ear of sovereign grace
Be deaf when I complain?

4 No: still the ear of sovereign grace
Attends the mourner's prayer;
Oh, may I ever find access
To breathe my sorrows there!

5 Thy merciful seat is open still;
Here let my soul retreat,
With humble hope attend thy will,
And wait beneath thy feet.

674. "Wait, I say, on the Lord."—Psalm 27.
1 Soon as I heard my Father say,
"Ye children, seek my grace,"
My heart replied, without delay,
"I'll seek my Father's face."

2 Let not thy face be hid from me,
Nor frown my soul away;
God of my life! I fly to thee
In each distressing day.

3 Should friends and kindred, near and dear
Leave me to want, or die:
My God would make my life his care,
And all my need supply.

4 My fainting flesh had died with grief,
Had not my soul believed
To see thy grace provide relief;
Nor was my hope deceived.

5 Wait on the Lord, ye trembling saints,
And keep your courage up;
He'll raise your spirit when it faints,
And far exceed your hope.

1255. Home for the Weary.
1 There is an hour of peaceful rest,
To mourning wanderers given;
There is a tear for souls distressed,
A balm for every wounded breast:  "Tis found above—in heaven.

2 There is a home for weary souls,
By sin and sorrow driven,—
When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise, and ocean rolls,
And all is drear—but heaven.

3 There faith lifts up her cheerful eye
To brighter prospects given;
And views the tempest passing by,
The evening shadows quickly fly,
And all serene—in heaven.

4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given;
There rays divine disperse the gloom;
Beyond the confines of the tomb
Appears the dawn of heaven!
422. "The Rock of my strength."

1 Rejoice, ye saints, rejoice and praise
   The blessings of redeeming grace!
   Jesus, your everlasting tower,
   Stands firm against the tempest's power.

2 He is a refuge ever nigh;
   His love endures as mountains high;
   His name's a rock, which winds above,
   And waves below, can never move.

3 While all things change, he changes not;
   He never forgets, though oft forgot;
   His love will ever be the same;
   His word, enduring as his name.

4 Rejoice, ye saints, rejoice and praise
   The blessings of this wondrous grace!
   Jesus, your everlasting tower,
   Can bear, unmoved, the tempest's power.

430. "He hath done all things well."—Mark 7:27.

1 Now, in a song of grateful praise,
   To my dear Lord my voice I'll raise;
   With all his saints I'll join to tell
   That Jesus hath done all things well.

2 Wisdom, and power, and love divine,
   In all his works, unrivalled, shine,
   And force the wondering world to tell
   That he alone did all things well.

3 How'er mysterious are his ways,
   Or dark and sorrowful my days;
   And though my spirit oft rebel,
   I know he still doth all things well.

4 And when I stand before his throne,
   And all his ways are fully known,
   This note in sweetest strains shall swell,
   That Jesus hath done all things well.

798. "Ashamed of Jesus?"

1 Jesus! and shall it ever be,
   A mortal man ashamed of thee?

   Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise,
   Whose glories shine thro' endless days?

2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
   Let evening blush to own a star;
   He sheds the beams of light divine
   O'er this benighted soul of mine.

3 Ashamed of Jesus! that dear Friend
   On whom my hopes of heaven depend:
   No: when I blush, be this thy shame,
   That I no more revere his name.

4 Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may,
   When I've no guilt to wash away;
   No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
   No fears to quell, no soul to save.

5 Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
   Till then I boast a Saviour slain!
   And, oh, may this my glory be,
   That Christ is not ashamed of me!

1 Triumphant Zion! lift thy head
   From dust and darkness and the dead;
   Though humbled long, awake at length,
   And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength.

2 Put all thy beauteous garments on,
   And let thy various charms be known:
   Then decked in robes of righteousness,
   The world thy glories shall confess.

3 No more shall foes unclean invade,
   And fill thy hallowed walls with dread;
   No more shall hell's insulting host
   Their vict'ry and thy sorrows boast.

4 God, from on high, thy groans will hear;
   His hand thy ruin shall repair;
   Nor will thy watchful Monarch cease
   To guard thee in eternal peace.
125. "The Lord God omnipotent reigneth."

1 The Lord is King! lift up thy voice,
O earth, and all ye heavens, rejoice!
From world to world the joy shall ring:
"The Lord omnipotent is King!"

2 The Lord is King! who then shall dare
Resist his will, distrust his care?
Holy and true are all his ways:
Let every creature speak his praise.

3 The Lord is King! exalt your strains;
Ye saints, your God, your Father reigns;
One Lord one empire all secures:
He reigns, and life and death are yours.

4 Oh, when his wisdom can mistake,
His might decay, his love forsake,
Then may his children cease to sing,
"The Lord omnipotent is King!"

878. "Go, labor on!"

1 Go, labor on; spend and be spent,—
Thy joy to do the Father's will:
It is the way the Master went;
Should not the servant tread it still?

2 Go, labor on; 'tis not for naught;
Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain;
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not;
The Master praises,—what are men?

3 Go, labor on; enough, while here,
If he shall praise thee, if he deign
Thy willing heart to mark and cheer;
No toil for him shall be in vain.

4 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice;
For toil comes rest, for exile home;
Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
The midnight peal: "Behold, I come!"

879. "Go, labor on!"

1 Go, labor on; your hands are weak,
Your knees are faint, your soul cast down;
Yet falter not; the prize you seek
Is near,—a kingdom and a crown!

2 Go, labor on, while it is day;
The world's dark night is fastening on;
Speed, speed thy work,—cast sloth away!
It is not thus that souls are won.

3 Men die in darkness at your side,
Without a hope to cheer the tomb;
Take up the torch and wave it wide—
The torch that lights time's thickest gloom.

4 Toil on,—faint not,—keep watch and pray!
Be wise the erring soul to win;
Go forth into the world's highway;
Compel the wanderer to come in.
115. "Who is like unto the Lord our God?"

1 Oh, worship the King, all-glorious above;
   Oh, gratefully sing his power and his love!
   Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days,
   Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

2 Oh, tell of his might, oh, sing of his grace,
   Whose robe is the light, whose canopy, space!
   His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
   And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

3 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
   It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
   It streams from the hills, it descends to the plains,
   And sweetly distills in the dew and the rains.

4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
   In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
   Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
   Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend.

349. "Salvation to our God."

1 Ye servants of God,
   Your Master proclaim,
   And publish abroad
   His wonderful name;
   The name, all victorious,
   Of Jesus extol;
   His kingdom is glorious,
   And rules over all.

2 God ruleth on high,
   Almighty to save;
   And still he is nigh;
   His presence we have:
   The great congregation
   His triumph shall sing,
   Ascribing salvation
   To Jesus, our King.

3 "Salvation to God,
   Who sits on the throne,"
   Let all cry aloud,
   And honor the Son:
   Our Saviour's high praises
   The angels proclaim,—
   Fall down on their faces,
   And worship the Lamb.

4 Then let us adore,
   And give him his right—
   All glory and power,
   And wisdom and might;
   All honor and blessing,
   With angels above,
   And thanks never ceasing,
   And infinite love!
116. Praise the God of Abraham.

1 The God of Abrah'm praise,
   Who reigns enthroned above:
Ancient of everlasting days,
   And God of love:
Jehovah, great I am!
   By earth and heaven confessed:
I bow and bless the sacred name,
   For ever blest.

2 The God of Abrah'm praise,
   At whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
   At his right hand:
I all on earth forsake,
   Its wisdom, fame, and power;
And him my only portion make,
   My shield and tower.

3 He by himself hath sworn;
   I on his oath depend;
I shall on eagles' wings upborne
   To heaven ascend:
I shall behold his face,
   I shall his power adore,
And sing the wonders of his grace
   For evermore.

344. The Vision of Christ's Glory.

1 The goodly land I see,
   With peace and plenty blest;
A land of sacred liberty,
   And endless rest:
There milk and honey flow,
   And oil and wine abound;
And trees of life for ever grow
   With mercy crowned.

2 There dwells the Lord, our King,
   The Lord our righteousness:
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
   'The Prince of Peace,
On Zion's sacred height,
   His kingdom still maintains,
And glorious, with his saints in light,
   For ever reigns.

3 Before the Saviour's face
   The ransomed nations bow,
O'erwhelmed at his almighty grace,
   For ever new:
He shows his prints of love;
   They kindle to a flame,
And sound, through all the worlds above,
   'The slaughtered Lamb!'

4 The whole triumphant host
   Give thanks to God on high:
"Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!"
   They ever cry.
Hail, Abrah'm's God and mine!
   (I join the heavenly lays)
All might and majesty are thine,
   And endless praise!

THE SABBATH HYMN AND TUNE BOOK. 59
351. "The joy that was set before Him."

1 Now for a tune of lofty praise
   To great Jehovah's equal Son!
   Awake, my voice, in heavenly lays;
   Tell the loud wonders he hath done.

2 Sing how he left the worlds of light,
   And the bright robes he wore above;
   How swift and joyful was his flight
   On wings of everlasting love.

3 Deep in the shades of gloomy death,
   Th' almighty Captive prisoner lay;
   Th' almighty Captive left the earth,
   And rose to everlasting day.

4 Lift up your eyes, ye sons of light,—
   Up to his throne of shining grace;
   See what immortal glories sit
   Round the sweet beauties of his face!

5 Among a thousand harps and songs,
   Jesus, the God, exalted reigns:
   His sacred name fills all their tongues,
   And echoes thro' the heavenly plains!

815. "I send the joys of earth away."

1 I send the joys of earth away;
   Away, ye tempters of the mind,
   False as the smooth, deceitful sea,
   And empty as the whistling wind!

2 Your streams were floating me along,
   Down to the gulf of black despair;
   And while I listened to your song,
   Your streams had ev'n conveyed me there.

3 Lord! I adore thy matchless grace,
   Which warned me of that dark abyss,
   Which drew me from those treacherous seas,
   And bade me seek superior bliss.

4 Now to the shining realms above
   I stretch my hands and glance my eyes;
   Oh for the pinions of a dove
   To bear me to the upper skies!

5 There, from the bosom of my God,
   Oceans of endless pleasure roll;
   There would I fix my last abode,
   And drown the sorrows of my soul!

   Doxology.
   Glory to thee, O God, most high!
   Father, we praise thy majesty!
   The Son, the Spirit, we adore,
   One Godhead, blest for evermore!
1018. The Lord hath chosen Jacob unto Himself.
Psalm 135.
1 Praise ye the Lord; exalt his name,
While in his holy courts ye wait,—
Ye saints, who to his house belong,
Or stand attending at his gate.
2 Praise ye the Lord! the Lord is good!
To praise his name is sweet employ;
Israel he chose of old, and still
His church is his peculiar joy.
3 The Lord himself will judge his saints:
He treats his servants as his friends;
And, when he hears their sore complaints,
Repents the sorrows that he sends.
4 Bless him, all ye who taste his love!
People and priests, exalt his name:
Among his saints he ever dwells;
His church is his Jerusalem.

1026. "The Stone which the builders refused."
Psalm 118.
1 Lo! what a glorious corner-stone
The Jewish builders did refuse!
But God has built his church thereon,
In spite of envy and the Jews.
2 Great God! the work is all divine,
The joy and wonder of our eyes!
This is the day that proves it thine,—
The day that saw our Saviour rise.
3 Sinners, rejoice! and saints, be glad!
Hosanna! let his name be blest;
A thousand honors on his head,
With peace, and light, and glory, rest!

1029. "God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved."
1 Happy the church, thou sacred place,
The seat of thy Creator's grace!
Thine holy courts are his abode,
Thou earthly palace of our God!
2 Thy walls are strength, and at thy gates
A guard of heavenly warriors waits;
Nor shall thy deep foundations move,
Fixed on his counsels and his love.
3 Thy foes in vain designs engage;
Against thy throne in vain they rage:
Like rising waves, with angry roar,
That dash and die upon the shore.
4 God is our shield, and God our sun;
Swift as the fleeting moments run,
On us he sheds new beams of grace,
And we reflect his brightest praise.

1036. "Unto Thee shall all flesh come."
Psalm 65.
1 The praise of Zion waits for thee,
Great God! and praise becomes thy house;
There shall thy saints thy glory see,
And there perform their public vows.
2 O thou whose mercy bends the skies,
To save when humble sinners pray!
All lands to thee shall lift their eyes,
And grateful isles of every sea.
3 Soon shall the flocking nations run
To Zion's hill, and own their Lord;
The rising and the setting sun
Shall see the Saviour's name adored.

1037. "The Lord shall be thine everlasting light."
1 Though now the nations sit beneath
The darkness of o'erspreading death,
God will arise with light divine,
On Zion's holy towers to shine.
2 That light shall glance on distant lands,
And heathen tribes, in joyful bands,
Come with exulting haste to prove
The power and greatness of his love.
3 Lord, spread the triumphs of thy grace;
Let truth, and righteousness, and peace,
In mild and lovely forms, display
The glories of the latter day.
153. "God so loved the world."

1 On, for a shout of joy,
   High as the theme we sing!
   To this divine employ
   Your hearts and voices bring:
   Sound, sound, through all the earth abroad,
   The love, th' eternal love, of God.

2 Unnumbered myriads stand,
   Of seraphs bright and fair;
   Or bow at his right hand,
   And pay their homage there:
   But strive in vain, with loudest chord,
   To sound the wondrous love of God.

3 Though earth and hell assail,
   And doubts and fears arise,
   The weakest shall prevail,
   And grasp the heavenly prize;
   And through an endless age record
   The love, th' unchanging love, of God.

4 Oh, for a shout of joy,
   High as the theme we sing!
   To this divine employ
   Your hearts and voices bring:
   Sound, sound, through all the earth abroad,
   Th' love, th' eternal love, of God.

1 Jesus!—harmonious name!
   It charms the hosts above;
   They evermore proclaim,
   And wonder at his love:
   'Tis all their happiness to gaze,
   'Tis heaven to see our Jesus' face.

2 His name the sinner hears,
   And is from sin set free;
   'Tis music in his ears,
   'T is life and victory:
   New songs do now his lips employ,
   And bounds his gladdened heart with joy.

3 Oh, unexampled love!
   Oh, all-redeeming grace!
   How swiftly didst thou move
   To save a fallen race!
   What shall I do to make it known,
   What thou for all mankind hast done?

FLEET STREET. H. M.

Jesus forsakes the sky,
   To earth his footsteps bend:
   He comes to bless our fallen race;
   He comes with messages of grace.

3 Bear, bear the tidings round!
   Let every mortal know
   What love in God is found,
   What pity he can show:
   Ye winds that blow, ye waves that roll,
   Bear the glad news from pole to pole.

4 Strike, strike the harps again,
   To great Immanuel's name!
   Arise, ye sons of men,
   And all his grace proclaim:
   Angels and men, wake every string,
   'Tis God the Saviour's praise we sing!

1 Hark! hark! the notes of joy
   Roll o'er the heavenly plains,
   And seraphs find employ
   For their sublimest strains:
   Some new delight in heaven is known;
   Loud sound the harps around the throne.

2 Hark! hark! the sound draws nigh,—
   The joyful host descends;
376. "A great High Priest, that is passed into the heavens"—Heb. 4: 14.

1 Th' atoning work is done,
   The victim's blood is shed,
   And Jesus now is gone
   His people's cause to plead:
   He stands in heaven their great High Priest,
   And bears their names upon his breast.

2 No temple made with hands
   His place of service is;
   In heaven itself he stands,
   A heavenly priesthood his;
   In him the shadows of the law
   Are all fulfilled, and now withdraw.

3 And though awhile he be
   Hid from the eyes of men,
   His people look to see
   Their great High Priest again:
   In brightest glory he will come,
   And take his waiting people home.

3 His kingdom can not fail;
   He rules o'er earth and heaven;
   The keys of death and hell
   Are to our Jesus given:
   Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice;
   Rejoice!—again I say, rejoice!

4 Rejoice in glorious hope:
   Jesus, the Judge, shall come,
   And take his servants up
   To their eternal home:
   We soon shall hear th' archangel's voice;
   The trump of God shall sound, Rejoice!

391. "Rejoice, the Lord is King!"

1 Rejoice! the Lord is King;
   Your Lord and King adore:
   Mortals, give thanks and sing,
   And triumph evermore!
   Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice;
   Rejoice!—again I say, rejoice!

2 Jesus, the Saviour, reigns,
   The God of truth and love;
   When he had purged our stains,
   He took his seat above:
   Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice;
   Rejoice!—again I say, rejoice!

3 To God the Spirit's name
   Immortal worship give,
   Whose new creating power
   Makes dying sinners live:
   His work completes the great design,
   And fills the soul with joy divine.

4 Almighty God, to thee
   Be endless honors done;
   The undivided Three,
   And the mysterious One:
   Where reason fails, with all her powers,
   There faith prevails, and love adores.
1. Give to our God immortal praise;
   Mercy and truth are all his ways;
   Wonders of grace to God belong;
   Repeat his mercies in your song.

2. Give to the Lord of lords renown,
   The King of kings with glory crown:
   His mercies ever shall endure,
   When lords and kings are known no more.

3. He built the earth, he spread the sky,
   And fixed the starry lights on high:
   Wonders of grace to God belong;
   Repeat his mercies in your song.

4. He fills the sun with morning light,
   He bids the moon direct the night:
   His mercies ever shall endure,
   When suns and moons shall shine no more.

5. He sent his Son with power to save
   From guilt, and darkness, and the grave:
   Wonders of grace to God belong;
   Repeat his mercies in your song.

6. Through this vain world he guides our feet,
   And leads us to his heavenly seat:
   His mercies ever shall endure,
   When this vain world shall be no more.

362. The King of Glory.—Psalm 24.

1. Our Lord is risen from the dead,
   Our Jesus is gone up on high;
   The powers of hell are captive led,
   Dragged to the portals of the sky.

2. There his triumphal chariot waits,
   And angels chant the solemn lay:
   Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates!
   Ye everlasting doors, give way!

3. Loose all your bars of massy light,
   And wide unfold th' ethereal scene:
   He claims these mansions as his right;
   Receive the King of glory in.

4. Who is the King of glory—who?
   The Lord who all our foes o'ercame;
   Who sin, and death, and hell o'erthrew;
   And Jesus is the Conqueror's name.

5. Lo! his triumphal chariot waits,
   And angels chant the solemn lay;
   Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates!
   Ye everlasting doors, give way!

6. Who is the King of glory—who?
   The Lord, of boundless power possessed;
   The King of saints and angels, too,
   God over all, for ever blessed.
112. "Loud Hallelujahs to the Lord."—Psalm 148.

1 Lord hallelujahs to the Lord,
   From distant worlds where creatures dwell!
   Let heaven begin the solemn word,
   And sound it dreadful down to hell.

2 Wide as his vast dominion lies,
   Make the Creator's name be known
   Loud as his thunder, short his praise,
   And sound it lofty as his throne.

3 Jehovah—'tis a glorious word!
   Oh, may it dwell on every tongue!
   But saints who best have known the Lord,
   Are bound to raise the noblest song.

4 Speak of the wonders of that love
   Which Gabriel plays on every chord:
   From all below, and all above,
   Loud hallelujahs to the Lord!

1 Great is the Lord! what tongue can frame
   An honor equal to his name!
   How awful are his glorious ways!
   The Lord is dreadful in his praise.

2 The world's foundations by his hand
   Were laid, and shall for ever stand;
   The swelling billows know their bound,
   While to his praise they roll around.

3 Vast are thy works, almighty Lord!
   All nature rests upon thy word;
   And clouds, and storms, and fire obey
   Thy wise and all-controlling sway.

4 Thy glory, fearless of decline,
   Thy glory, Lord, shall ever shine;
   Thy praise shall still our breath employ,
   Till we shall rise to endless joy.

179. God a faithful Creator.

1 Praise, everlasting praise be paid
   To him who earth's foundations laid:
   Praise to the God, whose strong decrees
   Sway the creation as he please.

2 Praise to the goodness of the Lord,
   Who rules his people by his word;
   And there, as strong as his decrees,
   Reveals his kindest promises.

3 Oh, for a strong, a lasting faith,
   To credit what the Almighty saith!
   To embrace the message of his Son,
   And call the joys of heaven our own.

4 Then, should the earth's foundations
   Shake, and all the wheels of nature break,
   Our steady souls shall fear no more
   Than solid rocks when billows roar.

364. "The Lord of hosts, He is the King of Glory."—Psalm 24.

1 Lift up your heads, ye gates! and wide
   Your everlasting doors display;
   Ye angel-guards, like flames divide,
   And give the King of glory way.

2 Who is the King of glory?—He,
   The Lord, omnipotent to save;
   Whose own right arm, in victory,
   Led captive Death, and spoiled the grave.

3 Lift up your heads, ye gates! and high
   Your everlasting portals heave;
   Welcome the King of glory nigh;
   Him must the heaven of heavens receive.

4 Who is the King of glory—who?
   The Lord of hosts; behold his name:
   The kingdom, power, and honor due,
   Yield him, ye saints, with glad acclaim:
7. "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts."

1 Holy, holy, holy Lord,
Be thy glorious name adored!
Lord, thy mercies never fail;
Hail, celestial Goodness, hail!

2 Though unworthy, Lord, thine ear,
Deign our humble songs to hear;
Purer praise we hope to bring,
When around thy throne we sing.

3 While on earth ordained to stay,
Guide our footsteps in thy way,
Till we come to dwell with thee,
Till we all thy glory see.

4 Then with angel-harps again
We will wake a nobler strain;
There, in joyful songs of praise,
Our triumphant voices raise.

98. "Hallowed be Thy name."

1 Holy, holy, holy Lord,
In the highest heavens adored,
Author of all nature's frame,—
Father, hallowed be thy name.

2 Though estranged from thee in heart,
Doubtless thou our Father art;
From thy hand our spirits came:
Father, hallowed be thy name.

3 Born anew, oh, may we feel
Familial love, the spirit's seal!
Cleansed from guilt, redeemed from shame:
Father, hallowed be thy name.

4 When in want, or when in wealth,
Joy or sorrow, pain or health,
Still our prayer shall be the same:
Father, hallowed be thy name.

657. "My times are in Thy hand."
Psalm 31.

1 Sovereign Ruler of the skies,
Ever gracious, ever wise!
All my times are in thy hand;
All events at thy command.

2 Times of sickness, times of health,
Times of penury and wealth,—
All must come, and last, and end,
As shall please my heavenly Friend.

3 O thou gracious, wise and just!
In thy hands my life I trust;
Have I somewhat dearer still?—
I resign it to thy will.

4 Thee at all times will I bless;
Having thee, I all possess:
No'er can I bereaved be,
While I do not part with thee.

710. "As Thou art, so let us be."

1 Holy Lamb, who thee receive,
Who in thee begin to live,
Day and night they cry to thee,
"As thou art, so let us be!"

2 Gladly would we now be clean;
Cleanse us, Lord, from every sin;
Fix, oh, fix our wavering mind!
To thy cross our spirit bind.

3 Dust and ashes though we be,
Full of sin and misery,
Thine we are, thou Son of God:
Take the purchase of thy blood!

1 Holy Ghost, with light divine,
Shine upon this heart of mine!
Chase the shades of night away,
Turn my darkness into day.
2 Holy Ghost, with power divine,
Cleanse this guilty heart of mine;
Long hath sin, without control,
Held dominion o'er my soul.

3 Holy Ghost, with joy divine,
Cheer this saddened heart of mine;
Bid my many woes depart,
Heal my wounded, bleeding heart!

4 Holy Spirit, all Divine!
Dwell within this heart of mine;
Cast down every idol-throne;
Elevate, and reign alone!

588. Poor in Spirit.
1 When, my Saviour, shall I be Perfectly resigned to thee?
Poor and vile in my own eyes,
Only in thy wisdom wise?

2 Only thee content to know,
Ignorant of all below?
Only guided by thy light?
Only mighty in thy might?

3 Fully in my life express
All the heights of holiness;
Sweetly let my spirit prove
All the depths of humble love.

835. Having all in having Christ.
1 Jesus, take me for thine own;
To thy will my spirit frame;
Thou shalt reign, and thou alone,
Over all I have and am.

2 Making thus the Lord my choice,
I have nothing more to choose,
But to listen to thy voice,
And my will in thine to lose.

3 Then, whatever may betide,
I shall safe and happy be;
—Having all in having thee.

836. None but Christ.
1 Jesus, all-atoning Lamb,
Thine, and only thine I am:
Take my body, spirit, soul;
Only thou possess the whole.

2 Thou my one thing needful be;
Let me ever cleave to thee;
Let me choose the better part:
Let me give thee all my heart.

3 Whom have I on earth below?
Thee, and only thee, I know:
Whom have I in heaven but thee?
Thou art all in all to me.
17. "My heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God." Psalm 85.

1 O God of hosts, the mighty Lord,
   How lovely is the place,
   Where, in thy glory, we behold
   The brightness of thy face!

2 My longing soul faints with desire
   To view thy blest abode;
   My panting heart and flesh cry out
   For thee, the living God.

3 Thrice happy they, whose choice has thee
   Their sure protection made;
   Who long to tread the sacred ways,
   Which to thy dwelling lead.

4 For God, who is our sun and shield,
   Will grace and glory give;
   And no good thing will he withhold
   From them that justly live.

5 O Lord of hosts, my King, my God!
   How highly blest are they,
   Who in thy temple always dwell,
   And there thy praise display!

195. "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills." Psalm 121.

1 Up to the hills I lift mine eyes,
   There all my hope is laid;
   The Lord, who built the earth and skies—
   From him will come mine aid.

2 Thy foot unmoved he ever keeps,
   And all thy ways will guard;
   He slumbers not, and never sleeps—
   Thy keeper is the Lord.

3 The Lord, thy keeper, shades thy way,
   Preserves thee in his sight;
   Nor shall the sun smite thee by day,
   Nor shall the moon by night.

4 The Lord preserves thy soul from sin,
   From evils great and sore—

| Thy going out and coming in,  | Thy power in the ocean deeps, |
| Now and for evermore.         | Thy goodness never dies.       |

485. Delight in the Scriptures.

1 Father of mercies, in thy word
   What endless glory shines!
   For ever be thy name adored
   For these celestial lines.

2 Here my Redeemer's welcome voice
   Spreads heavenly peace around;
   And life and everlasting joys
   Attend the blissful sound.

3 Oh, may these heavenly pages be
   My ever dear delight;
   And still new beauties may I see,
   And still increasing light!

4 Divine Instructor, gracious Lord,
   Be thou for ever near;
   Teach me to love thy sacred word,
   And view my Saviour there.

139. "How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God!" Psalm 139.

1 Jehovah, God! thy gracious power
   On every hand we see;
   Oh, may the blessings of each hour
   Lead all our thoughts to thee!

2 If, on the wings of morn, we speed
   To earth's remotest bound,
   Thy hand will there our footsteps lead,
   Thy love our path surround.

3 Thy power is in the ocean deeps,
   And reaches to the skies;
   Thine eye of mercy never sleeps,
   Thy goodness never dies.

4 From morn till noon—till latest eve,
   Thy hand, O God, we see;
   And all the blessings we receive,
   Proceed alone from thee.
5 In all the varying scenes of time,
On thee our hopes depend;
Through every age, in every clime,
Our Father, and our Friend.

147. "The memory of Thy great goodness."
Psalm 145.

1 Sweet is the memory of thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness
In sounds of glory sing.

2 God reigns on high; but ne'er confines
His goodness to the skies;
Thro' the whole earth his bounty shines,
And every want supplies.

3 With longing eyes thy creatures wait
On thee for daily food;
Thy liberal hand provides their meat,
And fills their mouth with good.

4 How kind are thy compassions, Lord!
How slow thine anger moves!
But soon he sends his pardoning word,
To cheer the souls he loves.

5 Sweet is the memory of thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness
In sounds of glory sing.

158. Wonders of God's Grace.

1 Eternal Power! Almighty God!
Who can approach thy throne!
Accessless light is thine abode,
To angel eyes unknown.

2 Before the radiance of thine eye,
The heavens no longer shine;
And all the glories of the sky
Are but the shade of thine.

3 Great God! and wilt thou condescend
To cast a look below?

To this vile world thy notice bend—
These seats of sin and woe?

4 How strange! how wondrous is thy love!
With trembling we adore:
Not all th' exalted minds above
Its wonders can explore.

5 While golden harps and angel tongues
Resound immortal lays,
Great God! permit our humble songs
To rise and speak thy praise.

643 "There is none like unto the Lord our God!"

1 My God, my Portion, and my Love,
My everlasting All,
I've none but thee in heaven above,
Or on this earthly ball.

2 To thee I owe my wealth and friends,
My health, and safe abode:
Thanks to thy name for meaner things,
But they are not my God.

3 How vain a toy is glittering wealth,
If once compared with thee?
Or what's my safety or my health,
Or all my friends to me?

4 Were I possessor of the earth,
And called the stars my own,
Without thy graces and thyself,
I were a wretch undone.

5 Let others stretch their arms like seas,
And grasp in all the shore;
Grant me the visits of thy face,
And I desire no more.

Doxology.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore!
HULL. L. M.

83. "Let us worship and bow down."—Psalm 95.
1 On, come, loud anthems let us sing,
   Loud thanks to our almighty King!
   For we our voices high should raise,
   When our salvation's Rock we praise.

2 Into his presence let us haste,
   To thank him for his favors past;
   To him address in joyful songs
   The praise that to his name belongs.

3 Oh, let us to his courts repair,
   And bow with adoration there!
   Down on our knees, devoutly, all
   Before the Lord, our Maker, fall.

156. "The Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice."—Psalm 97.
1 Jehovah reigns; let all the earth
   In his just government rejoice;
   Let all the isles, with sacred mirth,
   In his applause unite their voice.

2 Darkness and clouds of awful shade
   His dazzling glory shroud in state;
   Justice and truth his guards are made,
   And, fixed by his pavilion, wait.

3 Rejoice, ye righteous, in the Lord;
   Memorials of his holiness
   Deep in your faithful breasts record,
   And with your thankful tongues confess.

187. The Majesty of Jehovah.—Psalm 68.
1 Kingdoms and thrones to God belong;
   Crown him, ye nations, in your song:
   His wondrous name and power rehearse;
   His honors shall enrich your verse.

2 He rides and thunders through the sky;
   His name, Jehovah, sounds on high:
   Praise him along, ye sons of grace;
   Ye saints, rejoice before his face.

3 God is our shield, our joy, our rest;
   God is our King, proclaim him blest;
   When terrors rise, when nations faint,
   He is the strength of every saint.

1123. "He shall come down like rain upon the meadows green."—Psalm 92.
1 Great God, whose universal sway
   The known and unknown worlds obey,
   Now give the kingdom to thy Son;
   Extend his power, exalt his throne.

2 As rain on meadows newly mown,
   So shall he send his influence down;
   His grace on fainting souls distills,
   Like heavenly dew on thirsty hills.

3 The heathen lands, that lie beneath
   The shades of overspreading death,
   Revive at his first dawning light,
   And deserts blossom at the sight.

4 The saints shall flourish in his days,
   Dressed in the robes of joy and praise;
   Peace, like a river, from his throne
   Shall flow to nations yet unknown.

1285. "Justice and judgment are the habitation of Thy throne."—Psalm 97.
1 He reigns! the Lord, the Saviour reigns!
   Sing to his name in lofty strains;
   Let the whole earth in songs rejoice,
   And in his praise exalt their voice!

2 Deep are his counsels, and unknown;
   But grace and truth support his throne;
   Tho' gloomy clouds his ways surround,
   Justice is their eternal ground.

3 In robes of judgment, lo! he comes,—
   Shakes the wide earth, and cleaves the tombs;
   Before him burns devouring fire!
   The mountains melt, the seas retire!

4 His enemies, with sore dismay,
   Fly from the sight, and shun the day:
   Then lift your heads, ye saints, on high,
   And sing, for your redemption's nigh!
930. "Welcome to me the darkest night."

1 Welcome to me the darkest night,
   If there the Saviour's presence bright
   Beam forth upon the soul dismayed,
   And say, "This! be not afraid!"

2 Welcome the fiercest waves that roll
   Their deepening floods to whelm my soul,
   If he rebuke the storm of ill,
   And bid the tempest, "Peace, be still!"

3 Welcome the thorniest path, if there
   The print-marks of his feet appear;
   If in his footsteps we may tread,
   And follow where our Lord hath led.

4 I will not ask what else is mine,
   If thou, O Lord, account me thine;
   For what but joy can be my lot,
   If God, my God, reject me not?

1085. "Thy little flock in safety keep."

1 Jesus, thou Shepherd of the sheep,
   Thy "little flock" in safety keep;
   These lambs within thine arms now take,
   Nor let them e'er thy fold forsake.

2 Secure them from the scorching beam,
   And lead them to the living stream;
   In verdant pastures let them lie,
   And watch them with a shepherd's eye!

3 Oh, teach them to discern thy voice,
   And in its sacred sound rejoice!
   From strangers may they ever flee,
   And know no other guide but thee.

4 Lord, bring thy sheep that wander yet,
   And let their number be complete;
   Then let the flock from earth remove,
   And reach the heavenly fold above.

1058. Prayer for an Assembly of Ministers.

1 Pour out thy Spirit from on high;
   Lord, thine assembled servants bless;
   Graces and gifts to each supply,
   And clothe thy priests with righteousness.

2 Within thy temple, where we stand
   To teach the truth, not ours, but thine,
   May we, like stars in thy right hand,
   The angels of the churches, shine!

3 Wisdom, and zeal, and faith impart,
   Firmness with meekness from above,
   To bear thy people on our heart,
   And love the souls whom thou dost love:

4 To watch and pray, and never faint;
   By day and night strict guard to keep,
   To warn the sinner, cheer the saint,
   Nourish thy lambs, and feed thy sheep;

5 Then, when our work is finished here,
   In humble hope our charge resign:

   When the chief Shepherd shall appear,
   O God, may they and we be thine!

1 When Israel, of the Lord beloved,
   Out from the land of bondage came,
   Her fathers' God before her moved,
   An awful guide, in smoke and flame.

2 By day, along th' astonished lands,
   The cloudy pillar glided slow;
   By night, Arabia's crimsoned sands
   Returned the fiery column's glow.

3 Thus present still, though now unseen,
   O Lord, when shines the prosperous day,
   Be thoughts of thee a cloudy screen,
   To temper the deceitful ray!

4 And, oh! when gathers on our path,
   In shade and storm, the frequent night,
   Be thou long suffering, slow to wrath,
   A burning and a shining light.

38. "The Lord is a great God, and a great King." Psalm 99.

1 Sing to the Lord Jehovah's name,
   And in his strength rejoice:
   When his salvation is our theme,
   Exalted be our voice.

2 With thanks approach his awful sight,
   And psalms of honor sing:
   The Lord's a God of boundless might,
   The whole creation's King.

3 Let princes hear, let angels know
   How mean their natures seem,—
   Those gods on high, and gods below,
   When once compared with him.

4 Earth, with its caverns dark and deep,
   Lies in his spacious hand;
   He fixed the seas what bounds to keep,
   And where the hills must stand.

5 Come, and with humble souls adore;
   Come, kneel before his face:
   Oh, may the creatures of his power
   Be children of his grace!

6 Now is the time; he bends his ear,
   And waits for your request:
   Come, lest he rouse his wrath, and swear,
   "Ye shall not see my rest."

1034. "The time to fear her, ye, the set time, is come."—Psalm 102.

1 Let Zion and her sons rejoice—
   Behold the promised hour!
   Her God hath heard her mourning voice,
   And comes t' exalt his power.

2 Her dust and ruins that remain
   Are precious in our eyes;
   Those ruins shall be built again,
   And all that dust shall rise.

3 The Lord will raise Jerusalem,
   And stand in glory there;
   Nations shall bow before his name,
   And kings attend with fear.

4 He sits a sovereign on his throne,
   With pity in his eyes;
   He hears the dying prisoners' groan,
   And sees their sighs arise.

5 He frees the soul condemned to death,
   Nor, when his saints complain,
   Shall it be said that praying breath
   Was ever spent in vain.

6 This shall be known when we are dead,
   And left on long record,
   That nations yet unborn may read,
   And trust and praise the Lord.
148. "His tender mercies are over all His works."

1 Thy goodness, Lord, our souls confess;
   Thy goodness we adore:
   A spring, whose blessings never fail;
   A sea without a shore!

2 Sun, moon, and stars, thy love attest
   In every golden ray;
   Love draws the curtains of the night,
   And love brings back the day.

3 Thy bounty every season crowns
   With all the bliss it yields;
   With joyful clusters loads the vines,
   With strengthening grain, the fields.

4 But chiefly thy compassion, Lord,
   Is in the gospel seen;
   There, like a sun, thy mercy shines,
   Without a cloud between.

5 There pardon, peace, and holy joy,
   Through Jesus' name are given;
   He on the cross was lifted high,
   That we might reign in heaven.

369. "I know that my Redeemer liveth."

1 I know that my Redeemer lives;
   He lives who once was dead;
   To me in grief he comfort gives;
   With peace he crowns my head.

2 He lives, triumphant o'er the grave,
   At God's right hand on high,
   My ransomed soul to keep and save,
   'To bless and glorify.

3 He lives to fill my breast with love,
   With joy my heart to feed;
   He lives to plead for me above,
   To succor me in need.

4 He lives that I may also live,
   And now his grace proclaim;
   He lives that I may honor give
   To his most holy name.

5 Let strains of heavenly music rise,
   While all their anthem sing
   To Christ, my precious sacrifice,
   And ever-living King.

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   One God whom we adore,
   Be glory as it was, is now,
   And shall be evermore!
339. "The Song of Songs.—Rev. 5.

1 Come, let us sing the song of songs—
   The saints in heaven began the strain—
   The homage which to Christ belongs:
   "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

2 Slain to redeem us by his blood,
   To cleanse from every sinful stain,
   And make us kings and priests to God—
   "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

3 To him who suffered on the tree,
   Our souls, at his soul's price, to gain,
   Blessing, and praise, and glory be:
   "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

4 To him, enthroned by filial right,
   All power in heaven and earth proclaim,
   Honor, and majesty, and might:
   "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

5 Long as we live, and when we die,
   And while in heaven with him we reign;
   This song our song of songs shall be:
   "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

889. "Stand up, my soul! shake off thy fears."

1 Stand up, my soul! shake off thy fears,
   And gird the gospel armor on;
   March to the gates of endless joy,
   Where Jesus, thy great Captain's gone.

2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course;
   But hell and sin are vanquished foes:
   Thy Jesus nailed them to the cross,
   And sung the triumph when he rose.

3 Then let my soul march boldly on;
   Press forward to the heavenly gate:
   There peace and joy eternal reign,
   And glitt'ring robes for conquerors wait.

4 There shall I wear a starry crown,
   And triumph in almighty grace,
   While all the armies of the skies
   Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

890. "They shall mount up with wings, as eagles.—Isaiah 40:31.

1 Awake, our souls! away, our fears!
   Let every trembling thought be gone;
   Awake, and run the heavenly race,
   And put a cheerful courage on!

2 True, 'tis a strait and thorny road,
   And mortal spirits tire and faint;
   But they forget the mighty God,
   Who feeds the strength of every saint—

3 The mighty God, whose matchless power
   Is ever new and ever young,
   And firm endures, while endless years
   Their everlasting circles run.

4 From thee, the overflowing spring,
   Our souls shall drink a fresh supply;
   While such as trust their native strength
   Shall melt away, and droop, and die.

5 Swift as an eagle cuts the air
   We'll mount aloft to thine abode;
   On wings of love our souls shall fly,
   Nor tire amid the heavenly road!

901. "Stand therefore—taking the shield of faith."

1 Awake, my soul! lift up thine eyes;
   See where thy foes against thee rise,
   In long array, a numerous host;
   Awake, my soul, or thou art lost!

2 Thou tread'st upon enchanted ground;
   Perils and snares beset thee round;
   Beware of all; guard every part;
   But most, the traitor in thy heart.

3 Come then, my soul! now learn to wield
   The weight of thine immortal shield;
   Put on the armor, from above,
   Of heavenly truth, and heavenly love.

4 The terror and the charm repel,
   And powers of earth, and powers of hell;
   The Man of Calvary triumphed here:
   Why should his faithful followers fear?
159. "Bless the Lord, O my soul."—Psalm 103.

1 Bless, O my soul! the living God;
   Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad:
   Let all the powers within me join
   In work and worship so divine.

2 Bless, O my soul! the God of grace
   His favors claim thy highest praise;
   Why should the wonders he hath wrought
   Be lost in silence, and forgot?

3 'Tis he, my soul, that sent his Son
   To die for crimes which thou hast done;
   He owns the ransom, and forgives
   The hourly follies of our lives.

4 Let every land his power confess;
   Let all the earth adore his grace:
   My heart and tongue with rapture join
   In work and worship so divine.

182. "God only wise."

1 Awake, my tongue, thy tribute bring
   To him who gave thee power to sing:
   Praise him, who has all praise above,
   The source of wisdom and of love.

2 How vast his knowledge! how profound!
   A depth where all our tho'ts are drowned!
   The stars he numbers, and their names
   He gives to all those heavenly flames.

3 Through each bright world above, behold
   Ten thousand thousand charms unfold;
   Earth, air, and mighty seas combine,
   To speak his wisdom all divine.

4 But in redemption, oh, what grace!
   Its wonders, oh, what thought can trace!
   Here wisdom shines for ever bright:
   Praise him, my soul, with sweet delight.

Glory of the Grace of God.

1 Now to the Lord a noble song:
   Awake, my soul! awake, my tongue!
   Hosanna to th' eternal Name,
   And all his boundless love proclaim!

2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,
   The brightest image of his grace:
   God, in the person of his Son,
   Has all his mightiest works outdone.

3 Grace!—'t is a sweet, a charming theme;
   My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name:
   Ye angels, dwell upon the sound;
   Ye heavens, reflect it to the ground!

4 Oh, may I live to reach the place
   Where he unveils his lovely face!
   Where I his beauties shall behold,
   And sing his name to harps of gold!
130. "Our God is full of might."

1 The Lord our God is full of might,
The winds obey his will;
He speaks, and, in his heavenly height,
The rolling sun stands still.

2 Rebel, ye waves, and o'er the land
With threatening aspect pour:
The Lord uplifts his awful hand,
And chains you to the shore.

3 Howl, winds of night, your force combine;
Without his high behest
Ye shall not, in the mountain-pine,
Disturb the sparrow's nest.

4 His voice sublime is heard afar,
In distant peals it dies;
He yokes the whirlwind to his car,
And sweeps the howling skies.

5 Ye nations, bend—in reverence bend;
Ye monarchs, wait his nod,
And bid the choral song ascend
To celebrate our God.

131. The Lord of All.

1 The Lord our God is Lord of all;
His station who can find!
I hear him in the waterfall;
I hear him in the wind.

2 If in the gloom of night I shroud,
His face I can not fly;
I see him in the evening cloud,
And in the morning sky.

3 He lives, he reigns in every land,
From winter's polar snows,
To where, across the burning sand,
The blasting meteor glows.

4 He smiles, we live; he frowns, we die;
We hang upon his word;

He rears his mighty arm on high,
We fall before his sword.

5 He bids his gales the fields deform;
Then, when his thunders cease,
He paints his rainbow on the storm,
And hurls the winds to peace.

143. Eternity of God.—Psalm 102.

1 Through endless years, thou art the same,
O thou eternal God!
Ages to come shall know thy name,
And tell thy works abroad.

2 The strong foundations of the earth
Of old by thee were laid;
By thee the beauteous arch of heaven
With matchless skill was made.

3 Soon shall this goodly frame of things,
Formed by thy powerful hand,
Be, like a vesture, laid aside,
And changed at thy command.

4 But thy perfections all divine,
Eternal as thy days,
Through everlasting ages shine,
With undiminished rays.

5 Our children's children, still thy care,
Shall own their father's God;
To latest times thy favor share,
And spread thy praise abroad.

199. God a Refuge in Temptation.—Psalm 55.

1 O God, my Refuge, hear my cries!
Behold my flowing tears;
For, earth and hell my hurt devise,
And triumph in my fears.

2 Oh, were I like some gentle dove,
Soon would I stretch my wings,
And fly, and make a long remove
From all these restless things!
3 God shall preserve my soul from fear,
Or shield me when afraid;
Ten thousand angels must appear,
If he command their aid.

4 By morning light I'll seek his face,
At noon repeat my cry,
The night shall hear me ask his grace,
Nor will he long deny.

5 I cast my burdens on the Lord,
The Lord sustains them all;
My courage rests upon his word
That saints shall never fall.

650. "I was brought low, and He helped me,"
Psalm 116.

1 I love the Lord; he heard my cries,
And pitied every groan;
Long as I live, when troubles rise,
I'll hasten to his throne.

2 I love the Lord; he bowed his ear,
And chased my grief away;
Oh, let my heart no more despair,
While I have breath to pray!

3 The Lord beheld me sore distressed,
He bade my pains remove:
Return, my soul, to God, thy rest,
For thou hast known his love!

4 My God hath saved my soul from death,
And dried my falling tears;
Now to his praise I'll spend my breath,
And my remaining years.

669. Unchanging Trust.—Psalm 18.

1 No change of time shall ever shock
My trust, O Lord, in thee;
For thou hast always been my Rock,
A sure defense to me.

2 Thou, my deliverer art, O God;
My trust is in thy power:

Thou art my shield from foes abroad,
My safeguard, and my tower.

3 To thee will I address my prayer,
To whom all praise I owe;
So shall I, by thy watchful care,
Be saved from every foe.

4 Then let Jehovah be adored,
On whom my hopes depend;
For who, except the mighty Lord,
His people can defend?

887. "Why sayest thou, My way is hid from

1 Where do our mournful thoughts arise,
And where's our courage fled?
Has restless sin, or raging hell,
Struck all our comforts dead?

2 Have we forgot th' almighty Name
That formed the earth and sea?
And can an all-creating arm
Grow weary or decay?

3 Treasures of everlasting might
In our Jehovah dwell;
He gives the conquest to the weak,
And treads their foes to hell.

4 Mere mortal power shall fade and die,
And youthful vigor cease;
But we who wait upon the Lord
Shall feel our strength increase.

5 The saints shall mount on eagles' wings,
And taste the promised bliss,
Till their unwearied feet arrive
Where perfect pleasure is.

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore!
1 Be joyful in God, all ye lands of the earth;
Oh, serve him with gladness and fear;
Exult in his presence with music and mirth,
With love and devotion draw near.

2 The Lord he is God, and Jehovah alone,
Creator, and Ruler o'er all;
And we are his people, his scepter we own,—
His sheep, and we follow his call.

3 Oh, enter his gates with thanksgiving and song;
Your vows in his temple proclaim;
His praise with melodious accordance prolong,
And bless his adorable name.

4 For good is the Lord, ever gracious and good,
And we are the work of his hand;
His mercy and truth from eternity stood,
And shall to eternity stand.

SIVAN. 11s & 8s.

191.  "The Lord is great."
1 The Lord is great! ye hosts of heaven, adore him;
And ye, who tread this earthly ball,
In holy songs rejoice aloud before him,
And shout his praise who made you all.

2 The Lord is great! his majesty, how glorious!
Resound his praise from shore to shore;
O'er sin, and death, and hell, now made victorious,
He rules and reigns for evermore.

3 The Lord is great! his mercy, how abounding!
Ye angels, strike your golden chords;
O, praise our God, with voice and harp resounding,
The King of kings, and Lord of lords!
266. The Star in the East.

1 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning!
   Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid;
   Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
   Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining;
   Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall:
   Angels adore him, in slumber reclining,
   Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all!

3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
   Odors of Edom, and offerings divine?
   Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
   Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
   Vainly with gold would his favors secure:
   Richer, by far, is the heart's adoration;
   Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

5 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning!
   Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid;
   Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
   Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

1030.* "Arise, shine, for thy light is come."

1 Daughter of Zion! awake from thy sadness;
   Awake, for thy foes shall oppress thee no more;
   Bright o'er thy hills dawns the day-star of gladness;
   Arise! for the night of thy sorrow is o'er.

2 Strong were thy foes, but the arm that subdued them,
   And scattered their legions, was mightier far;
   They fled, like the chaff, from the scourge that pursued them;
   For vain were their steeds and their chariots of war!

3 Daughter of Zion! the Power that hath saved thee,
   Extolled with the harp and the timbrel should be:
   Shout! for the foe is destroyed that enslaved thee,
   Th' oppressor is vanquished, and Zion is free!

* Omit the tie for this hymn.
124. "He bowed the heavens, also, and came down." Psalm 18.

1 The Lord descended from above, And bowed the heavens most high; And underneath his feet he cast The darkness of the sky.

2 On cherub and on cherubim, Full royally, he rode; And on the wings of mighty winds Came flying all abroad.

3 He sat serene upon the floods, Their fury to restrain; And he, as Sovereign, Lord, and King, For evermore shall reign.

4 The Lord will give his people strength, Whereby they shall increase; And he will bless his chosen flock With everlasting peace.

5 Give glory to his awful name, And honor him alone; Give worship to his majesty Upon his holy throne.

4 Lord, here we bend our humble souls, In awe and love adore; For the weak pinions of our mind Can stretch a thought no more.

5 Thy glories infinitely rise Above our laboring tongue; In vain the highest seraph tries To form an equal song.

6 In humble notes our faith adores The great, mysterious King; While angels strain their nobler powers, And sweep th' immortal string.

236. "God moves in a mysterious way."

1 God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform; He plants his footsteps in the sea, And rides upon the storm.

2 Deep in unfathomable mines Of never-failing skill, He treasures up his bright designs, And works his sovereign will.

3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take: The clouds ye so much dread Are big with mercy, and shall break In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, But trust him for his grace: Behind a frowning providence He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast, Unfolding every hour; The bud may have a bitter taste, But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err, And scan his work in vain; God is his own interpreter, And he will make it plain.
245. "Unto Him that loved us."
Rev. 1: 5-8.
1 To him who loved the souls of men,
And washed us in his blood,
To royal honors raised our head,
And made us priests to God;—
2 To him let every tongue be praise,
And every heart be love;
All grateful honors paid on earth,
And nobler songs above!
3 Behold, on flying clouds he comes!
His saints shall bless the day;
While they that pierced him sadly mourn
In anguish and dismay.
4 Thou art the First, and thou the Last:
Time centers all in thee,—
Th' almighty God, who was, and is,
And evermore shall be.

350. God revealed in the Atone-ment.
1 Father, how wide thy glory shines!
How high thy wonders rise!
Known through the earth by thousand signs,
By thousand through the skies.
2 Those mighty orbs proclaim thy power,
Their motions speak thy skill;
And on the wings of every hour
We read thy patience still.
3 But when we view thy strange design
To save rebellious worms,
Where vengeance and compassion join
In their divinest forms,—
4 Here the whole Deity is known;
Nor daries a creature guess
Which of the glories brightest shone,
The justice, or the grace.
5 Now the full glories of the Lamb
Adorn the heavenly plains;
Bright seraphs learn Immanuel's name,
And try their choicest strains.
6 Oh, may I bear some humble part
In that immortal song!
Wonder and joy shall tune my heart,
And love command my tongue.

468. An ancient Hymn to the Trinity.
1 To God be glory, peace on earth,
To all mankind good will;
We bless, we praise, we worship thee,
And glorify thee still;
2 And thanks for thy great glory give,
That fills our souls with light;
O Lord, our heavenly King, the God
And Father of all might!
3 And thou, begotten Son of God,
Before all time begun;
O Jesus Christ, thou Lamb of God,
The Father's only Son;
4 Thou who the sins of all the world
Dost fully take away,
Have mercy, Saviour of mankind,
And hear us when we pray!
5 O thou, who sitt'st at God's right hand;
Upon the Father's throne,
Have mercy on us, thou, O Christ,
Who art the Holy One!
6 Thou, only with the Holy Ghost
Whom earth and heaven adore,
In glory of the Father art
Most high for evermore!
THE OLD HUNDREDTH. L. M.

90. Pastoral Benediction.
1 Now may the Lord our Shepherd lead
   To living streams his little flock;
   May he in flowery pastures feed,
   Shade us at noon beneath the rock!

2 Now may we hear our Shepherd's voice,
   And gladly answer to his call;
   Now may our hearts for him rejoice,
   Who knows, and names, and loves us all.

3 When the Chief Shepherd shall appear,
   And small and great before him stand,
   Oh, be the flock assembling here
   Found with the sheep on his right hand!

347. Brief Call to praise Christ.
1 Worthy the Lamb of boundless sway,
   In earth and heaven the Lord of all:
   Let all the powers of earth obey,
   And low before his footstool fall.

2 Higher, still higher, swell the strain;
   Creation's voice the note prolong!
   Jesus, the Lamb, shall ever reign:
   Let hallelujahs crown the song!

473. "Thy wondrous Name."
1 Great One in Three, great Three in One!
   Thy wondrous name we sound abroad;
   Prostrate we fall before thy throne,
   O holy, holy, holy Lord!

2 Thee, Holy Father, we confess;
   Thee, Holy Saviour, we adore;
   And thee, O Holy Ghost, we bless
   And praise and worship evermore.

3 Thou art by heaven and earth adored;
   Thy universe is full of thee,
   O holy, holy, holy Lord!
   Great Three in One, great One in Three!

1 With heavenly power, O Lord, defend
   Him whom we now to thee commend;
   Thy faithful messenger secure,
   And make him to the end endure.

2 Girl him with all-sufficient grace;
   Direct his feet in paths of peace;
   Thy truth and faithfulness fulfill,
   And arm him to obey thy will.

1104. "To let the oppressed go free, and break every yoke."
1 Lord, when thine ancient people cried,
   Oppressed and bound by Egypt's king,
   Thou didst Arabia's sea divide,
   And forth thy fainting Israel bring.

2 Lo! in these latter days, our land
   Groans with the anguish of the slave!
   Lord God of hosts! stretch forth thy hand,
   Not shortened that it can not save.

3 Roll back the swelling tide of sin,—
   The lust of gain, the lust of power;
   The day of freedom usher in:
   How long delays th' appointed hour?

4 As thou of old to Miriam's hand
   The thrilling timbrel didst restore,
   And to her joyful song the land
   Echoed from desert to the shore,—

5 Oh, let thy smitten ones again
   Take up the chorus of the free:
   "Praise ye the Lord! his power proclaim,
   For he hath conquered gloriously!"

1125. "All kings shall fall down before Him."
1 Let the seventh angel sound on high;
   Let shouts be heard through all the sky;
   Kings of the earth, with glad accord,
   Give up your kingdom to the Lord.

2 Almighty God! thy power assume,
   Who wast, and art, and art to come;
   Jesus, the Lamb, who once was slain,
   For ever live,—for ever reign!

1 Jehovah reigns; his throne is high,
   His robes are light and majesty:
   His glory shines with beams so bright,
   No mortal can sustain the sight.

2 His terrors keep the world in awe;
   His justice guards his holy law;
   His love reveals a smiling face;
   His truth and promise seal the grace.

3 Thro' all his works that wisdom shines!
   He baffles Satan's deep designs;
   His power is sovereign to fulfill
   The noblest counsels of his will.

4 And will this glorious Lord descend
   To be my Father and my Friend?
   Then let my songs with angels join,
   Heaven is secure, if God is mine.

250. The same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.—Heb. 13:8.

1 With transport, Lord, our souls proclaim
   Th' immortal honor of thy name;
   Assembled round our Saviour's throne,
   We make his ceaseless glories known.

2 Through all revolving ages, he
   The same hath been, the same shall be:
   Immortal radiance gilds his head,
   While stars and suns wax old and fade.

3 The same his power his flock to guard;
   The same his bounty to reward;
   The same his faithfulness and love
   To saints on earth, and saints above.

4 Let nature change, and sink, and die,
   Jesus shall raise his chosen high,
   And fix them near his steadfast throne,
   In glory changeless as his own.

1105. I, the Lord, will hasten it in his time.

1 Hasten, O Lord, that happy time,
   That dear, expected, blessed day!
   When men of every race and clime
   The Saviour's precepts shall obey.

2 In one sweet symphony of praise,
   Gentile and Jew shall then unite;
   And all the wrongs that man has wrought
   Sink in th' abyss of endless night.

3 Then Afric's long enslaved sons
   Shall join with Europe's polished race,
   To celebrate, in different tongues,
   The glories of redeeming grace.

4 From east to west, from north to south,
   Immanuel's kingdom shall extend;
   And every man, in every face,
   Shall meet a brother and a friend.

1 Thy footsteps, Lord, with joy we trace,
   And mark the conquests of thy grace;
   Complete the work thou hast begun,
   And let thy will on earth be done.

2 Oh, show thyself the Prince of peace;
   Command the din of war to cease:
   Oh, bid contending nations rest,
   And let thy love rule every breast!

3 Then peace returns with balmy wing;
   Glad plenty laughs, the valleys sing;
   Reviving commerce lifts her head,
   And want and woe and hate have fled.

4 Thou good and wise, and righteous Lord,
   All move subservient to thy word;
   Oh, soon let every nation prove
   The perfect joy of Christian love!

Doxology.

PRAISE God, from whom all blessings flow!
Praise him, all creatures here below!
Praise him above, ye heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
99. Praise to Jehovah.

1 Praise to thee, thou great Creator!
   Praise to thee from every tongue:
   Join, my soul, with every creature,
   Join the universal song.

2 Father, Source of all compassion
   Pure, unbounded grace is thine:
   Hail the God of our salvation!
   Praise him for his love divine.

3 For ten thousand blessings given,
   For the hope of future joy,
   Sound his praise through earth and heaven,
   Sound Jehovah's praise on high.

4 Joyfully on earth adore him,
   Till in heaven our song we raise;
   There, enraptured, fall before him,
   Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

394. The Desire of all nations.

1 Come, thou long-expected Jesus,
   Born to set thy people free;
   From our fears and sins release us,
   Let us find our rest in thee.

2 Israel's strength and consolation,
   Hope of all the earth thou art;
   Dear desire of every nation,
   Joy of every longing heart.

3 Born, thy people to deliver;
   Born a child, and yet a king;
   Born to reign in us for ever,
   Now thy gracious kingdom bring.

4 By thine own eternal Spirit,
   Rule in all our hearts alone;
   By thine all-sufficient merit,
   Raise us to thy glorious throne.

967. From grace to glory.

1 Know, my soul, thy full salvation;
   Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
   Joy to find in every station
   Something still to do or bear:
   Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
   Think what Father's smiles are thine;
   Think that Jesus died to win thee:
   Child of heaven, canst thou repine?

2 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
   Armed by faith, and winged by prayer;
   Heaven's eternal day before thee—
   God's own hand shall guide thee there.
   Soon shall close thine earthly mission,
   Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days;
Hope shall change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

1011. “I am a miracle of grace.”

1 Hail, my ever blessed Jesus!
Only thee I wish to sing;
To my soul thy name is precious,
Thou my Prophet, Priest, and King;
Oh, what mercy flows from heaven!
Oh, what joy and happiness!
Love I much? I’ve much forgiven—
I’m a miracle of grace!

2 Once with Adam’s race in ruin,
Unconcerned in sin I lay;
Swift destruction still pursuing,
Till my Saviour passed that way:
Witness, all ye hosts of heaven,
My Redeemer’s tenderness:
Love I much? I’ve much forgiven—
I’m a miracle of grace!

3 Shout, ye bright, angelic choir!
Praise the Lamb enthroned above!
While, astonished, I admire
God’s free grace and boundless love:
That blest moment I received him
Filled my soul with joy and peace:
Love I much? I’ve much forgiven—
I’m a miracle of grace!

1071. “And David said, ‘Blessed be thou.’”
1 Chron. 29: 10–23.

1 Blest be thou, O God of Israel!
Thou, our Father and our Lord!
Majesty is thine for ever;
Ever be thy name adored.

2 Thine, O Lord, are power and greatness;
Glory, victory, are thine own;
All is thine in earth and heaven,
Over all thy boundless throne.

3 Riches come of thee, and honor;
Power and might to thee belong;
Thine it is to make us prosper,
Only thine to make us strong.

4 Lord, our God, for these, thy bounties,
Hymns of gratitude we raise;
To thy name, for ever glorious,
Ever we address our praise.

Doxology.

Praise the God of our salvation,
Praise the Father’s boundless love;
Praise the Lamb, our expiation;
Praise the Spirit from above;
Praise the Fountain of salvation,
Him by whom our spirits live;
Undivided adoration
To the one Jehovah give!
123. "The Lord sitteth upon the flood."
Psalm 29.

1 Give to the Lord, ye sons of fame,
   Give to the Lord renown and power;
   Ascribe new honors to his name,
   And his eternal might adore.

2 The Lord proclaims his power aloud,
   O'er all the ocean and the land;
   His voice divides the watery cloud,
   And lightnings blaze at his command.

3 The Lord sits Sovereign on the flood;
   The Thunderer reigns for ever King;
   But makes his church his blest abode,
   Where we his awful glories sing.

4 In gentler language, there the Lord
   The counsels of his grace imparts:
   Amid the raging storm, his word
   Speaks peace and courage to our hearts.

133. God All-powerful.

1 The Lord, the God of glory, reigns,
   In robes of majesty arrayed;
   His rule omnipotence sustains,
   And guides the worlds his hands have made.

2 Ere rolling worlds began to move,
   Or ere the heavens were spread abroad,
   Thine awful throne was fixed above;
   From everlasting thou art God.

3 The swelling floods tumultuous rise,
   Aloud the angry tempests roar;
   Lift their proud billows to the skies,
   And foam, and lash the trembling shore.

4 The Lord, the mighty God, on high,
   Controls the fiercely raging seas;
   He speaks!—and noise and tempest fly,
   The waves sink down in gentle peace.

5 Thy sovereign laws are ever sure,
   Eternal purity is thine;
   And, Lord, thy people shall be pure.
   And in thy blest resemblance shine.

181. "Who can show forth all His praise?"
Psalm 106.

1 Ours, render thanks to God above,
   The fountain of eternal love;
   Whose mercy firm, through ages past,
   Hath stood, and shall for ever last.

2 Who can his mighty deeds express—
   Not only vast, but numberless!
   What mortal eloquence can raise
   His tribute of immortal praise!

3 Extend to me that favor, Lord,
   Thou to thy chosen dost afford;
   When thou return'st to set them free,
   Let thy salvation visit me.

4 Oh, render thanks to God above,
   The fountain of eternal love:
   His mercy firm, through ages past,
   Hath stood, and shall for ever last.

824. "Every day will I bless Thee."
Psalm 145.

1 My God, my King, thy various praise
   Shall fill the remnant of my days;
   Thy grace employ my humble tongue,
   Till death and glory raise the song.

2 The wings of every hour shall bear
   Some thankful tribute to thine ear;
   And every setting sun shall see
   New works of duty done for thee.

3 Let distant times and nations raise
   The long succession of thy praise;
   And unborn ages make my song
   The joy and triumph of their tongue.

4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
   Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds;
   Vast and unsearchable thy ways!
   Vast and immortal be thy praise!
1 Bright King of glory! dreadful God!
Our spirits bow before thy seat;
To thee we lift an humble thought,
And worship at thine awful feet!
2 A thousand seraphs, strong and bright,
Stand round the glorious Deity;
But who, among the sons of light,
Pretends comparison with thee?
3 Yet there is one, of human frame,
Jesus, arrayed in flesh and blood,
Thinks it no robbery to claim
A full equality with God.
4 Then, let the name of Christ, our King,
With equal honors be adored:
His praise let every angel sing,
And all the nations own him Lord.

251. “Go, worship at Immanuel’s feet.”
1 Go, worship at Immanuel’s feet;
See in his face what wonders meet:
Earth is too narrow to express
His worth, his glory, or his grace.
2 Nor earth, nor sea, nor sun, nor stars,
Nor heaven his full resemblance bears:
His beauties we can never trace,
Till we behold him face to face.
3 Oh, let me climb those higher skies,
Where storms and darkness never rise;
There he displays his power abroad,
And shines, and reigns, th’ incarnate God!

325. “Unto Him that loved us.”
Rev. 1:5-7.
1 Now to the Lord, who makes us know
The wonders of his dying love,
Be humble honors paid below,
And strains of nobler praise above!
2 ’Twas he who cleansed our foulest sins,
And washed us in his precious blood;
’Tis he who makes us priests and kings,
And brings us rebels near to God.
3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest,
To Jesus, our eternal King,
Be everlasting power confessed!
Let every tongue his glory sing.
4 Behold! on flying clouds he comes,
And every eye shall see him move;
Thee with our sins we pierced him once,
He now displays his pardoning love.
5 The unbelieving world shall wail,
While we rejoice to see the day:
Come, Lord, nor let thy promise fail,
Nor let thy chariot long delay.

381. “The Prince of Life.”
1 Hail to the Prince of life and peace,
Who holds the keys of death and hell!
The spacious world unseen is his,
And sovereign power becomes him well.
2 In shame and anguish once he died;
But now he lives for evermore:
Bow down, ye saints, around his seat,
And, all ye angel-bands, adore.
3 So live for ever, glorious Lord,
To crush thy foes and guard thy friends;
While all thy chosen tribes rejoice
That thy dominion never ends.
4 Worthy thy hand to hold the keys,
Guided by wisdom and by love;
Worthy to rule o’er mortal life,
O’er worlds below, and worlds above.
5 For ever reign, victorious King!
Wide thro’ the earth thy name be known;
And call my longing soul to sing
Sublimer anthems near thy throne.
NASHVILLE. L. P. M.

1 Let all the earth their voices raise,
   To sing the choicest psalm of praise;
   To sing and bless Jehovah's name:
   His glory let the heathen know;
   His wonders to the nations show;
   And all his saving works proclaim.

2 He framed the globe, he built the sky,
   He made the shining worlds on high,
   And reigns complete in glory there:
   His beams are majesty and light;
   His beauties, how divinely bright!
   His temple, how divinely fair!

3 Come the great day, the glorious hour,
   When earth shall feel his saving power,
   And barbarous nations fear his name!
   Then shall the race of man confess
   The beauty of his holiness,
   And in his courts his grace proclaim.

221. Everlasting Praise to Jehovah.
Psalm 145.

1 I'll praise my Maker with my breath;
   And when my voice is lost in death,
   Praise shall employ my nobler powers:
   My days of praise shall never be past,
   While life, and thought, and being last,
   Or immortality endures.

2 Happy the man whose hopes rely
   On Israel's God; he made the sky,
   And earth, and seas, with all their train:
   His truth for ever stands secure;
   He saves th' oppressed, he feeds the poor,
   And none shall find his promise vain.

3 The Lord hath eyes to give the blind,
   The Lord supports the sinking mind;
   He sends the lab'ring conscience peace:
   He helps the stranger in distress,
   The widow and the fatherless,
   And grants the prisoner sweet release.

4 He loves his saints, he knows them well,
   But turns the wicked down to hell:
   Thy God, O Zion, ever reigns!
   Let every tongue, let every age,
   In this exalted work engage:
   Praise him in everlasting strains.

5 I'll praise him while he lends me breath;
   And when my voice is lost in death,
   Praise shall employ my nobler powers:
   My days of praise shall never be past,
   While life, and thought, and being last,
   Or immortality endures.

484. "More to be desired than gold." Psalm 19.

1 I love the volume of thy word;
   What light and joy those leaves afford
   To souls benighted and distressed!
   Thy precepts guide my doubtful way,
   Thy fear forbids my feet to stray,
   Thy promise leads my heart to rest.

2 Thy threatenings wake my slumbering eyes,
   And war me where my danger lies;
   'Tis thy blessed gospel, Lord,
   That makes my guilty conscience clean,
   Converts my soul, subdues my sin,
   And gives a free, but large reward.
3 Who knows the errors of his thoughts?
My God forgive my secret faults,
And from presumptuous sins restrain:
Accept my poor attempts of praise,
That I have read thy book of grace,
And book of nature not in vain.

1272. "Shall he deliver his soul?"—Psalm 89.

1 Think, mighty God, on feeble man,
How few his hours, how short his span!
Short from the cradle to the grave:
Who can secure his vital breath
Against the bold demands of death,
With skill to fly, or power to save?

2 Lord, shall it be for ever said,
The race of man was only made
For sickness, sorrow, and the dust?
Are not thy servants, day by day,
Sent to their graves, and turned to clay?
Lord, where's thy kindness to the just?

3 Hast thou not promised to thy Son,
And all his seed, a heavenly crown?
But flesh and sense indulge despair:
Forever blessed be the Lord,
That faith can read his holy word,
And find a resurrection there.

4 For ever blessed be the Lord,
Who gives his saints a long reward
For all their toil, reproach, and pain:
Let all below, and all above
Join to proclaim thy wondrous love,
And each repeat his loud Amen!

1282. "The righteous judgment of God."
(A Hymn of the Thirteenth Century.)

1 The last loud trumpet's wondrous sound
Shall wake the nations under ground:
Where, then, my God, shall I be found,—

2 When all shall stand before thy throne,
When thou shalt make their sentence known,
And all thy righteous judgment own!—

3 Thou, who for sinners felt such pain,
Whose precious blood the Cross did stain,
Who did for us its curse sustain,—

4 By all that man's redemption cost,
Let not my trembling soul be lost,
In storms of guilty terror tossed!

5 Give me in that dread day a place
Among thy chosen, faithful race,
The sons of God, and heirs of grace.

6 Trembling before thy throne I bend;
My God, my Father, and my Friend,
Do not forsake me in the end!

Doxology.

Now to the great and sacred Three,
The Father, Son, and Spirit, be
Eternal praise and glory given,—
Through all the worlds where God is known,
By all the angels near the throne,
And all the saints in earth and heaven!
119. "The hand that made us is Divine."

1. The spacious firmament on high,
   With all the blue ethereal sky,
   And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
   Their great Original proclaim.

2. Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
   Does his Creator's power display,
   And publishes to every land
   The work of an Almighty hand.

3. Soon as the evening shades prevail,
   The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
   And nightly to the listening earth
   Repeats the story of her birth;

4. While all the stars that round her burn,
   And all the planets in their turn,
   Confirm the tidings as they roll,
   And spread the truth from pole to pole.

5. What though, in solemn silence, all
   Move round this dark, terrestrial ball?
   What though nor real voice nor sound
   Amid their radiant orbs be found?

6. In reason's ear they all rejoice,
   And utter forth a glorious voice;
   For ever singing, as they shine,
   "The hand that made us is Divine."

1. God is the refuge of his saints,
   When storms of sharp distress invade;
   Ere we can offer our complaints,
   Behold him present with his aid.

2. Let mountains from their seats be hurled
   Down to the deep, and buried there,
   Convulsions shake the solid world;
   Our faith shall never yield to fear.

3. Loud may the troubled ocean roar;
   In sacred peace our souls abide;
   While every nation, every shore
   Trembles and dreads the swelling tide.

4. There is a stream, whose gentle flow
   Supplies the city of our God,
   Life, love, and joy, still gliding through,
   And watering our divine abode.

5. That sacred stream, thine holy word,
   Our grief allays, our fear controls;
   Sweet peace thy promises afford,
   And give new strength to fainting souls.

6. Zion enjoys her Monarch's love,
   Secure against a threatening hour;
   Nor can her firm foundations move,
   Built on his truth and armed with power.
225. "Up to the hills I lift mine eyes."
Psalm 121.

1 Up to the hills I lift mine eyes,
Th' eternal hills beyond the skies;
Thence all her help my soul derives,
There my almighty Refuge lives.

2 He lives—the everlasting God
That built the world, that spread the flood;
The heavens with all their hosts he made,
And the dark regions of the dead.

3 He guides our feet, he guards our way;
His morning smiles bless all the day:
He spreads the evening vail, and keeps
The silent hours, while Israel sleeps.

4 Israel, a name divinely blest,
May rise secure, securely rest;
Thy holy Guardian's wakeful eyes
Admit no slumber, nor surprise.

5 No sun shall smite thy head by day;
Nor the pale moon with sickly ray
Shall blast thy couch; no baleful star
Dart his malignant fire so far.

6 Should earth and hell with malice burn,
Still thou shalt go, and still return,
Safe in the Lord; his heavenly care
Defends thy life from every snare.

7 On thee foul spirits have no power;
And, in thy last departing hour,
Angels, that trace the airy road,
Shall bear thee homeward to thy God.

2 Such was the pity of our God,
He loved the race of man so well,
He sent his Son to bear our load
Of sins, and save our souls from hell.

3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word;
Trust in his mighty name, and live;
A thousand joys his lips afford,
His hands a thousand blessings give.

479. The Works and the Word of God.—Psalm 19.

1 The heavens declare thy glory, Lord;
In every star thy wisdom shines;
But when our eyes behold thy word,
We read thy name in fairer lines.

2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
And night, and day, thy power confess;
But the best volume thou hast writ,
Reveals thy justice and thy grace.

3 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
Round the whole earth, and never stand;
So when thy truth began its race,
It touched and glanced on every land.

4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest,
Till thro' the world thy truth hath run;
Till Christ hath all the nations blest
That see the light, or feel the sun.

5 Great Sun of Righteousness, arise!
Bless the dark world with heavenly light;
Thy gospel makes the simple wise,
Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

6 Thy noblest wonders here we view
In souls renewed, and sins forgiven;
Lord, cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
And make thy word my guide to heaven.
204. All Things the Gift of God.

1 Great God! let all my tuneful powers
Awake, and sing thy mighty name:
Thy hand revolves my circling hours—
Thy hand, from whence my being came.

2 Seasons and moons, still rolling round
In beauteous order, speak thy praise;
And years, with smiling mercy crowned,
To thee successive honors raise.

3 My life, my health, my friends I owe,
All to thy vast, unbounded love;
Ten thousand precious gifts below,
And hope of nobler joys above.

4 Thus will I sing till nature cease,
Till sense and language are no more;
And, after death, thy boundless grace,
Through everlasting years adore.

252. "Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever."—Psalm 45.

1 Now be my heart inspired to sing
The glories of my Saviour King;
Jesus, the Lord, how heavenly fair
His form! how bright his beauties are!

2 O'er all the sons of human race
He shines with a superior grace;
Love from his lips divinely flows,
And blessings all his state compose.

3 Thy throne, O God, for ever stands!
Grace is the scepter in thy hands:
Thy laws and works are just and right;
Justice and grace are thy delight.

4 God, thine own God, has richly shed
His oil of gladness on thy head;
And with his sacred Spirit blest
His first-born Son above the rest.
319. Power of the Cross.

1 We sing the praise of him who died,
   Of him who died upon the cross;
The sinner's hope let men deride;
   For this we count the world as loss.

2 The cross!—it takes our guilt away;
   It holds the fainting spirit up;
It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
   And sweetens every bitter cup.

3 It makes the coward spirit brave,
   And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes the terror from the grave,
   And gilds the bed of death with light:

4 The balm of life, the cure of woe,
   The measure and the pledge of love;
The sinner's refuge here below,
   The angels' theme in heaven above!

716. It was for me.

1 Jesus, whom angel-hosts adore,
   Became a man of grieves for me;
In love, though rich, becoming poor,
   That I thro' him enriched might be.

2 Though Lord of all, above, below,
   He went to Olivet for me;
There drank my cup of wrath and woe,
   When bleeding in Gethsemane.

3 The ever-blesséd Son of God
   Went up to Calvary for me;
There paid my debt, there bore my load,
   In his own body on the tree.

4 Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies,
   Went down into the grave for me;
There overcame my enemies,
   There won the glorious victory.

5 'Tis finished all: the vail is rent,
   The welcome sure, the access free;
Now then, we leave our banishment,
   O Father, to return to thee!

719. "And that Rock was Christ."

1 Eternal Rock!—to thee I flee;
   In thy rent fissures I would hide:
No rill of mercy flows to me
   But issues from thy wounded side.

2 Earth's fondest hopes, and brightest dreams,
   Are fitful, fugitive, and vain;
The best of its polluted streams
   I only drink to thirst again.

3 Forgiveness, peace, salvation, heaven,
   Jesus, I owe alone to thee—
The Rock whose clefts for me were riven,
   The smitten One of Calvary!

1242. "And dying is but going home."

1 Now let our souls, on wings sublime,
   Rise from the vanities of time,
Draw back the parting vail, and see
   The glories of eternity.

2 Born by a new, celestial birth,
   Why should we grovel here on earth?
Why grasp at vain and fleeting toys,
   So near to heaven's eternal joys?

3 Shall aught beguile us on the road,
   While we are walking back to God?
For strangers into life we come,
   And dying is but going home.

4 Welcome, sweet hour of full discharge,
   That sets our longing souls at large,
Unbinds our chains, breaks up our cell,
   And gives us with our God to dwell.

5 To dwell with God, to feel his love,
   Is the full heaven enjoyed above;
And the sweet expectation now
   Is the young dawn of heaven below.
210. A Psalm of Praise for God's Care.
Psalm 89.

1. The mercies of my God and King
   My tongue shall still pursue;
   Oh, happy they who, while they sing
   Those mercies, share them, too!

2. As bright and lasting as the sun,
   As lofty as the sky,
   From age to age thy word shall run,
   And change and change defy.

3. The covenant of the King of kings
   Shall stand for ever sure;
   Beneath the shadow of thy wings
   Thy saints reposes secure.

4. Thine is the earth, and thine the skies,
   Created at thy will;
   The waves at thy command arise,
   At thy command are still.

5. In earth below, in heaven above,
   Who, who is Lord like thee?
   Oh, spread the gospel of thy love
   Till all thy glories see!

368. The living Saviour faithful to his Friends.

1. I know that my Redeemer lives,
   And ever prays for me:
   A token of his love he gives,
   A pledge of liberty.

2. I find him lifting up my head;
   He brings salvation near:
   His presence makes me free, indeed,
   And he will soon appear.

3. He wills that I should holy be:
   What can withstand his will?
   The counsel of his grace in me
   He surely shall fulfill.

4. Jesus, I hang upon thy word;
   I steadfastly believe
   Thou wilt return, and claim me, Lord,
   And to thyself receive.

5. When God is mine, and I am his,
   Of paradise possessed,
   I taste unutterable bliss,
   And everlasting rest.

1. Triumphant, Christ ascends on high,
   The glorious work complete;
   Sin, death, and hell, low vanquished lie,
   Beneath his awful feet.

2. There, with eternal glory crowned,
   The Lord, the Conqueror, reigns;
   His praise the heavenly choirs resound
   In their immortal strains.

3. Amid the splendors of his throne,
   Unchanging love appears;
   The names he purchased for his own,
   Still on his heart he bears.

4. Oh, the rich depths of love divine!
   Of bliss a boundless store!
   Dear Saviour, let me call thee mine;
   I can not wish for more.

5. On thee alone my hope relies;
   Beneath thy cross I fall,—
   My Lord, my life, my sacrifice,
   My Saviour, and my all!

429. Infinite Worth of Christ.

1. Infinite excellence is thine,
   Thon glorious Prince of grace!
   Thy uncreated beauties shine
   With never-fading rays.

2. Sinners, from earth's remotest end,
   Come bending at thy feet;
   To thee their prayers and songs ascend
   In thee their wishes meet.

3. Millions of happy spirits live
   On thine exhaustless store;
   From thee they all their bliss receive,
   And still thou givest more.
4 Thou art their triumph and their joy;
They find their all in thee:
Thy glories will their tongues employ
Through all eternity.

1 Come, heavenly Love, inspire my song
With thine immortal flame,
And teach my heart, and teach my tongue
The Saviour's lovely name.

2 The Saviour!—oh, what endless charms
Dwell in that blissful sound!
Its influence every fear disarms,
And spreads delight around.

3 Wrapped in the gloom of dark despair,
We helpless, hopeless lay;
But sovereign mercy reached us there,
And smiled despair away.

4 Th' almighty Former of the skies
Stoops to our vile abode;
While angels view with wondering eyes,
And hail th' incarnate God.

5 Incarnate God!—now to thine arms
I yield my captive soul:
Oh, let thine all-subduing charms
My inmost powers control!

4 For he, indeed, is Lord of lords,
And he the King of kings;
He is the Sun of Righteousness,
With healing in his wings.

654. “When shall I come and appear before God.”—Psalm 42.
1 As pants the hart for cooling streams
When heated in the chase;
So longs my soul, O God, for thee,
And thy refreshing grace.

2 For thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
Oh! when shall I behold thy face,
Thou Majesty divine?

3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Trust God; and he'll employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.

4 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Hope still; and thou shalt sing
The praise of him who is thy God,
Thy health's eternal spring.

Doxology.

Let God the Father, and the Son,
And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
Or saints to love the Lord!
300. "There is a fountain filled with blood."
(Original Form.)
1 There is a fountain filled with blood,
   Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
   And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
   Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
   That fountain in his day;
   And there have I, as vile as he,
   Washed all my sins away.

3 Dear, dying Lamb! thy precious blood
   Shall never lose its power,
   Till all the ransomed church of God
   Be saved, to sin no more.

4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
   Thy flowing wounds supply,
   Redeeming love has been my theme,
   And shall be till I die.

5 Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
   I'll sing thy power to save,
   When this poor, lisping, stammering tongue
   Lies silent in the grave.

6 Lord, I believe thou hast prepared
   (Unworthy though I be)
   For me a blood-bought, free reward,
   A golden harp for me!

7 'Tis strung and tuned for endless years;
   And formed by power divine,
   To sound in God the Father's ears
   No other name but thine.

301. "There is a fountain filled with blood."
(Abridged Form.)
1 There is a fountain filled with blood,
   Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
   And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
   Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
   That fountain in his day;
   And there may I, though vile as he,
   Wash all my sins away.

3 Dear, dying Lamb! thy precious blood
   Shall never lose its power,
   Till all the ransomed church of God
   Are saved, to sin no more.

4 Since first, by faith, I saw the stream
   Thy flowing wounds supply,
   Redeeming love has been my theme,
   And shall be, till I die.

5 And when this feeble, stammering tongue
   Lies silent in the grave,
   Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
   I'll sing thy power to save.

684. Trustful Christian victorious.
1 My God! the spring of all my joys,
   The life of my delights,
   The glory of my brightest days,
   And comfort of my nights!

2 In darkest shades if he appear,
   My dawning is begun:
   He is my soul's sweet morning star,
   And he my rising sun.

3 The opening heavens around me shine
   With beams of sacred bliss,
   While Jesus shows his heart is mine,
   And whispers, I am his!

4 My soul would leave this heavy clay
   At that transporting word,
   Run up with joy the shining way,
   'T embrace my dearest Lord.

5 Fearless of hell, and ghastly death,
   I'd break through every foe;
   The wings of love and arms of faith
   Should bear me conqueror through.
1 Jerusalem! my happy home!
   Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end,
   In joy, and peace, in thee?
2 Oh, when, thou city of my God,
   Shall I thy courts ascend,
Where evermore the angels sing,
   Where Sabbaths have no end?
3 There happier bowers, than Eden's,
   Nor sin nor sorrow know:
Blest seats! through rude and stormy scenes,
   I onward press to you.
4 Why should I shrink at pain and woe?
   Or feel at death dismay?
I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
   And realms of endless day.
5 Jerusalem, my glorious home!
   My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end,
   When I thy joys shall see.

1245. The Cloud of Witnesses.
1 Give me the wings of faith, to rise
   Within the vail, and see
The saints above—how great their joys,
   How bright their glories be!
2 Once they were mourning here below;
   And wet their couch with tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
   With sins, and doubts, and fears.
3 I ask them whence their victory came;
   They, with united breath,
Aseribe their conquest to the Lamb,
   Their triumph to his death.
4 They marked the footsteps that he trod
   His zeal inspired their breast;
And, following their incarnate God,
   Possess the promised rest.
5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise
   For his own pattern given,
While the long cloud of witnesses
   Show the same path to heaven.

Doxology.

Let God the Father, and the Son,
And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
Or saints to love the Lord!
308. "None other name under Heaven."

1. God's holy law, transgressed,
   Speaks nothing but despair;
   Burdened with guilt, with grief oppressed,
   We find no comfort there.

2. Not all our groans and tears,
   Nor works which we have done,
   Nor vows, nor promises, nor prayers,
   Can e'er for sin atone.

3. Relief alone is found
   In Jesus' precious blood:
   'Tis this that heals the mortal wound,
   And reconciles to God.

4. High lifted on the cross,
   The spotless victim dies:
   This is salvation's only source,
   Hence all our hopes arise.

312. "In Christ Jesus."—1 Cor. 1: 30.

1. How heavy is the night
   That hangs upon our eyes,
   Till Christ, with his reviving light,
   Upon our souls arise!

2. Our guilty spirits dread
   To meet the wrath of Heaven;
   But in his righteousness arrayed,
   We see our sins forgiven.

3. Unholy and impure
   Are all our thoughts and ways:
   His hands infected nature cure,
   With sanctifying grace.

4. The powers of hell agree
   To hold our souls in vain:
   He sets the sons of bondage free,
   And breaks th' accursed chain.

5. Lord, we adore thy ways,
   To bring us near to God,—

Thy sovereign power, thy healing grace,
And thine atoning blood.

352. "The Fifty-third Chapter of Isaiah."

1. Like sheep we went astray,
   And broke the fold of God;
   Each wandering in a different way,
   But all the downward road.

2. How dreadful was the hour,
   When God our wanderings laid,
   And did at once his vengeance pour
   Upon the Shepherd's head!

3. How glorious was the grace,
   When Christ sustained the stroke!
   His life and blood the Shepherd pays,
   A ransom for the flock!

4. But God shall raise his head
   O'er all the sons of men;
   And make him see a numerous seed,
   To recompense his pain.

5. "I'll give him," saith the Lord,
   "A portion with the strong;
   He shall possess a large reward,
   And hold his honors long."

775. "Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord."—Psalm 16.

1. Mine eyes and my desire
   Are ever to the Lord;
   I love to plead his promises,
   And rest upon his word.

2. Lord, turn thee to my soul;
   Bring thy salvation near:
   When will thy hand release my feet
   From sin's destructive snare?

3. When shall the sovereign grace
   Of my forgiving God
   Restore me from those dangerous ways
   My wandering feet have trod?
BADEA. S. M.

4 Oh, keep my soul from death,
   Nor put my hope to shame!
   For I have placed my only trust
   In my Redeemer's name.
5 With humble faith I wait
   To see thy face again:
   Of Israel it shall never be said,
   He sought the Lord in vain.

1232. "How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?"—Psalm 137.

1 Far from my heavenly home,
   Far from my Father's breast,
   Fainting, I cry, "Blest Spirit, come,
   And speed me to my rest!"
2 Upon the willows long
   My harp has silent hung;
   How should I sing a cheerful song,
   Till thou inspire my tongue?
3 My spirit homeward turns,
   And fain would thither flee;
   My heart, O Zion, droops and yearns,
   When I remember thee.
4 To thee, to thee I press—
   A dark and toilsome road:
   When shall I pass the wilderness,
   And reach the saint's abode?
5 God of my life, be near;
   On thee my hopes I cast:
   Oh, guide me through the desert here,
   And bring me home at last!

1247. Thanks for all Saints.

1 For all thy saints, O God,
   Who strove in Christ to live,
   Who followed him, obeyed, adored,
   Our grateful hymn receive
2 For all thy saints, O God,
   Accept our thankful cry,
   Who counted Christ their great reward,
   And yearned for him to die.

3 They all, in life and death,
   With him, their Lord, in view,
   Learned from thy Holy Spirit's breath
   To suffer and to do.
4 For this, thy name we bless,
   And humbly pray that we
   May follow them in holiness,
   And live and die in thee.

1274. "This mortal shall put on immortality."

1 And must this body die?
   This mortal frame decay?
   And must these active limbs of mine
   Lie moldering in the clay?
2 God, my Redeemer, lives
   And ever from the skies
   Looks down and watches all my dust,
   Till he shall bid it rise.
3 Arrayed in glorious grace
   Shall these vile bodies shine,
   And every shape, and every face
   Look heavenly and divine.
4 These lively hopes we owe
   To Jesus' dying love;
   We would adore his grace below,
   And sing his power above.
5 Dear Lord! accept the praise
   Of these our humble songs,
   Till tunes of nobler sound we raise
   With our immortal tongues.

   DOXOLOGY.

   To God, the Father, Son,
   And Spirit, glory be,
   As was, and is, and shall remain
   Through all eternity.
1 Jesus, hail! thou great I AM!
High and holy is thy name:
Angel-harps resound thy praise;
Saints adore thy saving grace;
Every creature bows the knee,
Worshipping thy majesty.

2 Hail, thou everlasting Lord!
"God with us!" incarnate Word!
Glory of thy church thou art,
Life and light of every heart:
Angels, saints, below, above,
Join to praise thy boundless love.

1 Ye who in these courts are found,
Listening to the joyful sound,—
Lost and helpless, as ye are,
Sons of sorrow, sin, and care,—
Glorify the King of kings,
Take the peace the gospel brings.

2 Turn to Christ your longing eyes,
View his bleeding sacrifice;
See, in him, your sins forgiven,
Pardon, holiness, and heaven:
Glorify the King of kings,
Take the peace the gospel brings.

Doxology.
Praise the name of God most high;
Praise him, all below the sky;
Praise him, all ye heavenly host—
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
As through countless ages past,
Evermore his praise shall last.

688.
"Only Thee."
1 Blessed Saviour! thee I love,
All my other joys above;
All my hopes in thee abide,
Thou my hope, and naught beside:
Ever let my glory be
Only, only, only thee.

2 Once again beside the cross,
All my gain I count but loss;
Earthly pleasures fade away,—
Clouds they are that hide my day:
Hence, vain shadows! let me see
Jesus crucified for me.
LORAIN. 7s. 6 Lines.

3 From beneath that thorny crown
Trickle drops of cleansing down;
Pardon from thy pierced hand
Now I take, while here I stand:
Only then I live to thee,
When thou wounded side I see.

4 Blessed Saviour! thine am I,
Thine to live, and thine to die;
Height, or depth, or earthly power
Ne'er shall hide my Saviour more:
Ever shall my glory be
Only, only, only thee!

721. "Rock of Ages."—1 Cor. 10: 4.

1 Rock of Ages! cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee!
Let the water and the blood,
From thy riven side that flowed,
Be of sin the double cure—
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

2 Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow—
All for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and thou alone!
Nothing in my hand I bring;
Simply to thy cross I cling.

3 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyelids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See thee on thy judgment throne,—
Rock of Ages! cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee!

764. Blessedness of Trust in Christ.

1 Saviour! happy would I be,
If I could but trust in thee;

Trust thy wisdom me to guide;
Trust thy goodness to provide;
Trust thy saving love and power;
Trust thee every day and hour:

2 Trust thee as the only light
In the darkest hour of night;
Trust in sickness, trust in health;
Trust in poverty and wealth;
Trust in joy, and trust in grief;
Trust thy promise for relief:

3 Trust thy blood to cleanse my soul;
Trust thy grace to make me whole;
Trust thee living, dying, too;
Trust thee all my journey through;
Trust thee till my feet shall be
Planted on the crystal sea!

1052. "My flesh is meat, indeed."

1 Bread of heaven! on thee I feed,
For thy flesh is meat, indeed;
Ever may my soul be fed
With this true and living Bread;
Day by day with strength supplied
Through the life of him who died.

2 Vine of heaven! thy blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice;
'Tis thy wounds my healing give;
To thy cross I look, and live;
Thou, my Life, oh, let me be
Rooted, grafted, built on thee!

Doxology.

Blessing, honor, glory, might,
And dominion infinite,
To the Father of our Lord,
To the Spirit and the Word:
As it was all worlds before,
Is, and shall be evermore.

1 Despised is the Man of grief,
    Rejected, and denied belief
    By them whose sorrows he hath worn—
    For whom he bears the bitter scorn,
    The shameful robe, the scourge, the thorn!

2 All we, like sheep, have gone astray,
    And turned aside from wisdom’s way;
    But he the path of death hath trod,
    And humbly kissed affliction’s rod,
    To lead our stricken souls to God.

3 Oh, let us cast each vice away,
    Beneath the cross each passion lay;
    With contrite heart and weeping eye,
    Behold the Saviour lifted high,
    And every sin and folly fly!

402. Longing to follow Christ.

1 O thou, to whose all-searching sight
    The darkness shineth as the light,
    Search, prove my heart; it pants for thee;
    Oh, burst these bonds, and set it free!

2 Wash out its stains, refine its dross;
    Nail my affections to the cross;
    Hallow each thought; let all within
    Be clean as thou, my Lord, art clean.

3 While in this darksome wild I stray,
    Be thou my light, be thou my way;
    No foes, no danger will I fear,
    While thou, Almighty God, art near.

4 When rising floods my soul o’erflow,
    When sinks my heart in waves of woe,
    Jesus, thy timely aid impart,
    And raise my head, and cheer my heart.

5 Saviour, where’er thy steps I see,
    Dauntless, untired, I follow thee;
    Oh, let thy hand support me still,
    And lead me to thy holy hill!

* Repeat the third line of the tune for this hymn.

729. A bruised reed shall He not break.

1 Before thy cross, my dying Lord,
    I cast my soul, and trust thy love;
    Oh, here thy saving power afford,
    And seal my pardon from above!

2 No threatening foes shall drive me hence,
    Helpless and fainting I draw near; —
    Resolved (for ‘tis my last defense),
    If I must die, to perish here.

3 But, Saviour! for thy mercy’s sake,
    Relieve the anguish of my heart;
    The bruised reed thou wilt not break,
    Nor bid the contrite soul depart.

4 Washed in thy blood, I shall be pure;
    Cheered by thy smile, shall feel no shame;
    Saved by thy love, I stand secure,
    And triumph in a Saviour’s name!

731. The Liberty of Faith.

1 Before thy throne with tearful eyes,
    My gracious Lord, I humbly fall;
    To thee my weary spirit flies,
    For thy forgiving love I call.

2 How free thy mercy overflows,
    When sinners on thy grace rely!
    Thy tender love no limit knows;
    Oh, save me—justly doomed to die!

3 Yes! thou wilt save; my soul is free!
    The gloom of sin is fled away;
    My tongue breaks forth in praise to thee,
    And all my powers thy word obey.

4 Hence, while I wrestle with my foes,—
    The world, the flesh, the hosts of hell,—
    Sustain thou me till conflicts close,
    Then endless songs my thanks shall tell.
238. Sovereignty of God in Conversion.

1 May not the sovereign Lord on high
Dispense his favors as he will;
Choose some to life, while others die,
And yet be just and gracious still?

2 Shall man reply against the Lord,
And call his Maker's ways unjust,
The thunder of whose dreadful word
Can crush a thousand worlds to dust?

3 But, O my soul! if truth so bright
Should dazzle and confound thy sight,
Yet still his written will obey,
And wait the great decisive day.

4 Then shall he make his justice known,
And the whole world, before his throne,
With joy or terror, shall confess
The glory of his righteousness.

1117. “Oh, spare our guilty country, spare.”

1 On thee, O Lord our God, we call,
Before thy throne devoutly fall;
Oh, whither should the helpless fly?
To whom but thee direct their cry?

2 Lord, we repent, we weep, we mourn,
To our forsaken God we turn;
Oh, spare our guilty country, spare
The church thine hand hath planted here!

3 We plead thy grace, indulgent God!
We plead thy Son's atoning blood;
We plead thy gracious promises;
And are they unavailing pleas?

4 These pleas, presented at thy throne,
Have brought ten thousand blessings down
On guilty lands in helpless woe;
Let them prevail to save us, too.

241. “Be still, and know that I am God.”

1 Wait, O my soul, thy Maker's will!
Tumultuous passions, all be still;
Nor let a murmuring thought arise:
His ways are just, his counsels wise.

2 He in the thickest darkness dwells,
Performs his work, the cause conceals;
And, though his footsteps are unknown,
Judgment and truth support his throne.

3 In heaven, and earth, and air, and seas,
He executes his firm decrees;
And by his saints it stands confessed,
That what he does is ever best.

4 Wait, then, my soul, submissive wait,
With reverence bow before his seat;
And, 'mid the terrors of his rod,
Trust in a wise and gracious God.

1122. “Look down, O God, with pitying eye.”

1 Indulgent Sovereign of the skies,
And wilt thou bow thy gracious ear?
While feeble mortals raise their cries,
Wilt thou, the great Jehovah, hear?

2 How shall thy servants give thee rest,
Till Zion's moldering walls thou raise;
Till thine own power shall stand confessed,
And make Jerusalem a praise?

3 Look down, O God, with pitying eye,
And view the desolation round:
See what wide realms in darkness lie,
And hurl their idols to the ground.

4 Loud let the gospel trumpet blow,
And call the nations from afar:
Let all the isles their Saviour know,
And earth's remotest ends draw near.
324. "Thy Righteousness, even Thine only."
Psalm 73.
1 My Saviour! my almighty Friend!
When I begin thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end,
The numbers of thy grace?
2 Thou art my everlasting trust;
Thy goodness I adore:
And since I knew thy graces first,
I speak thy glories more.
3 My feet shall travel all the length
Of the celestial road;
And march, with courage in thy strength,
To see my Father, God.
4 When I am filled with sore distress
For some surprising sin,
I'll plead thy perfect righteousness,
And mention none but thine.
5 How will my lips rejoice to tell
The victories of my King!
My soul, redeemed from sin and hell,
Shall thy salvation sing.
6 Awake, awake, my tuneful powers!
With this delightful song
I'll entertain the darkest hours,
Nor think the season long.

970. "Your sorrow shall be turned into joy."
1 Come, humble souls,—ye mourners, come,
And wipe away your tears;
Adieu to all your sad complaints,
Your sorrows and your fears.
2 Come, shout aloud the Father's grace,
The Saviour's dying love:
Soon shall you join the glorious theme
In loftier strains above.
3 God, the eternal, mighty God,
To dearer names descend:
Calls you his treasure, and his joy,
His children, and his friends.

4 My Father, God! and may these lips
Pronounce a name so dear?
Not thus could heaven's sweet harmony
Delight my listening ear.
5 For ever let my grateful heart
His boundless grace adore,
Which gives ten thousand blessings now,
And bids me hope for more.
6 Transporting hope!—still on my soul
With radiant glories shine,
Till thou thyself art lost in joys
Immortal and divine.

1089. The Godly Child.
1 By cool Siloam's shady rill
How fair the lily grows!
How sweet the breath, beneath the hill,
Of Sharon's dewy rose!
2 Lo! such the child, whose early feet
The paths of peace have trod,
Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,
Is upward drawn to God.
3 By cool Siloam's shady rill
The lily must decay;
The rose that blooms beneath the hill,
Must shortly fade away.
4 And soon, too soon, the wint'ry hour
Of man's maturer age
Will shake the soul with sorrow's power,
And stormy passion's rage.
5 O thou, whose infant feet were found
Within thy Father's shrine,
Whose years, with changeless virtue crowned,
Were all alike divine,—
6 Dependent on thy bounteous breath,
We seek thy grace alone,
In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
To keep us still thine own.
328. "This is my Friend."—Cant. 5: 10—16.

1 Majestic sweetness sits enthroned
   Upon the Saviour's brow;
   His head with radiant glories crowned,
   His lips with grace overflow.

2 No mortal can with him compare,
   Among the sons of men;
   Fairer is he than all the fair
   That fill the heavenly train.

3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
   He flew to my relief;
   For me he bore the shameful cross,
   And carried all my grief.

4 To him I owe my life and breath,
   And all the joys I have;
   He makes me triumph over death
   He saves me from the grave.

5 To heaven, the place of his abode,
   He brings my weary feet;
   Shows me the glories of my God,
   And makes my joy complete.

6 Since from his bounty I receive
   Such proofs of love divine,
   Had I a thousand hearts to give,
   Lord! they should all be thine.

And keeps us safe from force and guile
   In every trying hour.

4 And till his ransomed people come,
   His house above to fill,
   'Tis he who safely guides them home,
   Beyond the reach of ill.

5 Then let us ever make our boast
   Of him, and him alone,
   Who came from heaven to seek the lost,
   And brings us to his throne.

852. The Power of Man in Prayer.

1 There is an eye that never sleeps
   Beneath the wing of night;
   There is an ear that never shuts,
   When sink the beams of light.

2 There is an arm that never tires,
   When human strength gives way;
   There is a love that never fails,
   When earthly loves decay.

3 That eye is fixed on seraph throns;
   That arm upholds the sky;
   That ear is filled with angel songs;
   That love is throned on high.

4 But there's a power which man can wield
   When mortal aid is vain,
   That eye, that arm, that love to reach,
   That listening ear to gain.

5 That power is prayer, which soars on high,
   Through Jesus, to the throne;
   And moves the hand which moves the world,
   To bring salvation down!

Doxology.

Let God the Father, and the Son,
   And Spirit, be adored,
   Where there are works to make him known,
   Or saints to love the Lord!
255. Love of God in the Gift of Christ.

1 Raise your triumphant songs
   To an immortal tune;
   wide let the earth resound the deeds
   Celestial grace has done.

2 Sing how eternal love
   Its chief Beloved chose, and bade him raise our wretched race
   From their abyss of woes.

3 His hand no thunder bears;
   No terror clothes his brow;
   No bolts to drive our guilty souls
   To fiercer flames below.

4 'Twas mercy filled the throne,
   And wrath stood silent by,
   When Christ was sent with pardons down
   To rebels doomed to die.

5 Now, sinners, dry your tears;
   Let hopeless sorrow cease;
   Bow to the scepter of his love,
   And take the offered peace.

6 Lord, we obey thy call;
   We lay an humble claim
   To the salvation thou hast brought,
   And love and praise thy name.

331. "The Song of the Lamb."

1 Awake, and sing the song
   Of Moses and the Lamb!
   Wake, every heart, and every tongue,
   To praise the Saviour's name!

2 Sing of his dying love;
   Sing of his rising power:
   Sing how he intercedes above
   For those whose sins he bore.

3 Sing, till we feel our hearts
   Ascending with our tongues;
   Sing, till the love of sin departs,
   And grace inspires our songs.

4 Sing on your heavenly way,
   Ye ransomed sinners, sing!
   Sing on, rejoicing every day
   In Christ, th' exalted King.

5 Soon shall we hear him say,
   "Ye blessed children, come!"
   Soon will he call us hence away
   To our eternal home.

6 Soon shall our raptured tongue
   His endless praise proclaim,
   And sweeter voices tune the song
   Of Moses and the Lamb.

893. "Endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ."

1 Arise, ye saints, arise!
   The Lord our Leader is;
   The foe before his banner flies,
   For victory is his.

2 Lead on, almighty Lord,
   Lead on to victory!
   Encouraged by the bright reward,
   With joy we'll follow thee.

3 We'll follow thee, our Guide,
   Our Saviour and our King;
   We'll follow thee, through grace supplied
   From heaven's eternal spring.

4 We hope to see the day
   When all our toils shall cease;
   When we shall cast our arms away,
   And dwell in endless peace.

5 This hope supports us here,
   It makes our burdens light;
   'T will serve our drooping hearts to cheer,
   Till faith shall end in sight.

6 Till, of the prize possessed,
   We hear of war no more;
   And oh, sweet thought! for ever rest
   On yonder peaceful shore!
636. "Watch and pray."

1 My soul! be on thy guard;
Ten thousand foes arise;
The hosts of sin are pressing hard
To draw thee from the skies.

2 Oh, watch, and fight, and pray!
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.

3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor once at ease sit down;
Thy arduous work will not be done
Till thou obtain thy crown.

4 Fight on, my soul, till death
Shall bring thee to thy God!
He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
Up to his blest abode.

113. "Bless the Lord, your God, for ever and ever."—Neh. 9: 5.

1 Stand up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of his choice;
Stand up, and bless the Lord your God,
With heart, and soul, and voice.

2 Though high above all praise,
   Above all blessing high,
   Who would not fear his holy name,
   And laud, and magnify?

3 Oh, for the living flame
   From his own altar brought,
   To touch our lips, our souls inspire,
   And wing to heaven our thought!

4 God is our strength and song,
   And his salvation ours;
   Then be his love in Christ proclaimed
   With all our ransomed powers.

5 Stand up, and bless the Lord;
The Lord your God adore;
Stand up, and bless his glorious name,
Henceforth, for evermore!

Doxology.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit, glory be,
As was, and is, and shall remain
Through all eternity!

SWABIA. S. M.
282. "He reviled not again."

1 What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
   Around thy steps below;
   What patient love was seen in all
   Thy life and death of woe.

2 For, ever on thy burdened heart
   A weight of sorrow hung;
   Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
   Escaped thy silent tongue.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile;
   Thy friends unfaithful prove;
   Unwaried in forgiveness still,
   Thy heart could only love.

4 Oh, give us hearts to love like thee!
   Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
   Far more for others' sins than all
   The wrongs that we receive.

5 One with thyself, may every eye,
   In us, thy brethren, see
   The gentleness and grace that spring
   From union, Lord! with thee.

505. "I will give you rest."—Matt. 11: 28-30.

1 Come unto me, all ye who mourn,
   With guilt and fear oppressed;
   Resign to me the willing heart,
   And I will give you rest.

2 Take up my yoke, and learn of me
   A meek and lowly mind;
   And thus your weary, troubled souls
   Repose and peace shall find.

3 For light and gentle is my yoke:
   The burden I impose
   Shall ease the heart which groaned before
   Beneath a load of woes.

789. One with Christ.

1 Lord Jesus, are we one with thee?
   O height, O depth of love!
   With thee we died upon the tree;
   In thee we live above.

2 Such was thy grace, that for our sake
   Thou didst from heaven come down,
   Our mortal flesh and blood partake,
   In all our misery one.

3 Our sins, our guilt, in love divine,
   Were borne on earth by thee;
   The gall, the curse, the wrath were thine
   To set thy members free.

4 Ascended now in glory bright,
   Still one with us thou art;
   Nor life, nor death, nor depth, nor height,
   Thy saints and thee can part.

5 Soon, soon shall come that glorious day,
   When, seated on thy throne,
   Thou shalt to wondering worlds display
   That thou with us art one!
792. "When He shall appear we shall be like Him."

1 On! mean may seem this house of clay,
   Yet 't was the Lord's abode;
   Our feet may mourn this thorny way,
   Yet here Immanuel trod.

2 This fleshly robe the Lord did wear;
   This watch the Lord did keep;
   These burdens sore the Lord did bear;
   These tears the Lord did weep!

3 Our very frailty brings us near
   Unto the Lord of heaven;
   To every grief, to every tear,
   Such glory strange is given.

4 But not this fleshly robe alone
   Shall link us, Lord, to thee;
   Nor always in the tear and groan
   Shall the dear kindred be.

5 We shall be reckoned for thine own
   Because thy heaven we share;
   Because we sing around thy throne,
   And thy bright raiment wear.

793. "Who died for us that we should live with Him."

1 Thou, to our woe who down didst come,
   Who one with us wouldst be,
   Wilt lift us to thy heavenly home,
   Wilt make us one with thee.

2 Our earthly garments thou hast worn,
   And we thy robes shall wear!
   Our mortal burdens thou hast borne,
   And we thy bliss may bear!

3 Oh, mighty grace! our life to live,
   To make our earth divine;
   Oh, mighty grace! thy heaven to give,
   And lift our life to thine!

4 Oh, strange the gifts and marvelous,
   By thee received and given!
   Thou tookest woe and death from us,
   And we receive thy heaven!
357. "Thou hast led captivity captive."

1 The happy morn is come;
   Triumphant o'er the grave,
The Saviour leaves the tomb,
   Almighty now to save:
   Captivity is captive led,
   For Jesus liveth, who was dead.

2 Who now accuseth them,
   For whom the Surety died?
   Or who shall those condemn,
   Whom God hath justified?
   Captivity is captive led,
   For Jesus liveth, who was dead.

3 The ransom Christ hath paid—
   The glorious work is done;
   On him our help is laid,
   By him our victory won:
   Captivity is captive led,
   For Jesus liveth, who was dead.

4 All hail, triumphant Lord!
   The resurrection, thou;
   All hail, incarnate Lord!
   Before thy throne we bow:
   Captivity is captive led,
   For Jesus liveth, who was dead.

And succor from his throne
   In all their need is given:
   Omnipotence shall guard them well,
   And peace remain on Israel.

1092. "The Saviour calls: Oh, hear His voice."

1 From yon delusive scene,
   Where death and ruin smile,
   Beneath a treacherous mien,
   The sinner to beguile,
   The Saviour calls: Oh, hear his voice,
   And make his love your early choice!

2 Down from the realms of light,
   To this dark world of woe,
   He came with speedy flight,
   Redemption to bestow:
   The Saviour calls: Oh, hear his voice,
   And make his love your only choice!

3 With pardon in his hands,
   And purity and joy,
   How sweet are his commands!
   His bliss without alloy:
   The Saviour calls: Oh, hear his voice,
   And make his love your happy choice!

4 Through life your guard and guide,
   In death your strength and stay,
   He'll keep you near his side,
   Nor ever turn away:
   The Saviour calls: Oh, hear his voice,
   And make his love your lasting choice!

672. Safety in trusting God.—Psalm 125.

1 Their hearts shall not be moved
   Who in the Lord confide,
   But, firm as Zion's hill,
   They ever shall abide:
   As mountains shield Jerusalem,
   The Lord shall be a shield to them.

2 His blessing on them rests,
   Like freshening dew from heaven;

Lord of the worlds above,
How pleasant and how fair,
The dwellings of thy love,
Thine earthly temples are!
To thine abode, with warm desires,
My heart aspires, to see my God.

1 Hark! what celestial sounds,
What music fills the air!
Soft warbling to the morn,
It strikes the ravished ear:
Now all is still; in tuneful notes,
Now wild it floats; loud, sweet, and shrill.

2 Oh, happy souls that pray
Where God appoints to hear!
Oh, happy men that pay
Their constant service there!
They praise thee still; who love the way
And happy they, to Zion's hill.

2 Th' angelic hosts descend,
With harmony divine;
See how from heaven they bend,
And in full chorus join:
"Fear not," say they, Jesus, your King,
"Great joy we bring: Is born to-day.

3 They go from strength to strength,
Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in heaven appears.
Oh, glorious seat, shall thither bring
When God our King, our willing feet!

3 "He comes, your souls to save
From death's eternal gloom;
To realms of bliss and light
He lifts you from the tomb:
Your voices raise, your songs unite
With sons of light; of endless praise.

4 The Lord his people loves;
His hand no good withholds
From those his heart approves,
From pure and upright souls.
Thrice happy he, whose spirit trusts
O God of hosts, alone in thee!

4 "Glory to God on high!
Ye mortals, spread the sound,
And let your raptures fly
To earth's remotest bound:
For peace on earth, to man is given,
From God in heaven, at Jesus' birth."
1 While shepherds watched their flocks
by night,
All seated on the ground;
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.
2 "Fear not," said he (for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind),
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.
3 "To you, in David's town, this day,
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour, who is Christ, the Lord,
And this shall be the sign:
4 "The heavenly Babe you there shall find,
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."
5 Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels, praising God, and thus
Addressed their joyful song:
6 "All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will, henceforth, from heaven to men
Begin, and never cease!"

390. "Hosanna to the Son of David."
Mat. 21: 9.
1 Hosanna! be our cheerful song;
To Christ our Saviour King;
His praise, to whom we all belong,
Let all unite to sing.
2 Hosanna! here in joyful bands,
Let old and young proclaim;
And hail, with voices, hearts, and hands,
The Son of David's name.
3 Hosanna! sound from hill to hill,
And spread from plain to plain;
While louder, sweeter, clearer still,
Woods echo to the strain.
4 Hosanna! on the wings of light,
O'er earth and ocean fly,
Till morn to eve, and noon to night,
And heaven to earth reply.

1149. The Seasons ordained by God.
Psalm 147.
1 With songs and honors sounding loud,
Address the Lord on high;
Over the heavens he spreads his cloud,
And waters vail the sky.
2 He sends his showers of blessings down
To cheer the plains below;
He makes the grass the mountains crown,
And corn in valleys grow.
3 His steady counsels change the face
Of the declining year;
He bids the sun cut short his race,
And wint'ry days appear.
4 His hoary frost, his fleecy snow,
Descend and clothe the ground;
The liquid streams forbear to flow,
In icy fetters bound.

5 He sends his word, and melts the snow,
The fields no longer mourn;
He calls the warmer gales to blow,
And bids the spring return.

6 The changing wind, the flying cloud,
Obey his mighty word;
With songs and honors sounding loud,
Praise ye the sovereign Lord!

379. The Coronation.

1 All hail, the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall:
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all!

2 Crown him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from his altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown him Lord of all!

3 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant weak and small,
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all!

4 Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all!

5 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all!

6 Oh, that with yonder sacred throng,
We at his feet may fall!
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all!

971. "Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King."

1 Sing, ye redeemed of the Lord,
Your great Deliverer sing;
Pilgrims for Zion's city bound,
Be joyful in your King.

2 His hand divine shall lead you on
Through all the blissful road,
Till to the sacred mount you rise,
And see your smiling God.

3 There garlands of immortal joy
Shall bloom on every head;
While sorrow, sighing, and distress,
Like shadows, all are fled.

4 March on in your Redeemer's strength;
Pursue his footsteps still;
And let the prospect cheer your eye,
While laboring up the hill.

1035. "Let the wilderness and the cities lift up their voices."—Isaiah 42: 10-12.

1 Sing to the Lord in joyful strains!
Let earth his praise resound;
Ye, too, who on the ocean dwell,
And fill the isles around!

2 O city of the Lord! begin
The universal song,
And let the scattered villages
Thy joyful notes prolong.

3 Let Kedar's wilderness afar
Lift up the lonely voice;
And let the tenants of the rock
With accent rude rejoice.

4 Oh, from the streams of distant lands,
Unto Jehovah sing!
And joyful from the mountain tops
Shout to the Lord, the King.

5 Let all combined, with one accord,
Jehovah's glories raise,
Till in remotest bounds of earth
The nations sound his praise.
66.  Evening Confession.

1 Great God! to thee my evening song
With humble gratitude I raise:
Oh, let thy mercy tune my tongue,
And fill my heart with lively praise.

2 My days, unclouded as they pass,
And every gently rolling hour,
Are monuments of wondrous grace,
And witness to thy love and power.

3 And yet this thoughtless, wretched heart,
Too oft regardless of thy love,
Ungrateful, can from thee depart,
And, fond of trifles, vainly rove.

4 Seal my forgiveness in the blood
Of Jesus; his dear name alone
I plead for pardon, gracious God!
And kind acceptance at thy throne.

5 Let this blest hope mine eyelids close;
With sleep refresh my feeble frame;
Safe in thy care may I repose,
And wake with praises to thy name!

285.  "Behold how He loved him!"
John 11:56.

1 "See how he loved!" exclaimed the Jews,
As tender tears from Jesus fell;
My grateful heart the thought pursues,
And on the theme delights to dwell.

2 See how he loved, who traveled on,
Teaching the doctrine from the skies;
Who bade disease and pain begone,
And called the sleeping dead to rise.

3 See how he loved, who never shrank
From toil or danger, pain or death!
Who all the cup of sorrow drank,
And meekly yielded up his breath.

4 Such love can we, unmoved, survey?
Oh, may our breasts with ardor glow,
To tread his steps, his laws obey,
And thus our warm affections show!

5 All this for us thy love hath done;
By this to thee our love is won:
For this we tune our cheerful lays,
And shout our thanks in ceaseless praise.

1 All praise to thee, eternal Lord!
Clothed in a garb of flesh and blood;
Choosing a manger for thy throne,
While worlds on worlds are thine alone.

2 Once did the skies before thee bow;
A virgin's arms contain thee now:
Angels who did in thee rejoice
Now listen for thine infant voice.

3 A little child, thou art our guest,
That weary ones in thee may rest;
Forlorn and lowly is thy birth,
That we may rise to heaven from earth.

4 Thou comest in the darksome night
To make us children of the light,—
To make us, in the realms divine,
Like thine own angels round thee shine.

525.  Invitations of Christ.

1 How sweetly flowed the gospel sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and reverence filled the place!

2 From heaven he came, of heaven he spoke,
To heaven he led his followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.

3 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home;
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest;"
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.
46. An ancient Psalm of the Morning.

1 O Christ! with each returning morn
Thine image to our heart be borne;
And may we ever clearly see
Our God and Saviour, Lord, in thee!

2 All hallowed be our walk this day;
May meekness form our early ray,
And faithful love our noontide light,
And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

3 May grace each idle thought control,
And sanctify our wayward soul;
May guile depart, and malice cease,
And all within be joy and peace.

4 Our daily course, O Jesus, bless;
Make plain the way of holiness:
From sudden falls our feet defend,
And cheer at last our journey's end.

336. An ancient Hymn to the Redeemer.

1 O Christ! our King, Creator, Lord!
Saviour of all who trust thy word!
To them who seek thee ever near,
Now to our praises bend thine ear.

2 In thy dear cross a grace is found—
It flows from every streaming wound—
Whose power our inbred sin controls,
Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls!

3 Thou didst create the stars of night;
Yet thou hast vailed in flesh thy light—
Hast deigned a mortal form to wear,—
A mortal's painful lot to bear.

4 When thou didst hang upon the tree,
The quaking earth acknowledged thee;
When thou didst there yield up thy breath,
The world grew dark as shades of death.

5 Now in the Father's glory high,
Great Conqu'ror, never more to die,
Us by thy mighty power defend,
And reign through ages without end!

605. Prayer of the penitent Thief.

1 Thou that didst hang upon the tree,
Our curse and sufferings to remove,
Pity the souls that look to thee,
And save us by thy dying love.

2 Canst thou reject our dying prayer,
Or cast us out who come to thee?
Our sins, ah! wherefore didst thou bear?
Jesus, remember Calvary!

3 For us wast thou not lifted up?
For us a bleeding victim made,
That we, vile sinners, we might hope
Thou hast for all a ransom paid?

4 Oh, might we, with believing eyes,
Thee in thy bloody vesture see!
And cast us on thy sacrifice:
Jesus, my Lord, remember me!

983. "Dear Lord, to Thee I would return."

1 Ah! wretched, vile, ungrateful heart,
That can from Jesus thus depart;
Thus fond of trifles, vainly rove,
Forgetful of a Saviour's love.

2 Dear Lord! to thee I would return,
And at thy feet repenting mourn;
There let me view thy pardoning love,
And never from thy sight remove.

3 Oh, let thy love, with sweet control,
Bind every passion of my soul,—
Bid every vain desire depart,
And dwell for ever in my heart!
258. The Love of the Father.

1. Come, happy souls, approach your God
   With new, melodious songs;
Come, render to almighty Grace
   The tribute of your tongues.

2. So strange, so boundless was the love
   That pitied dying men,
The Father sent his equal Son
   To give them life again.

3. Thy hands, dear Jesus, were not armed
   With a revenging rod;
No hard commission to perform
   The vengeance of a God.

4. But all was mercy, all was mild,
   And wrath forsook the throne,
When Christ on the kind errand came,
   And brought salvation down.

5. Here, sinners, come and heal your wounds;
   Come, wipe your sorrows dry:
Come, trust the mighty Saviour's name,
   And you shall never die.

6. See, dearest Lord, our willing souls
   Accept thine offered grace;
We bless the great Redeemer's love,
   And give the Father praise.

441. The Name of Jesus.

1. How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
   In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
   And drives away his fear.

2. It makes the wounded spirit whole,
   And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
   And to the weary, rest.

3. By thee, my prayers acceptance gain,
   Although with sin defiled:
Satan accuses me in vain,
   And I am owned a child.

4. Jesus! my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend,
   My Prophet, Priest, and King;
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
   Accept the praise I bring.

5. Weak is the effort of my heart,
   And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see thee as thou art,
   I'll praise thee as I ought.

6. Till then I would thy love proclaim,
   With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name
   Refresh my soul in death.

1191. "Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood."

1. There is a land of pure delight,
   Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
   And pleasures banish pain.

2. There everlasting spring abides,
   And never-withering flowers:
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
   This heavenly land from ours.

3. Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
   Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
   While Jordan rolled between.

4. But timorous mortals start and shrink,
   To cross this narrow sea;
And linger, shivering, on the brink,
   And fear to launch away.

5. Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
   Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
   With unclouded eyes!—

6. Could we but climb where Moses stood,
   And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood
   Should fright us from the shore.

178. "Faithful is He that calleth you."

1. Begin, my tongue, some heavenly theme,
   And speak some boundless thing,
The mighty works, or mightier name,
Of our eternal King:
2 Tell of his wondrous faithfulness,
And sound his power abroad;
Sing the sweet promise of his grace,
And the performing God.
3 His very word of grace is strong,
As that which built the skies;
The voice that rolls the stars along
Speaks all the promises.
4 Oh, might I hear thy heavenly tongue
But whisper, "Thou art mine!"
Those gentle words should raise my song
To notes almost divine.

183. A Song to creating Wisdom.
1 Eternal Wisdom! thee we praise;
Thee the creation sings:
With thy loved name, rocks, hills, and seas,
And heaven's high palace rings.
2 Thy hand, how wide it spread the sky!
How glorious to behold!
Tinged with a blue of heavenly dye,
And starred with sparkling gold.
3 Infinite strength, and equal skill,
Shine through the worlds abroad,
Our souls with vast amazement fill,
And speak the builder, God.
4 But still the wonders of thy grace
Our softer passions move;
Pity divine in Jesus' face
We see, adore, and love.

1 Hark, the glad sound! the Saviour comes,
The Saviour promised long;
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song;
2 He comes, the prisoner to release,
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.
3 He comes, from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And on the eyes long closed in night
To pour celestial day.
4 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And, with the treasures of his grace,
Enrich the humble poor.
5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim,
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy beloved name.

309. The Throne of Love.
1 Come, let us lift our joyful eyes
Up to the courts above,
And smile to see our Father there,
Upon a throne of love.
2 Come, let us bow before his feet,
And venture near the Lord:
No fiery cherubs guard his seat,
Nor double-flaming sword.
3 The peaceful gates of heavenly bliss
Are opened by the Son;
High let us raise our notes of praise,
And reach th' almighty Throne.
4 To thee ten thousand thanks we bring,
Great Advocate on high;
And glory to th' eternal King,
Who lays his anger by.

Doxology.
Let God the Father, and the Son,
And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
Or saints to love the Lord.
446. Praise to Christ in View of the Fullness of his Glory.

1 Jesus, the Christ of God,
   The Father's blessed Son!
The Father's bosom thine abode,
The Father's love thine own.
2 Jesus, the Lamb of God,
   Who, us from hell to raise,
Hast shed thy reconciling blood,
   We give thee endless praise.
3 God, and yet Man, thou art;
   True God, true Man art thou:
Of man and of man's earth a part,
   One with us thou art now.
4 Great Sacrifice for sin,
   Giver of life for life;
Restorer of the peace within,
   True Ender of the strife.
5 To thee, the Christ of God,
   Thy saints exulting sing—
The bearer of our heavy load,
   Our own anointed King.

503. "Ask, and ye shall receive."
   Matt. 7: 7.
1 "Ask, and ye shall receive,—
   On this my hope I build;
I ask forgiveness, and believe
   My prayer shall be fulfilled.
2 Seek, and expect to find:
   Wounded to death in soul,
I seek the Saviour of mankind,
   For he can make me whole.
3 Knock, and with patience wait,
   By faith free entrance gain:
I stand, and knock at mercy's gate
   Till I thy grace obtain.
4 Shall I then ask in vain;
   Seek, and not find the Lord?
Knock, and yet no admittance gain,
   And doubt thy holy word?
5 No, Lord, thou 'lt ne'er deceive;
   Thy promises are sure:
In thy good time I shall receive;—
   What can I ask for more?

506. "The Spirit and the Bride say, Come."
   Rev. 22: 17.
1 The Spirit, in our hearts,
   Is whispering, "Sinner, come;"
The bride, the church of Christ, proclaims
   To all his children, "Come!"
2 Let him that heareth say
   To all about him, "Come;"
Let him that thirsts for righteousness,
   To Christ, the Fountain, come!
3 Yes, whosoever will,
   Oh, let him freely come,
And freely drink the stream of life;
   'T is Jesus bids him come.
4 Lo! Jesus, who invites,
   Declares, "I quickly come;"
Lord, even so; we wait thine hour;
   O blest Redeemer, come!

507. "Wait on the Lord."
   Psalm 27.
1 Come, ye with sin distressed,
   And wait upon the Lord:
He will bestow the promised rest,
   And timely aid afford.
2 What though he hide his face,
   And should awhile delay;
He'll grant you fresh supplies of grace
   For every trying day.
3 His wisdom, love, and power
Are all engaged for you,
And in affliction's fiery hour
Will bring you safely through.

4 He knows your every pain;
He counts your every tear;
And, while your mourning souls complain,
He lends a pitying ear.

5 Then wait his gracious will
In persevering prayer;
His own blest word will he fulfill,
And make your souls his care.

533. Give thy Heart.

1 Give to the Lord thine heart;
In him all pleasures meet:
Oh, come and choose the better part,
Low at the Saviour's feet.

2 Hear, and your soul shall live;
His peace shall be your stay—
Peace, which the world can never give,
Can never take away.

3 Go with him to his cross,
Go with him to his tomb;
Your richest gain account but loss,
And tarry till he come.

4 Then, when you hear his voice,
Your faithful Shepherd's call,
Lift up your heads, in him rejoice,
Your God, your Guide, your All!

Doxology.

The Father and the Son,
And Spirit we adore;
We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
Both now and evermore!

OLNEY. S. M.
307. "The Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all."

1 O Christ, our ever blessed Lord,
For man's transgression slain,
We thy redeeming love record
In songs of thankful strain.

2 We upward lift our longing eyes,
And muse on Calvary;
On thy mysterious sacrifice,
Thy shame and agony.

3 We all like erring sheep had strayed
From God the Father's care;
The guilt of all on thee was laid,
Our burden thou didst bear.

4 O Christ, be thou our present joy,
Our future great reward;
Our only glory may it be,
To glory in the Lord!

5 Oh may we through thy cross and pain,
With all who thee adore,
A blessed resurrection gain,
And life for evermore!

Then let it be our joy to know
This way of peace and love.

5 To us thy cross is life and health,
Though shame and death to thee;
On earth, it is our joy and wealth,
In heaven, our crown shall be.

687. Christ our only Joy.

1 Jesus! the very thought of thee
With gladness fills my breast;
But dearer far thy face to see,
And in thy presence rest.

2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than thy blest name,
O Saviour of mankind!

3 O Hope of every contrite heart,
O Joy of all the meek!
To those who fall, how kind thou art,
How good to those who seek!

4 And those who find thee, find a bliss
Nor tongue nor pen can show:
The love of Jesus—what it is,
None but his loved ones know.

5 Jesus, our only joy be thou!
As thou our prize wilt be;
Jesus, be thou our glory now,
And through eternity!

697. Sympathy with Christ.

1 How wondrous was the burning zeal
Which filled the Master's breast,
When, all his sufferings full in view,
To Salem's towers he pressed!

2 Dear Lord! no tongue can duly tell
Thy love's prevailing might;
No thought can comprehend its length,
And breadth, and depth, and height!
3 Yet grant that we may follow thee
   Through all thine hours of scorn;
And learn with thee to watch and pray,
   With thee to weep and mourn.
4 And still, O blessed Jesus Christ!
The more thy cross we see,
The more may each exclaim with joy,
The Saviour died for me!

706. "To Thee my inmost spirit cries."

1 O Jesus! thou the beauty art
   Of angel-worlds above;
Thy name is music to the heart,
   Enchanting it with love.
2 O Jesus, Saviour! hear the sighs
   Which unto thee I send;
To thee my inmost spirit cries,
   My being's hope and end.
3 Stay with us, Lord, and with thy light
   Illume the soul's abyss;
Scatter the darkness of our night,
   And fill the world with bliss.
4 O Jesus, King of earth and heaven,
   Our life and joy! to thee
Be honor, thanks, and blessings given
   Through all eternity!

791. "Joint heirs with Christ."

1 Blessed be God! for ever blest,
   And glorious be his name!
His Son he gave our souls to save
   From everlasting shame.
2 Th' eternal Life his life laid down—
   Such was the wondrous plan—
And Christ, the Son of God, was made
   A curse for cursed man!
3 Our flesh he took, our sins he bore,
   Himself for us he gave;
   His cross was ours, and we with him
   Were buried in one grave.
4 With him we rose, with him we live,
   With him we sit above;
With him for ever we shall share
   The Father's boundless love.
5 Bless, then, Jehovah's blessed name;
   And bless our blessed King!
And songs of glad deliverance
   For ever, ever sing!

809. An ancient Hymn on Christ as our Model.

1 O Jesus! King most wonderful,
   Thou Conqueror renowned;
Thou sweetness most ineffable,
   In whom all joys are found!
2 When once thou visitest the heart,
   Then truth begins to shine,
Then earthly vanities depart,
   Then kindles love divine.
3 O Jesus, Light of all below!
   Thou Fount of life and fire!
Surpassing all the joys we know,
   All that we can desire,—
4 May every heart confess thy name,
   And ever thee adore;
And, seeking thee, itself inflame
   To seek thee more and more.
5 Thee may our tongues for ever bless;
   Thee may we love alone;
And ever in our life express
   The image of thine own.

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
   And shall be evermore!
428. The Star of Bethlehem.

1 When marshaled on the nightly plain,
The glittering host bestud the sky,
One star alone, of all the train,
Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.

2 Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks,
From every host, from every gem;
But one alone, the Saviour, speaks:
It is the Star of Bethlehem.

3 Once on the raging seas I rode:
The storm was loud, the night was dark;
The ocean yawned, and rudely blew
The wind that tossed my foundering bark.

4 Deep horror then my vitals froze;
Death-struck I ceased the tide to stem;
When suddenly a star arose!
It was the Star of Bethlehem.

5 It was my guide, my light, my all;
It bade my dark forebodings cease;
And thro' the storm, and danger's thrall,
It led me to the port of peace.

6 Now safely moored, my perils o'er,
I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
For ever and for evermore,
The Star—the Star of Bethlehem!

431. "His Loving-kindness."

1 Awake, my soul, to joyful lays,
And sing the great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me:
His loving-kindness, oh, how free!

2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me, notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate:
His loving-kindness, oh, how great!

3 Though numerous hosts of mighty foes,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along:
His loving-kindness, oh, how strong!

4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick and thundered loud,
He near my soul hath always stood:
His loving-kindness, oh, how good!

5 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale;
Soon all my mortal powers must fail:
Oh, may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death!

6 Then let me mount and soar away
To the bright world of endless day;
And sing, with rapture and surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies!
335. An ancient Hymn to the Redeemer.

1 Thou art the everlasting Son,
   O Christ! and, high upon thy throne,
   Thou art at the right hand of God,
   And hast redeemed us by thy blood;
   And heaven and earth are full of thee,—
   The glory of thy Majesty!

2 When all the sharpness of our death
   Was overcome in thy last breath,
   Then didst thou open wide heaven's door
   To all believers evermore:
   O Lamb of God! and thou wilt come,
   To be our Judge, and take us home.

3 In thee we trust: we pray thee, Lord,
   Remember thy most precious blood!
   In honor may we numbered be
   With all the noble company,
   Who bow before thy mercy-seat,
   And cast their treasures at thy feet.

361. "We walk by faith, not by sight."

1 We did not see thee lifted high,
   When men thy sacred body slew,
   Nor hear thy meek, imploring cry:
   "Forgive, they know not what they do!"
   Yet we believe the deed was done,
   Which shook the earth and vailed the sun.

2 We stood not by the empty tomb
   Where, Lord, thy sacred body lay,
   Nor sat within that upper room,
   Nor met thee in the open way;
   But we believe that angels said,
   "Why seek the living with the dead?"

3 We did not mark the chosen few,
   When thou didst through the clouds ascend,
   First lift to heaven their wondering view,
   Then to the earth all prostrate bend:
   Yet we believe that mortal eyes
   Beheld that journey to the skies.

4 And now that thou dost reign on high,
   And thence thy waiting people bless;
   No ray of glory from the sky
   Doth shine upon our wilderness;
   But we believe thy faithful word,
   And trust in our redeeming Lord.

467. An ancient Hymn to the Trinity.

1 Let glory be to God on high:
   Peace be on earth as in the sky;
   Good will to men! We bow the knee,
   We praise, we bless, we worship thee;
   We give thee thanks, thy name we sing,
   Almighty Father! Heavenly King!

2 O Lord, the sole begotten Son,
   Who bore the crimes which we had done;
   Son of the Father, who wast slain
   To take away the sins of men;
   O Lamb of God, whose blood was spilt
   For all the world, and all its guilt;—

3 Have mercy on us, through thy blood;
   Receive our prayer, O Lamb of God!
   For thou art holy; thou alone,
   At God's right hand, upon his throne,
   In all his glory, art adored,
   With thee, O Holy Ghost, One Lord.

511. "Come unto Me, all ye that labor."

1 Peace, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan
   Hath taught each scene the notes of woe;
   Cease thy complaint, suppress thy groan,
   And let thy tears forget to flow:
   Behold, the precious balm is found,
   To hush thy pain, to heal thy wound.

2 Come, freely come, by sin oppressed;
   On Jesus cast thy weighty load;
   In him thy refuge find, thy rest,
   Safe in the mercy of thy God:
   Thy God's thy Saviour—glorious word!
   Oh, hear, believe, and bless the Lord!
150. "God is Love."—1 John 4: 8.

That we may be where now thou art,
And look upon thy face.

3 And ever on thine earthly path
A gleam of glory lies;
A light still breaks behind the cloud
That vails thee from our eyes.

4 Lift up our thoughts, lift up our songs,
And let thy grace be given,
That, while we linger yet below,
Our hearts may be in heaven;—

5 That, where thou art at God's right hand,
Our hope, our love may be:
Dwell in us now, that we may dwell
For evermore in thee.

366. "Why seek ye the living among the dead?"

That we may be where now thou art,
And look upon thy face.

3 And ever on thine earthly path
A gleam of glory lies;
A light still breaks behind the cloud
That vails thee from our eyes.

4 Lift up our thoughts, lift up our songs,
And let thy grace be given,
That, while we linger yet below,
Our hearts may be in heaven;—

5 That, where thou art at God's right hand,
Our hope, our love may be:
Dwell in us now, that we may dwell
For evermore in thee.

1 Why search ye in the narrow tomb
For him who lives on high?
Heaven spreads her gates to make him room;
His glory fills the sky.

2 Lift up your hearts, and stretch your eyes;
The Saviour is not here:
Behold the Conqueror arise;
To grace a brighter sphere.

3 Angels with loud, exulting songs,
Welcome their Lord again:
To us the victory belongs;
For us the Lamb was slain.

4 And shall we, Lord, ascend with thee,
And see thee as thou art,
From death's terrific power made free,
And saved from Satan's dart?

5 Saviour, since thou art gone before,
Oh, grant that we may go
Where sin's dark empire is no more,
And death a vanquished foe!
754. "Victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."
1 Cor 15: 55.
1 On for an overcoming faith
To cheer my dying hours!
To triumph o'er the monster, death,
And all his frightful powers.
2 Joyful, with all the strength I have,
My quivering lips should sing,
"Where is thy boasted victory, grave?
And where the monster's sting?"
3 If sin be pardoned, I'm secure;
Death hath no sting beside:
The law gives sin its damning power,
But Christ, my ransom, died.
4 Now to the God of victory
Immortal thanks be paid,
Who makes us conquerors while we die,
Through Christ, our living Head!

1 Arise! O King of grace, arise!
And enter to thy rest;
Lo! thy church waits with longing eyes,
Thus to be owned and blest.
2 Enter with all thy glorious train,
Thy Spirit and thy word;
All that the ark did once contain
Could no such grace afford.
3 Here, mighty God, accept our vows;
Here let thy praise be spread;
Bless the provisions of thy house,
And fill thy poor with bread.
4 Here let the Son of David reign;
Let God's Anointed shine;
Justice and truth his court maintain,
With love and power divine.
5 Here let him hold a lasting throne,
And, as his kingdom grows,

1150. "Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness."—Psalm 65.
1 'Tis by thy strength the mountains stand,
God of eternal power!
The sea grows calm at thy command,
And tempests cease to roar.
2 Thy morning light and evening shade
Successive comforts bring;
Thy plenteous fruits make harvest glad;
Thy flowers adorn the spring.
3 Seasons and times, and moons and hours,
Heaven, earth, and air are thine;
When clouds distill in fruitful showers,
The author is divine!
4 Thy showers the thirsty furrows fill;
And ranks of corn appear;
Thy ways abound with blessings still—
Thy goodness crowns the year.

Fresh honors shall adorn his crown,
And shame confound his foes.
228. "His mercy endureth for ever."—Psalm 136.

1 Let us, with a gladsome mind,
   Praise the Lord, for he is kind:
   For his mercies shall endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure.

2 He, with all-commanding might,
   Filled the new-made world with light:
   For his mercies shall endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure.

3 All things living he doth feed;
   His full hand supplies their need:
   For his mercies shall endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure.

4 He his chosen race did bless,
   In the wasteful wilderness:
   For his mercies shall endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure.

5 He hath, with a piteous eye,
   Looked upon our misery:
   For his mercies shall endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure.

6 Let us, then, with gladsome mind,
   Praise the Lord, for he is kind:
   For his mercies shall endure,
   Ever faithful, ever sure.

231. God's Deliverances of his People.
   Psalm 106.

1 Thank and praise Jehovah's name;
   For his mercies, firm and sure,
   From eternity the same,
   To eternity endure.

2 Let the ransomed thus rejoice,
   Gathered out of every land;
   As the people of his choice,
   Plucked from the destroyer's hand.

3 In the wilderness astray,
   Hither, thither, while they roam,
   Hungry, fainting by the way,
   Far from refuge, shelter, home;—

4 Then unto the Lord they cry;
   He inclines a gracious ear,
   Sends deliverance from on high,
   Rescues them from all their fear.

5 To a pleasant land he brings,
   Where the vine and olive grow;
   Where, from flowery hills, the springs
   Through luxuriant valleys flow.

6 Oh that men would praise the Lord,
   For his goodness to their race;
   For the wonders of his word,
   And the riches of his grace!

392. The Song of Jubilee.

1 Hark! the song of jubilee;
   Loud as mighty thunders roar,
   Or the fullness of the sea,
   When it breaks upon the shore.

2 Hallelujah! for the Lord
   God omnipotent shall reign:
   Hallelujah! let the word
   Echo round the earth and main.

3 Hallelujah!—hark! the sound,
   From the depths unto the skies,
   Wakes above, beneath, around,
   All creation's harmonies.

4 See Jehovah's banner furled;
   Sheathed his sword: he speaks —'tis done!
   And the kingdoms of the world
   Are the kingdoms of his Son.
5 He shall reign from pole to pole,
With supreme, unbounded sway;
He shall reign when, like a scroll,
Yonder heavens have passed away.

6 Then the end;—beneath his rod
Man's last enemy shall fall:
Hallelujah! Christ in God,
God in Christ is all in all!

354. "Christ, the first-fruits."

1 Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day!
Sons of men and angels say:
Raise your joys and triumphs high;
Sing, ye heavens! and earth, reply!

2 Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won:
Lo! our sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo! he sets in blood no more.

3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal—
Christ hath burst the gates of hell:
Death in vain forbids his rise,
Christ hath opened paradise.

4 Lives again our glorious King!
Where, O Death, is now thy sting?
Once he died, our souls to save:
Where's thy victory, boasting Grave?

5 Soar we now where Christ hath led,
Following our exalted Head:
Made like him, like him we rise,
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies!

1142. "Lord, Thou hast been favorable unto Thy band."

1 Praise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days!
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ!

2 For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield,
For the joy which harvests bring,
Grateful praises now we sing.

3 Clouds that drop refreshing dews;
Suns that genial heat diffuse;
Flocks that whiten all the plain;
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain;

4 All that Spring, with bounteous hand,
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal Autumn pours
From her overflowing stores;

5 These, great God, to thee we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow;
And, for these, our souls shall raise
Grateful vows, and solemn praise.

1268. "The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven."

1 Hark! that shout of rapturous joy,
Bursting forth from yonder cloud!
Jesus comes, and through the sky
Angels tell their joy aloud!

2 Hark! the trumpet's awful voice
Sounds abroad, through sea and land;
Let his people now rejoice!
Their redemption is at hand.

3 See! the Lord appears in view;
Heaven and earth before him fly!
Rise, ye saints, he comes for you—
Rise to meet him in the sky.

4 Go, and dwell with him above,
Where no foe can e'er molest;
Happy in the Saviour's love!
Ever blessing, ever blest.
359. Looking into the Sepulcher.

1 Ye humble souls that seek the Lord,
   Chase all your fears away;
   And bow, with pleasure, down to see
   The place where Jesus lay.
2 Thus low the Lord of life was brought—
   Such wonders love can do—
   Thus cold in death that bosom lay,
   Which throbbed and bled for you.
3 A moment now indulge your grief:
   Let grateful sorrows rise;
   And wash the crimson stains away
   With torrents from your eyes.
4 Then raise your eyes, and tune your songs,
   The Saviour lives again!
   Not all the bolts and bars of death
   The Conqueror could detain.
5 High o'er th' angelic bands he rears
   His once dishonored head;
   And through unnumbered years he reigns,
   Who dwelt among the dead.
6 With joy like his, shall every saint
   His empty tomb survey;
   Then rise with his ascending Lord,
   Through all his shining way.

682. "I know the Lord can save."

1 Affliction is a stormy deep,
   Where wave resounds to wave;
   Though o'er my head the billows roll,
   I know the Lord can save.
2 The hand that now withholds my joys
   Can soon restore my peace;
   And he who bade the tempest rise
   Can bid that tempest cease.
3 In darkest scenes when sorrows rose
   And pressed on every side,
   The Lord has still sustained my steps,
   And still has been my guide.
4 Here will I rest, and build my hope,
   Nor murmur at his rod;
   He's more than all the world to me—
   My Health, my Life, my God!

705. Self lost in Christ.

1 My God, my God! to thee I cry;
   Thee only would I know:
   Thy purifying blood apply,
   And wash me white as snow.
2 But art thou not already mine?
   Answer, if mine thou art!
   Whisper within, thou Love Divine,
   And cheer my drooping heart.
3 Oh! could I lose myself in thee,
   Thy depth of mercy prove,
   Thou vast, unfathomable sea
   Of unexhausted love!
4 My humbled soul, when thou art near,
   In dust and ashes lies!
How shall a sinful worm appear,
   Or meet thy purer eyes?
5 I loathe myself when God I see,
   And into nothing fall;
Content if thou exalted be,
   And Christ be All in All!

761.
   Not forsaken.
1 And wilt thou now forsake me, Lord?
   I feel it can not be;
No earthly tongue can ever tell
   What thou hast been to me.
2 Through all the changing scenes of life
   Thy love hath sheltered me;
And wilt thou now forget thy child?
   I feel it can not be.
3 Thy love hath been my heritage
   Through many a weary year;
I've trusted in thy promises,
   And thou hast dried each tear.
4 In life or death, I take my stand
   Where I have ever stood,
Beneath the shelter of thy cross,
   And trusting in thy blood.
5 And then, when youth and health and strength
   And energy have fled,
The shades of evening peacefully
   Shall close around my head.
6 And when in all the helplessness
   Of death I turn to thee,
Thou wilt not then forsake me, Lord!
   I feel it can not be.

947.  "It is good for me that I have been afflicted."
1 I can not call affliction sweet,
   And yet 't was good to bear:
Affliction brought me to thy feet,
   And I found comfort there.
2 My weaned soul was all resigned
   To thy most gracious will;
Oh, had I kept that better mind,
   Or been afflicted still!
3 Where are the vows which then I vowed,
   The joys which then I knew?
Those vanished like the morning cloud,
   These like the early dew.
4 Lord, grant me grace for every day,
   Whate'er my state may be,
Through life, in death, with truth to say,
   My God is all to me!

1163.  "That I may know how frail I am."
Psalm 39.
1 Teach me the measure of my days,
   Thou Maker of my frame;
I would survey life's narrow space,
   And learn how frail I am.
2 A span is all that we can boast,
   An inch or two of time!
Man is but vanity and dust,
   In all his flower and prime.
3 What should I wish, or wait for, then,
   From creatures, earth and dust?
They make our expectations vain,
   And disappoint our trust.
4 Now I forbid my carnal hope,
   My fond desire recall:
I give my mortal interest up,
   And make my God my all.

Doxology.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
   And shall be evermore!
203. God our Benefactor.

1 My Maker and my King!
   To thee my all I owe;
   Thy sovereign bounty is the spring,
   Whence all my blessings flow.

2 The creature of thy hand,
   On thee alone I live;
   My God! thy benefits demand
   More praise than I can give.

3 Lord, what can I impart,
   When all is thine before;
   Thy love demands a thankful heart:
   The gift, alas, how poor!

4 Shall I withhold thy due?
   And shall my passions rove?
   Lord form this wretched heart anew,
   And fill it with thy love.

854. Boldness in Prayer.

1 Behold the throne of grace:
   The promise calls me near;
   There Jesus shows a smiling face,
   And waits to answer prayer.

2 That rich atoning blood,
   Which sprinkled round I see,
   Provides for those who come to God
   An all-prevailing plea.

3 My soul! ask what thou wilt;
   Thou canst not be too bold:
   Since his own blood for thee he spilt,
   What else can he withhold?

4 Thine image, Lord, bestow,
   Thy presence and thy love;
   I ask to serve thee here below,
   And reign with thee above.
THEON. S. M.

5 Teach me to live by faith;
    Conform my will to thine;
Let me victorious be in death,
    And then in glory shine.

1225. "The former things are passed away."

1 The people of the Lord
    Are on their way to heaven;
There they obtain their great reward,
    The prize will there be given.

2 'Tis conflict here below;
    'Tis triumph there, and peace:
On earth we wrestle with the foe;
    In heaven our conflicts cease.

3 'Tis gloom and darkness here;
    'Tis light and joy above;

ST. THOMAS. S. M.

4 There rest shall follow toil,
    And ease succeed to care:
The victors there divide the spoil;
    They sing and triumph there.

5 Then, let us joyful sing!
    The conflict is not long;
We hope in heaven to praise our King
    In one eternal song.

Doxology.

The Father and the Son,
    And Spirit we adore;
We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
    Both now and evermore!
279. Miracles of Christ.
1 Oh, where is he that trod the sea?
   Oh, where is he that spake,
   And lepers from their pains are free,
   And slaves their fetters break?
   The lame and palsied freely rise,
   With joy the dumb do sing;
   And, on the darkened, blinded eyes,
   Glad beams of morning spring!
2 Oh, where is he that trod the sea?
   Oh, where is he that spake,
   And demons from their victims flee,
   The dead from slumber wake?
   Here, here art thou, almighty Lord!
   Oh, speak to us once more,
   And let thy healing, quickening word,
   Our ruined souls restore!

641. "We love Him, because He first loved us." 1 John 4:19.
1 We love thee, Lord, because when we
   Had erred and gone astray,
   Thou didst recall our wandering souls
   Into the homeward way;
   When helpless, homeless, we were lost
   In sin and sorrow's night,
   Thou didst send forth a guiding ray
   Of thy benignant light;—
2 Because, when we forsook thy ways,
   Nor kept thy holy will,
   Thou wert not the avenging Judge,
   But gracious Father still;—
   Because, though we've forgot thee, Lord,
   Thou hast not us forgot,—
   Though we have oft forsaken thee,
   Yet thou forsakest not;—
3 Because, O Lord, thou lovedst us
   With everlasting love;
   Because thou gav'st thy Son to die,
   That we might live above;
   Because, when we were heirs of wrath,
   Thou gav'st the hopes of heaven:
   We love because we much have sinned,
   And much have been forgiven.

913. Communion with God in Retirement.
1 Far from the world, O Lord, I flee,
   From strife and tumult far;
   From scenes where Satan wages still
   His most successful war.
2 The calm retreat, the silent shade,
   With prayer and praise agree;
   And seem by thy sweet bounty made
   For those who follow thee.
3 There, if thy Spirit touch the soul,
   And grace her mean abode,
   Oh, with what peace, and joy, and love,
   She communes with her God!
4 There, like the nightingale she pours
   Her solitary lays;
   Nor asks a witness of her song,
   Nor thirsts for human praise.
5 Author and Guardian of my life!
   Sweet Source of light divine,
   And—all harmonious names in one—
   My Saviour!—thou art mine!
6 What thanks I owe thee, and what love—
   A boundless, endless store—
   Shall echo through the realms above,
   When time shall be no more.

1 I waited patient for the Lord:
   He bowed to hear my cry;
   He saw me resting on his word,
   And brought salvation nigh.
2 He raised me from a horrid pit,
   Where, mourning, long I lay,
And from my bonds released my feet—
Deep bonds of miry clay.

3 Firm on a rock he made me stand,
And taught my cheerful tongue
To praise the wonders of his hand
In new and thankful song.

4 I'll spread his works of grace abroad;
The saints with joy shall hear,
And sinners learn to make my God
Their only hope and fear.

963. "The secret place of the Most High."
Psalm 61.

1 There is a safe and secret place
Beneath the wings divine,
Reserved for all the heirs of grace:
Oh, be that refuge mine!

2 The least and feeblest there may bide,
Uninjured and unmoved;
While thousands fall on every side,
He rests secure in God.

3 He feeds in pastures large and fair,
Of love and truth divine;
O child of God, O glory's heir!
How rich a lot is thine!

4 A hand almighty to defend,
An ear for every call,
An honored life, a peaceful end,
And heaven to crown it all!

1103. "In Thee, the fatherless findeth mercy."

1 O gracious Lord! whose mercies rise
Above our utmost need,
Incline thine ear unto our cry,
And hear the orphan plead.

2 Bereft of all a mother's love,
And all a father's care,
Lord, whither shall we flee for help?
To whom direct our prayer?

3 To thee we flee, to thee we pray;
Thou shalt our Father be;
More than the fondest parent's care
We find, O Lord, in thee!

4 Already thou hast heard our cry,
And wiped away our tears;
Thy mercy has a refuge found,
To guard our helpless years.

5 Oh, let thy love descend on those
Who pity to us show;
Nor let their children ever taste
The orphan's cup of woe!

1206. "Sorrow not, even as others which have no hope."

1 Dear as thou wert, and justly dear,
We will not weep for thee:
One thought shall check the starting tear:
It is, that thou art free.

2 And thus shall faith's consoling power
The tears of love restrain:
Oh, who that saw thy parting hour,
Could wish thee back again!

3 Triumphant in thy closing eye
The hope of glory shone;
Joy breathed in thine expiring sigh,
To think the fight was won.

4 Gently the passing spirit fled,
Sustained by grace divine:
Oh, may such grace on me be shed,
And make my end like thine!

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore!

1 Where shall I look for holy calm,
   But in thy blood, thou dying Lamb?
   My only hope of mercy lies
   In thine atoning sacrifice.

2 The world's temptations may assail,
   Its friendships cease, its comforts fail;
   But if thy peace, dear Lord, be mine,
   All else submissive I resign.

3 Oh, let my spirit meekly rest
   In whatsoever love sees best;
   Confiding in thy sovereign grace,
   And trusting where I fail to trace.

4 Lord, let thy peace my soul sustain,
   'Mid mingled scenes of joy and pain;
   Till, in the fullness of thy love,
   I reach the Fountain-head above.

785. "I will that they be with Me, where I am."—John 17: 24.

1 Let me be with thee where thou art,
   My Saviour, my eternal Rest;
   Then only will this longing heart
   Be fully and for ever blest.

2 Let me be with thee where thou art,
   Thine unveiled glory to behold;
   Then only will this wandering heart
   Cease to be false to thee and cold.

3 Let me be with thee where thou art,
   Where spotless saints thy name adore;
   Then only will this sinful heart
   Be evil and defiled no more.

4 Let me be with thee where thou art,
   Where none can die, where none can remove;
   There neither death nor life will part
   Me from thy presence and thy love.

829. Living to the Glory of God.

1 O thou, who hast at thy command
   The hearts of all men in thy hand!
   Our wayward, erring hearts incline
   To know no other will but thine.

2 Our wishes, our desires, control;
   Mold every purpose of the soul;
   O'er all may we victorious be
   That stands between ourselves and thee.

3 Thrice blest will all our blessings prove,
   When through them all we see thy love;
   When each glad heart its tribute pays
   Of humble gratitude and praise.

4 And while we to thy glory live,
   May we to thee all glory give;
   Until the joyful summons come,
   That calls thy willing servants home.

863. "Forgiving one another."—Eph. 4: 30-32.

1 The Spirit, like a peaceful dove,
   Flies from the realms of noise and strife:
Why should we vex and grieve his love,
Who scalds our souls to heavenly life!

2 Tender and kind be all our thoughts;
Through all our lives let mercy run:
So God forgives our numerous faults,
For the dear sake of Christ, his Son.

1 Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With light and comfort from above;
Be thou our guardian, thou our guide,
O'er every thought and step preside.

2 The light of truth to us display,
And make us know and choose thy way;
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.

3 Lead us to holiness—the road
Which we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from his pastures stray.

4 Lead us to God, our final rest,
To be with him for ever blest;
Lead us to heaven, its bliss to share—
Fullness of joy for ever there!

463. "Will He no more to us return?"

1 O Lord, and shall our fainting souls
Thy just displeasure ever mourn?
Thy Spirit grieved, and long withdrawn,
Will he no more to us return?

2 Great Source of light and peace! return,
Nor let us mourn and sigh in vain;
Come, repossess these longing hearts
With all the graces of thy train.

3 This temple, hallowed by thine hand,
Once more be with thy presence blest;
Here be thy grace anew displayed,
Be this thine everlasting rest!

566. Repentance at the Cross.

1 Here, at thy cross, my gracious Lord,
I lay my soul beneath thy love:
Oh, cleanse me with atoning blood,
Nor let me from thy feet remove!

2 Should worlds conspire to drive me thence,
Moveless and firm this heart should lie;
Resolved, for that’s my last defense,
If I must perish, there to die.

3 But speak, my Lord, and calm my fear:
Am I not safe beneath thy shade?
Thy vengeance will not strike me here,
Nor Satan dare my soul invade.

4 Yes, I’m secure beneath thy blood,
And all my foes shall lose their aim:
Hosanna to my Saviour God!
And loudest praises to his name.

1067. “Lord, I am Thine, entirely Thine.”

1 Lord, I am thine, entirely thine,
Purchased and saved by blood divine;
With full consent I thine would be,
And own thy sovereign right in me.

2 Here, O my Lord, my soul, my all,
I yield to thee beyond recall;
Accept thine own,—so long withheld,
Accept what I so freely yield.

3 Grant one poor sinner more a place
Among the children of thy grace;
A wretched sinner lost to God,
But ransomed by Inmanuel’s blood.

4 The vow is past beyond repeal;
Now will I set the solemn seal:
Thine would I live, thine would I die,
Be thine through all eternity.
55. The Lord's Day.

1 Safely through another week
   God has brought us on our way;
   Let us now a blessing seek,
   Waiting in his courts to-day:
   Day of all the week the best,
   Emblem of eternal rest.

2 While we pray for pardoning grace,
   Through the dear Redeemer's name,
   Show thy reconciling face;
   Take away our sin and shame:
   From our worldly cares set free,
   May we rest this day in thee.

3 Here we come, thy name to praise;
   Let us feel thy presence near;
   May thy glories meet our eyes,
   While we in thy house appear:
   Here afford us, Lord, a taste
   Of our everlasting feast.

4 May the Gospel's joyful sound
   Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
   Make the fruits of grace abound;
   Bring relief for all complaints:
   Thus let all our Sabbaths prove,
   Till we rest in thee above.

55. The Lord's Day.

Yet, that mind which was in thee,
   May be, must be formed in me.

2 Days of toil, 'mid throngs of men,
   Vexed not, ruffled not thy soul;
   Still collected, calm, serene,
   Thou each feeling couldst control:
   Lord, that mind which was in thee,
   May be, must be formed in me.

3 Though such griefs were thine to bear,
   For each sufferer thou couldst feel;
   Every mourner's burden share,
   Every wounded spirit heal:
   Saviour! let thy grace in me
   Form that mind which was in thee.

4 When my pain is most intense,
   Let thy cross my lesson prove;
   Let me hear thee, e'en from thence,
   Breathing words of peace and love:
   Saviour! let thy grace in me
   Form that mind which was in thee.

957. "The precious Sons of Zion."

1 Blessed are the sons of God!
   They are bought with Jesus' blood;
   They are ransomed from the grave;
   Life eternal they shall have:
   With them numbered may we be,
   Here, and in eternity!

2 God did love them in his Son
   Long before the world began;
   All their sins were washed away;
   They shall stand in God's great day:

808. Imitation of Christ in his mild Virtues.

1 Ever patient, gentle, meek,
   Holy Saviour! was thy mind;
   Vainly in myself I seek
   Likeness to my Lord to find;

2 God did love them in his Son
   Long before the world began;
   All their sins were washed away;
   They shall stand in God's great day:
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity!

3 They are harmless, meek, and mild,
Holy, humble, undefiled;
They are by the Spirit sealed,
They with love and peace are filled:
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity!

4 They are lights upon the earth,
Children of a heavenly birth;
One with God, with Jesus one,
Glory is in them begun:
With them numbered may we be.
Here, and in eternity!

475. Consecration to the Trinity.

1 Now, O God, thine own I am!
Now I give thee back thine own:
Freedom, friends, and health, and fame,
Consecrate to thee alone:
Thine I live, thrice happy I!
Happier still, if thine I die.

2 Take me, Lord, and all my powers:
Take my mind, and heart, and will;
All my goods, and all my hours,
All I know, and all I feel,
All I think, or speak, or do—
Take my soul and make it new!

3 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One in Three, and Three in One,
As by the celestial host,
Let thy will on earth be done;
Praise by all to thee be given,
Glorious Lord of earth and heaven!

909. The childlike Heart.

1 Quiet, Lord, my froward heart;
Make me teachable and mild,
Upright, simple, free from art;
Make me as a weaned child,—
From distrust and envy free,
Pleased with all that pleases thee.

2 What thou shalt to-day provide,
Let me as a child receive;
What to-morrow may betide,
Calmly to thy wisdom leave;
'Tis enough that thou wilt care;
Why should I the burden bear?

3 As a little child relies
On a care beyond his own,
Knows he's neither strong nor wise,
Fears to stir a step alone;
Let me thus with thee abide,
As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

Doxology.

Blessing, honor, glory, might,
And dominion infinite,
To the Father of our Lord,
To the Spirit and the Word:
As it was all worlds before,
Is, and shall be evermore.
176. God faithful to His Promises.

1 The promises I sing,
Which sovereign love hath spoke;
Nor will th' eternal King
His words of grace revoke:
They stand secure | Not Zion's hill
And steadfast still; | Abides so sure.

2 The mountains melt away,
When once the Judge appears;
And sun and moon decay,
That measure mortal years:
But still the same, | The promise shines
In radiant lines, | Through all the flame.

3 Their harmony shall sound
Through my attentive ears,
When thunders cleave the ground,
And dissipate the spheres:
'Mid all the shock | I stand serene,
Of that dread scene, | Thy word my rock.

194. Looking up.—Psalm 121.

1 Upward I lift mine eyes,
From God is all my aid;
The God who built the skies,
And earth and nature made:
God is the tower | His grace is nigh
To which I fly; | In every hour.

2 My feet shall never slide,
And fall in fatal snares,
Since God, my guard and guide,
Defends me from my fears:
Those wakeful eyes, | Shall Israel keep
That never sleep, | When dangers rise.

3 No burning heats by day,
Nor blasts of evening air,
Shall take my health away,
If God be with me there:
Thou art my sun, | To guard my head
And thou my shade, | By night or noon.

4 Hast thou not given thy word
To save my soul from death?
And I can trust my Lord
To keep my mortal breath:
I'll go and come, | Till from on high
Nor fear to die, | Thou call me home.

356. "Thou rising, reigning God."

1 Yes, the Redeemer rose;
The Saviour left the dead;
And o'er our hellish foes
High raised his conquering head:
In wild dismay, | Fall to the ground,
The guards around | And sink away.

2 Lo! the angelic bands
In full assembly meet,
To wait his high commands,
And worship at his feet:
Joyful they come, | From realms of day
And wing their way | To Jesus' tomb.

3 Then back to heaven they fly,
And the glad tidings bear:
Hark! as they soar on high,
What music fills the air!
Their anthems say: | Hath left the dead,
"Jesus who bled" | He rose to-day."

4 Ye mortals, catch the sound,
Redeemed by him from hell;
And send the echo round
The globe on which you dwell:
Transported cry: | Hath left the dead,
"Jesus who bled" | No more to die."
5 All hail, triumphant Lord,
   Who sav’st us with thy blood!
Wide be thy name adored,
   Thou rising, reigning God!
With thee we rise, And empires gain.
With thee we reign, Beyond the skies.

900. "Fight the good fight."
1 Fight the good fight! lay hold
   Upon eternal life;
Keep but thy shield,—be bold!
   Stand through the hottest strife:
With thy great Captain on the field,
   Thou canst not fail, unless thou yield.

2 No force of earth or hell,
   Though fiends with men unite,
Truth’s champion can compel,
   However pressed, to flight:
He stands unmoved upon the field;
   He can not fall, unless he yield.

3 Trust in thy Saviour’s might;
   Yea, till thy latest breath,
Fight, and like him in fight;
   By dying conquer death:
And, all-victorious in the field,
   Then, with thy sword, thy spirit yield.

4 Great words are these, and strong;
   Yet, Lord, I look to thee;
To whom alone belong
   Valor and victory:
With thee, my Captain, in the field,
   I must prevail—I cannot yield!

1004. "By His stripes we are healed."
1 Thy works, not mine, O Christ!
   Speak gladness to this heart;
They tell me all is done;
   They bid my fear depart:
To whom, save thee For sin atone,
   Who canst alone Lord! shall I flee?

2 Thy tears, not mine, O Christ,
   Have wept my guilt away;
And turned this night of mine
   Into a blessed day:
To whom, save thee For sin atone,
   Who canst alone Lord! shall I flee?

3 Thy wounds, not mine, O Christ,
   Can heal my bruised soul;
Thy stripes, not mine, contain
   The balm that makes me whole:
To whom, save thee For sin atone,
   Who canst alone Lord! shall I flee?

4 Thy cross, not mine, O Christ,
   Has borne the awful load
Of sins that none could bear
   But the incarnate God:
To whom, save thee For sin atone,
   Who canst alone Lord! shall I flee?

5 Thy death, not mine, O Christ,
   Has paid the ransom due;
Ten thousand deaths like mine
   Would have been all too few:
To whom, save thee For sin atone,
   Who canst alone Lord! shall I flee?

6 Thy righteousness alone
   Can clothe and beautify;
I wrap it round my soul;
   In this I’ll live and die:
To whom, save thee For sin atone,
   Who canst alone Lord! shall I flee?
434. "Unto you which believe He is precious."

1 Oh, speak of Jesus! other names Have lost for me their interest now; His is the only one that claims To be an antidote for woe: It falls like music on the ear, When nothing else can soothe or cheer.

2 Oh, speak of Jesus! of his power, As perfect God, and perfect man, Which day by day, and hour by hour, As he wrought out the wondrous plan, Led him, as God, to save and heal; As man to sympathize and feel.

3 Oh, speak of Jesus—of his death! For us he lived, for us he died; "It is finished," with his latest breath, The Lord, Jehovah-Jesus, cried; That death of shame and agony Won life, eternal life for me!

4 Yes, speak of Jesus, while mine ear Can listen to a human voice! That name my parting soul will cheer, Will bid me ev'n in death rejoice; Then prove, when these clay bonds are riven, My passport at the gates of heaven.

553. "Here is my heart."

1 Here is my heart—I give it thee! My God, I heard thee call, and say, "Not to the world, my child—to me!" I heard thy voice and will obey; Here is love's offering to my King, Which in glad sacrifice I bring.

2 Here is my heart!—the gift thou' poor, Thou, O my God, wilt not despise; Long have I sought to make it pure And fit to meet thy searching eyes: Corrupted first in Adam's fall, The stains of sin pollute it all.

3 Here is my heart!—so hard before, But now by thy rich grace made meet; Yet bruised and sad it can but pour Its tears and anguish at thy feet: It groans beneath the weight of sin, It sighs salvation's joy to win.

694. "Thine wholly, Thine alone."

1 Jesus! thy boundless love to me No thought can reach, no tongue declare; Oh, knit my thankful heart to thee, And reign without a rival there! Thine wholly, thine alone, I live: Thyself to me, my Saviour, give!

2 O Love! how cheering is thy ray! All pain before thy presence flies; Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away, Where'er thy healing beams arise: O Jesus! nothing may I see, Nothing desire, or seek, but thee!

3 What in thy love possess I not? My star by night, my sun by day, My spring of life when parched with drought, My wine to cheer, my bread to stay; My strength, my shield, my safe abode, My robe before the throne of God.
ZEPHYR.  L. M.

302. "A Name which is above every name."
Phil. 2:9.

1 There is none other name than thine,
Jehovah Jesus! Name divine!
On which to rest for sins forgiven—
For peace with God, for hope of heaven.

2 There is none other name than thine,
When cares, and fears, and griefs are mine,
That, with a gracious power, can heal
Each care, and fear, and grief I feel.

3 There is none other name than thine,
When called my spirit to resign,
To bear me through that latest strife,
And ev'n in death to be my life.

4 Name, above every name! thy praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days:
Jehovah Jesus! Name divine,
Rock of salvation! thou art mine.

752. "We shall also reign with Him."

1 Weary with sin, I lift mine eyes
To him who toiled and died for me;
My struggling spirit longs to rise
And reign, my Saviour! one with thee.

2 For thee I count all things but loss,
So let me gain thy promised throne;
For me why didst thou bear thy cross,
If not to make me share thy crown?

3 Give, give to me the good I crave;
Cleanse me in thine atoning blood;
Why didst thou love me in thy grave,
If not t'enthrone me near my God?

4 Oh, let my hope, so dear, so bright,
Illuminate my dark hour of death!
What if thy glories blind my sight?
Let them allure and cheer my faith.

830. "Myself I give."

1 While in the hours of blooming youth,
My God, I've felt and owned thy truth;
Thy mercies, with increasing age,
Shall still my grateful heart engage.

2 No human power shall e'er control
This settled purpose of my soul;
Or urge my constant mind to stray,
But where thy wisdom points the way.

3 To thee, O Lord, myself I give;
'Tis to thy glory I would live:
My God! my Strength, my Hope, my Joy,
Thy praise shall all my powers employ.

Doxology.
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!
Praise him, all creatures here below!
Praise him above, ye heavenly hosts!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
240. Sovereignty of God in His Gift of Grace.
1 O gift of gifts! O Grace of faith!
   My God, how can it be
   That thou, who hast discerning love,
   Shouldst give that gift to me!
2 How many hearts thou might'st have had
   More innocent than mine!
   How many souls more worthy far
   Of that pure touch of thine!
3 Ah, Grace! into unlikeliest hearts
   It is thy boast to come;
   The glory of thy light to find
   In darkest spots a home.
4 Thy choice, O God of goodness! then
   I lovingly adore;
   Oh, give me grace to keep thy grace,
   And grace to long for more!

395. The Good Shepherd.
1 To thee, my Shepherd and my Lord,
   A grateful song I'll raise;
   Oh, let the feeblest of thy flock
   Attempt to speak thy praise!
2 But how shall mortal tongue express
   A subject so divine?
   Do justice to so vast a theme,
   Or praise a love like thine?
3 My life, my joy, my hope, I owe
   To thine amazing love;
   Ten thousand thousand comforts here,
   And nobler bliss above.
4 To thee my trembling spirit flies,
   With sin and grief oppressed;
   Thy gentle voice dispels my fears,
   And hulls my cares to rest.
5 Lead on, dear Shepherd!—led by thee,
   No evil shall I fear;

Soon shall I reach thy fold above,
   And praise thee better there.

436. The Pearl of great Price.
1 Ye glittering toys of earth, adieu!
   A nobler choice be mine;
   A real prize attracts my view,
   A treasure all divine.
2 Jesus, to multitudes unknown,
   O name divinely sweet!
   Jesus, in thee, in thee alone,
   Wealth, honor, pleasure meet.
3 Should earth's vain treasures all depart,
   Of this dear gift possessed,
   I'd clasp it to my joyful heart,
   And be for ever blest.
4 Dear Sovereign of my soul's desires,
   Thy love is bliss divine;
   Accept the gift that love inspires,
   And bid me call thee mine.

28. "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem."
Psalm 122.
1 Oh, 't was a joyful sound to hear
   Our tribes devoutly say:
   "Up, Israel, to the temple haste,
   And keep your festal day!"
2 At Salem's courts we must appear,
   With our assembled powers,
   In strong and beauteous order ranged,
   Like her united towers.
3 Oh, pray we then for Salem's peace!
   For they shall prosperous be,
   Thou holy city of our God,
   Who bear true love to thee.
4 May peace within thy sacred walls
   A constant guest be found;
   With plenty and prosperity
   Thy palaces be crowned.
585. "God gives grace to the humble."

1 Come, let us to the Lord our God
    With contrite hearts return!
Our God is gracious, nor will leave
    The desolate to mourn.
2 His voice commands the tempest forth,
    And stills the stormy wave;
His arm, though it be strong to smite,
    Is also strong to save.
3 Our hearts, if God we seek to know,
    Shall know him and rejoice;
His coming like the morn shall be;
    Like morning songs his voice.
4 As dew upon the tender herb,
    Diffusing fragrance round;
As showers that usher in the spring,
    And cheer the thirsty ground:
5 So shall his presence bless our souls,
    And shed a joyful light;
That hallowed morn shall chase away
    The sorrows of the night.

700. The beloved Name.

1 Blest Jesus! when my soaring thoughts
    O'er all thy graces rove,
How is my soul in transport lost,—
    In wonder, joy, and love!
2 Not softest strains can charm my ears
    Like thy beloved name;
Nor aught beneath the skies inspire
    My heart with equal flame.
3 Where'er I look, my wondering eyes
    Unnumbered blessings see;
But what is life, with all its bliss,
    If once compared with thee?
4 Hast thou a rival in my breast?
    Search, Lord, for thou canst tell
If aught can raise my passions thus,
    Or please my soul so well.

5 No: thou art precious to my heart,
    My portion and my joy:
For ever let thy boundless grace
    My sweetest thoughts employ.

814. "We come unto Thee; for Thou art our God."

1 I ask not now for gold to gild
    An aching, weary frame;
The yearning of the mind is stilled,—
    I ask not now for fame.
2 But, bowed in lowliness of mind,
    I make my wishes known;
I only ask a will resigned,
    O Father, to thine own.
3 In vain I task my aching brain,
    The sage's thoughts to scan;
I only feel how weak I am,
    How poor and blind is man.
4 And now my spirit sighs for home,
    And longs for light to see,
And, like a weary child, would come,
    O Father! unto thee.

847. "Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray."

1 No, never shall my heart despond,
    Long as my lips can pray;
My latest breath, with effort loud,
    Shall pass in prayer away.
2 There is a heavenly mercy-seat
    To calm the sinner's fears;
There is a Saviour at whose feet
    The mourner dries his tears.
3 When friends depart, and hopes are riven,
    And gathering storms I see,
My soul is but the sooner driven,
    Eternal Rock! to thee.
4 Oh for a voice of sweeter sound,
    For every wind to bear,
To teach the listening world around
    The blessedness of prayer!
63. "Bless us to-night."

1 Father of love and power,
Guard thou our evening hour,
Shield with thy might:
For all thy care this day
Our grateful thanks we pay,
And to our Father pray,
Bless us to-night.

2 Jesus Immanuel,
Come in thy love to dwell
In hearts contrite:
For many sins we grieve,
But we thy grace receive,
And in thy word believe;
Bless us to-night.

3 Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving, holy Dove,
Shed forth thy light!
Heal every sinner’s smart,
Still every throbbing heart,
And thine own peace impart;
Bless us to-night.

340. "Worthy is the Lamb."—Rev. 5.

1 Come, all ye saints of God,
Wide through the earth abroad
Spread Jesus’ fame;
Tell what his love hath done;
Trust in his name alone;
Shout to his lofty throne,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

2 Hence, gloomy doubts and fears!
Dry up your mournful tears;
Swell the glad theme:
To Christ, our gracious King,
Strike each melodious string;
Join heart and voice to sing,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

3 Hark! how the choirs above,
Filled with the Saviour’s love,
Dwell on his name!
There, too, may we be found,
With light and glory crowned,
While all the heavens resound,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

341. "The Lamb that was slain."—Rev. 5.

1 Glory to God on high!
Let heaven and earth reply,
"Praise ye his name!"
His love and grace adore,
Who all our sorrows bore;
Sing loud for evermore,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

2 While they around the throne
Cheerfully join in one,
Praising his name,—
Ye, who have felt his blood
Sealing your peace with God,
Sound his dear name abroad,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

3 Join, all ye ransomed race,
Our Lord and God to bless:
Praise ye his name!
In him we will rejoice,
And make a joyful noise,
Shouting with heart and voice,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

4 Soon must we change our place,
Yet we will never cease
Praising his name:
To him our songs we bring;
Hail him our gracious King;
And, through all ages sing,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
474. "To Thee, great One in Three."

1 Come, thou almighty King,
   Help us thy name to sing,
   Help us to praise!
Father all glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come, and reign over us,
Ancient of Days!

2 Jesus, our Lord, descend;
   From all our foes defend,
   Nor let us fall;
Let thine almighty aid
Our sure defense be made,
Our souls on thee be stayed:
Lord, hear our call!

3 Come, thou incarnate Word.
   Gird on thy mighty sword;
   Our prayer attend;
Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success:
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.

4 Come, holy Comforter,
   Thy sacred witness bear
   In this glad hour:
Thou, who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.

5 To thee, great One in Three.
The highest praises be,
Hence overmore!
Thy sovereign majesty

May we in glory see,
And to eternity,
Love and adore!

476. Prayer to the Trinity for the World's Conversion.

1 Thou, whose almighty word
   Chaos and darkness heard,
   And took their flight,
Hear us, we humbly pray,
And, where the gospel day
Sheds not its glorious ray,
"Let there be light."

2 Thou, who didst come to bring,
   On thy redeeming wing,
   Healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inly blind,
Oh, now to all mankind
"Let there be light."

3 Spirit of truth and love,
   Life-giving, Holy Dove,
   Speed forth thy flight;
Move on the waters' face,
Bearing the lamp of grace;
And in earth's darkest place
"Let there be light."

Doxology.
We praise, we worship thee,
Blessed and holy Three,
Wisdom, Love, Might!
Boundless as ocean's tide,
Rolling in fullest pride,
O'er the world far and wide,
"Let there be light!"
8. "Surely the Lord is in this place.

1 Lo, God is here!—let us adore,
And own how dreadful is this place!
Let all within us feel his power,
And silent bow before his face!

2 Lo, God is here!—him, day and night,
United choirs of angels sing:
To him, enthroned above all height,
Let saints their humble worship bring.

3 Lord God of hosts! Oh, may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill!
Still may we stand before thy face,
Still hear and do thy sovereign will!

289. His final Entrance into Jerusalem.

1 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die:
O Christ! thy triumphs now begin
O'er captive death and conquered sin.

2 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
The winged squadrons of the sky
Look down, with sad and wondering eyes,
To see the approaching sacrifice.

3 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh:
The Father, on his sapphire throne,
Expecting his own anointed Son.

4 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die:
Bow thy meek head to mortal pain;
Then take, O God, thy power, and reign!

1267. "The Lord shall come."

1 The Lord shall come! the earth shall quake;
The mountains to their center shake;
And, withering from the vault of night,
The stars withdraw their feeble light.

2 The Lord shall come! but not the same
As once in lowly form he came,—
A silent Lamb before his foes,
A weary man, and full of woes.

3 The Lord shall come! a dreadful form,
With wreath of flame, and robe of storm,
On cherub-wings, and wings of wind,
Anointed Judge of human kind!

4 Can this be he, who wont to stray
A pilgrim on the world's highway,
By power oppressed, and mocked by pride,—
The Nazarene, the Crucified?
5 While sinners in despair shall call,
"Rocks, hide us! mountains, on us fall!"
The saints, ascending from the tomb,
Shall sing for joy, "The Lord is come!"

10. Refuge in the Sanctuary.

1 Fourth from the dark and stormy sky,
   Lord, to thine altar's shade we fly;
   Forth from the world, its hope and fear,
   Father, we seek thy shelter here;
   Weary and weak, thy grace we pray;
   Turn not, O Lord! thy guests away.

2 Long have we roamed in want and pain,
   Long have we sought thy rest in vain;
   Wildered in doubt, in darkness lost,
   Long have our souls been tempest-tossed;
   Low at thy feet our sins we lay;
   Turn not, O Lord! thy guests away.

723. "No merits of my own."

1 Father of mercies, God of love!
   Oh, hear a humble suppliant's cry!
   Bend from thy lofty seat above,
   Thy throne of glorious majesty:
   Oh, deign to hear my mourful voice,
   And bid my drooping heart rejoice!

2 I urge no merits of my own,
   No worth, to claim thy gracious smile:
   No: when I bow before thy throne,
   Dare to converse with God awhile,
   Thy name, blest Jesus, is my plea—
   Dearest and sweetest name to me!

3 Father of mercies, God of love!
   Then hear thy humble suppliant's cry;
   Bend from thy lofty seat above,
   Thy throne of glorious majesty:
   One pardoning word can make me whole,
   And soothe the anguish of my soul.

1009. "Who is a God like unto Thee?"
   Micah 7: 18,
   1 Great God of wonders! all thy ways
      Are worthy of thyself,—divine;
      But the bright glories of thy grace,
      Beyond thine other wonders shine:
      Who is a pardoning God like thee?
      Or who has grace so rich and free?

2 Pardon from an offended God:
   Pardon for sins of deepest dye;
   Pardon bestowed through Jesus' blood;
   Pardon that brings the rebel nigh:
   Where is the pardoning God like thee?
   Or where the grace so rich and free?

3 Oh, may this glorious, matchless love,
   This godlike miracle of grace,
   Teach mortal tongues, like those above,
   To raise this song of lofty praise:
   Who is a pardoning God like thee?
   Or who has grace so rich and free?

1181. "Help me in my hour of need."

1 When from my sight all fades away,
   And when my tongue no more can say,
   And when mine ears no more can hear,
   And when my heart is racked with fear,—
   When all my mind is darkened o'er,
   And human help can do no more,—

2 Then come, Lord Jesus! come with speed,
   And help me in my hour of need;
   Then hide my sins, and let my faith
   Be brave, and conquer ev'n in death;
   Then let me, resting on thy word,
   Securely sleep in thee, my Lord.

Doxology.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!
Praise him, all creatures here below!
Praise him above, ye heavenly hosts!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!

1 There is a dear and hallowed spot
   Oft present to my eye—
   By saints it ne'er can be forgot—
   That place is Calvary.

2 Oh, what a scene was there displayed
   Of love and agony,
   When our Redeemer bowed his head,
   And died on Calvary!

3 When fainting under guilt's dread load,
   Unto the cross I'll fly;
   And trust the merit of that blood
   Which flowed at Calvary.

4 Whene'er I feel temptation's power,
   On Jesus I'll rely;
   And, in the sharp, conflicting hour,
   Repair to Calvary.

5 When seated at the feast of love,
   Then will I fix mine eye
   On him who intercedes above,
   Who bled on Calvary.

6 When the dark scene of death, the last
   Momentous hour draws nigh,
   Then, with my dying eyes, I'll cast
   A look on Calvary.

447. "Come, Holy Spirit, come!

1 Spirit Divine! attend our prayer,
   And make our hearts thy home;
   Descend with all thy gracious power:
   Come, Holy Spirit, come!

2 Come as the light; to us reveal
   Our sinfulness and woe;
   And lead us in those paths of life
   Where all the righteous go.

3 Come as the fire, and purge our hearts,
   Like sacrificial flame:
   Let our whole soul an offering be
   To our Redeemer's name.

4 Come as the dew, and sweetly bless
   This consecrated hour;
   May barrenness rejoice to own
   Thy fertilizing power.

5 Come as the wind, with rushing sound.
   With Pentecostal grace;
   And make the great salvation known,
   Wide as the human race.

6 Spirit Divine, attend our prayer,
   And make our hearts thy home;
   Descend with all thy gracious power:
   Come, Holy Spirit, come!

1 Come, trembling sinner, in whose breast
   A thousand thoughts revolve;
   Come, with your guilt and fear oppressed,
   And make this last resolve:
   I'll go to Jesus, though my sin
   High as the mountains rose;
   I know his courts, I'll enter in,
   Whatever may oppose.

2 Prostrate I'll lie before his throne,
   And there my guilt confess;
   I'll tell him I'm a wretch undone,
   Without his sovereign grace.

3 "I'll to the gracious King approach.
   Whose scepter pardon gives;
   Perhaps he may command my touch,
   And then the suppliant lives.

4 "Perhaps he will admit my plea,
   Perhaps will hear my prayer;
   But if I perish, I will pray,
   And perish only there."
6 "I can but perish if I go;
I am resolved to try;
For if I stay away, I know
I must for ever die."

869. "Ye are all one in Christ Jesus."
1 Let saints below in concert sing
With those to glory gone:
For all the servants of our King,
In earth and heaven, are one.
2 One family—we dwell in him—
One church above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream—
The narrow stream of death;
3 One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.
4 Ev'n now to their eternal home
Some happy spirits fly;
And we are to the margin come,
And soon expect to die.
5 Ev'n now, by faith, we join our hands
With those that went before,
And greet the ransomed blessed bands
Upon th' eternal shore.
6 Lord Jesus! be our constant guide;
And, when the word is given,
Bid death's cold flood its waves divide,
And lead us safe in heaven.

660. Not my will, but Thine.
1 Author of good! to thee we turn:
Thine ever-wakeful eye
Alone can all our wants discern—
Thy hand alone supply.
2 Oh, let thy love within us dwell,
Thy fear our footsteps guide;
That love shall vainer loves expel,
That fear all fears beside.
3 And since, by passion's force subdued,
Too oft with stubborn will
We blindly shun the latent good,
And grasp the specious ill;—
4 Not what we wish, but what we want,
Let mercy still supply;
The good we ask not, Father, grant;
The ill we ask, deny.

736. Living by Faith on the Son of God.
1 Blest Jesus, while in mortal flesh
I hold my frail abode,
Still would my spirit rest on thee,
My Saviour, and my God!
2 On thy dear cross I fix my eyes,
Then raise them to thy seat;
Till love dissolves my inmost soul,
At my Redeemer's feet.
3 Be dead, my heart! to worldly charms;
Be dead to every sin;
And tell the boldest foe without,
That Jesus reigns within.
104. Third Version of Psalm 117.

1 All ye nations, praise the Lord!
   All ye lands, your voices raise;
   Heaven and earth, with loud accord,
   Praise the Lord—for ever praise!

2 For his truth and mercy stand,
   Past, and present, and to be,
   Like the years of his right hand,
   Like his own eternity.

105. Brief call to praise, from Psalm 150.

1 Praise, oh, praise the Name divine!
   Praise him at the hallowed shrine;
   Let the firmament on high
   To its Maker's praise reply.

2 All who vital breath enjoy,
   In his praise that breath employ;
   Heaven and earth the chorus join;
   Praise, oh, praise the Name divine!

537. “Now is the day of salvation.”

1 Haste, O sinner! now be wise;
   Stay not for the morrow’s sun:
   Wisdom if you still despise,
   Harder is it to be won.

2 Haste, and mercy now implore;
   Stay not for the morrow’s sun,
   Lost thy season should be o’er
   Ere the morrow is begun.

3 Haste, O sinner! now return;
   Stay not for the morrow’s sun,
   Lost thy lamp should cease to burn
   Ere salvation’s work is done.

4 Lord! do thou the sinner turn—
   Turn him from his fearful state;
   Let him not thy counsel spurn,
   Nor lament his choice too late!

709. The Text.—John 21: 16.

1 Hark, my soul! it is the Lord;
   ’Tis thy Saviour; hear his word;
   Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee:
   “Say, poor sinner, lovest thou me?”

2 “Mine is an unchanging love,
   Higher than the heights above,
   Deeper than the depths beneath,
   Free and faithful, strong as death.

3 “Thou shalt see my glory soon,
   When the work of grace is done;
   Partner of my throne shalt be:
   Say, poor sinner, lovest thou me?”

4 Lord! it is my chief complaint
   That my love is cold and faint;
   Yet I love thee, and adore:
   Oh for grace to love thee more!

833. “For to me to live is Christ.”
Phil. 1: 21.

1 Christ, of all my hopes the Ground
   Christ, the Spring of all my joy,
   Still in thee let me be found,
   Still for thee my powers employ.

2 Fountain of o’erflowing grace,
   Freely from thy fullness give;
   Till I close my earthly race,
   Be it “Christ for me to live.”

3 When I touch the blessed shore,
   Back the closing waves shall roll;
   Death’s dark stream shall never more
   Part from thee my ravished soul.

4 Thus, oh, thus an entrance give
   To the land of cloudless sky!
   Having known it “Christ to live,”
   Let me know it “gain to die.”
922. "Who shall dwell in thy holy hill?"
Psalm 15.
1 Who, O Lord, when life is o'er,
Shall to heaven's blest mansions soar?
Who, an ever-welcome guest,
In thy holy place shall rest?

2 He whose heart thy love has warmed;
He whose will to thine conformed,
Bids his life unsullied run;
He whose words and thoughts are one;

3 He who shuns the sinner's road,
Loving those who love their God;
Who, with hope and faith unfeigned,
Treads the path by thee ordained;

4 He who trusts in Christ alone,
Not in aught himself hath done;
He, great God, shall be thy care,
And thy choicest blessings share.

1264. "Happy are the faithful dead."
1 Hark! a voice divides the sky!
Happy are the faithful dead

In the Lord who sweetly die!
They from all their toils are freed.

2 Ready for their glories crown,
Sorrows past and sins forgiven,—
Here they lay their burden down,
Hallowed and made meet for heaven.

3 Yes! the Christian's course is run!
Ended is the glorious strife;
Fought the fight, the work is done;
Death is swallowed up in life!

4 Lo! the prisoner is released—
Lightened of his heavy load!
Where the weary are at rest,
He is gathered into God!

5 When from flesh the spirit freed,
Hastens homeward to return,
Mortals cry, "A man is dead!"
Angels sing, "A child is born!"

1 The voice of free grace cries, "Escape to the mountain," For Adam's lost race Christ hath opened a fountain; For sin and uncleanness, and every transgression, His blood flows most freely in streams of salvation. Hallelujah to the Lamb, who hath bought us a pardon! We'll praise him again, when we pass over Jordan.

2 Ye souls that are wounded, oh flee to the Saviour: He calls you in mercy—'tis infinite favor; Your sins are increasing; escape to the mountain: His blood can remove them, it flows from the fountain. Hallelujah to the Lamb, who hath bought us a pardon! We'll praise him again, when we pass over Jordan.

3 When Zion we see, having gained the blest shore, With harps in our hands, we will praise him the more; We'll range the sweet plains on the banks of the river, And sing of salvation for ever and ever! Hallelujah to the Lamb, who hath bought us a pardon! We'll praise him again, when we pass over Jordan.

1109. "Lord, save us: we perish."—Matt. 8: 25.

1 Wren through the torn sail the wild tempest is streaming, When o'er the dark wave the red lightning is gleaming,

[For the remaining stanzas see next page.]
Nor hope lends a ray, the poor seaman to cherish,
We fly to our Maker: help, Lord, or we perish!

2 O Jesus, once tossed on the breast of the billow,
Aroused by the shriek of despair from thy pillow,
Now seated in glory, the mariner cherish,
Who cries in his danger, "Help, Lord, or we perish?"

3 And, oh! when the whirlwind of passion is raging,
When hell in our hearts its wild warfare is waging,
Arise in thy strength, thy redeemed to cherish!
Rebuke the destroyer,—help, Lord, or we perish!

1218.*

1 Thou art gone to the grave! but we will not deplore thee,
Though sorrows and darkness encompass the tomb;
The Saviour hath passed through its portals before thee,
And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

2 Thou art gone to the grave! we no longer behold thee,
Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side;
But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
And sinners may hope, for the Sinless hath died.

3 Thou art gone to the grave! and, its mansion forsaking,
Perchance thy weak spirit in doubt lingered long;
But the sunshine of glory beamed bright on thy waking,
And full on thine ear burst the seraphim's song.

4 Thou art gone to the grave! but we will not deplore thee,
Since God was thy Ransom, thy Guardian, and Guide:
He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee;
And death has no sting, for the Saviour hath died.

* Sing the small note only (half note) in the last measure.

STELLA. 11s & 10s.

952.

"Come, ye disconsolate."

1 Come, ye disconsolate! where'er you languish,
Come to the mercy-seat, fervently kneel:
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish;
Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal.

2 Joy of the desolate, Light of the straying,
Hope of the penitent; fadeless and pure:—
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not cure.
685. Gratitude to Christ.

1 I love thee, O my God, but not
   For what I hope thereby;
   Nor yet because who love thee not,
   Must die eternally:
   I love thee, O my God, and still
   I ever will love thee,
   Solely because my God thou art
   Who first hast loved me.

2 For me, to lowest depths of woe
   Thou didst thyself abase;
   For me didst bear the cross, the shame,
   And manifold disgrace;
   For me didst suffer pains unknown,
   Blood-sweat and agony,
   Yea, death itself—all, all for me,
   For me, thine enemy.

3 Then shall I not, O Saviour mine!
   Shall I not love thee well?
   Not with the hope of winning heaven,
   Nor of escaping hell;
   Not with the hope of earning aught,
   Nor seeking a reward,
   But freely, fully, as thyself
   Hast loved me, O Lord!

747. "Of whom I am chief."

1 I see the crowd in Pilate's hall,
   I mark their wrathful mien;
   Their shouts of "crucify" appall,
   With blasphemy between.

2 And of that shouting multitude
   I feel that I am one;
   And in that din of voices rude,
   I recognize my own.

3 I see the scourges tear his back,
   I see the piercing crown,
   And of that crowd who smite and mock,
   I feel that I am one.

4 Around you cross, the throng I see,
   Mocking the sufferer's groan;
   Yet still my voice it seems to be,
   As if I mocked alone.

5 'Twas I that shed the sacred blood;
   I nailed him to the tree;
   I crucified the Christ of God,
   I joined the mockery!

6 Yet not the less that blood avails
   To cleanse away my sin!
   And not the less that cross prevails
   To give me peace within!

763. "Casting all your care upon Him."

1 Lord, it belongs not to my care
   Whether I die or live;
   To love and serve thee is my share,
   And this thy grace must give.

2 If life be long, I will be glad
   That I may long obey;
   If short, yet why should I be sad
   To soar to endless day?

3 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
   Than he went through before;
   No one into his kingdom comes,
   But through his opened door.

4 Come, Lord, when grace has made me meet
   Thy blessed face to see;
   For if thy work on earth be sweet,
   What will thy glory be!

5 Then shall I end my sad complaints,
   And weary, sinful days,
   And join with all triumphant saints
   Who sing Jehovah's praise.
6 My knowledge of that life is small;
The eye of faith is dim;
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with him.

794. "I am the Vine, ye are the branches."
1 Planted in Christ, the living vine,
This day, with one accord,
Ourselves, with humble faith and joy,
We yield to thee, O, Lord!

2 Joined in one body may we be:
One inward life partake;
One be our heart, one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.

3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils,
One wisdom be our guide;
Taught by one Spirit from above,
In thee may we abide.

4 Then, when among the saints in light
Our joyful spirits shine,
Shall anthems of immortal praise,
O Lamb of God, be thine!

795. Union with Christ in Sorrow.
1 Who, when beneath affliction's rod,
Can inward rest attain,
And bless the chastening love of God
In some remembered strain?

2 Who, when in pain he lies apart,
And powers of life decay,
Can muse with holy joy of heart
On some familiar lay?

3 He can suffice for these good things
Whose mind with Christ's is one;
Who closely in communion clings
To God's incarnate Son.

4 O Saviour! Fount of wondrous might!
Let me this gift receive:

Thus, Lord, in sorrow's darkest night
Thy servant's grief relieve.

5 Let songs of Zion, known of old
Within the hallowed place,
My spirit cheer, my faith uphold
Through thine all-strengthening grace.

800. "I suffered; nevertheless, I am not ashamed."
1 Dost thou, dear Jesus, suffer shame,
And bear the cross for me?
And shall I fear to own thy name,
Or thy disciple be?

2 Inspire my soul with life divine,
And make me truly bold;
Let knowledge, faith, and meekness shine,
Nor love, nor zeal grow cold.

3 Let mockers scoff, the world defame,
And treat me with disdain;
Still may I glory in thy name,
And count reproach my gain.

4 To thee I cheerfully submit,
And all my powers resign;
Let wisdom point out what is fit,
And I'll no more repine.

943. "Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth."
1 O thou whose mercy guides my way,
Though now it seem severe,
Forbid my unbelief to say
There is no mercy here!

2 Oh! may I, Lord, desire the pain
That comes in kindness down,
Far more than sweetest earthly gain,
Succeeded by a frown.

3 Then though thou bend my spirit low,
Love only shall I see;
The gracious hand that strikes the blow,
Was wounded once for me.
895. "Our God will fight for us."

1 Hark! how the gospel trumpet sounds!
Through all the earth the echo bounds!
And Jesus, by redeeming blood,
Is bringing sinners back to God,
And guides them safely by his word
To endless day.

2 Hail, Jesus! all victorious Lord!
Be thou by all mankind adored!
For us didst thou the fight maintain,
And o'er our foes the vict'ry gain,
That we with thee might ever reign
In endless day.

3 Fight on, ye conqu'ring souls, fight on!
And when the conquest you have won,
Then palms of vict'ry you shall bear,
And in his kingdom have a share,
And crowns of glory ever wear
In endless day.

4 There in full chorus shall we join,
With saints and angels all combine
To sing of his redeeming love,
When rolling ye'ars shall cease to move;
And this shall be our theme above
In endless day.

EFFIELD. 8s & 4s.

1 Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
With us to dwell.

2 He came in tongues of living flame,
To teach, subdue;
All-powerful as the wind he came,
As viewless too.

3 He comes, his graces to impart,
A willing guest,
While he can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.

4 He breathes that gentle voice we hear,
As breeze of even;
That checks each fault, that calms each
And speaks of heaven. [fear,
[For 5th and 6th stanzas see next page.]}
WALES. 8s & 4s.

973. "It is well."—2 Kings 4: 26.

1 Through the love of God our Saviour,
   All will be well:
   Free and changeless is his favor;
   All, all is well:
   Precious is the blood that healed us;
   Perfect is the grace that sealed us;
   Strong the hand stretched out to shield us;
   All must be well.

2 Though we pass through tribulation,
   All will be well;
   Ours is such a full salvation;
   All, all is well:
   Happy, still in God confiding,
   Fruitful, if in Christ abiding,
   Holy, through the Spirit’s guiding,
   All must be well.

3 We expect a bright to-morrow;
   All will be well:
   Faith can sing through days of sorrow,
   All, all is well:

5 And all the good that we possess,
   His gift we own;
   Yea, every thought of holiness,
   And victory won.

6 Spirit of purity and grace!
   Our weakness see;
   Oh, make our hearts thy dwelling-place,
   And worthier thee!

---

On our Father’s love relying,
Jesus every need supplying,
Or in living, or in dying,
All must be well.

1175. "Weep not for me."

1 When the spark of life is waning,
   Weep not for me;
   When the languid eye is straining,
   Weep not for me;
   When the feeble pulse is ceasing,
   Start not at its swift decreasing;
   ‘Tis the fettered soul’s releasing;
   Weep not for me.

2 When the pangs of death assail me,
   Weep not for me;
   Christ is mine—he can not fail me;
   Weep not for me;
   Yes, though sin and doubt endeavor
   From his love my soul to sever,
   Jesus is my strength for ever;
   Weep not for me.
801. The Cross and the Crown.

1 Must Jesus bear the cross alone,
   And all the world go free?
   No: there's a cross for every one,
   And there's a cross for me.

2 How happy are the saints above
   Who once went sorrowing here;
   But now they taste unmingled love,
   And joy without a tear.

3 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
   Till death shall set me free,
   And then go home my crown to wear,—
   For there's a crown for me!

3 When, free from envy, scorn, and pride
   Our wishes all above,
   Each can his brother's failings hide,
   And show a brother's love!

4 Let love, in one delightful stream,
   Through every bosom flow,
   And union sweet, and dear esteem,
   In every action glow.

5 Love is the golden chain that binds
   The happy souls above;
   And he's an heir of heaven who finds
   His bosom glow with love.

1 We tread the path our Master trod;
   We bear the cross he bore;
   And every thorn that wounds our feet
   His temples pierced before.

2 Oft do our eyes with joy o'erflow,
   And oft are bathed in tears;
   Yet naught but heaven our hopes can raise,
   And naught but sin our fears.

3 We purge our mortal dross away,
   Refining as we run;
   And while we die to earth and sense,
   Our heaven is here begun.

903. "The cross before the crown."

1 On, speed thee, Christian! on thy way,
   And to thine armor cling;
   With girded loins the call obey
   Which grace and mercy bring.

2 There is a battle to be fought,
   An upward race to run,
   A crown of glory to be sought,
   A victory to be won.

3 Oh, faint not, Christian! for thy sighs
   Are heard before the throne;
   The race must come before the prize,
   The cross before the crown.

859. "Love as brethren."

1 How sweet, how heavenly is the sight
   When those who love the Lord
   In one another's peace delight,
   And so fulfill his word!

2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
   And with him bear a part!
   When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
   And joy from heart to heart!

979. "Salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks."

1 Arise, my soul! my joyful powers,
   And triumph in my God;
   Awake, my voice! and loud proclaim
   His glorious grace abroad.

2 The arms of everlasting love
   Beneath my soul he placed,
   And on the Rock of Ages set
   My slippery footsteps fast.
3 The city of my blest abode
   Is walled around with grace;
Salvation for a bulwark stands,
   To shield the sacred place.

4 Arise, my soul! awake, my voice!
   And tunes of pleasure sing;
Loud hallelujahs shall address
   My Saviour and my King.

1 I thank the goodness and the grace
   That on my birth have smiled,
And made me, in these latter days,
   A happy, christian child.

2 I was not born as thousands are,
   Where God is never known,
And taught to say a useless prayer
   To gods of wood and stone.

3 I was not born a little slave,
   To labor in the sun,
And wish I were but in my grave,
   And all my labor done.

4 My God, I thank thee, who hast planned
   A better lot for me,
And placed me in this happy land,
   Where I may hear of thee.

1079. The Ransomed Band.

1 O happy land! O happy land!
   Where saints and angels dwell;
We long to join that glorious band,
   And all their anthems swell.

2 But every voice in yonder throng
   On earth has breathed a prayer:
No lips untaught may join that song,
   Or learn the music there.

3 Thou heavenly Friend! thou heavenly
   Friend!
Oh, hear us when we pray!
Now let thy pardoning grace descend,
   And take our sins away.

4 Be all our fresh, our youthful days
   To thy blest service given;
Then we shall meet to sing thy praise,
   A ransomed band in heaven.

1088. "Of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

1 Around the throne of God in heaven
   Thousands of children stand,—
Children, whose sins are all forgiven,
   A holy, happy band.

2 What brought them to that world above,
   That heaven so bright and fair,
Where all is peace, and joy, and love?
   How came those children there?

3 Because the Saviour shed his blood
   To wash away their sin;
Bathed in that pure and precious flood,
   Behold them white and clean.

4 On earth they sought their Saviour's grace,
   On earth they loved his name:
So now they see his blessed face,
   And stand before the Lamb.

1153. "The little hills rejoice on every side."

1 When brighter suns and milder skies
   Proclaim the opening year,
What various sounds of joy arise!
   What prospects bright appear!

2 Earth and her thousand voices give
   Their thousand notes of praise;
And all, that by his mercy live,
   To God their offering raise.

3 Thus, like the morning, calm and clear,
   That saw the Saviour rise,
The spring of heaven's eternal year
   Shall dawn on earth and skies.

4 No winter there, no shades of night,
   Obscure those mansions blest,
Where, in the happy fields of light,
   The weary are at rest.
217. "The Lord is my Shepherd."
Psalm 23.
1 The Lord my Shepherd is;
   I shall be well supplied:
   Since he is mine, and I am his,
   What can I want beside?
2 He leads me to the place
   Where heavenly pasture grows;
   Where living waters gently pass,
   And full salvation flows.
3 If e'er I go astray,
   He doth my soul reclaim;
   And guides me, in his own right way,
   For his most holy name.
4 While he affords his aid,
   I can not yield to fear;
   Though I should walk through death's dark shade,
   My Shepherd's with me there.
5 In spite of all my foes,
   Thou dost my table spread;
   My cup with blessings overflows,
   And joy exalts my head.
6 The bounties of thy love
   Shall crown my future days;
   Nor from thy house will I remove,
   Nor cease to speak thy praise.

444. "Christ is all."
1 O everlasting Light!
   Shine graciously within;
   Brightest of all on earth that's bright,
   Come, shine away my sin!
2 O everlasting Truth!
   Truest of all that's true,
   Sure guide of erring age or youth,
   Lead me and teach me, too.
3 O everlasting Strength!
   Uphold me in the way:
   Bring me, in spite of foes, at length,
   To joy, and light, and day.
4 O everlasting Love!
   Well-spring of grace and peace,
   Pour down thy fullness from above;
   Bid doubt and trouble cease.
5 O everlasting Rest!
   Lift off life's load of care;
   Relieve, revive this burdened breast,
   And every sorrow bear.
6 Thou art in heaven our all;
   Our all on earth art thou;
   Upon thy glorious name we call;
   Lord Jesus, bless us now!

675. "Commit thy way unto the Lord."
Psalm 37.
1 Commit thou all thy griefs
   And ways into his hands;
   To his sure truth and tender care,
   Who earth and heaven commands—
2 Who points the clouds their course,
   Whom winds and seas obey;
   He shall direct thy wandering feet,
   He shall prepare thy way.
3 On God alone rely;
   Then safe shalt thou go on:
   Fix on his work thy steadfast eye;
   Then shall thy work be done.
4 When he makes bare his arm,
   What shall his aim withstand?
   When he will save his friends from harm,
   Who, who shall stay his hand?
5 He hears thy softest prayer,
   He girdeth thee with might;
   His works the purest blessings are;
   His ways, the purest light.
676. "Wait thou His time."—Psalm 30.

1 Give to the winds thy fears;
   Hope on, be not dismayed:
   God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears;
   God shall lift up thy head.

2 Through waves, and clouds and storms,
   He gently clears thy way;
   Wait thou his time: the darkest night
   Shall end in brightest day.

3 Far, far above thy thought
   His counsel shall appear,
   When fully he the work hath wrought,
   That caused thy needless fear.

4 What though thou rulest not!
   Yet heaven and earth and hell
   Proclaim—God sitteth on the throne.
   And ruleth all things well.

753. "There is laid up for me a crown."

1 If Jesus be my friend,
   And to him belong,
   I care not what my foes intend,
   Though fierce they be, and strong.

2 I rest upon the ground
   Of Jesus and his blood;
   For in him alone have found
   The true, eternal good.

3 He whispers in my breast
   Sweet words of holy cheer,
   How all who seek in God their rest
   Shall ever find him near;

4 How God hath built above
   A city fair and new,
   Where eye and heart shall see and prove
   What faith has counted true.

5 My heart for gladness springs;
   It can not more be sad;

   For very joy it smiles and sings,—
   Sees naught but sunshine glad.

6 The sun that lights mine eyes,
   Is Christ, the Lord I love;
   I sing for joy of that which lies
   Stored up for me above.

769. Perfect Peace in Christ.
   Isaiah 26:3.

1 Thou very present aid
   In suffering and distress,
   The soul which still on thee is stayed,
   Is kept in perfect peace.

2 The soul, by faith reclined
   On the Redeemer's breast,
   'Mid raging storms exults to find
   An everlasting rest.

3 Sorrow and fear are gone
   Whene'er thy face appears:
   It stills the sighing orphan's mean,
   And dries the widow's tears:

4 It hallows every cross;
   It sweetly comforts me;
   Makes me forget my every loss,
   And find my all in thee.

5 Jesus, to whom I fly,
   Doth all my wishes fill:
   What though created streams are dry:
   I have the fountain still.

6 Stripped of my earthly friends,
   I find them all in One;
   And peace and joy that never end,
   And heaven in Christ begun.

Doxology.

The Father and the Son
And Spirit we adore;
We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
Both now and evermore!
534. Look to Christ.

1 Weary sinner! keep thine eyes
On the atoning Sacrifice;
View him bleeding on the tree,
Pouring out his life for thee.

2 Surely Christ thy griefs hath borne;
Weeping soul, no longer mourn:
Now by faith the Son embrace,
Plead his promise, trust his grace.

3 Cast thy guilty soul on him;
Find him mighty to redeem:
At his feet thy burden lay;
Look thy doubts and care away.

4 Lord, come thou with power to heal;
Now thy mighty arm reveal:
At thy feet myself I lay;
Take, oh, take my sins away!

941. "Have mercy upon me, O Lord; for I am weak."—Psalm 6.

1 Gently, gently lay thy rod
On my sinful head, O God!
Stay thy wrath—in mercy stay,
Lest I sink before its sway!

2 Heal me, for my flesh is weak;
Heal me, for thy grace I seek:
This, my only plea, I make,
Heal me for thy mercy's sake!

3 Who within the silent grave
Shall proclaim thy power to save?
Lord, my trembling soul reprieve;
Speak! and I shall rise and live.

4 Lo! he comes; he heeds my plea;
Lo! he comes; the shadows flee;
Glory round me dawns once more,—
Rise, my spirit, and adore!

994. "Glorify thyself in me."

1 Father of eternal grace,
Glorify thyself in me;
Meekly beaming in my face,
May the world thine image see.

2 Happy only in thy love,
Poor, unfriendèd, or unknown,
Fix my thoughts on things above,
Stay my heart on thee alone.

3 Humble, holy, all resigned
To thy will—thy will be done!
Give me, Lord, the perfect mind
Of thy well-belovèd Son.

4 Counting gain and glory loss,
May I tread the path he trod,—
Die with Jesus on the cross,
Rise with him to thee, my God.

1007. "By grace are ye saved, through faith."

1 Joyful be the hours to day;
Joyful let the season be;
Let us sing, for well we may:
Jesus! we will sing of thee.

2 Should thy people silent be,
Then the very stones would sing:
What a debt we owe to thee,
Thee, our Saviour, thee our King!

3 Joyful are we now to own,
Rapture thrills us as we trace
All the deeds thou love hast done,
All the riches of thy grace.

4 'Tis thy grace alone can save;
Every blessing comes from thee—
All we have and hope to have,
All we are and hope to be.

5 Thine the Name to sinners dear!
Thine the Name all names before!
Blessèd here and every where;
Blessèd now and evermore!
290. Our Example in Suffering.

1 Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see,
Watch with him one bitter hour:
Turn not from his griefs away,
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

2 Follow to the judgment-hall,
View the Lord of life arraigned:
Oh the wormwood and the gall!
Oh the pangs his soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
Learn of him to bear the cross.

3 Calv'ry's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at his feet,
Mark that miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete:
"It is finished," hear him cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

4 Early hasten to the tomb
Where they laid his breathless clay:
All is solitude and gloom;
Who hath taken him away?
Christ is risen! he meets our eyes:
Saviour, teach us so to rise.

1 Many woes had Christ endured,
Many sore temptations met,
Patient and to pains inured;
But the sorest trial yet

Was to be sustained in thee,
Gloomy, sad Gethsemane!

2 Came at length the dreadful night;
Vengeance, with its iron rod,
Stood, and with collected might,
Bruised the harmless Lamb of God:
See, my soul, thy Saviour see
Prostrate in Gethsemane!

3 There my God bore all my guilt:
This, through grace, can be believed;
But the horrors which he felt
Are too vast to be conceived:
None can penetrate through thee,
Doleful, dark Gethsemane!

4 Sins against a holy God,
Sins against his righteous laws,
Sins against his love, his blood,
Sins against his name and cause—
Sins immense as is the sea!
Hide me, O Gethsemane!

5 Here's my claim, and here alone:
None a Saviour more can need;
Deeds of righteousness I've none;
No: not one good work to plead:
Not a glimpse of hope for me,
Only in Gethsemane.

6 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One almighty God of love,
Hymned by all the heavenly host,
In thy shining courts above!
We adore thee, gracious Three—
Bless thee for Gethsemane.
541. “Behold, I stand at the door, and knock.”
Rev. 3:20.
1 Behold a Stranger at the door:
He gently knocks, has knocked before;
Has waited long, is waiting still:
You treat no other friend so ill.
2 Oh, lovely attitude! he stands
With melting heart and open hands:
Oh, matchless kindness!—and he shows
This matchless kindness to his foes!
3 Rise, touched with gratitude divine,
Turn out his enemy and thine;
Turn out thy soul-enslaving sin,
And let the heavenly Stranger in.
4 Oh, welcome him, the Prince of Peace!
Now may his gentle reign increase!
Throw wide the door, each willing mind;
And be his empire all mankind.

544. An Evening Expostulation.
1 On, do not let the word depart,
And close thine eyes against the light;
Poor sinner, harden not thy heart:
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?
2 To-morrow’s sun may never rise
To bless thy long delayed sight;
This is the time; oh, then be wise!
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?
3 Our God in pity lingers still;
And wilt thou thus his love requite?
Renounce at length thy stubborn will;
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?
4 Our blessed Lord refuses none
Who would to him their souls unite;
Then be the work of grace begun:
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

832. “Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?”
1 My gracious Lord, I own thy right
To every service I can pay,
And call it my supreme delight
To hear thy dictates and obey.
2 What is my being, but for thee,
Its sure support, its noblest end?
Thine ever smiling face to see,
And serve the cause of such a Friend.
3 I would not breathe for worldly joy,
Or to increase my worldly good;
Nor future days nor powers employ
To spread a sounding name abroad.
4 ‘Tis to my Saviour I would live,
To him who for my ransom died;
Nor could the bowers of Eden give
Such bliss as blossoms at his side.
5 His work my hoary age shall bless,
When youthful vigor is no more;
And my last hour of life confess
His dying love, his saving power.

1 On, sweetly breathe the lyres above,
When angels touch the quivering string,
And wake, to chant Immanuel’s love,
Such strains as angel-lips can sing!
2 And sweet, on earth, the choral swell,
From mortal tongues, of gladsome lays;
When pardoned souls their raptures tell,
And, grateful, hymn Immanuel’s praise.
3 Jesus, thy name our souls adore;
We own the bond that makes us thine;
And carnal joys, that charmed before,
For thy dear sake we now resign.
4 Our hearts, by dying love subdued,
Accept thine offered grace to-day;
Beneath the cross, with blood bedewed,
We bow, and give ourselves away.
5 In thee we trust,—on thee rely;
Though we are feeble, thou art strong;
Oh, keep us till our spirits fly
To join the bright, immortal throng!
614. The Joy unknown in Heaven.

1 Trembling, before thine awful throne,
O Lord, in dust my sins I own:
Justice and mercy for my life
Contend; oh, smile, and heal the strife!

2 The Saviour smiles—upon my soul
New tides of hope tumultuous roll!
His voice proclaims my pardon found;
Seraphic transport wings the sound!

3 Earth has a joy unknown in heaven—
The new-born peace of sins forgiven:
Tears of such pure and deep delight,
Ye angels! never dimmed your sight.

4 Ye know where morn exulting springs,
And evening folds her drooping wings;
Loud is your song: the heavenly plain
Is shaken by your chordal strain.

5 But I amid your choirs shall shine,
And all your knowledge will be mine;
Ye on your harps must lean to hear
A secret chord that mine will bear!

646. Blessedness of Love to God.

1 Ah, happy hours! whene'er upsprings
My soul to you eternal Source,
Whence the glad river downward sings,
Watering with goodness all my course.

2 Can I, with loveless heart, receive
Tokens of love that never cease?
Can I be thankless, Lord, and grieve
Thee, who art all my joy and peace?

3 Forth from thy rich and bounteous store
Life's common blessings daily flow;
More than I dare to ask, far more
Than I deserve, dost thou bestow.

4 Nor here alone: hope pierces far
Through all the shades of earth and time;
Faith mounts beyond the farthest star;
You shining heights she fain would climb.

5 Our faith shall rise to sight ere long;
Soon will that hour of transport come,
When we shall join the angels' song
Of praise to him who brought us home.

1065. "Oh, happy day, that fixed my choice."

1 Oh, happy day, that fixed my choice
On thee, my Saviour, and my God!
Well may this glowing heart rejoice,
And tell its raptures all abroad.

2 Oh, happy bond, that seals my vows
To him who merits all my love!
Let cheerful anthems fill his house,
While to that sacred shrine I move,

3 'T is done, the great transaction's done;
I am my Lord's, and he is mine:
He drew me, and I followed on,
Charmed to confess the voice divine.

4 Now, rest, my long-divided heart!
Fixed on this blissful center, rest;
With ashes who would grudge to part,
When called on angels' bread to feast.

5 High Heaven, that heard the solemn vow,
That vow renewed shall daily hear;
Till in life's latest hour I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear.

Doxology.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!
Praise him, all creatures here below!
Praise him above, ye heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
108. “Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord.”—Psalm 150.

1 Praise the Lord, his glories show,
Saints within his courts below,
Angels round his throne above,
All that see and share his love!

2 Earth to heaven, and heaven to earth,
Tell his wonders, sing his worth;
Age to age, and shore to shore,
Praise him, praise him, evermore!

3 Praise the Lord, his mercies trace;
Praise his providence and grace—
All that he for man hath done,
All he sends us through his Son.

4 Strings and voices, hands and hearts,
In the concert bear your parts:
All that breathe, your Lord adore;
Praise him, praise him, evermore!

1 Crowns of glory ever bright
Rest upon the Conqueror’s head;
Crowns of glory are his right,—
His, “who liveth and was dead.”

2 He subdued the powers of hell;
In the fight he stood alone:
All his foes before him fell,
By his single arm o’erthrown.

3 His the battle, his the toil;
His the honors of the day;
His the glory and the spoil:
Jesus bears them all away.

4 Now proclaim his deeds afar;
Fill the world with his renown:
His alone the victor’s car;
His the everlasting crown!

382. “The King of Zion.”

1 Sons of Zion, raise your songs!
Praise to Zion’s King belongs;
His the victor’s crown and fame;
Glory to the Saviour’s name!

2 Christian! dry your flowing tears;
Chase those unbelieving fears;
Look on his deserted grave;
Doubt no more his power to save.

3 Ye, who are of death afraid,
Triumph in the scattered shade;
Drive your anxious cares away;
See the place where Jesus lay!

4 Lo! the rising sun appears,
Shedding radiance o’er the spheres;
Lo! returning beams of light
Chase the terrors of the night.
2 Sore the strife, but rich the prize,
Precious in the Victor's eyes:
Glorious is the work achieved,
Satan vanquished, man relieved!

3 Sing we then the Victor's praise;
Go ye forth and strew the ways;
Bid him welcome to his throne:
He is worthy, he alone!

4 Place the crown upon his brow;
Every knee to him shall bow:
Him the brightest seraph sings;
Heaven proclaims him "King of kings!"

415. Support in Christ.
1 Everlasting arms of love
Are beneath, around, above:
He who left his throne of light,
And unnumbered angels bright;

2 He who on th' accursed tree
Gave his precious life for me—
He it is that bears me on,
His the arm I lean upon.

3 He who now, enthroned above,
Still retains his heart of love,
Marking still each falling tear
Of his burdened pilgrims here;

4 He who wields creation's rod,
He my Brother, yet my God;
Faithful he, whate'er betide,
Is my everlasting Guide!

5 All things hasten to decay,
Earth and seas will pass away;
Soon will yonder circling sun
Cease his blazing course to run.

6 Scenes will vary; friends grow strange,
But the Changeless can not change:
Gladly will I journey on,
With his arm to lean upon.

1130. "The King of kings, and Lord of lords."
1 Wake the song of jubilee!
Let it echo o'er the sea:
Now is come the promised hour;
Jesus reigns with sovereign power.

2 All ye nations! join and sing,
"Christ, of lords and kings, is King!"
Let it sound from shore to shore,
"Jesus reigns for evermore!"

3 Now the desert lands rejoice,
And the islands join their voice;
Joy! the whole creation sings,
"Jesus is the King of kings!"

1143. "Sing unto the Lord who prepareth rain for the earth."
1 Praise on thee, in Zion's gates,
Daily, O Jehovah, waits;
Unto thee, O God, belong
Grateful words and holy song.

2 Thou the hope and refuge art
Of remotest lands apart;
Distant isles and tribes unknown,
'Mid the ocean waste and lone.

3 Thou dost visit earth, and rain
Blessings on the thirsty plain,
From the copious fountains on high,
From the rivers of the sky.

4 Thus the clouds thy power confess,
And thy paths drop fruitfulness,
And the voice of song and mirth
Rises from the tribes of earth!
193. "Who is God, save the Lord?"
Psalm 18.
1 Just are thy ways, and true thy word,
Great Rock of my secure abode;
Who is a God, beside the Lord?
Or where's a refuge like our God?
2 'Tis he that girds me with his might,
Gives me his holy sword to wield;
And while with sin and hell I fight,
Spreads his salvation for my shield.
3 He lives, and blessed be my Rock;
The God of my salvation lives;
The dark designs of hell he broke:
Sweet is the peace my Father gives.

348. "I would for ever speak His name."
1 Oh, the sweet wonders of that cross
Where my Redeemer loved and died!
Her noblest life my spirit draws
From his dear wounds and bleeding side.
2 I would for ever speak his name,
In sounds to mortal ears unknown;
With angels join to praise the Lamb,
And worship at his Father's throne.

1 Come, blessed Spirit! Source of light,
Whose power and grace are unconfined,
Dispel the gloomy shades of night,
The thicker darkness of the mind.
2 To mine illumined eyes display
The glorious truths thy word reveals;
Cause me to run the heavenly way;
The book unfold, and loose the seals.
3 Thine inward teachings make me know
The mysteries of redeeming love,
The vanity of things below,
And excellence of things above.

4 While through this dubious maze I stray,
Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad:
Oh, show the dangers of the way,
And guide my feeble steps to God.

582. Longing for Freedom from Sin.
1 Jesus demands this heart of mine,
Demands my love, my joy, my care;
But ah! how dead to things divine,
How cold my best affections are!
2 'Tis sin, alas! with dreadful power,
Divides my Saviour from my sight;
Oh, for one happy, cloudless hour
Of sacred freedom, sweet delight!
3 Lord! let thy love shine forth and raise
My captive powers from sin and death,
And fill my heart with life and praise,
And tune my last expiring breath.

743. "He died for all."
1 Thy holy, meek, unspotted Lamb,
Who from the Father's bosom came,
Who died for me, e'en me 't atone,—
Now for my Lord and God I own.
2 Lord, I believe, thy precious blood,
Which, at the mercy-seat of God
For ever doth for sinners plead,
For me, in all my sins, was shed.
3 Lord, I believe were sinners more
Than sands upon the ocean shore,
Thou hast for all a ransom paid,
For all a full atonement made.
4 Thus Abraham, the friend of God,
Thus all heaven's armies, bought with blood,
Saviour of sinners thee proclaim,—
Sinners, the chief of whom I am.
5 Jesus! be endless praise to thee,
Whose boundless mercy hath for me,—
For me, and all thy hands have made,
An everlasting ransom paid.

828. "Give me Thyself,—I ask no more."
1 My dearest Lord, whose changeless love
To me, nor earth nor hell can part;
When shall my feet forget to rove?
Ah! what shall fix this faithless heart?
2 Why do these cares my soul divide,
If thou indeed hast set me free?
Why am I thus, if thou hast died,
If thou hast died to ransom me?
3 Great God! thy sovereign aid impart,
And guard the gifts thyself hast given;
My portion thou, my treasure art,
And life, and happiness, and heaven.
4 Would aught with thee my wishes share,
Though dear as life the idol be,
That idol from my breast I'll tear,
Resolved to seek my all from thee.
5 Whate'er I fondly counted mine,
To thee, my Lord, I here restore;
I gladly all for thee resign:
Give me thyself,—I ask no more.

1059. "Brethren, pray for us."
1 Father of mercies, bow thine ear,
Attentive to our earnest prayer;
We plead for those who plead for thee;
Successful pleaders may they be.
2 Clothe thou with energy divine
Their words, and let those words be thine;
Teach them immortal souls to gain,
Nor let them labor, Lord, in vain.

1064. Welcome to a Pastor.
1 We bid thee welcome in the name
Of Jesus, our exalted Head;
Come as a servant: so he came;
And we receive thee in his stead.
2 Come as a shepherd; guard and keep
This fold from hell, and earth, and sin;
Nourish the lambs, and feed the sheep,
The wounded heal, the lost bring in.
3 Come as a teacher, sent from God,
Charged his whole counsel to declare;
Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.
4 Come as a messenger of peace,
Filled with the spirit, fired with love!
Live to behold our large increase,
And die to meet us all above.

1068. Entering into Covenant with God.
1 While to thy table I repair,
And seal the sacred contract there,
Witness, O Lord! my solemn vow:
Angels and men! attest it, too.
2 Here at that cross, where flows the blood
That bought my guilty soul for God,
Thee, Lord and Master, now I call,
I consecrate to thee my all.
3 Do thou assist a feeble worm
The great engagement to perform;
Thy grace can full assistance lend,
And on that grace I dare depend.

1 Ye wretched, hungry, starving poor,
   Behold a royal feast!
Where mercy spreads her bounteous store
   For every humble guest.

2 See, Jesus stands with open arms;
   He calls, he bids you come;
Guilt holds you back, and fear alarms;
   But see, there yet is room—

3 Room in the Saviour's bleeding heart:
   There love and pity meet;
Nor will he bid the soul depart
   That trembles at his feet.

4 Oh, come, and with his children taste
   The blessings of his love;
While hope attends the sweet repast
   Of nobler joys above.

5 There, with united heart and voice,
   Before th' eternal throne,
Ten thousand thousand souls rejoice
   In ecstasies unknown.

6 And yet ten thousand thousand more
   Are welcome still to come:
Ye longing souls, the grace adore;
   Approach, there yet is room.

565. "I heard the voice of Jesus."

1 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
   "Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
   Thy head upon my breast."
I came to Jesus as I was,
   Weary, and worn, and sad;
I found in him a resting-place,
   And he has made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
   "Behold, I freely give
The living water! thirsty one,
   Stoop down, and drink, and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank
   Of that life-giving stream:
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
   And now I live in him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
   "I am this dark world's light:
Look unto me; thy morn shall rise,
   And all thy day be bright."
I looked to Jesus, and I found
   In him my Star, my Sun;
And in that light of life I'll walk
   Till all my journey's done.

717. Mine—Thine.—1 Cor. 13:10.

1 All that I was, my sin, my guilt,
   My death, was all my own:
All that I am I owe to thee,
   My gracious God, alone.

2 The evil of my former state
   Was mine, and only mine:
The good in which I now rejoice
   Is thine, and only thine.

3 The darkness of my former state,
   The bondage,—all was mine:
The light of life in which I walk,
   The liberty—is thine.

4 Thy grace first made me feel my sin,
   And taught me to believe:
Then, in believing, peace I found,
   And now, I live, I live!

5 All that I am ev'n here on earth,
   All that I hope to be
When Jesus comes and glory dawns,—
   I owe it, Lord, to thee.
751. "The glory which shall be revealed in us."

1 My thoughts surmount these lower skies,
And look within the vail;
There springs of endless pleasures rise—
The waters never fail.

2 There I behold, with sweet delight,
The blessed Three in One;
And strong affections fix my sight
On God's incarnate Son.

3 His promise stands for ever firm;
His grace shall ne'er depart;
He binds my name upon his arm,
And seals it on his heart.

4 Light are the pains that nature brings:
How short our sorrows are,
When with eternal future things
The present we compare!

5 I would not be a stranger still
To that celestial place,
Where I for ever hope to dwell
Near my Redeemer's face.

875. "Blessed are the merciful."

1 Blest is the man whose softening heart
Feels all another's pain;
To whom the supplicating eye
Was never raised in vain:—

2 Whose breast expands with generous warmth,
A stranger's woe to feel;
And bleeds in pity o'er the wound
He wants the power to heal.

3 He spreads his kind, supporting arms
To every child of grief;
His secret bounty largely flows,
And brings unasked relief.

4 To gentle offices of love
His feet are never slow;
He views, through mercy's melting eye,
A brother in a foe.

5 He hears the Saviour's cheering word,
"My peace to him I give;"
And when he kneels before the throne,
His trembling soul shall live.

969. "My meditation of Him shall be sweet."

1 When languor and disease invade
This trembling house of clay,
'Tis sweet to look beyond my pain,
And long to fly away;

2 Sweet to look inward, and attend
The whispers of his love;
Sweet to look upward to the place
Where Jesus pleads above;

3 Sweet on his faithfulness to rest,
Whose love can never end;
Sweet on his covenant of grace
For all things to depend;

4 Sweet, in the confidence of faith,
To trust his firm decrees;
Sweet to lie passive in his hands,
And know no will but his.

5 If such the sweetness of the streams,
What must the fountain be
Where saints and angels draw their bliss
Direct, O Lord, from thee?

Doxology.

To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.
92. "Peace I leave with you."

1 Peace be to this sacred dwelling,
   Peace to every soul therein;
   Peace, of heavenly joy foretelling,
   Peace, the fruit of conquered sin;
   Peace, that speaks its heavenly Giver;
   Peace to worldly minds unknown;
   Peace divine, that flows for ever
   From its source, the Lord alone!

2 Prince of peace! for ever near us,
   Fix in all our hearts thy home;
   With thy bright appearing cheer us;
   Let thy blessed kingdom come!
   Come, with sweeter consolation,
   Come, and give our souls to prove
   All the joys of thy salvation,
   All the joys that spring from love!

966. "Jesus, I my cross have taken."

1 Jesus, I my cross have taken,
   All to leave and follow thee;
   Naked, poor, despised, forsaken,
   Thou, from hence, my all shalt be:
   Perish every fond ambition,
   All I've sought, or hoped, or known;
   Yet how rich is my condition!
   God and heaven are still my own.

2 Let the world despise and leave me,
   They have left my Saviour, too;
   Human hearts and looks deceive me;
   Thou art not, like them, untrue:
   And while thou shalt smile upon me,
   God of wisdom, love, and might,
   Foes may hate, and friends may scorn me;
   Show thy face, and all is bright.

964. "Thou shalt call thy walls salvation."

1 Hear what God, the Lord, hath spoken:
   O my people, faint and few,
   Comfortless, afflicted, broken,
   Fair abodes I build for you;
   Scenes of heartfelt tribulation
   Shall no more perplex your ways;
   You shall name your walls "Salvation."
   And your gates shall all be "Praise."

2 Ye no more your suns descending,
   Waning moons no more shall see;
   But your griefs for ever ending,
   Find eternal noon in me.
   God shall rise, and, shining o'er you,
   Change to day the gloom of night;
   He, the Lord, shall be your Glory,
   God your everlasting Light.

1 Worship, honor, glory, blessing,
   Lord, we offer to thy home;
   Young and old, their thanks expressing,
   Join thy goodness to proclaim:
   As the hosts of heaven adore thee,
   We, too, bow before thy throne;
   As the angels serve before thee,
   So on earth thy will be done.

3 Man may trouble and distress me,
   'Twill but drive me to thy breast;
   Life with trials hard may press me,
   Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
   Oh! 'tis not in grief to charm me,
   While thy love is left to me;
   Oh! 't were not in joy to charm me,
   Were that joy unmixed with thee.
317. Glorying in the Cross.

1 In the cross of Christ I glory,
   Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
   All the light of sacred story
   Gathers round its head sublime.

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
   Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
   Never shall the cross forsake me;
   Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
   Light and love upon my way,
   From the cross the radiance streaming,
   Adds new luster to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
   By the cross are sanctified;
   Peace is there, that knows no measure,
   Joys that through all time abide.

5 In the cross of Christ I glory,
   Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
   All the light of sacred story
   Gathers round its head sublime.

Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
   Bind my wandering heart to thee.

Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
   Prone to leave the God I love;
   Here's my heart; oh, take and seal it,—
   Seal it for thy courts above!

990. Upward, onward!

1 Like the eagle, upward, onward,
   Let my soul in faith be borne;
   Calmly gazing, skyward, sunward,
   Let my eye unshrinking turn!

2 Where the cross, God's love revealing,
   Sets the fettered spirit free,
   Where it sheds its wondrous healing,
   There, my soul, thy rest shall be!

3 Oh, may I, no longer dreaming,
   Idly waste my golden day,
   But, each precious hour redeeming,
   Upward, onward press my way!

1226. Rest yonder.

1 Thus is not my place of resting,—
   Mine's a city yet to come;
   Onward to it I am hasting—
   On to my eternal home.

2 In it all is light and glory;
   O'er it shines a nightless day:
   Every trace of sin's sad story,
   All the curse, hath passed away.

3 There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us
   By the streams of life along,—
   On the freshest pastures feeds us,
   Turns our sighing into song.

4 Soon we pass this desert dreary,
   Soon we bid farewell to pain;
   Never more are sad or weary,
   Never, never sin again!
313. "Despised and rejected of men."
Isaiah 53.

1 Rejected and despised of men,
Behold a man of woe!
And grief his close companion still
Through all his life below!

2 Yet all the griefs he felt were ours,
Ours were the woes he bore:
Pangs, not his own, his spotless soul,
With bitter anguish tore.

3 We held him as condemned of Heaven,
An outcast from his God:
While for our sins he groaned, he bled,
Beneath his Father's rod.

4 His sacred blood hath washed our souls
From sin's polluting stain;
His stripes have healed us, and his death
Revived our souls again.

560. "Against Thee, Thee only, have I sinned."

1 Prostrate, dear Jesus, at thy feet
A guilty rebel lies;
And upward to thy mercy-seat
Presumes to lift his eyes.

2 If tears of sorrow would suffice
To pay the debt I owe,
Tears should from both my weeping eyes
In ceaseless torrents flow.

3 But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt;
No tears, but those which thou hast shed,
No blood, but thou hast spilt.

4 Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord!
And all my sins forgive:
Justice will well approve the word
That bids the sinner live.

562. "Alas! and did my Saviour bleed?"

1 Alas! and did my Saviour bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When God, the mighty Maker, died
For man the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While his dear cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe:
Here, Lord, I give myself away;
'Tis all that I can do.

568. Forgiveness from the Cross.

1 I saw One hanging on a tree,
In agony and blood,
Who fixed his languid eyes on me,
As near the cross I stood.

2 Sure, never, till my latest breath,
Can I forget that look:
It seemed to charge me with his death,
Though not a word he spoke.

3 Alas! I knew not what I did,
But now my tears are vain;
Where shall my trembling soul be hid,
For I the Lord have slain.

4 A second look he gave, that said,
"I freely all forgive:"
This blood is for thy ransom paid;
I die that thou may'st live."
1 Oh, if my soul were formed for woe,
   How would I vent my sighs!
   Repentance should like rivers flow
   From both my streaming eyes.
2 'Twas for my sins my dearest Lord
   Hung on the cursed tree;
   And groaned away a dying life
   For thee, my soul, for thee!
3 Oh, how I hate those lusts of mine
   That crucified my God—
   Those sins that pierced and nailed his flesh
   Fast to the fatal wood!
4 Yes, my Redeemer, they shall die;
   My heart has so decreed;
   Nor will I spare the guilty things
   That made my Saviour bleed.
5 While with a melting, broken heart,
   My murdered Lord I view,
   I'll raise revenge against my sins,
   And slay the murderers, too.

587. "Lord, my heart is not haughty."
Psalm 131.
1 Is there ambition in my heart?
   Search, gracious God, and see;
   Or do I act a haughty part?
   Lord, I appeal to thee.
2 I charge my thoughts, be humble still,
   My words and actions mild;
   Content, my Father, with thy will,
   And quiet as a child.
3 The patient soul, the lowly mind,
   Shall have a large reward:
   Let saints in sorrow lie resigned,
   And trust a faithful Lord.

616. "How long wilt Thou hide Thy face from me?"
1 My God!—oh, could I make the claim—
   My Father and my Friend—
   And call thee mine by every name
   On which thy saints depend!
2 By every name of power and love,
   I would thy grace entreat;
   Nor should my humble hope remove,
   Nor leave thy mercy-seat.
3 Yet, tho' my soul in darkness mourns,
   Thy word is all my stay;
   Here would I rest till light returns:
   Thy presence makes my day.
4 Speak, Lord! and bid celestial peace
   Relieve my aching heart;
   Oh, smile, and bid my sorrows cease,
   And all the gloom depart!
5 Then shall my drooping spirit rise,
   And bless the healing rays;
   And change these deep, complaining sighs
   To songs of sacred praise.

658. "In Him we live, and move, and have our being."
1 Lord, what is man! that child of pride,
   That boasts his high degree!
   If left one moment to himself,
   He sinks—and where is he?
2 In thee I live, and move, and am;
   Thou dost not live my days:
   Lord, as thou dost renew my life,
   Let me renew thy praise.
3 To thee I come, from thee I am,
   For thee I still would be;
   'Tis better for me not to live,
   Than not to live to thee.
4 Thou art my living fountain, Lord;
   On me thy streams still flow:
   Myself I render up to thee,
   To whom myself I owe.
2. "Our Father which art in Heaven."
1 Our heavenly Father, hear The prayer we offer now:
   Thy name be hallowed far and near:
   To thee all nations bow!
2 Thy kingdom come, thy will
   On earth be done in love,
   As saints and seraphim fulfill
   Thy perfect law above.
3 Our daily bread supply,
   While by thy word we live;
   The guilt of our iniquity
   Forgive, as we forgive.
4 From dark temptation's power,
   From Satan's wiles defend;
   Deliver in the evil hour,
   And guide us to the end!
5 Thine, then, for ever be
   Glory and power divine;
   The scepter, throne, and majesty
   Of heaven and earth are thine.'

162. "As a father pitieth his children."
   Psalm 103.
1 The pity of the Lord
   To those that fear his name,
   Is such as tender parents feel:
   He knows our feeble frame.
2 He knows we are but dust,
   Scattered with every breath;
   His anger, like a rising wind,
   Can send us swift to death.
3 Our days are as the grass,
   Or like the morning flower;
   If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
   It withers in an hour.
4 But thy compassions, Lord,
   To endless years endure;
   And children's children ever find
   Thy words of promise sure.

448. "Descend in all Thy power."
   Acts 2.
1 Lord God, the Holy Ghost!
   In this accepted hour,
   As on the day of Pentecost,
   Descend in all thy power.
2 We meet with one accord
   In our appointed place,
   And wait the promise of our Lord,
   The Spirit of all grace.
3 Like mighty rushing wind
   Upon the waves beneath,
   Move with one impulse every mind;
   One soul, one feeling breathe.
4 The young, the old, inspire
   With wisdom from above;
   And give us hearts and tongues of fire,
   To pray, and praise, and love.
5 Spirit of light, explore
   And chase our gloom away,
   With luster shining more and more
   Unto the perfect day.
6 Spirit of truth, be thou,
   In life and death, our guide:
   O Spirit of adoption! now
   May we be sanctified.

790. "I in them, and Thou in me."
   1 Dear Saviour! we are thine,
   By everlasting bonds;
   Our hearts, our souls, we would resign
   Entirely to thy hands.
2 To thee we still would cleave
With ever-growing zeal;
If millions tempt us Christ to leave,
Oh, let them ne'er prevail!

3 Thy Spirit shall unite
Our souls to thee, our Head;
Shall form in us thine image bright,
And teach thy paths to tread.

4 Death may our souls divide
From these abodes of clay;
But love shall keep us near thy side,
Through all the gloomy way.

5 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear?
If he in heaven has fixed his throne,
He'll fix his members there.

1211. "Let me die the death of the righteous.
Num. 23: 10.

1 On for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
Oh, be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!

BOYLSTON. S. M.
230. "Under the shadow of the Almighty."
Psalm 91.

1 Through all the changing scenes of life,
In trouble and in joy,
The praises of my God shall still
My heart and tongue employ.
2 Of his deliverance I will boast;
Till all who are distressed
From my example comfort take,
And charm their griefs to rest.
3 Oh, magnify the Lord with me,
With me exalt his name!
When in distress to him I called,
He to my rescue came.
4 The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just;
Deliverance he affords to all
Who on his succor trust.
5 Oh, make but trial of his love:
Experience will decide
How blest are they, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.
6 Fear him, ye saints, and ye will then
Have nothing else to fear;
Make ye his service your delight,
He'll make your wants his care.

243. An ancient Hymn of Praise to Christ.

1 We sing to thee, thou Son of God,
Thou source of life and grace!
We praise thee, Son of Man, whose blood
Redeemed our fallen race!
2 Thee we acknowledge God and Lord,
The Lamb for sinners slain;
Who art by heaven and earth adored,
Worthy o'er both to reign!
3 To thee all angels cry aloud,
Through heaven's extended coasts;
Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord
Of glory and of hosts!
4 The prophets' godly fellowship,
In radiant garments dressed,
Praise thee, thou Son of God, and reap
The fullness of thy rest.
5 Th' apostles' glorious company
Thy righteous praise proclaim;
The martyred army glorify
Thine everlasting name.
6 Throughout the world thy churches join
To call on thee, their Head,—
Brightness of Majesty divine,
Who every power hast made!
7 Among their number, Lord, we love
To sing thy precious blood:
Reign here, and in the worlds above,
Thou holy Lamb of God!

247. "Thou shalt call His name Jesus."

1 Oft, for a thousand tongues to sing
My dear Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace!
2 My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad
The honors of thy name.
3 Jesus! the name that calms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease—
'T is music to my ravished ears—
'T is life, and health, and peace.
BENDON. C. M. Double.

4 He breaks the power of reigning sin,
   He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean:
   His blood availed for me.

5 He speaks, and, listening to his voice,
   New life the dead receive;
The mourning, broken hearts rejoice,
   The humble poor believe.

6 Hear him, ye deaf! His praise, ye dumb,
   Your loosened tongues employ!
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come,
   And leap, ye lame, for joy!

287. Condescension of Christ.
Psalm 8.

1 O Lord, our Lord, how wondrous great
   Is thine exalted name!
The glories of thy heavenly state
   Let men and babes proclaim.

2 When I behold thy works on high,
   The moon that rules the night,
And stars that well adorn the sky,
   Those moving worlds of light;

3 Lord, what is man, or all his race,
   Who dwells so far below,
That thou shouldst visit him with grace,
   And love his nature so!

4 That thine eternal Son should bear
   To take a mortal form,
Made lower than his angels are,
   To save a dying worm!

5 Let him be crowned with majesty,
   Who bowed his head to death;
And be his honors sounded high,
   By all things that have breath.

6 Jesus, our Lord, how wondrous great,
   Is thine exalted name!
The glories of thy heavenly state
   Let the whole earth proclaim.

1 On, who is like the Mighty One,
   Whose throne is in the sky!
Who compasseth the universe
   With his all-searching eye;
At whose creative word appeared
   The dry land and the sea:
My spirit thirsts for thee, O Lord,
   My spirit thirsts for thee!

2 Around him suns and systems swim
   In harmony and light;
Before him harps angelic hymn
   His praises day and night;
Yet to the contrite, day and night,
   In mercy turneth he:
My spirit thirsts for thee, O Lord,
   My spirit thirsts for thee!

3 Yes! though unlimited his works,
   His power upholdeth them all;
He clothes the lilies of the field,
   And marks the sparrow’s fall:
Who listens to the raven’s cry,
   Will bend his ear to me;
My spirit thirsts for thee, O Lord,
   My spirit thirsts for thee!

   Doxology.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
   And shall be evermore!

1 In heavenly love abiding,
   No change my heart shall fear,
   And safe is such confiding,
   For nothing changes here:
   The storm may roar without me,
   My heart may low be laid,
   But God is round about me,
   And can I be dismayed?

2 Wherever he may guide me,
   No want shall turn me back;
   My Shepherd is beside me,
   And nothing can I lack:
   His wisdom ever waketh,
   His sight is never dim;
   He knows the way he taketh,
   And I will walk with him.

3 Green pastures are before me,
   Which yet I have not seen;
   Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
   Where darkest clouds have been:
   My hope I can not measure;
   My path to life is free;
   My Saviour has my treasure,
   And he will walk with me.

Go, when the eve declineth,
   Go, in the hush of night;
   Go, with pure mind and feeling,
   Put earthly thoughts away,
   And, in God's presence kneeling,
   Do thou in secret pray.

2 Remember all who love thee,
   All who are loved by thee;
   Pray, too, for those who hate thee,
   If any such there be:
   Then for thyself, in meekness,
   A blessing humbly claim,
   And blend with each petition
   Thy great Redeemer's name.

3 Or, if 'tis e'er denied thee
   In solitude to pray,
   Should holy thoughts come o'er thee
   When friends are round thy way,
   Ev'n then, the silent breathing
   Thy spirit lifts above,
   Will reach his throne of glory,
   Where dwells eternal love.

4 Oh, not a joy or blessing
   With this can we compare—
   The grace our Father gives us
   To pour our souls in prayer!
   When thou dost pine in sadness,
   On him who saveth call;
   And ever in thy gladness,
   Thank him who gave thee all.

842. "Pray without ceasing."

1 Go, when the morning shineth,
   Go, when the noon is bright,
1039. "All nations shall be blest in Him."
Psalm 72.

1 Hail to the Lord’s Anointed,
Great David’s greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free;
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth;
And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
Spring in his path to birth;
Before him, on the mountains,
Shall Peace, the herald, go;
And Righteousness, in fountains,
From hill to valley flow.

3 Kings shall fall down before him,
And gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore him,
His praise all people sing:
For he shall have dominion
O’er river, sea, and shore,
Far as the eagle’s pinion,
Or dove’s light wing can soar.

4 For him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing—
A kingdom without end:
O’er every foe victorious,
He on his throne shall rest:
From age to age more glorious,
All blessing and all blest!

1131. "All the trees of the field shall clap their hands."

1 When shall the voice of singing
Flow joyfully along?
When hill and valley, ringing
With one triumphant song,
Proclaim the contest ended,
And him who once was slain,
Again to earth descended,
In righteousness to reign?

2 Then from the craggy mountains
The sacred shout shall fly;
And shady vales and fountains
Shall echo the reply:
High tower and lowly dwelling
Shall send the hymn around,
All hallelujah swelling
In one eternal sound!

1 The God of peace, who from the dead
   Brought up again our Lord,
   And, through the covenant in his blood,
   Our souls to peace restored,—

2 Confirm our hearts, in each good work,
   To do his perfect will;
   That, made well pleasing in his sight,
   Our course with joy we fill.

3 So shall we, in his heavenly courts,
   Hereafter, ever live;
   And to his name, through Jesus Christ,
   Eternal glory give.

141. "The Lord searcheth all hearts."

1 God is a Spirit, just and wise;
   He sees our inmost mind:
   In vain to Heaven we raise our cries,
   And leave our hearts behind.

2 Nothing but truth before his throne
   With honor can appear;
   The painted hypocrites are known
   Through the disguise they wear.

3 Their lifted eyes salute the skies;
   Their bending knees the ground;
   But God abhors the sacrifice,
   Where not the heart is found.

4 Lord, search my thoughts, and try my ways,
   And make my soul sincere;
   Then shall I stand before thy face,
   And find acceptance there.

420. "The unchanging Friend."
   Isaiah 49: 14, 15.

1 Forgetful can a mother be?
   Yes: human love is frail;
   But thy Redeemer's love to thee,
   O Zion! can not fail.

2 No: thy dear name engraven stands,
   In characters of love,
   On thine atoning Saviour's hands,
   And never shall remove.

3 Before his ever watchful eye
   Thy mournful state appears,
   And every groan, and every sigh,
   Divine compassion hears.

4 O Zion! learn to doubt no more;
   Be every fear suppressed:
   Unchanging truth, and love, and power,
   Dwell in thy Saviour's breast.

   1 Cor. 1: 23, 24.

1 Christ and his cross are all our theme:
   The mysteries that we speak
   Are scandal in the Jew's esteem,
   And folly to the Greek.

2 But souls enlightened from above
   With joy receive the word;
   They see what wisdom, power, and love,
   Shine in their dying Lord.

3 The vital savour of his name
   Restores their fainting breath;
   But unbelief perverts the same
   To guilt, despair, and death.

4 Till God diffuse his graces down,
   Like showers of heavenly rain,
   In vain Apollos sows the ground,
   And Paul may plant in vain.

552. "It is God which worketh in you."

1 Not all the outward forms on earth,
   Nor rites that God has given,
   Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth,
   Can raise a soul to heaven.

2 The sovereign will of God alone
   Creates us heirs of grace;
   Born in the image of his Son,
   A new, peculiar race.
3 The Spirit, like some heavenly wind,
    Blows on the sons of flesh,
New-models all the carnal mind,
    And forms the man afresh.
4 Our quickened souls awake and rise
    From the long sleep of death;
On heavenly things we fix our eyes,
    And praise employs our breath.

1053. "Ten thousand tongues should join the harmony."

1 LORD, at thy table I behold
The wonders of thy grace;
But most of all admire that I
Should find a welcome place——
2 I, who am all defiled with sin,
    A rebel to my God!
I, who have crucified my Son,
    And trampled on his blood!
3 What strange, surprising grace is this,
    That such a soul has room!
My Saviour takes me by the hand,
    My Jesus bids me come.
4 Ye saints below, and hosts of heaven!
In praise join all your powers:
No theme is like redeeming love!
    No Saviour is like ours!
5 Had I ten thousand hearts, dear Lord!
    I'd give them all to thee;
Had I ten thousand tongues, they all
    Should join the harmony.

1054. The Saviour died for me.

1 PREPARE us, Lord, to view thy cross,
    Who all our griefs hast borne;
To look on thee, whom we have pierced—
    To look on thee, and mourn.
2 While thus we mourn, we would rejoice,
    And, as thy cross we see,
Let each exclaim in faith and hope——
    "The Saviour died for me!"

1066. "A good profession before many witnesses."

1 WITNESS, ye men and angels, now
Before the Lord we speak;
To him we make our solemn vow,
    A vow we dare not break:——
2 That, long as life itself shall last,
    Ourselves to Christ we yield;
Nor from his cause will we depart,
    Or ever quit the field.
3 We trust not in our native strength,
    But on his grace rely,
That with returning wants the Lord
    Will all our need supply.
4 Oh, guide our doubtful feet aright,
    And keep us in thy ways:
And, while we turn our vows to prayers,
    Turn thou our prayers to praise!

1091. "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth."—Ecc. 12: 1.

1 REMEMBER thy Creator now,
In these thy youthful days;
He will accept thy earliest vow,
    And listen to thy praise.
2 Remember thy Creator now,
    And seek him while he's near;
For evil days will come, when thou
    Shalt find no comfort near.
3 Remember thy Creator now;
    His willing servant be;
Then, when thy head in death shall bow,
    He will remember thee.
4 Almighty God! our hearts incline
    Thy heavenly voice to hear;
Let all our future days be thine,
    Devoted to thy fear.
280. Christ our Example.

1 My dear Redeemer, and my Lord,
I read my duty in thy word;
But in thy life the law appears,
Drawn out in living characters.

2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of thy prayer:
The desert thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict, and thy victory, too.

4 Be thou my pattern; make me bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.

405. Strength by the Way.

1 Jesus, while this rough desert soil
I tread, be thou my guide and stay:
Nerve me for conflict and for toil;
Uphold me on my stranger-way!

2 Jesus, in heaviness and fear,
Mid cloud, and shade, and gloom, I stray,
For earth's last night is drawing near;
Oh, cheer me on my stranger-way!

3 Jesus, in solitude and grief,
When sun and stars withhold their ray,
Make haste, make haste to my relief!
Oh, light me on my stranger-way!

4 Jesus, in weakness of this flesh,
When Satan grasps me for his prey,
Oh, give me victory afresh,
And speed me on my stranger-way!

459. "He dwelleth with you."

1 Sure the blest Comforter is nigh;
'Tis he sustains my fainting heart:
Else would my hope for ever die,
And every cheering ray depart.

2 Whene'er to call the Saviour mine,
With ardent wish my heart aspires,
Can it be less than power divine,
That animates these strong desires?

3 And when my cheerful hope can say,
I love my God, and taste his grace,
Lord, is it not thy blissful ray
Which brings this dawn of sacred peace?

4 Let thy kind Spirit in my heart
For ever dwell, O God of love;
And light and heavenly peace impart,
Sweet earnest of the joys above.

1 Come hither, all ye weary souls;
Ye heavy-laden sinners, come!
I'll give you rest from all your toils,
And raise you to my heavenly home.

2 They shall find rest who learn of me:
I'm of a meek and lowly mind;
But passion rages like the sea,
And pride is restless as the wind.

3 Blest is the man whose shoulders take
My yoke, and bear it with delight:
My yoke is easy to his neck,
My grace shall make the burden light.

4 Jesus, we come at thy command;
With faith, and hope, and humble zeal,
Resign our spirits to thy hand,
To mold and guide us at thy will.
652. "Thou art my God; early will I seek Thee!"

1 O God, thou art my God alone:
   Early to thee my soul shall cry—
   A pilgrim in a land unknown,
   A thirsty land, whose springs are dry.

2 O that it were as it hath been,
   When, praying in the holy place,
   Thy power and glory I have seen,
   And marked the footsteps of thy grace!

3 Yet, through this rough and thorny maze,
   I follow hard on thee, my God:
   Thy hand unseen upholds my ways;
   I safely tread where thou hast trod.

4 Thee, in the watches of the night,
   When I remember on my bed,
   Thy presence makes the darkness light;
   Thy guardian wings are round my head.

5 Better than life itself thy love,
   Dearer than all beside to me;
   For whom have I in heaven above,
   Or what on earth, compared with thee?

664. Repose in God's Wisdom.

1 Whither, oh, whither should I fly,
   But to my loving Father's breast!
   Secure within thine arms to lie,
   And safe beneath thy wings to rest!

2 In all my ways thy hand I own,
   Thy ruling providence I see;
   Assist me still my course to run,
   And still direct my paths to thee.

3 I have no skill the snare to shun;
   But thou, O God, my wisdom art;
   I ever into ruin run;
   But thou art greater than my heart.

4 Foolish, and impotent, and blind,
   Lead me a way I have not known;
   Bring me where I my heaven may find,
   The heaven of loving thee alone.

678. "As thy days, so shall thy strength be."

1 While foes are strong, and danger near,
   A voice falls gently on my ear;
   My Saviour speaks, he says to me,
   That "as my days, my strength shall be."

2 With such a promise need I fear
   For all that now I hold most dear?
   No: I will never anxious be,
   For, "as my days, my strength shall be."

3 When storms of trouble on me fall,
   And when my cup is mixed with gall,
   This promise will be sweet to me,
   That "as my days, my strength shall be."

4 And when at last I'm called to die,
   Still on this promise I'll rely;
   Yes, Lord, I then will trust in thee,
   That "as my days, my strength shall be."

686. Delight in Christ.

1 Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts!
   Thou Fount of Life! thou Light of men!
   From the best bliss that earth imparts,
   We turn unfilled to thee again.

2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
   Thou savest those that on thee call;
   To them that seek thee, thou art good,
   To them that find thee—All in All!

3 We taste thee, O thou Living Bread,
   And long to feast upon thee still;
   We drink of thee, the Fountain Head,
   And thirst our souls from thee to fill.

4 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
   Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
   Glad, when thy gracious smile we see,
   Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.

5 O Jesus, ever with us stay!
   Make all our moments calm and bright;
   Chase the dark night of sin away, —
   Shed o'er the world thy holy light!
702. "Jesus alone deserves my heart."
1 Ye earthly vanities! depart; For ever hence remove; Jesus alone deserves my heart, And every thought of love.
2 His heart, where love and pity dwelt In all their softest forms, Sustained the heavy load of guilt For lost, rebellious worms.
3 Can I my bleeding Saviour view, And yet ungrateful prove? And pierce his wounded heart anew, And grieve his injured love?
4 Forbid it, Lord! oh, bind this heart, This roving heart of mine, So firm that it may ne'er depart, In chains of love divine!

821. "Giving All to God."
1 How can I sink with such a prop As my eternal God, Who bears the earth's huge pillars up, And spreads the heavens abroad?
2 How can I die while Jesus lives, Who rose and left the dead? Pardon and grace my soul receives From my exalted Head.
3 All that I am, and all I have, Shall be for ever thine; Whate'er my duty bids me give, My cheerful hands resign.
4 Yet, if I might make some reserve, And duty did not call, I love my God with zeal so great, That I should give him all.

888. "It is I; be not afraid."—Matt. 14: 27.
1 When waves of sorrow round me swell, My soul is not dismayed; I hear a voice I know full well: "'Tis I; be not afraid."

995. "Close to Thy bleeding side."
1 For ever here my rest shall be, Close to thy bleeding side; This all my hope, and all my plea For me the Saviour died.
2 My dying Saviour, and my God, Fountain for guilt and sin, Sprinkle me ever with thy blood, And cleanse and keep me clean.
3 Wash me, and make me thus thine own, Wash me, and mine thou art; Wash me, but not my feet alone,— My hands, my head, my heart.
4 Th' atonement of thy blood apply, Till faith to sight improve; Till hope in full fruition die, And all my soul be love.

996. "Perfect us in love."
1 Try us, O God, and search the ground Of every sinful heart;
Whate'er of sin in us is found,
Oh, bid it all depart.

2 Help us to help each other, Lord,
Each other's cross to bear;
Let each his friendly aid afford,
And feel his brother's care.

3 Help us to build each other up,
Our heart and life improve;
Increase our faith, confirm our hope,
And perfect us in love.

4 Up into thee, our living Head,
Let us in all things grow,
Till thou hast made us free, indeed,
And spotless here below.

1100. "For ye have the poor always with you."

1 Lord, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let our treasures still be spent,
Like his, upon the poor.

2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their gloomy loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And that thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.

4 Small are the offerings we can make;
Yet thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

1101. "Ye have done it unto Me."—Matt. 25: 40.

1 Jesus, my Lord, how rich thy grace!
Thy bounties how complete!
How shall I count the matchless sum?
How pay the mighty debt?

2 High on a throne of radiant light
Dost thou exalted shine;
What can my poverty bestow,
When all the worlds are thine?

3 But thou hast brethren here below,
The partners of thy grace;
And wilt confess their humble names
Before thy Father's face.

4 In them thou may'st be clothed and fed,
And visited and cheered;
And, in their accents of distress,
My Saviour's voice is heard.

5 Thy face, with reverence and with love,
I, in thy poor, would see;
Oh, rather let me beg my bread,
Than keep it back from thee!

1 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Look, how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys!
Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs;
In vain we strive to rise:
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord! and shall we ever live
At this poor, dying rate?
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers!
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.
188 THE SABBATH HYMN AND TUNE BOOK.

ELTON. 8s & 4.

538.

"Haste thee; escape thither."—Gen. 19: 22.

1 Haste, trav'ler, haste! the night comes on,
And many a shining hour is gone;
The storm is gathering in the west,
And thou art far from home and rest:
Haste, trav'ler, haste!

2 The rising tempest sweeps the sky;
The rains descend, the winds are high;
The waters swell, and death and fear
Beset thy path; no refuge near:
Haste, trav'ler, haste!

3 Haste, while a shelter you may gain,
A covert from the wind and rain,
A hiding-place, a rest, a home,
A refuge from the wrath to come:
Haste, trav'ler, haste!

4 Then linger not in all the plain;
Flee for thy life—the mountain gain;
Look not behind; make no delay;
Oh, speed thee, speed thee on thy way!
Haste, trav'ler, haste!

ABVILLE. 7s & 6s.

1177.

"To die is gain."

1 No, no, it is not dying
To go unto our God;
This gloomy earth forsaking,
Our journey homeward taking
Along the starry road.

2 No, no, it is not dying
Heaven's citizen to be;
A crown immortal wearing,
And rest unbroken sharing,
From care and conflict free.
[For other stanzas see next page.]
1188. "Having a desire to depart."

1 To Jesus, the crown of my hope,
   My soul is in haste to be gone;
   Oh, bear me, ye cherubim, up,
   And waft me away to his throne.

2 My Saviour, whom absent I love;
   Whom, not having seen, I adore;
   Whose name is exalted above
   All glory, dominion, and power.

3 Dissolve thou these bands that detain
   My soul from her portion in thee,
   Ah! strike off this adamant chain,
   And make me eternally free.

4 When that happy era begins,
   When arrayed in thy glories I shine,
   Nor grieve any more, by my sins,
   The bosom on which I recline,—

5 Oh, then shall the vail be removed!
   And round me thy brightness be pour'd;
   I shall meet him whom absent I loved,
   I shall see whom unseen I adored.

6 And then, never more shall the fears,
   The trials, temptations, and woes,
   Which darken this valley of tears,
   Intrude on my blissful repose.

3 No, no, it is not dying
   The Shepherd's voice to know;
   His sheep he ever leadeth,
   His peaceful flock he feedeth,
   Where living pastures grow.

4 No, no, it is not dying
   To wear a heavenly crown;

1261. "What must it be to be there!"

1 We speak of the realms of the blest,
   That country so bright and so fair,
   And oft are its glories confessed;
   But what must it be to be there!

2 We speak of its pathways of gold,
   Its walls decked with jewels so rare,
   Its wonders and pleasures untold;
   But what must it be to be there!

3 We speak of its freedom from sin,
   From sorrow, temptation, and care,
   From trials without and within:
   But what must it be to be there!

4 We speak of its service of love,
   The robes which the glorified wear,
   The church of the first-born above;
   But what must it be to be there!

5 Do thou, Lord, 'mid sorrow and woe,
   Still for heaven my spirit prepare,
   And shortly I also shall know,
   And feel what it is to be there.

   Among God's people dwelling,
   The glorious triumph swelling
   Of him whose sway we own.

5 Oh, no! this is not dying,
   Thou Saviour of mankind!
   There, streams of love are flowing,
   No hindrance ever knowing;
   Here, only drops we find.
214. The God of my Life.

1 Father of mercies! God of love!
My Father and my God!
I'll sing the honors of thy name,
And spread thy praise abroad.

2 In every period of my life
Thy thoughts of love appear;
Thy mercies gild each transient scene,
And crown each passing year.

3 In all thy mercies, may my soul
A Father's bounty see;
Nor let the gifts thy grace bestows
Estrange my heart from thee.

4 Teach me, in times of deep distress,
To own thy hand, O God!
And in submissive silence learn
The lessons of thy rod.

5 Through every period of my life,
Each bright, each clouded scene,
Give me a meek and humble mind,
Still equal and serene.

6 Then may I close my eyes in death,
Redeemed from anxious fear;
For death itself, my God, is life,
If thou be with me there.

627. "Oh for a closer walk with God!"

1 Oh for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,—
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

2 Where is the blessedness I knew,
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

4 Return, O holy Dove! return,
Sweet Messenger of rest!
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

1094. "Brethren, be not weary in well doing."

1 Lord, as to thy dear cross we flee,
And pray to be forgiven,
So let thy life our pattern be,
And form our souls for heaven.

2 Help us, through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear;
Like thee, to do our Father's will,
Our brother's griefs to share.

3 Let grace our selfishness expel,
Our earthliness refine;
And kindness in our bosoms dwell
As free and true as thine.

4 If joy shall at thy bidding fly,
And grief's dark day come on,
We, in our turn, would meekly cry,
"Father, thy will be done!"

5 Should friends misjudge, or foes defame,
Or brethren faithless prove,
Then, like thine own, be all our aim
To conquer them by love.

6 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
Forgiving and forgiven,
Oh, may we lead the pilgrim's life,
And follow thee to heaven!

1 Since all the varying scenes of time
   God's watchful eye surveys,
   Oh, who so wise to choose our lot,
   Or to appoint our ways!

2 Good, when he gives, supremely good;
   Nor less when he denies;
   Ev'n crosses, from his sovereign hand,
   Are blessings in disguise.

3 Why should we doubt a Father's love,
   So constant and so kind!
   To his unerring, gracious will
   Be every wish resigned.

4 In thy fair book of life divine,
   My God, inscribe my name;
   There let it fill some humble place
   Beneath my Lord the Lamb!

846. The safe Retreat.

1 Dear Father, to thy mercy-seat
   My soul for shelter flies;
   'Tis here I find a safe retreat
   When storms and tempests rise.

2 My cheerful hope can never die,
   If thou, my God, art near;
   Thy grace can raise my comforts high,
   And banish every fear.

3 My great Protector, and my Lord,
   Thy constant aid impart;
   Oh, let thy kind, thy gracious word
   Sustain my trembling heart!

4 Oh, never let my soul remove
   From this divine retreat!
   Still let me trust thy power and love,
   And dwell beneath thy feet.

926. The One Petition.

1 Father! whate'er of earthly bliss
   Thy sovereign hand denies,
   Accepted at thy throne of grace,
   Let this petition rise:

2 "Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
   From every murmur free;
   The blessings of thy grace impart,
   And make me live to thee.

3 "Let the sweet hope that thou art mine
   May life and death attend;
   Thy presence through my journey shine,
   And crown my journey's end."

1001. "Let me know my Father reigns."

1 My God, my Father, blissful name!
   Oh, may I call thee mine?
   May I with sweet assurance claim
   A portion so divine?

2 Whate'er thy providence denies
   I calmly would resign;
   For thou art good, and just, and wise:
   Oh, bend my will to thine!

3 Whate'er thy sacred will ordains
   Oh, give me strength to bear!
   And let me know my Father reigns,
   And trust his tender care.

4 Thy sovereign ways are all unknown
   To my weak, erring sight;
   Yet let my soul adoring own
   That all thy ways are right.

Doxology.

Let God the Father, and the Son,
   And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
   Or saints to love the Lord!
997. "Ye are the temple of the living God."

1 Love divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down!
Fix in us thy humble dwelling;
All thy faithful mercies crown:
Jesus! thou art all compassion;
Visit us with thy salvation;
Enter every longing heart.

2 Come, Almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy grace receive;
Hasten thy return, and never
Never more thy temples leave!
Dwell in us with thy rich blessing,
We will praise thee without ceasing;
Serve thee as thy hosts above.

3 Finish, Lord, thy new creation;
Pure and spotless may we be;
Let us see thy great salvation
Perfectly restored in thee;
Changed from glory into glory,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

4 Yes, for me he standeth pleading,
At the mercy-seat above;
Ever for me interceding,
Constant in unflinching love.

5 Yes, in me, in me he dwelleth;
I have, and he in me!
And my empty soul he filleth,
Here and through eternity.

6 Thus I wait for his returning,
Singing all the way to heaven:
Such the joyful song of morning,
Such the tranquil song of even.

438. Our Friend, above all others.

1 One there is, above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend;
His is love beyond a brother's,
Costly, free, and knows no end.

2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
Could or would have shed his blood?
But our Jesus died to have us
Reconciled in him to God.

421. The Elder Brother.

1 Yes, for me, for me he careth
With a brother's tender care;
Yes, with me, with me he shareth
Every burden, every fear.

2 Yes, o'er me, o'er me he watcheth,
Ceaseless watcheth, night and day;
Yes, e'en me, e'en me he snatcheth
From the perils of the way.

3 When he lived on earth abased,
Friend of sinners was his name;
Now, above all glory raised,
He rejoices in the same.

4 Oh, for grace our hearts to soften!
Teach us, Lord, at length to love;
We, alas! forget too often
What a Friend we have above.
1 Always with us, always with us—
Words of cheer and words of love:
Thus the risen Saviour whispers,
From his dwelling-place above.
2 With us when we toil in sadness,
Sowing much and reaping none:
Telling us that in the future
Golden harvests shall be won.
3 With us when the storm is sweeping,
O'er our path dark and drear:
Waking hope within our bosoms,
Stilling every anxious fear.
4 With us in the lonely valley,
When we cross the chilling stream:
Lighting up the steps to glory
With salvation's radiant beam.

151. "God is Love."—1 John 4: 8.
1 God is love; his mercy brightens
All the path in which we rove;
Bliss he wakes, and woe he lightens:
God is wisdom, God is love.
2 Chance and change are busy ever;
Man decays, and ages move:
But his mercy waneth never;
God is wisdom, God is love.
3 Ev'n the hour that darkest seemeth
Will his changeless goodness prove;
From the gloom his brightness streameth:
God is wisdom, God is love.
4 He with earthly cares entwineth
Hope and comfort from above:
Every where his glory shineth:
God is wisdom, God is love.

249. "Over all, God blessed for ever."
1 Crown his head with endless blessing,
Who, in God the Father's name,
With compassions never ceasing,
Comes salvation to proclaim.
2 Lo! Jehovah, we adore thee;
Thee, our Saviour; thee, our God!
From his throne his beams of glory
Shine through all the world abroad.
3 Jesus, thee our Saviour hailing,
Thee, our God, in praise we own;
Highest honors, never failing,
Rise eternal round thy throne.
4 Now, ye saints, his power confessing,
In your grateful strains adore;
For his mercy, never ceasing,
Flows, and flows for evermore.

265. "Being the brightness of His glory."
1 Brightness of the Father's glory,
Shall thy praise unuttered lie?
Break, my tongue, such guilty silence;
Sing the Lord who came to die.
2 Did archangels sing thy coming?
Did the shepherds learn their lays?
Shame would cover me, ungrateful,
Should my tongue refuse to praise.
3 From the highest throne in glory
To the cross of deepest woe,
All to ransom guilty captives!
Flow, my praise, for ever flow.
4 Re-ascent, immortal Saviour!
Leave thy footstool, take thy throne:
Thence return, and reign for ever;
Be the kingdom all thine own.
551. Lost, but found,—1 Pet. 2: 25.

1. I was a wandering sheep,
   I did not love the fold,
   I did not love my Shepherd's voice,
   I would not be controlled.

2. I was a wayward child,
   I did not love my home,
   I did not love my Father's voice,
   I loved afar to roam.

3. The Shepherd sought his sheep,
   The Father sought his child;
   They followed me o'er vale and hill,
   O'er deserts waste and wild.

4. They found me nigh to death,
   Famished, and faint, and lone;
   They bound me with the bands of love;
   They saved the wandering one.

5. Jesus my Shepherd is,
   'T was he that loved my soul,
   'T was he that washed me in his blood,
   'T was he that made me whole.

6. 'T was he that sought the lost,
   That found the wandering sheep,
   'T was he that brought me to the fold,
   'T is he that still doth keep.

7. I was a wandering sheep,
   I would not be controlled;
   But now I love my Shepherd's voice,
   I love, I love the fold!

8. I was a wayward child;
   I once preferred to roam;
   But now I love my Father's voice,—
   I love, I love his home!

857. Christian Fellowship.

1. Blest be the tie that binds
   Our hearts in Christian love:
   The fellowship of kindred minds
   Is like to that above.

2. Before our Father's throne
   We pour our ardent prayers;
   Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
   Our comforts and our cares.

3. We share our mutual woes,
   Our mutual burdens bear;
   And often for each other flows
   The sympathizing tear.

4. When we asunder part,
   It gives us inward pain;
   But we shall still be joined in heart,
   And hope to meet again.

5. This glorious hope revives
   Our courage by the way;
   While each in expectation lives,
   And longs to see the day.

6. From sorrow, toil, and pain,
   And sin, we shall be free,
   And perfect love and friendship reign
   Through all eternity.

960. "Say ye to the righteous that it shall be well
   with him."—Isaiah 3: 10.

1. What cheering words are these?
   Their sweetness who can tell?
   In time, and to eternal days,
   "'T is with the righteous well."

2. In every state secure,
   Kept as Jehovah's eye,
   'T is well with them while life endures,
   And well, when called to die;
3 Well, when they see his face,
   Or sink amid the flood;
Well, in affliction's thorny maze,
   Or on the mount with God.

4 'Tis well, when joys arise;
   'Tis well, when sorrows flow;
'Tis well, when darkness vails the skies,
   And strong temptations grow.

5 'Tis well, when Jesus calls:
   "From earth and sin arise,
To join the hosts of ransomed souls,
   Made to salvation wise!"

1270. "How long, O Lord, holy and true?"

1 The Church has waited long,
   Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits,
   A friendless stranger she.

2 How long, O Lord our God,
   Holy and true and good,
   Wilt thou not judge thy suffering church,
   Her sighs and tears and blood?

3 Saint after saint on earth
   Has lived, and loved, and died;
And as they left us one by one,
   We laid them side by side.

4 We laid them down to sleep,
   But not in hope forlorn;
We laid them but to ripen there,
   Till the last glorious morn.

5 We long to hear thy voice,
   To see thee face to face,
To share thy crown and glory then,
   As now we share thy grace.

6 Come, Lord! and wipe away
   The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
   Thine own fair world again.
411. None but Christ.
1 Thou only Sovereign of my heart,
   My Refuge, my almighty Friend!
   And can my soul from thee depart,
   On whom alone my hopes depend?
2 Whither, ah! whither shall I go,
   A wretched wand’rer from my Lord?
   Can this dark world of sin and woe
   One glimpse of happiness afford?
3 Eternal life thy words impart;
   On these my fainting spirit lives
   Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart,
   Than all the round of nature gives.
4 Let earth’s alluring joys combine;
   While thou art near, in vain they call;
   One smile, one blissful smile of thine,
   My dearest Lord! outweights them all.
5 Thy name my inmost powers adore;
   Thou art my life, my joy, my care;
   Depart from thee!—’tis death, ’tis more,
   ’Tis endless ruin—deep despair!
6 Low at thy feet my soul would lie;
   Here safety dwells, and peace divine:
   Still let me live beneath thine eye,
   For life, eternal life, is thine.

726. No Hope but in Christ.—Micah, 6: 6—8.
1 Wherewith, O God, shall I draw near,
   And bow myself before thy face?
   How, in thy purer eyes, appear?
   What shall I bring to gain thy grace?
2 Will gifts delight the Lord our God?
   Can these wash out my guilty stain?
   Rivers of oil, and seas of blood—
   Alas! they all must flow in vain.
3 What have I then wherein to trust?
   I nothing have, I nothing am:
   Excluded is my every boast,
   My glory swallowed up in shame.
4 Guilty I stand before thy face;
   On me I feel thy wrath abide:
   ’Tis just the sentence should take place,
   ’Tis just—but oh, thy Son hath died!
5 Jesus, the Lamb of God, hath bled;
   He bore our sins upon the tree;
   Beneath our curse he bowed his head:
   ’Tis finished—he hath died for me!
6 See, where before the throne he stands,
   And pours the all-prevailing prayer:
   Points to his side, and lifts his hands,
   And shows that I am graven there!

730. “Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?”
1 Lord, didst thou die,—but not for me?
   Am I forbid to trust thy blood?
   Hast thou not pardons rich and free?
   And grace, an overwhelming flood?
2 Who, then, shall drive my trembling soul
   From thee to regions of despair?
   Who has surveyed the sacred roll,
   And found my name not written there?
3 Presumptuous thought! to fix the bound,
   To limit mercy’s sovereign reign:
   What other happy souls have found
   I’ll seek, nor shall I seek in vain.
4 I own my guilt, my sins confess:
   Can men or devils make them more?
   Of crimes already numberless,
   Who will attempt to swell the score?
5 Were all my crimes before my sight,
   While I remember thou hast died,
   They would but urge my speedier flight
   To seek salvation at thy side.
6 Low at thy feet I’ll cast me down,
   To thee reveal my guilt and fear:
   And, if thou spurn me from thy throne,
   I’ll be the first who perished there.
190. "The voice of the Lord is full of majesty."

1 Eternal God! eternal King!
   Ruler of heaven and earth beneath!
From thee our hopes, our comforts spring;
In thee we live, and move, and breathe.

2 Thy word brought forth the flaming sun,
   The changeful moon, the starry host:
In thine appointed course they run,
   Till in the final ruin lost.

3 At thy command the storm is dumb;
   "No further shalt thou dare to come,
   And here shall thy proud waves be stayed."

4 Thy sway is known below, above,
   And full of majesty thy voice:
   The nations tremble or rejoice.

5 The final, awful hour is near,
   Time paces on with ceaseless tread,
When opening graves that voice shall hear,
   And render up the sleeping dead.

6 Oh, in that great, decisive day,
   May we be found in Christ, and stand,
While flaming worlds shall melt away,
   Accepted, owned, at thy right hand!

780. Inconstant Trust.

1 When darkness long has vailed my mind,
   And smiling day once more appears,
   Then, my Redeemer! then I find
   The folly of my doubts and fears.

2 Straight I upbraid my wandering heart,
   And blush that I should ever be
   Thus prone to act so base a part,
   Or harbor one hard thought of thee!

3 Oh, let me then at length be taught
   (What I am still so slow to learn),
   That God is love, and changes not,
   Nor knows the shadow of a turn.

4 Sweet truth, and easy to repeat!
   But when my faith is sharply tried,
   I find myself a learner yet,—
   Unskillful, weak, and apt to slide.

5 But, O my Lord! one look from thee
   Subdues the disobedient will;
   Drives doubt and discontent away,
   And thy rebellious child is still.

6 Thou art as ready to forgive,
   As I am ready to repine;
   Thou, therefore, all the praise receive;
   Be shame and self-abasement mine.

1 Ye saints, your music bring,
   Attuned to sweetest sound;
Strike every trembling string,
Till earth and heaven resound:
The triumphs of the cross we sing;
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string!

2 The cross, the cross alone,
   Subdued the powers of hell;
Like lightning, from his throne
The prince of darkness fell:
The triumphs of the cross we sing;
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string!

3 The cross hath power to save
   From all the foes that rise;
The cross hath made the grave
A passage to the skies:
The triumphs of the cross we sing;
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string!

1074. "Christ is our Corner-stone."

1 Christ is our Corner-stone;
   On him alone we build;
With his true saints alone
The courts of heaven are filled:
On his great love | Of present grace
Our hopes we place, | And joys above.

2 Oh, then, with hymns of praise
   These hallowed courts shall ring!
Our voices we will raise,
The Three in One to sing;
And thus proclaim | Both loud and long.
In joyful song, | That glorious Name.

3 Here, gracious God, do thou
   For evermore draw nigh;
Accept each faithful vow,
And mark each suppliant sigh:
In copious shower, | Each holy day,
On all who pray, | Thy blessings pour.

4 Here may we gain from heaven
   The grace which we implore,
And may that grace, once given,
Be with us evermore,—
Until that day | To endless rest
When all the blest | Are called away.
229. Our Constant Friend.

1 To God, the mighty Lord,
   Your joyful thanks repeat;
   To him due praise afford,
   As good as he is great:
   For God doth prove our constant friend;
   His boundless love shall never end.

2 He, in our depths of woes,
   On us with favor thought;
   And from our deadly foes
   In peace and safety brought:
   For God doth prove our constant friend;
   His boundless love shall never end.

3 He doth the food supply,
   On which all creatures live;
   To God, who reigns on high,
   Eternal praises give:
   For God doth prove our constant friend;
   His boundless love shall never end.

523. The Year of Jubilee.

1 Blow ye the trumpet, blow,
   The gladly solemn sound!
   Let all the nations know,
   To earth's remotest bound:
   The year of jubilee has come;
   Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

2 Jesus, our great High Priest,
   Hath full atonement made;
   Ye weary spirits, rest;
   Ye mournful souls, be glad:
   The year of jubilee is come;
   Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

3 Exalt the Lamb of God,
   The sin-atoning Lamb;
   Redemption in his blood
   To all the world proclaim:
   The year of jubilee is come;
   Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

872. "One Lord, one faith, one baptism."

1 One sole baptismal sign,
   One Lord, below, above,
   One faith, one hope divine,
   One only watchword—Love:
   From different temples though it rise,
   One song ascended to the skies.

2 Our sacrifice is one;
   One Priest before the throne;
   The slain, the risen Son,
   Redeemer, Lord alone!
   And sighs from contrite hearts that spring,
   Our chief, our choicest offering.

3 Head of thy church beneath!
   The catholic, the true,
   On all her members breathe;
   Her broken frame renew!
   Then shall thy perfect will be done
   When Christians love and live as one.
256. "The voice of praise."

1 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
   Whose breath our souls inspired;
   Loud and more loud the anthems raise,
   With grateful ardor fired.

2 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
   Whose goodness, passing thought,
   Loads every moment, as it flies,
   With benefits unsought.

3 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
   From whom salvation flows;
   Who sent his Son our souls to save
   From everlasting woes.

4 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
   For hope's transporting ray,
   Which lights through darkest shades of death
   To realms of endless day.

262. "Greater love hath no man than this."

1 Plunged in a gulf of dark despair,
   We wretched sinners lay,
   Without one cheerful beam of hope,
   Or spark of glistening day.

2 With pitying eyes the Prince of Grace
   Beheld our helpless grief:
   He saw, and, oh, amazing love!—
   He ran to our relief.

3 Down from the shining seats above,
   With joyful haste he fled,
   Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
   And dwelt among the dead.

4 Oh, for this love let rocks and hills
   Their lasting silence break;
   And all harmonious human tongues
   The Saviour's praises speak!

5 Angels, assist our mighty joys!
   Strike all your harps of gold!

But when you raise your highest notes,
   His love can ne'er be told.

267. "Unto us a Child is born."

1 To us a Child of hope is born,
   To us a Son is given;
   Him shall the tribes of earth obey,
   Him all the hosts of heaven.

2 His name shall be the Prince of Peace,
   For evermore adored;
   The Wonderful, the Counselor,
   The great and mighty Lord!

3 His power, increasing, still shall spread:
   His reign no end shall know:
   Justice shall guard his throne above,
   And peace abound below.

4 To us a Child of hope is born,
   To us a Son is given;
   The Wonderful, the Counselor,
   The mighty Lord of heaven.

277. "Joy to the world!"

1 Joy to the world! The Lord is come!
   Let earth receive her King;
   Let every heart prepare him room,
   And heaven and nature sing.

2 Joy to the world! The Saviour reigns!
   Let men their songs employ;
   While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
   Repeat the sounding joy.

3 No more let sin and sorrow grow,
   Nor thorns infest the ground;
   He comes to make his blessings flow
   Far as the curse is found.

4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
   And makes the nations prove
   The glories of his righteousness,
   And wonders of his love.
337. The New Song.—Rev. 5.

1 Behold the glories of the Lamb,
   Amid his Father's throne;
   Prepare new honors for his name,
   And songs before unknown.

2 Let elders worship at his feet,
   The church adore around,
   With vials full of odors sweet,
   And harps of sweeter sound.

3 Those are the prayers of all the saints,
   And these the hymns they raise:
   Jesus is kind to our complaints;
   He loves to hear our praise.

4 Now to the Lamb that once was slain,
   Be endless blessings paid!
Save, glory, joy, remain
For ever on thy head!

5 Thou hast redeemed our souls with blood,
   Hast set the prisoners free,
   Hast made us kings and priests to God,
   And we shall reign with thee.

1 Lift up your heads, eternal gates!
   Unfold, to entertain
   The King of glory; see! he comes
   With his celestial train.

2 Who is this King of glory—who?
   The Lord, for strength renowned;
   In battle mighty; o'er his foes
   Eternal Victor crowned.

3 Lift up your heads, ye gates! unfold,
   In state to entertain
   The King of glory; see! he comes
   With all his shining train.

4 Who is the King of glory—who?
   The Lord of hosts renowned;
   Of glory he alone is King,
   Who is with glory crowned.

387. "Shout unto God with the voice of triumph." Psalm 47.

1 Arise, ye people, and adore;
   Exulting, strike the chord!
   Let all the earth, from shore to shore,
   Confess th' almighty Lord.

2 Glad shouts alound, wide echoing round,
   Th' ascending God proclaim;
   Th' angelic choir respond the sound,
   And shake creation's frame.

3 They sing of death and hell o'erthrown
   In that triumphant hour,
   And God exalts his conquering Son
   To his right hand of power.

4 Oh, shout, ye people, and adore;
   Exulting strike the chord!
   Let all the earth, from shore to shore,
   Confess th' almighty Lord!

1158. "Welcome, each closing year."

1 Awake, ye saints! and raise your eyes,
   And lift your voices high;
   Awake, and praise the sovereign love,
   That shows salvation nigh.

2 Swift on the wings of time it flies,
   Each moment brings it near;
   Then welcome, each declining day!
   Welcome, each closing year!

3 Not many years their round shall run,
   Not many mornings rise,
   Ere all its glories stand revealed
   To our admiring eyes.

4 Ye wheels of nature, speed your course!
   Ye mortal powers, decay!
   Fast as ye bring the night of death,
   Ye bring eternal day.
76. Close of the Sabbath.

1 Softly fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day;
Gently as life's setting sun,
When the Christian's course is run.

2 Peace is on the world abroad;
'Tis the holy peace of God;
Symbol of the peace within,
When the spirit rests from sin.

3 Still the Spirit lingers near,
Where the evening worshiper
Seeks communion with the skies,
Pressing onward to the prize.

4 Saviour, may our Sabbaths be
Days of peace and joy in thee!
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbath ne'er shall close.

206. Confidence in God's Care.—Psalm 23.

1 To thy pastures fair and large,
Heavenly Shepherd, lead thy charge;
And my couch, with tenderest care,
'Mid the springing grass prepare.

2 When I faint with summer's heat,
Thou shalt guide my weary feet
To the streams that, still and slow,
Through the verdant meadows flow.

3 Safe the dreary vale I tread,
By the shades of death o'erspread,
With thy rod and staff supplied—
This my guard, and that my guide.

4 Constant to my latest end,
Thou my footsteps shalt attend;
Thou shalt bid thy hallowed home
Yield me an eternal home.

396. "I know my sheep, and am known of mine."

1 Jesus, Shepherd of the sheep;
Powerful is thine arm to keep
All thy flocks with safest care,
Fed in pastures large and fair.

2 Thee their Guide and Guard they own;
Thee they love, and thee alone:
Thee they follow day by day,
Fearsful lest their feet should stray.

3 Lord, thy helpless sheep behold;
Gather all unto thy fold;
Gently lead the wanderers home;
Watch them, lest again they roam.

4 Bring thy sheep, now far astray,
Lost in Satan's evil way;
Then, the fold and shepherd one,
We shall praise thee round the throne.

416. "Cast thy burden upon the Lord."—Psalm 55.

1 Cast thy burden on the Lord;
Lean thou only on his word:
Ever will he be thy stay,
Though the heavens shall melt away.

2 Ever in the raging storm,
Thou shalt see his cheering form,
Hear his pledge of coming aid:
"It is I, be not afraid."

3 Cast thy burden at his feet;
Linger near his mercy-seat:
He will lead thee by the hand
Gently to the better land.

4 He will gird thee by his power,
In thy weary, fainting hour;
Lean, then, loving, on his word;
Cast thy burden on the Lord.
397. "I lay down my life for the sheep."

1 Shepherd of the ransomed flock,
   Lead us to the shadowing rock,
   Where the cooling waters flow,
   Where the freshening pastures grow.

2 Grant, O Lord, that we may be
   Ever glad to follow thee;
   And with thankful hearts rejoice,
   When we hear thy gracious voice.

3 Saviour, when thy loved ones stray
   From the new and living way,
   Gently call thine own by name;
   All our wand'ring steps reclaim.

4 Through the hours of darksome night
   Keep us in thy watchful sight,
   O'er each deadly foe prevail,
   Let no harm thy fold assail.

5 Jesus, who thy life didst give,
   Dying that thy sheep might live;
   Let us in thy presence rest,
   With eternal comfort blest.

For, should I refuse to sing,
Sure the very stones would speak.

5 O my Saviour! Shield, and Sun,
   Shepherd, Brother, Lord, and Friend—
   Every precious name in one!
   I will love thee without end.

1 'Come, said Jesus' sacred voice,
   Come, and make my paths your choice;
   I will guide you to your home;
   Weary wanderer, hither come!

2 Thou who, homeless and forlorn,
   Long hast borne the proud world's scorn,
   Long hast roamed the barren waste,
   Weary wanderer, hither haste.

3 Ye who, tossed on beds of pain,
   Seek for ease, but seek in vain;
   Ye, by fiercer anguish torn,
   In remorse for guilt who mourn:

4 Hither come! for here is found
   Balm that flows for every wound;
   Peace that ever shall endure,
   Rest eternal, sacred, sure.

1 Source and Giver of repose,
   From thee all my comfort flows:
   Peace and happiness are thine;
   Mine they are, if thou art mine.

2 Thee to praise and thee to know
   Constitute my bliss below;
   Thee to see and thee to love
   Constitute my bliss above.

3 Lord! it is not life to live,
   If thy presence thou deny:
   Lord! if thou thy presence give,
   'Tis no longer death to die.
1145. "Thou wentest forth, for the salvation of Thy people."

1 Like Israel's host to exile driven,
Across the flood the pilgrims fled;
Their hands bore up the ark of Heaven,
And Heaven their trusting footsteps led,
Till on these savage shores they trod,
And won the wilderness for God.

2 Then, when their weary ark found rest,
Another Zion proudly grew;
In more than Judah's glory dressed,
With light that Israel never knew:
From sea to sea her empire spread,
Her temple heaven, and Christ her Head.

3 Then let the grateful church, to-day,
Its ancient rite with gladness keep;
And still our fathers' God display
His kindness, though the fathers sleep:
Oh, bless, as thou hast blessed the past,
While earth, and time, and heaven shall last!
802. "Tis we may not be ashamed at
His coming."
1 And art thou, gracious Master, gone,
A mansion to prepare for me?
Shall I behold thee on thy throne,
And there for ever sit with thee?
Then let the world approve or blame,
I'll triumph in thy glorious name!
2 Should I, to gain the world's applause,
Or to escape its harmless frown,
Refuse to love and plead thy cause,
And make thy people's lot my own,—
What shame would fill me in that day,
When thou thy glory wilt display!
3 No; let the world cast out my name,
And vile account me, if they will;
If to confess the Lord be shame,
I purpose to be viler still:
For thee, my God, I all resign,
Content if I can call thee mine.
4 What transport then shall fill my heart,
When thou my worthless name wilt own;
When I shall see thee as thou art,
And know as I myself am known!
From sin and fear and sorrow free,
My soul shall find its rest in thee.

823. "Thee will I love."
1 Thee will I love, my Strength and Tower,
Thee will I love, my Joy and Crown,
Thee will I love with all my power,
In all my works,—and thee alone;
Thee will I love, till that pure fire
Fills my whole soul with strong desire.
2 In darkness willing I strayed,
I sought thee, yet from thee I roved;
Farwidemy wanderings thoughtswere spread,
Thy creatures more than thee I loved:
And now, if more at length I see,
'Tis through thy light, and comes from thee.
3 I thank thee, uncreated Sun,
That thy bright beams on me have shined;
I thank thee, who hast overthrown
My foes, and healed my wounded mind;
I thank thee, whose enlivening voice
Bids my freed heart in thee rejoice.
4 Thee will I love, my Joy, my Crown;
Thee will I love, my Lord, my God;
Thee will I love beneath thy frown
Or smile, thy scepter or thy rod:
What though my heart and flesh decay.
Thee shall I love in endless day.

1152. "The day is Thine, the night also is Thine."—Psalm 19.
1 Thou art, O God, the life and light
Of all this wondrous world we see:
Its glow by day, its smile by night,
Are but reflections caught from thee;
Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are thine.
2 When day, with farewell beam, delays
Among the opening clouds of even,
And we can almost think we gaze
Through golden vistas into heaven,—
Those lines that make the sun's decline
So soft, so radiant, Lord, are thine.
3 When youthful spring around us breathes,
Thy Spirit warms her fragrant sigh,
And every flower the summer wreathes
Is born beneath thy kindling eye:
Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are thine.

1277. "I know whom I have believed."
1 My Saviour! can it ever be,
And wilt thou deign to smile on me?
Yes! thou wilt own me on that day—
Thou wilt not cast my soul away;
I know in whom I have believed;
I know by whom I am received.
2 'Tis even so, my dying Lord!
Cleansed by thine all-atoning blood,
I venture to believe, that day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away;
Will bring me bliss without alloy,
And consummate and crown my joy.
449. "To Thee for help we cry."

1 Spirit of truth! on this thy day,
   To thee for help we cry,
   To guide us through the dreary way
   Of dark mortality.
2 We ask not, Lord, the cloven flame,
   Or tongues of various tone;
   But long thy praises to proclaim
   With fervor in our own.
3 No heavenly harpings soothe our ear,
   No mystic dreams we share;
   Yet hope to feel thy comfort near,
   And bless thee in our prayer.
4 When tongues shall cease, and power
decay,
   And knowledge empty prove,
   Do thou thy trembling servants stay
   With faith, and hope, and love.

701. Christ above all else.

1 Compared with Christ, in all beside
   No comeliness I see;
   The one thing needful, dearest Lord,
   Is to be one with thee.
2 The sense of thine expiring love
   Into my soul convey;
   Thyself bestow! for thee alone,
   My All in All, I pray.
3 Less than thyself will not suffice
   My comfort to restore;
   More than thyself I can not crave,
   And thou canst give no more.
4 Whate'er consists not with thy love,
   Oh, teach me to resign!
   I'm rich to all th' intents of bliss,
   If thou, O Lord, art mine.

732. Christ is mine.

1 When blest with that transporting view,
   That Jesus died for me,

For this sweet hope what praise is due,
   O God of grace, to thee!
2 And may I hope that Christ is mine?
   That source of every bliss,
   That noblest gift of love divine?
   What wondrous grace is this!
3 My highest praise, alas, how poor!
   How cold my warmest love!
   Dear Saviour, teach me to adore
   As angels do above.
4 Then shall my joyful powers unite
   In more exalted lays,
   And join the happy sons of light
   In everlasting praise.

744. Fullness of Redemption.

1 If thou impart thyself to me,
   No other good I need:
   If thou, the Son, shalt make me free,
   I shall be free indeed.
2 I can not rest till in thy blood
   I full redemption have;
   But thou, through whom I come to God,
   Canst to the utmost save.
3 From sin,—the guilt, the power, the pain,
   Thou wilt redeem my soul:
   Lord, I believe—and not in vain;
   My faith shall make me whole.
4 I, too, with thee, shall walk in white;
   With all thy saints shall prove
   The length, and breadth, and depth, and height
   Of everlasting love.

787. "Saviour, Thyself reveal."

1 Saviour, to me thyself reveal,
   While here on earth I rove;
   Speak to my heart, and let me feel
   The kindling of thy love.
2 With thee conversing, I forget
All time and toil and care;
Labor is rest, and pain is sweet,
If thou, my God, art here.

3 Here, then, my God, be pleased to stay,
And make my heart rejoice;
My bounding heart shall own thy sway,
And echo to thy voice.

4 Thou callest me to seek thy face;
Thy face, O God, I seek,—
Attend the whispers of thy grace,
And hear thee inly speak.

5 Let this my every hour employ,
Till I thy glory see,
Enter into my Master's joy,
And find my heaven in thee.

818. "Now, Lord, I would be Thine alone."

1 As by the light of opening day
The stars are all concealed,
So earthly pleasures fade away
When Jesus is revealed.

2 These pleasures now no longer please,
No more content afford;
Far from my heart joys like these,
For I have seen the Lord.

3 Now, Lord! I would be thine alone,
And wholly live to thee;
But may I hope that thou wilt own
A worthless one like me?

4 Yes; though of sinners I'm the worst,
I can not doubt thy will;
For if thou hadst not loved me first,
I had refused thee still.

1 Spirit of peace! celestial Dove!
How excellent thy praise!
No richer gift than Christian love
Thy gracious power displays.

2 Sweet as the dew on herb and flower
That silently distills,
At evening's soft and balmy hour,
On Zion's fruitful hills,—

3 So, with mild influence from above,
Shall promised grace descend,
Till universal peace and love
O'er all the earth extend!

911. "I dwell with him that is of a humble spirit."

1 Thy home is with the humble, Lord!
The simplest are the best;
Thy lodging is in child-like hearts;
Thou makest there thy rest.

2 Dear Comforter! eternal Love!
If thou wilt stay with me,
Of lowly thoughts and simple ways
I'll build a house for thee.

3 Who made this beating heart of mine
But thou, my heavenly Guest?
Let no one have it, then, but thee,
And let it be thy rest!

1 On, see how Jesus trusts himself
Unto our childish love!
As though by his free ways with us
Our earnestness to prove.

2 His sacred name a common word
On earth he loves to hear;
There is no majesty in him
Which love may not come near.

3 The light of love is round his feet,
His paths are never dim;
And he comes nigh to us when we
Dare not come nigh to him.

4 Let us be simple with him, then,
Not backward, stiff, nor cold,
As though our Bethlehem could be
What Sinai was of old.
239. "I have chosen you."—John 15:16.
1 'Tis not that I did choose thee,
For, Lord, that could not be;
This heart would still refuse thee.
But thou hast chosen me:
Thou from the sin that stained me
Hast made me pure and free;
Of old thou hast ordained me
That I should live to thee.

2 'T was sovereign mercy called me,
And taught my opening mind;
The world had else enthralled me,
To heavenly glories blind.
My heart owns none above thee;
For thy rich grace I thirst;
This knowing, if I love thee,
Thou must have loved me first.

4 Though doubts and griefs assailing
Conceal heaven's fair abode;
Yet now faith's power prevailing
Should stay thy mind on God.

1051. An ancient Sacramental Hymn.
1 O Bread to pilgrims given,
O Food that angels eat,
O Manna sent from heaven,
For heaven-born natures meet!
Give us for thee long pining,
To eat till richly filled;
Till, earth's delights resigning,
Our every wish is stilled!

2 O Water, life-bestowing,
From out the Saviour's heart,
A fountain purely flowing,
A fount of love thou art!
Oh let us, freely tasting,
Our burning thirst assuage!
Thy sweetness, never wasting,
Avails from age to age.

3 Jesus, this feast receiving,
We thee unseen adore;
Thy faithful word believing,
We take—and doubt no more;
Give us, thou true and loving,
On earth to live in thee;
Then, death the vail removing,
Thy glorious face to see!
1031. "Hear, O Israel, I am God, even thy God."

1 On the mountain's top appearing,
   Lo! the sacred herald stands,
   Welcome news to Zion bearing,
   Zion long in hostile lands:
   Mourning captive!
   God himself will loose thy bands.

2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
   Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
   Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
   By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
   Cease thy mourning!
   Zion still is well beloved.

3 God, thy God will now restore thee;
   He himself appears thy Friend;
   All thy foes shall flee before thee;
   Here their boasts and triumphs end:
   Great deliverance
   Zion's King vouchsafes to send.

4 Enemies no more shall trouble,—
   All thy wrongs shall be redressed;
   For thy shame thou shalt have double
   In thy Maker's favor blest:
   All thy conflicts
   End in everlasting rest.

1286. The Judgment welcomed.

1 Lo! he cometh—countless trumpets
   Wake to life the slumbering dead;
   Mid ten thousand saints and angels,
   See their great, exalted Head:
   Hallelujah!
   Welcome, welcome, Son of God!

2 Full of joyful expectation,
   Saints behold the Judge appear!
   Truth and justice go before him—
   Now the joyful sentence hear:
   Hallelujah!
   Welcome, welcome, Judge divine!

3 "Come, ye blessed of my Father,
   Enter into life and joy;
   Banish all your fears and sorrows;
   Endless praise be your employ":
   Hallelujah!
   Welcome, welcome, to the skies!

   DOXOLOGY.

   Great Jehovah, we adore thee,
   God the Father, God the Son,
   God the Spirit, joined in glory
   On the same eternal throne;
   Endless praises
   To Jehovah, Three in One!
201. God a sure Defense.

1 Ye humble souls, approach your God
   With songs of sacred praise;
   For he is good, supremely good,
   And kind are all his ways.

2 All nature owns his guardian care;
   In him we live and move;
   But nobler benefits declare
   The wonders of his love.

3 He gave his well belov'd Son,
   To save our souls from sin;
   'Tis here he makes his goodness known,
   And proves it all divine.

4 To this dear Refuge, Lord, we come,
   And here our hope relies;
   A safe defense, a peaceful home,
   When storms of trouble rise.

5 Thine eye beholds, with kind regard,
   The souls who trust in thee;
   Their humble hope thou wilt reward
   With bliss divinely free.

6 Great God! to thine almighty love
   What honors shall we raise?
   Not all the raptured songs above
   Can render equal praise.

323. "The Love of Christ constraineth us."

1 Jesus, in thy transporting name
   What blissful glories rise!
   Jesus—the angels' sweetest theme!
   The wonder of the skies!

2 Well might the skies with wonder view
   A love so strange as thine!
   No thought of angels ever knew
   Compassion so divine!

3 Jesus, and didst thou leave the sky
   To bear our sins and woes?
   And didst thou bleed, and groan, and die
   For vile, rebellious foes?

4 Is there a heart that will not bend
   To thy divine control?
   Descend, O sovereign Love, descend
   And melt the stubborn soul!

5 Oh, may our willing hearts confess
   Thy sweet, thy gentle sway!
   Glad captives of resistless grace,
   Thy pleasing rule obey.

6 Come, dearest Lord, extend thy reign,
   Till rebels rise no more;
   Thy praise all nature then shall join,
   And heaven and earth adore.

1134. "They come, they come—thine exiled bands."

1 Daughter of Zion! from the dust
   Exalt thy fallen head;
   Again in thy Redeemer trust;
   He calls thee from the dead.

2 Awake, awake! put on thy strength,
   Thy beautiful array;
   The day of freedom dawns at length,
   The Lord's appointed day.

3 Rebuild thy walls, thy bounds enlarge,
   And send thy heralds forth;
   Say to the south, "Give up thy charge,"
   And keep not back, O north!

4 They come, they come!—thine exiled bands,
   Where'er they rest or roam,
   Have heard thy voice in distant lands,
   And hasten to their home.

5 Thus, though the universe shall burn,
   And God his works destroy,
   With songs thy ransomed shall return,
   And everlasting joy.
870. Blessedness of the Communion of Saints.

1 Happy the souls to Jesus joined,
   And saved by grace alone;
   Walking in all his ways, they find
   Their heaven on earth begun.

2 The church triumphant in thy love,—
   Their mighty joys we know:
   They sing the Lamb in hymns above,
   And we, in hymns below.

3 Thee, in thy glorious realm, they praise,
   And bow before thy throne:
   We, in the kingdom of thy grace;—
   The kingdoms are but one.

4 The holy to the holiest leads;
   From thence our spirits rise:
   And he that in thy statutes treads
   Shall meet thee in the skies.

871. "Of one heart and of one soul."

1 Blest be the dear, uniting love,
   That will not let us part:
   Our bodies may far off remove;
   We still are one in heart.

2 Joined in one spirit to our head,
   Where he appoints we go;
   We still in Jesus' footsteps tread,
   And show his praise below.

3 Oh, may we ever walk in him,
   And nothing know beside!
   Nothing desire, nothing esteem,
   But Jesus crucified!

4 Partakers of the Saviour's grace,
   The same in mind and heart,
   Not joy, nor grief, nor time, nor place,
   Nor life, nor death, can part.

873. "Sympathy like that of Christ."

1 Father of mercies, send thy grace,
   All-powerful from above,
   To form in our obedient souls
   The image of thy love.

2 Oh, may our sympathizing breasts
   That generous pleasure know,
   Kindly to share in others' joy,
   And weep for others' woe!

3 When poor and helpless sons of grief
   In deep distress are laid,
   Soft be our hearts their pains to feel,
   And swift our hands to aid.

4 So Jesus looked on dying men,
   When throned above the skies,
   And in the Father's bosom blest,
   He felt compassion rise.

5 On wings of love the Saviour flew,
   To raise us from the ground,
   And made the richest of his blood
   A balm for every wound!

883. "They shall be as Mount Zion."—Psalm 125.

1 Unshaken as the sacred hill,
   And fixed as mountains be,
   Firm as a rock the soul shall rest,
   That legs, O Lord, on thee!

2 Not walls, nor hills, could guard so well
   Old Salem's happy ground,
   As those eternal arms of love,
   That every saint surround.

3 Deal gently, Lord, with souls sincere,
   And lead them safely on
   To the bright gates of paradise,
   Where Christ, their Lord, is gone.

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   One God, whom we adore,
   Be glory as it was, is now,
   And shall be evermore!

1 Flow fast, my tears! the cause is great; This tribute claims an injured Friend—One whom I long pursued with hate, And yet he loved me to the end.

2 Fast flow my tears,—yet faster flow! Stream copious as ye purple tide; 'Twas I that dealt the deadly blow; I urged the hand that pierced his side.

3 Fast, and yet faster flow my tears! Love breaks the heart, and drowns the eyes; His visage marred toward heaven he rears, And, pleading for his murderers, dies!

783. Unto Jesus.

1 See a poor sinner, dearest Lord, Whose soul, encouraged by thy word, At mercy's footstool would remain, And then would look,—and look again.

2 Ah! bring a wretched wanderer home, Now to thy footstool let me come, And tell thee all my grief and pain, And wait and look,—and look again!

3 Take courage, then, my trembling soul; One look from Christ will make thee whole: Trust thou in him, 'tis not in vain, But wait and look,—and look again.

4 Look to the Lord, his word, his throne; Look to his grace, and not your own; There wait and look, and look again; You shall not wait, nor look in vain.

5 Ere long that happy day will come, When I shall reach my blissful home; And when to glory I attain, Oh, then I'll look,—and look again!

984. "Return unto thy rest, O my soul."—Ps. 116.

1 Return, my soul, unto thy rest, From vain pursuits and maddening cares, From lonely woes that wring thy breast, The world's alluring, fatal snares.

2 Return unto thy rest, my soul, From all the wanderings of thy thought, From sickness unto death made whole, Safe through a thousand perils brought.

3 Then to thy rest, my soul, return, From passions every hour at strife; Sin's works and ways and wages spurn; Lay hold upon eternal life.

4 God is thy Rest; with heart inclined To keep his word, that word believe; Christ is thy Rest; with lowly mind, His light and easy yoke receive.

1 Great Shepherd of thine Israel, Who didst between the cherubs dwell, And lead the tribes, thy chosen sheep, Safe through the desert and the deep!

2 Thy church is in the desert now; Shine from on high, and guide us thro'; Turn us to thee, thy love restore: We shall be saved, and sigh no more.

3 Hast thou not planted with thy hand A lovely vine in this our land? Did not thy power defend it round, And heavenly dew enrich the ground?

4 How did the spreading branches shoot, And bless the nations with their fruit? But now, O Lord, look down and see Thy mourning vine, that lovely tree.

5 Return, almighty God, return! Nor let thy bleeding vineyard mourn: Turn us to thee, thy love restore; We shall be saved, and sigh no more!
497. No Hope in the Grave.

1 While life prolongs its precious light,
   Mercy is found, and peace is given:
   But soon, ah! soon, approaching night
   Shall blot out every hope of heaven.

2 While God invites, how blest the day!
   How sweet the gospel's charming sound!
   Come, sinners, haste, oh, haste away,
   While yet a pardoning God he's found.

3 Soon, borne on time's most rapid wing,
   Shall death command you to the grave,
   Before his bar your spirits bring,
   And none be found to hear or save.

4 In that lone land of deep despair
   No Sabbath's heavenly light shall rise;
   No God regard your bitter prayer,
   Nor Saviour call you to the skies.

5 Now God invites—how blest the day!
   How sweet the gospel's charming sound!
   Come, sinners, haste, oh, haste away,
   While yet a pardoning God is found.

581. Who shall deliver me?

1 On that my load of sin were gone!
   Oh that I could at last submit
   At Jesus' feet to lay it down—
   To lay my soul at Jesus' feet!

2 Rest for my soul I long to find:
   Saviour of all, if mine thou art,
   Give me thy meek and lowly mind,
   And stamp thine image on my heart.

3 Break off the yoke of inbred sin,
   And fully set my spirit free;
   I can not rest, till pure within—
   Till I am wholly lost in thee.

4 Fain would I learn of thee, my God;
   Thy light and easy burden prove,—
   The cross all stained with hallowed blood,
   The labor of thy dying love.

5 I would—but thou must give the power;
   My heart from every sin release:
   Bring near, bring near the joyful hour,
   And fill me with thy perfect peace!

724. "All things but loss for Christ."

1 No more, my God, I boast no more
   Of all the duties I have done;
   I quit the hopes I held before,
   To trust the merits of thy Son.

2 Now, for the love I bear his name,
   What was my gain, I count my loss;
   My former pride I call my shame,
   And nail my glory to his cross.

3 Yes; and I must and will esteem
   All things but loss for Jesus' sake;
   Oh, may my soul be found in him,
   And of his righteousness partake!

4 The best obedience of my hands
   Dares not appear before thy throne;
   But faith can answer thy demands
   By pleading what my Lord has done.

955. "He is my defense: I shall not be moved."

1 My spirit looks to God alone;
   My rock and refuge is his throne;
   In all my fears, in all my straits,
   My soul on his salvation waits.

2 Trust him, ye saints, in all your ways;
   Pour out your hearts before his face;
   When helpers fail, and foes invade,
   God is our all-sufficient Aid.

DOXOLOGY.

Glory to thee, O God, most high!
   Father, we praise thy majesty!
   The Son, the Spirit, we adore,
   One Godhead, blest for evermore!
64. Evening Twilight.

1 I love to steal, awhile, away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.

2 I love, in solitude, to shed
The penitential tear;
And all his promises to plead,
Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore;
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.

4 I love, by faith, to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.

5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er,
May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day!

1 When God revealed his gracious name,
And changed my mournful state,
My rapture seemed a pleasing dream,
The grace appeared so great.

2 The world beheld the glorious change,
And did thy hand confess;
My tongue broke out in unknown strains,
And sung surprising grace.

3 The Lord can clear the darkest skies,
Can give us day for night;
Make drops of sacred sorrow rise
To rivers of delight.

4 Let those that sow in sadness wait
Till the fair harvest come;

As they shall confess their sheaves are great,
And shout the blessings home.

424. "In all points tempted like as we are."

1 Wrin joy we meditate the grace
Of our High Priest above;
His heart is made of tenderness—
It melts with pitying love.

2 Touched with a sympathy within,
He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean,
For he hath felt the same.

3 He, in the days of feeble flesh,
Poured out his cries and tears;
And, in his measure, feels afresh
What every member bears.

4 He'll never quench the smoking flax,
But raise it to a flame;
The bruised reed he never breaks,
Nor scorns the meanest name.

5 Then let our humble faith address
His mercy and his power;
We shall obtain delivering grace
In the distressing hour.

488. "Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet."

1 How precious is the book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

3 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way;
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.
976. "We are more than conquerors."
Rom. 8: 35—39.
1 Who, who can part our ransomed souls
From Jesus and his love;
Or break the sacred chain that binds
The earth to heaven above?
2 Let troubles rise, and terrors frown,
And days of darkness fall;—
Through him all dangers we'll defy,
And more than conquer all.
3 Nor death, nor life, nor earth, nor hell,
Nor time's destroying sway,
Can e'er efface us from his heart,
Or make his love decay.
4 Each coming period he will bless,
As he hath blessed the past;
He loved us from the first of time,—
He loves us to the last.

1015. "His grace was not in vain."
1 Amazing grace! (how sweet the sound!)
That saved a wretch like me:
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.
2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved:
How precious did that grace appear,
The hour I first believed!
3 Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

1106. "Neither do I condemn thee."
1 On, if thy brow, serene and calm,
From earthily stain is free,
View not with scorn the erring one,—
He once was pure like thee.
2 Oh, if the smiles of love are thine,
Its joyous ecstacy,
Shun not the poor, forsaken one,—
He once was loved like thee!
3 And still, 'mid shame, and guilt, and woe,
One being loves him still,
Who, blessing thee, hath poured on him
The world's extremest ill.
4 He knows the secret lure which led
Those youthful steps astray;
He knows that they who holiest are
Might fall from him away.
5 Then, with the love of him who said,
"Go thou, and sin no more,"
Save, save the sinner from despair,
And peace and hope restore!

1260. "In my Father's house are many mansions."
1 When I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies,
I bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.
2 Should earth against my soul engage,
And hellish darts be hurled,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.
3 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
And storms of sorrow fall;
May I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all,—
4 There shall I bathe my weary soul
In seas of heavenly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

Doxology.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore!
502. The constraining Love of Christ.

1 O Love divine, what hast thou done!
The Lord of life hath died for me!
The Father's coeternal Son
Bore all my sins upon the tree:
Th' incarnate God for me hath died;
The Lord, my Love, was crucified.

2 Sinners, behold, as ye pass by,
The bleeding Prince of life and peace,
Come, sinners, see your Saviour die,
And say, was ever grief like his!
Come, feel with me his blood applied;
The Lord, my Love, was crucified;

3 Was crucified for you and me,
To bring us, rebels, back to God;
Salvation now for us is free;
His church is purchased with his blood:
Pardon and life flow from his side;
The Lord, my Love, is crucified.

4 Then let us sit beneath his cross,
And gladly catch the healing stream;
All things for him account but dross,
And give up all our hearts to him:
Of nothing think or speak beside—
The Lord, my Love, is crucified.

631. The returning Wanderer.

1 Weary of wandering from my God,
And now made willing to return,
I hear, and bow beneath the rod;
For thee, not without hope, I mourn:
I have an Advocate above,
A Friend before the throne of love.

2 O Jesus, full of truth and grace!
More full of grace than I of sin;
Yet once again I seek thy face,
Open thine arms and take me in;
And freely my backslidings bear,
And love the faithless sinner still.

3 Thou know'st the way to bring me back,
My fallen spirit to restore;
Oh, for thy truth and mercy's sake,
Forgive, and bid me sin no more!
The ruins of my soul repair,
And make my heart a house of prayer.

704. Longing to follow Christ.

1 More hard than marble is my heart,
And foul with sins of deepest stain;
But thou the mighty Saviour art,
Nor flowed thy cleansing blood in vain:
Ah, soften, melt this rock, and may
Thy blood wash all these stains away!

2 Oh that I, as a little child,
May follow thee, and never rest,
Till sweetly thou hast breathed thy mild
And lowly mind into my breast!
May I be one, O Lord, with thee,
And never parted may we be.

3 Still let thy love point out my way:
How wondrous things that love hath wrought!
Still lead me, lest I go astray;
Direct my word, inspire my thought:
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know thy love is near.

4 In suffering be thy love my peace;
In weakness be thy love my power;
And, when the storms of life shall cease,
Jesus! in that momentous hour,
In death, as life, be thou my guide,
And save me, who for me hast died!
253. Christ All in All.

1 Thou hidden Source of calm repose,
Thou all-sufficient Love Divine,
My help and refuge from my foes,
Secure I am, if thou art mine!
And lo! from sin, and grief, and shame,
I hide me, Jesus, in thy name.

2 Jesus, my All in All thou art,
My rest in toil, my case in pain;
The healing of my broken heart;
In strife, my peace; in loss, my gain;
My smile beneath the tyrant's frown;
In shame, my glory and my crown;—

3 In want, my plentiful supply;
In weakness, my almighty power;
In bonds, my perfect liberty;
My light, in Satan's darkest hour;
Thee, in each grief, my joy I call;
My life in death, my All in All!

When vexed with care, bowed down with grief,
Where else could I obtain relief?

And is it not my chief desire
To feel as if a stranger here?
Do not my hopes and thoughts aspire
Beyond this transitory sphere?
And art thou not, while here I roam,
My hope, my hiding-place, my home?

Oh, yes! these things are ever true;
Thy promise is for ever sure;
And all I now am passing through,
And all that I may still endure,
Will but endear thy word to me,
And draw me nearer, Lord, to thee.

And now on thee I cast my soul,
Come life or death, come ease or pain;
Thy presence can each fear control,
Thy grace can to the end sustain;
Those whom thou lovest, heavenly Friend,
Thou lovest even to the end!

662. Thou hidden Love of God.

1 Thou hidden Love of God, whose height,
Whose depth unfathomed, no man knows,
I see from far thy beauteous light;
Inly I sigh for thy repose:
My heart is pained, nor can it be
At rest, till it finds rest in thee!

2 Is there a thing beneath the sun,
That strives with thee my heart to share?
Ah! tear it thence, and reign alone,
The Lord of every motion there:
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it has found repose in thee!

3 Lord, arm me with thy Spirit's might,
Since I am called by thy great name:
In thee let all my thoughts unite,
Of all my works be thou the aim;
Thy love attend me all my days,
And all my pleasure be thy praise!

917. Prayer for Likeness to God.

1 Now, O my God, thou hast my soul;
No longer mine, but thine I am;
Guard thou thine own, possess the whole;
Cheer it with hope, with love in flame:
To thee, the Lord of earth and skies,
I come a living sacrifice.

2 Send down thy likeness from above,
And this let my adorning be:
Clothe me with wisdom, patience, love,
With lowliness and purity,—
Than gold and pearls more precious far,
And brighter than the morning star.

3 Lord, arm me with thy Spirit's might,
Since I am called by thy great name:
In thee let all my thoughts unite,
Of all my works be thou the aim;
Thy love attend me all my days,
And all my pleasure be thy praise!

1 Hark! what mean those holy voices,
   Sweetly sounding through the skies?
Lo! th' angelic host rejoices;
   Heavenly hallelujahs rise.

2 Hear them tell the wondrous story,
   Hear them chant in hymns of joy:
   "Glory in the highest, glory!
   Glory be to God most high!

3 "Peace on earth, good-will from heaven,
   Reaching far as man is found;
   Souls redeemed, and sins forgiven!
   Load our golden harps shall sound.

4 "Christ is born, the great Anointed;
   Heaven and earth his praises sing!
   Oh, receive whom God appointed
   For your Prophet, Priest, and King!

5 "Haste, ye mortals, to adore him;
   Learn his name, and taste his joy:
   Till in heaven ye sing before him,
   'Glory be to God most high!'"

371. Worship of the living Christ.

1 Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory,
   There for ever to abide;
All the heavenly hosts adore thee,
   Seated at thy Father's side.

2 There for sinners thou art pleading,
   There thou dost our place prepare;
Ever for us interceding,
   Till in glory we appear.

3 Worship, honor, power, and blessing,
   Thou art worthy to receive;
Loudest praises, without ceasing,
   Meet it is for us to give.

4 Help, ye bright angelic spirits!
   Bring your sweetest, noblest lays:
Help to sing our Saviour's merits;
   Help to chant Immanuel's praise.

649. "I would love Thee."

1 I would love thee, God and Father!
   My Redeemer, and my King!
I would love thee; for, without thee,
   Life is but a bitter thing.

2 I would love thee; every blessing
   Flows to me from out thy throne;
I would love thee—he who loves thee
   Never feels himself alone.

3 I would love thee; look upon me,
   Ever guide me with thine eye;
I would love thee; if not nourished
   By thy love, my soul would die.

4 I would love thee; may thy brightness
   Dazzle my rejoicing eyes!
I would love thee; may thy goodness
   Watch from heaven o'er all I prize.

5 I would love thee, I have vowed it;
   On thy love my heart is set:
While I love thee, I will never
   My Redeemer's blood forget.

1102. "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse."

1 With my substance I will honor
   My Redeemer and my Lord;
Were ten thousand worlds my manor,
   All were nothing to his word.
2 While the heralds of salvation
   His abounding grace proclaim,
Let his friends, of every station,
   Gladly join to spread his fame.

3 Be his kingdom now promoted,
   Let the earth her Monarch know;
Be my all to him devoted;
   To my Lord my all I owe.

4 Praise the Saviour, all ye nations!
   Praise him, all ye hosts above!
Shout, with joyful acclamations,
   His divine, victorious love!

677. "Under His wings shalt thou trust." Psalm 91.

1 Call the Lord thy sure salvation,
   Rest beneath th' Almighty's shade;
In his secret habitation
   Dwell, and never be dismayed!

2 There no tumult can alarm thee,
   Thou shalt dread no hidden snare;
Guile nor violence can harm thee,
   In eternal safeguard there.

3 Thee, tho' winds and waves are swelling,
   God, thy Hope, shall bear through all;
Plague shall not come nigh thy dwelling,
   Thee no evil shall befall.

4 He shall charge his angel legions
   Watch and ward o'er thee to keep,
Though thou walk thro' hostile regions,
   Though in desert wilds thou sleep.

5 Since, with firm and pure affection,
   Thou on God hast set thy love,
With the wings of his protection
   He shall shield thee from above.

1023. "Zion, city of our God."

1 Glorious things of thee are spoken,
   Zion, city of our God;
He whose word can ne'er be broken
   Chose thee for his own abode.

2 Lord, thy church is still thy dwelling,
   Still is precious in thy sight;
Judah's temple far excelling,
   Beaming with the gospel's light.

3 On the Rock of Ages founded,
   What can shake her sure repose?
With salvation's wall surrounded,
   She can smile at all her foes.

4 Glorious things of thee are spoken,
   Zion, city of our God;
He whose word can ne'er be broken
   Chose thee for his own abode.

426. "And the Light shineth in darkness."

1 Light of those whose dreary dwelling
   Borders on the shades of death!
Rise on us, thyself revealing,
   Rise and clase the clouds beneath.

2 Thou, of heaven and earth Creator!
   In our deepest darkness rise;
Scatter all the night of nature;
   Pour the day upon our eyes.

3 Still we wait for thine appearing;
   Life and joy thy beams impart,
Chasing all our fears, and cheering
   Every poor, benighted heart.

4 By thine all-sufficient merit,
   Every burdened soul release;
Every weary, wandering spirit,
   Guide into thy perfect peace.
205. "I will sing praise to my God, while I have my being."

1 Yes, I will bless thee, O my God! Through all my earthly days; And to eternity prolong Thy vast, thy boundless praise.

2 In every smiling, happy hour, Be this my sweet employ; Thy praise refines my earthly bliss, And doubles all my joy.

3 When gloomy care, and keen distress Afflict my throbbing breast, Thy praise shall mingle with my tears, And lull each pain to rest.

4 Nor shall my tongue alone proclaim The honors of my God: My life, with all its active powers, Shall spread thy praise abroad.

5 Nor death itself shall stop my song, Though it will close my eyes; My thoughts shall then to nobler heights, And sweeter raptures rise.

6 There shall my lips in endless praise Their grateful tribute pay; The theme demands an angel's tongue, And an eternal day.

959. "All things are yours."—1 Cor. 3: 22.

1 If God is mine, then present things And things to come are mine; Yea, Christ, his word, and Spirit, too, And glory all divine.

2 If he is mine, then from his love He every trouble sends; All things are working for my good, And bliss his rod attends.

3 If he is mine, I need not fear The rage of earth and hell; He will support my feeble power, Their utmost force repel.

4 If he is mine, let friends forsake, Let wealth and honors flee: Sure, he who giveth me himself, Is more than these to me.

5 If he is mine, I'll boldly pass Through death's dark, lonely vale: He is my comfort and my stay, When heart and flesh shall fail.

6 Oh, tell me, Lord, that thou art mine; What can I wish beside?
HEBER. C. M.

My soul shall at the fountain live,
When all the streams are dried.

1 Calm, on the listening ear of night,
   Come heaven's melodious strains,
   Where wild Judea stretches far
   Her silver-mantled plains.
2 Celestial choirs, from courts above,
   "Mid sacred glories there;
   And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
   Make music on the air.
3 The answering hills of Palestine
   Send back the glad reply;
   And greet, from all their holy heights,
   The day-spring from on high.
4 O'er the blue depths of Galilee
   There comes a holier calm;
   And Sharon waves, in solemn praise
   Her silent groves of palm.
5 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
   Load with their anthems ring;
   "Peace to the earth—good will to men,
   From heaven's eternal King."

905. "Think gently of the erring."
1 Think gently of the erring one!
   And let us not forget,
   However darkly stained by sin,
   He is our brother yet.
2 Heir of the same inheritance,
   Child of the selfsame God;
   He hath but stumbled in the path,
   We have in weakness trod.
3 Speak gently to the erring one;
   Thou yet may'st lead him back,
   With holy words, and tones of love,
   From misery's thorny track.
4 Forget not thou hast often sinned,
   And sinful yet must be:
   Deal gently with the erring one,
   As God has dealt with thee.

951. "I will joy in the God of my salvation."
   Hab. 3: 17, 18.
1 What though no flowers the fig-tree clothe,
   Though vines their fruit deny,
   The labor of the olive fail,
   And fields no meat supply;
2 Though from the fold, with sad surprise,
   My flock cut off I see;
   Though famine pine in empty stalls,
   Where herds were wont to be;
3 Yet in the Lord will I be glad,
   And glory in his love;
   In him I'll joy, who will the God
   Of my salvation prove.
4 God is the treasure of my soul,
   The source of lasting joy;
   A joy which want shall not impair,
   Nor death itself destroy.

1 Happy the heart where graces reign,
   Where love inspires the breast;
   Love is the brightest of the train,
   And strengthens all the rest.
2 Knowledge—alas! 'tis all in vain,
   And all in vain our fear;
   Our stubborn sins will fight and reign,
   If love be absent there.
3 This is the grace that lives and sings,
   When faith and hope shall cease;
   'Tis this shall strike our joyful strings,
   In realms of endless peace.
4 Before we quite forsake our clay,
   Or leave this dark abode,
784. "Still with Thee."—Psalm 139.

1 Still with thee, O my God,
   I would desire to be;
By day, by night, at home, abroad,
   I would be still with thee:
2 With thee, when dawn comes in,
   And calls me back to care;
Each day returning to begin
   With thee, my God, in prayer:
3 With thee, amid the crowd
   That throngs the busy mart,
To hear thy voice, 'mid clamor loud,
   Speak softly to my heart:
4 With thee, when day is done,
   And evening calms the mind:
The setting as the rising sun
   With thee my heart would find:
5 With thee, when darkness brings
   The signal of repose;
Calm in the shadow of thy wings,
   Mine eyelids I would close;
6 With thee, in thee, by faith
   Abiding I would be;
By day, by night, in life, in death,
   I would be still with thee.

977. "If God be for us, who can be against us?"

1 Here I can firmly rest;
   I dare to boast of this,
That God, the highest and the best,
   My Friend and Father is.
2 In me he ever dwells;
   O'er all my mind he reigns;
All care and sadness he dispels,
   And soothes away my pains.
3 At cost of all I have,—
   At cost of life and limb,
I cling to God, who yet shall save;
   I will not turn from him.
4 The world may fail and flee;
   Thou, God, my Father art;
Not fire, nor sword, nor plague, from thee
   My trusting soul shall part.
5 No joys that angels know;
   No throne nor wide-spread fame,
No love nor loss, nor fear nor woe,—
   No grief of heart or shame—
6 Man can not aught conceive,
   Of pleasure or of harm,
That e'er shall tempt my soul to leave
   Her refuge in thine arm.

1263. "There remaineth therefore a rest."

1 And is there, Lord, a rest
   For weary souls designed,
Where not a care shall stir the breast,
   Or sorrow entrance find?
2 Is there a blissful home,
   Where kindred minds shall meet,
And live, and love, nor ever roam
   From that serene retreat?
3 Are there bright, happy fields,
   Where naught that blooms shall die;
Where each new scene fresh pleasure yields,
   And healthful breezes sigh?
4 Are there celestial streams,
   Where living waters glide,
With murmurs sweet as angel dreams,
   And flowery banks beside?
5 For ever blessed they,
   Whose joyous feet shall stand,
While endless ages waste away,
   Amid that glorious land!
THE SABBATH HYMN AND TUNE BOOK.

BOYLSTON. S. M.

6 My soul would thither tend,
   While toilsome years are given;
Then let me, gracious God, ascend
   To sweet repose in heaven!

1017. "I love thy kingdom, Lord."

1 I love thy kingdom, Lord—
The house of thine abode,
The church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood.

2 I love thy church, O God!
Her walls before thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thy hand.

3 For her my tears shall fall,
   For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
   Till toils and cares shall end.

4 Beyond my highest joy
   I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
   Her hymns of love and praise.

5 Jesus, thou Friend divine,
   Our Saviour and our King,
Thy hand from every snare and foe
   Shall great deliverance bring.

6 Sure as thy truth shall last,
   To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,
   And brighter bliss of heaven.

1002. "That we should be called the sons of God."

1 Behold, what wondrous grace
The Father has bestowed
On sinners of a mortal race,
   To call them sons of God!

2 Nor doth it yet appear
   How great we must be made;
But when we see our Saviour here,
   We shall be like our Head.

3 A hope so much divine
   May trials well endure;
May purify our souls from sin,
   As Christ, the Lord, is pure.

4 If in my Father's love
   I share a filial part,
Send down thy Spirit, like a dove,
   To rest upon my heart.

5 We would no longer lie
   Like slaves beneath the throne;
Our faith shall "Abba, Father," cry,
   And thou the kindred own.

773. Living by Faith only.

1 If through unruffled seas
   Toward heaven we calmly sail,
With grateful hearts, O God, to thee,
   We'll own the fostering gale.

2 But should the surges rise,
   And rest delay to come,
Blest be the sorrow, kind the storm,
   Which drives us nearer home.

3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
   All yield to thy control;
Thy tender mercies shall illumine
   The midnight of the soul.

4 Teach us, in every state,
   To make thy will our own;
And, when the joys of sense depart,
   To live by faith alone.

Doxology.

The Father and the Son
And Spirit we adore;
We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
   Both now and evermore!
OLDEN. L. M.

292.  The Conflict.
1 'T is midnight, and, on Olive's brow,
The star is dimmed that lately shone;
'T is midnight; in the garden now
The suffering Saviour prays alone.

2 'T is midnight; and, from all removed,
The Saviour wrestles lone with fears;
Ev'n that disciple whom he loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.

3 'T is midnight; and, for others' guilt,
The Man of sorrows weeps in blood;
Yet he, who hath in anguish knelt,
Is not forsaken by his God.

4 'T is midnight,—and from ether-plains
Is borne the song that angels know:
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

767.  Fear of denying Christ.—Matt. 10: 33.
1 Deny thee? what! deny the way
That leads to heaven's eternal day?
Deny the Shepherd who will keep
Within the fold his wandering sheep?

2 Deny thee, Lord! then who will bear
My grief, my burden, and my care?
Thou, thou alone canst calm my breast,
And bid its weary throbblings rest.

3 In heaven above, on earth below,
Where, save to thee, Lord, could I go?
Where fly for strength, 'mid mortal strife?
Thou hast the words of endless life.

4 My Strength, my Guide vouchsafes to be,
I can do nothing without thee;
Save me in every trying hour,
Thou God of mercy, life, and power!

843.  The blessed Hour.
1 Blest hour! when mortal man retires
To hold communion with his God,
To send to heaven his warm desires,
And listen to the sacred word.

2 Blest hour! when God himself draws nigh,
Well pleased his people's voice to hear,
To hush the penitential sigh,
And wipe away the mourner's tear.

3 Blest hour! for, where the Lord resorts,
Foretastes of future bliss are given,
And mortals find his earthly courts
The house of God,—the gate of heaven.

4 Hail, peaceful hour! supremely blest,
Amid the hours of worldly care,
The hour that yields the spirit rest,
That sacred hour—the hour of prayer.

5 And when my hours of prayer are past,
And this frail tenement decays,
Then may I spend in heaven at last
A never-ending hour of praise.
531. "Fear not; I have redeemed thee."

1 Come, weary souls, with sin distressed.
   Come, and accept the promised rest;
   The Saviour's gracious call obey,
   And cast your gloomy fears away.

2 Oppressed with guilt,—a painful load,—
   Oh, come and bow before your God!
   Divine compassion, mighty love
   Will all the painful load remove.

3 Here mercy's boundless ocean flows,
   To cleanse your guilt and heal your woes;
   Pardon, and life, and endless peace—
   How rich the gift! how free the grace!

4 Dear Saviour! let thy powerful love
   Confirm our faith, our fears remove;
   Oh, sweetly reign in every breast,
   And guide us to eternal rest.

564. Giving All to Christ.

1 My Saviour, how shall I proclaim,
   How pay the mighty debt I owe?
   Let all I have, and all I am,
   Ceaseless to all thy glory show.

2 Too much to thee I can not give;
   Too much I can not do for thee;
   Let all thy love, and all thy grief
   Graven on my heart for ever be.

3 The meek, the still, the lowly mind,
   Oh, may I learn from thee, my God!
   And love, with softest pity joined,
   For those that trample on thy blood!

4 Still let thy tears, thy groans, thy sighs
   Overflow my eyes, and heave my breast;
   Till, loose from flesh and earth, I rise,
   And ever in thy bosom rest.

822. "I delight to do Thy will, O my God."

1 O Lord, thy heavenly grace impart,
   And fix my frail, inconstant heart;
   Henceforth my chief delight shall be
   To dedicate myself to thee.

2 Whate'er pursueth my time employ,
   One thought shall fill my soul with joy;
   That silent, secret thought shall be,
   That all my hopes are fixed on thee.

3 Thy glorious eye pervadeth space;
   Thy presence, Lord, fills every place;
   And, wheresoe'er my lot may be,
   Still shall my spirit cleave to thee.

4 Renouncing every worldly thing,
   And safe beneath thy sheltering wing,
   My sweetest thought henceforth shall be,
   That all I want I find in thee.

839. "Jesus, and can I call Thee mine?"

1 Lord, when my thoughts delighted rove
   Amid the wonders of thy love,
   Sweet hope revives my drooping heart,
   And bids intruding fears depart.

2 For mortal crimes a sacrifice,
   The Lord of life, the Saviour, dies!
   What love! what mercy! how divine!
   Jesus,—and can I call thee mine?

3 Repentant sorrow fills my heart,
   But mingling joy allays the smart;
   Oh, may my future life declare
   The sorrow and the joy sincere!

4 Be all my heart and all my days
   Devoted to my Saviour's praise;
   And let my glad obedience prove
   How much I owe, how much I love.
367.

"I am He that liveth."

1 Oh, show me not my Saviour dying,
   As on the cross he bled;
   Nor in the tomb a captive lying,
   For he has left the dead.
   Then bid me not that form extended
   For my Redeemer own,
   Who, to the highest heavens ascended,
   In glory fills the throne.

2 Weep not for him at Calvary's station,
   Weep only for thy sins;
   View where he lay with exultation;
   'Tis there our hope begins.
   Yet stay not there, thy sorrows feeding,
   Amid the scenes he trod;
   Look up and see him interceding
   At the right hand of God.

3 Still in the shameful cross I glory,
   Where his dear blood was spilt;
   My soul is melted at the story
   Of him who bore my guilt:
   Yet what, 'mid conflict and temptation,
   Shall strength and succor give?
   He lives, the Captain of salvation!
   Therefore his servants live.

4 By death, he death's dark king defeated,
   And overcame the grave;
   Rising, the triumph he completed:
   He lives, he reigns to save!
   Heaven's happy myriads bow before him;
   He comes, the Judge of men:
   These eyes shall see him and adore him;
   Lord Jesus! own me then.
57.  "Holy rest."

1 Again the day returns of holy rest,
Which, when he made the world, Jehovah blest;
When, like his own, he bade our labors cease,
And all be piety, and all be peace.

2 Let us devote this consecrated day
To learn his will, and all we learn obey;
So shall he hear, when fervently we raise
Our choral harmony in hymns of praise.

3 Father in heaven! in whom our hopes confide,
Whose power defends us, and whose precepts guide;
In life our Guardian, and in death our Friend;
Glory supreme be thine, till time shall end.

1 I thought upon my sins, and I was sad;
   My soul was troubled sore and filled with pain;
But then I thought on Jesus, and was glad—
   My heavy grief was turned to joy again.

2 I thought upon the law, the fiery law,
   Holy, and just, and good in its decree:
I looked to Jesus, and in him I saw
   That law fulfilled, its curse endured for me.

3 I thought I saw an angry, frowning God,
   Sitting as Judge upon the great white throne:
My soul was overwhelmed; then Jesus showed
   His gracious face, and all my dread was gone.

4 I saw my sad estate,—condemned to die;
   Then terror seized my heart, and dark despair;
But when to Calvary I turned my eye,
   I saw the cross, and read forgiveness there.

5 I saw that I was lost, far gone astray;
   No hope of safe return there seemed to be;
But then I heard that Jesus was the way,
   A new and living way prepared for me.

6 Then, in that way, so free, so safe, so sure,
   All sprinkled o'er with reconciling blood,
Will I abide, and never wander more,
   But walk secure, in fellowship with God.
389. "Every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord."—Phil. 2: 5—11.

1 Jesus! exalted far on high,
   To whom a name is given—
   A name surpassing every name,
   That's known in earth or heaven!

2 Before thy throne shall every knee
   Bow down with one accord;
   Before thy throne shall every tongue
   Confess that thou art Lord.

3 Jesus! thou, in the form of God,
   Didst equal honor claim;
   Yet, to redeem our guilty souls,
   Didst stoop to death and shame!

4 Oh, may that mind in us be formed,
   Which shone so bright in thee—
   An humble, meek, and lowly mind,
   From pride and envy free!

5 To others we would stoop, and learn
   To emulate thy love;
   So shall we bear thine image here,
   And share thy throne above.

487. "Thy love is my delight." Psalm 119.

1 Lord, I have made thy word my choice,
   My lasting heritage;
   There shall my noblest powers rejoice,
   My warmest thoughts engage.

2 I'll read the histories of thy love,
   And keep thy laws in sight;
   While through the promises I rove,
   With ever fresh delight.

3 'T is a broad land, of wealth unknown,
   Where springs of life arise,
   Seeds of immortal bliss are sown,
   And hidden glory lies.

4 The best relief that mourners have;
   It makes our sorrows blest;
   Our fairest hope beyond the grave,
   And our eternal rest.

626. Prayer for full Assurance.

1 Eternal Source of joys divine,
   To thee my soul aspires;
   Oh, could I say, "The Lord is mine!"
   'T is all my soul desires.

2 My Hope, my Trust, my Life, my Lord,
   Assure me of thy love;
   Oh, speak the kind, transporting word,
   And bid my fears remove!

3 Then shall my thankful powers rejoice,
   And triumph in my God;
   Till heavenly rapture tune my voice
   To spread thy praise abroad.

644. No Joy without God.

1 God, my supporter and my hope,
   My help for ever near,
   Thine arm of mercy held me up,
   When sinking in despair.

2 Thy counsels, Lord, shall guide my feet
   Through this dark wilderness;
   Thy hand conduct me near thy seat,
   To dwell before thy face.

3 Were I in heaven without my God,
   'T would be no joy to me;
   And while this earth is my abode,
   I long for none but thee.

4 What if the springs of life were broke,
   And flesh and heart should faint?
   God is my soul's eternal rock,
   The strength of every saint.

5 Then, to draw near to thee, my God,
   Shall be my sweet employ;
   My tongue shall sound thy works abroad,
   And tell the world my joy.
826. "Thou art my portion, O Lord!"
Psalm 119.

1 Thou art my portion, O my God;
   Soon as I know thy way,
   My heart makes haste t'obey thy word,
   And suffers no delay.

2 I choose the path of heavenly truth,
   And glory in my choice;
   Not all the riches of the earth
   Could make me so rejoice.

3 The testimonies of thy grace
   I set before mine eyes;
   Thence I derive my daily strength,
   And there my comfort lies.

4 If once I wander from thy path,
   I think upon my ways;
   Then turn my feet to thy commands,
   And trust thy pardoning grace.

5 Now I am thine—for ever thine—
   Oh, save thy servant, Lord!
   Thou art my shield, my hiding-place;
   My hope is in thy word.

944. "Blessed is the man whom Thou chastenest."
Psalm 94.

1 Blest is the man whom thou, O Lord,
   In kindness dost chastise,
   And by thy sacred rules to walk,
   Dost lovingly advise.

2 For God will never from his saints
   His favor wholly take;
   His own possession, and his lot,
   He will not quite forsake.

3 The world shall then confess thee just
   In all that thou hast done;
   And those who choose thy upright path
   Shall in that path go on.

4 My sure defense is firmly placed
   In thee, the Lord most high:

   Thou art my Rock; to thee I may
   For refuge always fly.

1126. "Let the whole earth be filled with His glory."

1 Great God! the nations of the earth
   Are by creation thine;
   And in thy works, by all beheld,
   Thy power and glory shine.

2 But, Lord, thy greater love hath sent
   Thy gospel to mankind,
   Unveiling what rich stores of grace
   Are treasured in thy mind.

3 Oh, when shall these glad tidings spread
   The spacious earth around,
   Till every tribe and every soul
   Shall hear the joyful sound?

4 Smile, Lord, on each divine attempt
   To spread the gospel's rays,
   And build on sin's demolished throne
   The temples of thy praise.

1170. "There is laid up for me a crown of righteousness."—2 Tim. 4: 6-8, 18.

1 Death may dissolve my body now,
   And bear my spirit home:
   Why do my minutes move so slow,
   Nor my salvation come?

2 God has laid up in heaven for me
   A crown which can not fade;
   The righteous Judge, at that great day,
   Shall place it on my head.

3 Jesus, the Lord, shall guard me safe
   From every ill design,
   And to his heavenly kingdom take
   This feeble soul of mine.

4 God is my everlasting Aid,
   My Portion and my Friend;
   To him be highest glory paid,
   Through ages without end!
THE SABBATH HYMN AND TUNE BOOK.

SYLVAN. L. M.

358. "O Death, where is thy sting?"

1 He dies! the Friend of sinners dies!
   Lo! Salem's daughters weep around:
   A solemn darkness vails the skies;
   A sudden trembling shakes the ground.

2 Here's love and grief beyond degree:
   The Lord of glory dies for men!
   But, lo! what sudden joys we see,
   Jesus, the dead, revives again!

3 The rising God forsakes the tomb:
   Up to his Father's court he flies:
   Cherubic legions guard him home,
   And shout him welcome to the skies.

4 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
   How high our great Deliverer reigns;
   Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell,
   And led the tyrant Death in chains.

5 Say, "Live for ever, glorious King,
   Born to redeem, and strong to save!
   Where now, O Death, where is thy sting?
   And where thy victory, boasting Grave?"

375. "We have an Advocate with the Father."

1 Where is my God?—does he retire
   Beyond the reach of humble sighs?
   Are these weak breathings of desire
   Too haggard to ascend the skies?

2 Look up, my soul, with cheerful eye!
   See where the great Redeemer stands,
   The glorious Advocate on high,
   With precious incense in his hands.

3 He sweetens every humble groan;
   He recommends each broken prayer;
   Recline thy hope on him alone
   Whose power and love forbid despair.

4 Teach my weak heart, O gracious Lord,
   With stronger faith to call thee mine;
   Bid me pronounce the blissful word,
   My Father—God, with joy divine.

628. Past Joys remembered.

1 On, where is now that glowing love,
   That marked our union with the Lord?
   Our hearts were fixed on things above,
   Nor could the world a joy afford.

2 Where is the zeal that led us then
   To make our Saviour's glory known?
   That freed us from the fear of men,
   And kept our eye on him alone?

3 Where are the happy seasons spent
   In fellowship with him we loved?
   The sacred joy, the sweet content,
   The blessedness that then we proved?

4 Behold! again we turn to thee;
   Oh, cast us not away, though vile!
   No peace we have, no joy we see,
   O Lord our God! but in thy smile.
233. Not that we loved God, but that He loved us.

1 Ere earth's foundations yet were laid,
Or heaven's fair roof was spread abroad;
Ere man a living soul was made,
Love stirred within the heart of God.

2 Thy loving counsel gave to me
True life in Christ, thy only Son,
Whom thou hast made my way to thee,
From whom all grace flows ever down.

3 O Love, that long ere time began,
This precious name of child bestowed;
That opened Heaven on earth to man,
And called us sinners "sons of God!"

4 I am not worthy, Lord, that thou
Shouldst such compassion on me show;
That he who made the world should bow
To cheer with love a wretch so low.

5 Could I but honor thee aright,
Noble and sweet my song should be;
That earth and heaven should learn thy might,
And what my God hath done for me.

975. A good Conscience.

1 Sweet peace of conscience, heavenly guest,
Come, fix thy mansion in my breast;
Dispel my doubts, my fears control,
And heal the anguish of my soul.

2 Come, smiling hope, and joy sincere,
Come, make your constant dwelling here;
Still let your presence cheer my heart,
Nor sin compel you to depart.

3 O God of hope and peace divine,
Make thou these secret pleasures mine;
Forgive my sins, my fears remove,
And fill my heart with joy and love.

1107. "They that go down to the sea in ships."

1 While o'er the deep thy servants sail,
Send thou, O Lord, the prosperous gale;
And on their hearts, where'er they go,
Oh, let thy heavenly breezes blow!

2 If on the morning's wings they fly,
They will not pass beyond thine eye;
The wanderer's prayer thou bendl'st to hear,
And faith exults to know thee near.

3 When tempests rock the groaning bark,
Oh, hide them safe in Jesus' ark!
When in the tempting port they ride,
Oh, keep them safe at Jesus' side!

4 If life's wide ocean smile or roar,
Still guide them to the heavenly shore;
And grant their dust in Christ may sleep.
Abroad, at home, or in the deep.

1258. "The Lamb is the light thereof."

1 On for a sweet, inspiring ray,
To animate our feeble strains,
From the bright realms of endless day—
The blissful realms where Jesus reigns!

2 There, low before his glorious throne,
Adoring saints and angels fall;
And, with delightful worship, own
His smile their bliss, their heaven, their all.

3 Immortal glories crown his head,
While tuneful hallelujahs rise,
And love and joy and triumph spread
Through all th' assemblies of the skies.

4 He smiles,—and raptures tune their songs
To boundless rapture, while they gaze;
Ten thousand thousand joyful tongues
Resound his everlasting praise.

5 There all the followers of the Lamb
Shall join at last the heavenly choir:
Oh, may the joy-inspiring theme
Awake our faith and warm desire!
638. "A divided Heart."—Rom. 7.

1 Our hearts, O Lord, with grief are rent,
   O'er vows made all in vain;
   In anguish daily we repent,
   Each day offend again.

2 Now we arise from death to life,
   Then sink from good to ill;
   Here we begin, there leave our strife,
   And work but half thy will.

3 Oh, help us, Lord, amid all pain,
   As warriors true, to stand
   Faithful and firm, and thus to gain
   Thine own, the better land.

4 Thy land—its gates how bright they shine!
   And let no evil in;
   Thy boundless land, and all divine,
   That hath no room for sin.

5 Thy holy land, where none shall stop
   Our souls upon the road,
   And win our weak desires to drop
   From glory and from God.

6 Oh, rich and priceless is the grace
   That we shall there receive!
   Nor once thine image shall deface,
   Nor once thy spirit grieve.

1 For mercies countless as the sands,
   Which daily I receive
   From Jesus my Redeemer's hands,
   My soul, what canst thou give?

2 Alas! from such a heart as mine,
   What can I bring him forth?
   My best is stained and dyed with sin;
   My all is nothing worth.

3 Yet this acknowledgment I'll make
   For all he has bestowed,
   Salvation's sacred cup I'll take,
   And call upon my God.

4 The best return for one like me,
   So wretched and so poor,
   Is from his gifts to draw a plea,
   And ask him still for more.

5 I can not serve him as I ought;
   No works have I to boast;
   Yet would I glory in the thought,
   That I shall owe him most.

770. "Haste Thee to help me."—Psalm 22.

1 Oh, help us, Lord!—each hour of need
   Thy heavenly succor give;
   Help us in thought, and word, and deed,
   Each hour on earth we live.

2 Oh, help us when our spirits bleed,
   With contrite anguish sore;
   And when our hearts are cold and dead,
   Oh, help us, Lord, the more!

3 Oh, help us, through the prayer of faith,
   More firmly to believe!
   For still the more the servant hath,
   The more shall he receive.

4 Oh, help us, Jesus! from on high;
   We know no help but thee;
   Oh, help us so to live and die,
   As thine in heaven to be!

807. Imitation of Christ in His Humiliation.

1 A pilgrim through this lonely world,
   The blessed Saviour passed;
   A mourner all his life was he,
   A dying Lamb at last.

2 That tender heart which felt for all,
   For us its life-blood gave;
   It found on earth no resting-place,
   Save only in the grave!

3 Such was our Lord; and shall we fear
   The cross with all its scorn?
   Or love a faithless, evil world,
   That wreathed his brow with thorn?
4 No: facing all its frowns or smiles,
Like him, obedient still,
We homeward press, through storm or calm,
To Zion's blessed hill.

5 Dead to the world, with him who died
To win our hearts, our love,
We, risen with our risen Head,
In spirit dwell above.

6 By faith, his boundless glories there
Our wondering eyes behold—
Those glories which eternal years
Shall never all unfold.

1 How sweet and awful is the place,
With Christ within the door;
While everlasting love displays
The choicest of her stores!

2 While all our hearts and all our songs
Join to admire the feast,
Each of us cries, with thankful tongue,
"Lord, why was I a guest?"

3 "Why was I made to hear thy voice,
And enter while there's room,
When thousands make a wretched choice,
And rather starve than come?"

4 "Twas the same love that spread the feast,
That sweetly drew us in;
Else we had still refused to taste,
And perished in our sin.

5 Pity the nations, O our God!
Constrain the earth to come;
Send thy victorious word abroad,
And bring the strangers home.

6 We long to see thy churches full,
That all the chosen race
May, with one voice, and heart, and soul,
Sing thy redeeming grace.

1118. "Turn us again, O Lord God of hosts."

1 See, gracious God! before thy throne
Thy mourning people bend;
"Tis on thy sovereign grace alone
Our humble hopes depend.

2 Dark, frowning judgments from thy hand
Thy dreadful power display;
Yet mercy spares this guilty land,
And still we live to pray.

3 How changed, alas! are truths divine,
For error, guilt, and shame!
What impious numbers, bold in sin,
Disgrace the Christian name!

4 Oh, turn us, turn us, mighty Lord,
By thy resistless grace;
Then shall our hearts obey thy word,
And humbly seek thy face.

1157. "On what a slender thread hang everlasting things."

1 Thee we adore, eternal Name!
And humbly own to thee
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we!

2 The year rolls round, and steals away
The breath that first it gave;
Whate'er we do, whate'er we be,
We're traveling to the grave.

3 Great God! on what a slender thread
Hang everlasting things!
Th' eternal state of all the dead
Upon life's feeble strings!

4 Infinite joy, or endless woe
Attends on every breath;
And yet, how unconcerned we go
Upon the brink of death!

5 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense,
To walk this dangerous road!
And if our souls are hurried hence,
May they be found with God.
69. The Evening Blessing.

1 Saviour, breathe an evening blessing,
Ere repose our spirits seal:
Sin and want we come confessing;
Thou canst save, and thou canst heal.

2 Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrow near us fly,
Angel-guards from thee surround us;
We are safe, if thou art nigh.

3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness can not hide from thee:
Thou art he who, never weary,
Watcheth where thy people be.

4 Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,
Clad in light and deathless bloom!

295. "Before the Cross."

1 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend;
Life, and health, and peace possessing,
From the sinner's dying Friend.

2 Truly blessed is this station,
Low before his cross to lie;
While I see divine compassion
Beaming in his gracious eye.

3 Here it is I find my heaven,
While upon the cross I gaze;
Love I much? I've much forgiven;
I'm a miracle of grace.

4 Love and grief my heart dividing,
With my tears his feet I'll bathe;
Constant still, in faith abiding,
Life deriving from his death.

5 Here in tender, grateful sorrow
With my Saviour will I stay;
Here new hope and strength will borrow;
Here will love my fears away.

399. "I will feed them upon the mountains."

1 Israel's Shepherd! guide me, feed me,
Through my pilgrimage below;
And beside the waters lead me,
Where thy sheep rejoicing go.

2 Lest I err, thine aid disdaining,
And forsake thy sheltering fold,
Headless of thy grace constraining,
In the strength of nature bold,—

3 Lord, thy guardian presence ever,
Meekly kneeling, I implore;
Now thy grace hath found me, never
Would I wander from thee more.

4 Come, my soul, temptation flying,
Arm thee for the strife within:
Jesus, thy Redeemer, dying,
Stamps an infamy on sin.

5 Yield, my heart, no longer hardened;
Rouse thy every latent power:
Cleansed, and washed, and freely pardon'd,
Go in peace, and sin no more.

1 Gently, Lord! oh, gently lead us
Through this lonely vale of tears;
Through the changes thou'st decreed us,
Till our last great change appears:
When temptation's darts assail us,
When in devions paths we stray,
Let thy goodness never fail us;
Lead us in thy perfect way.

2 In the hour of pain and anguish,
In the hour when death draws near,
Suffer not our hearts to languish,
Suffer not our souls to fear:
And, when mortal life is ended,
Bid us on thy bosom rest;
Till, by angel-bands attended,
We awake among the blest.

586. Prayer for a lovely Heart.—Ps. 131.
1 Let thy grace, Lord, make me lowly;
   Humble all my swelling pride:
Fallen, guilty, and unholy,
   Greatness from my eyes I'll hide.

2 I'll forbid my vain aspiring,
   Nor at earthly honors aim;
No ambitious heights desiring,
   Far above my humble claim.

3 Weaned from earth's vexatious pleasures,
   In thy love I'll seek for mine;
Placed in heaven my nobler treasures,
   Earth I quietly resign.

4 Israel, thus the world despising,
   On the Lord alone rely;
Then, from him thy joys arising,
   Like himself, shall never die.

659. All vain, without God's Blessing.
Psalm 127.
1 Vainly through night's weary hours,
   Keep we watch, lest foes alarm;
Vain our bulwarks, and our towers,
   But for God's protecting arm.

2 Vain were all our toil and labor,
   Did not God that labor bless;
Vain, without his grace and favor,
   Every talent we possess.

3 Vainer still the hope of heaven,
   That on human strength relies;
But to him shall help be given,
   Who in humble faith applies.

4 Seek we, then, the Lord's Anointed;
   He shall grant us peace and rest:
Ne'er was suppliant disappointed,
   Who to Christ his prayer addressed.

570. Giving the Heart.
1 Take my heart, O Father, take it!
   Make and keep it all thine own;
Let thy Spirit melt and break it—
   This proud heart of sin and stone.

2 Father, make it pure and lowly,
   Fond of peace, and far from strife;
Turning from the paths unholy
   Of this vain and sinful life.

3 Ever let thy grace surround it;
   Strengthen it with power divine,
Till thy cords of love have bound it;
   Make it to be wholly thine.

4 May the blood of Jesus heal it,
   And its sins be all forgiven;
Holy Spirit, take and seal it,
   Guide it in the path to heaven.

1184. "Abide with us; for it is toward evening."
1 Tarry with me, O my Saviour!
   For the day is passing by;
   See! the shades of evening gather,
   And the night is drawing nigh.

2 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
   Paler now the glowing west,
   Swift the night of death advances;
   Shall it be the night of rest?

3 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
   Lord, I cast myself on thee;
   Tarry with me through the darkness;
   While I sleep, still watch by me.

4 Tarry with me, O my Saviour!
   Lay my head upon thy breast;
   Till the morning; then awake me—
   Morning of eternal rest!
593. Prayer to Christ for Pardon.

1 Oh wondrous grace! Thine hand, my God,
    Shall I, my God, now lift my eyes to thee?—Psalm 65.

2 Thou art thyself the way:
    In me reveal:
    Thou shalt the word of God
    In me reveal:
    Thou shalt the word of God.

3 Thou wilt regard my cries,
    O my eternal God!
    While sinners perish in surprise,
    Beneath thine angry rod.

4 Because they dwell at ease,
    And no sad changes feel,
    They neither fear nor trust thy name,
    Nor learn to do thy will.

5 But I, with all my cares,
    Will lean upon the Lord;
    I'll cast my burden on his arm,
    And rest upon his arm.

6 His arm shall well sustain
    The children of his love;
    The ground on which their safety stands.
    No earthly power can move.

932. "I opened not my mouth; because Thou didst it."—Psalm 55.

1 It is thy hand, my God;
    My sorrow comes from thee:
    I bow beneath thy chastening rod,
    'Tis love that bruises me.

2 I would not murmur, Lord;
    Before thee I am dumb:
    Lest I should breathe one murmuring word,
    To thee for help I come.

3 My God, thy name is Love;
    A Father's hand is thine:
    With tearful eyes I look above,
    And cry, "Thy will be mine!"

4 I know thy will is right,
    Though it may seem severe;
    Thy path is still unsullied light,
    Though dark it oft appear.

5 Jesus for me hath died;
    Thy Son thou didst not spare;
    His pierced hands, his bleeding side,
    Thy love for me declare.

6 Here my poor heart can rest;
    My God, it cleaves to thee;
    Thy will is love, thine end is best;
    All work for good to me.

555. "Create in me a clean heart"

1 Is this the kind return?
    Are these the thanks we owe?
    Thus to abuse eternal Love,
    Whence all our blessings flow?
2 To what a stubborn frame
   Hath sin reduced our mind!
What strange, rebellious wretches we!
   And God as strangely kind!
3 Turn, turn us, mighty God!
   And mold our souls afresh;
Break, sovereign Grace! these hearts of stone,
   And give us hearts of flesh.

4 Let past ingratitude
   Provoke our weeping eyes,
And hourly, as new mercies fall,
   Let hourly thanks arise.

733. Faith entreatings for Pardon.

1 O Lord, how vile am I,
   Unholy and unclean!
How can I dare to venture nigh
   With such a load of sin?
2 Myself can hardly bear
   This wretched heart of mine;
How hateful, then, must it appear
   To those pure eyes of thine!
3 And must I then indeed
   Sink in despair and die?
False would I hope that thou didst bleed
   For such a wretch as I!
4 That blood which thou hast spilt,
   That grace which is thine own,
Can cleanse the vilest sinner's guilt,
   And soften hearts of stone.
5 Low at thy feet I bow:
   Oh, pity and forgive!
Here will I lie and wait till thou
   Shalt bid me rise and live.

766. "Though He slay me, yet wilt I trust in Him."

1 When earthly comforts die,
   And thorns overspread the road,
   Whither, oh, whither shall I fly,
   But unto thee, my God!
2 When anxious thoughts arise,
   And sorrows compass round,
   Amid ten thousand enemies,
   In thee my help is found.
3 Then at thy feet I'll bow,
   And in thy mercy trust;
If I am saved, how good art thou!
   And if I perish, just!
4 Perish!—it can not be,
   Since Jesus shed his blood;
The promise is both rich and free,
   And he will make it good.

778. "I trust in Thee; let me not be ashamed."

1 Oppressed with sin and woe,
   A burdened heart I bear;
Opposed by many a mighty foe,—
   Yet will I not despair.
2 With this polluted heart,
   I dare to come to thee,
Holy and mighty as thou art,—
   For thou wilt pardon me.
3 I feel that I am weak,
   And prone to every sin;
But thou, who giv'st to those who seek,
   Wilt give me strength within.
4 I need not fear my foes,
   I need not yield to care,
I need not sink beneath my woes,—
   For thou wilt answer prayer.
5 In my Redeemer's name,
   I give myself to thee;
Through him, unworthy as I am,
   My God will cherish me.
651. "Filled with all the fullness of God."
1 O Lord, I would delight in thee,
   And on thy care depend;
To thee in every trouble flee,
   My best, my only Friend.
2 When all created streams are dried,
   Thy fullness is the same;
May I with this be satisfied,
   And glory in thy name!
3 No good in creatures can be found,
   But what is found in thee:
I must have all things and abound
   While God is God to me.
4 Oh that I had a stronger faith,
   To look within the vail,—
To credit what my Saviour saith,
   Whose word can never fail.
5 He who has made my heaven secure,
   Will here all good provide;
While Christ is rich, can I be poor?
   What can I want beside?
6 O Lord, I cast my care on thee;
   I triumph and adore:
Henceforth my great concern shall be
   To love and please thee more.

820. "What shall I render unto the Lord?"
Psalm 116.
1 What shall I render to my God
   For all his kindness shown?
My feet shall visit thine abode,
   My songs address thy throne.
2 Among the saints that fill thy house,
   My offerings shall be paid;
There shall my zeal perform the vows
   My soul in anguish made.
3 How much is mercy thy delight,
   Thou ever blessed God!
How dear thy servants in thy sight!
   How precious is their blood!
4 How happy all thy servants are!
   How great thy grace to me!
My life, which thou hast made thy care,
   Lord, I devote to thee.
5 Now I am thine, for ever thine,
   Nor shall my purpose move;
Thy hand hath loosed my bonds of pain,
   And bound me with thy love.
6 Here in thy courts I leave my vow,
   And thy rich grace record;
Witness, ye saints, who hear me now,
   If I forsake the Lord.

827. "I will pay my vows unto the Lord."
Psalm 116.
1 I love the Lord: he lent an ear
   When I for help implored;
He rescued me from all my fear;
   Therefore I love the Lord.
2 Return, my soul, unto thy rest;
   From God no longer roam:
His hand hath bountifully blest;
   His goodness called thee home.
3 What shall I render unto thee,
   My Saviour, in distress,
For all thy benefits to me,
   So great and numberless?
4 This will I do, for thy love's sake,
   And thus thy power proclaim:
Salvation's sacred cup I'll take,
   And call upon thy name.
5 Thou God of covenanted grace!
   Hear and record my vow,—
While in thy courts I seek thy face,
   And at thine altar bow.
6 Henceforth myself to thee I give,
   With single heart and eye,
To walk before thee while I live,
   And bless thee when I die.
1095. "Weep with them that weep."

1 Lord, may our sympathizing breasts
   The generous pleasure know,
Kindly to share in others' joys,
   And weep for others' woe!

2 Where'er the helpless sons of grief
   In low distress are laid,
Soft be our hearts, their pains to feel,
   And swift our hands to aid.

3 Thus may the sacred law of love
   Through all our actions shine,
And force a scoffing world to own
   The Christian name divine.

1096. "Be ye perfect, even as your Father in heaven."

1 Bright Source of everlasting love,
   To thee our souls we raise;
And to thy sovereign bounty rear
   A monument of praise.

2 Thy mercy gilds the path of life
   With every cheering ray,
Kindly restrains the rising tear,
   Or wipes that tear away.

3 To tents of woe, to beds of pain,
   Thy children, Lord, repair;
And, with the gifts thy hand bestows,
   Relieve the mourners there.

4 The widow's heart shall sing for joy;
   The orphan shall be fed;
The hungering soul we'll gladly point
   To Christ, the living Bread.

5 Thus what our heavenly Father gave
   Shall we as freely give;
Thus copy him who lived to save,
   And died that we might live.

1233. "Earnestly desiring to be clothed upon."

1 Father! I long, I faint, to see
   The place of thine abode;
I'd leave thine earthly courts, and flee
   Up to thy seat, my God!

2 There all the heavenly hosts are seen;
   In shining ranks they move;
And drink immortal vigor in,
   With wonder and with love.

3 Then at thy feet, with awful fear,
   Th' adoring armies fall;
With joy they shrink to nothing there,
   Before th' eternal All.

4 The more thy glories strike my eyes,
   The humbler I shall lie;
Thus while I sink, my joys shall rise
   Immeasurably high.

1239. Death is Gain.

1 When musing sorrow weeps the past,
   And mourns the present pain,
'Tis sweet to think of peace at last,
   And feel that death is gain.

2 'Tis not that murmuring thoughts arise,
   And dread a Father's will;
'Tis not that meek submission flies,
   And would not suffer still:

3 It is that heaven-born faith surveys
   The path that leads to light,
And longs her eagle plumes to raise,
   And lose herself in sight.

4 Oh, let me wing my hallowed flight
   From earth-born woe and care,
And soar above these clouds of night,
   My Saviour's bliss to share!

Doxology.

Let God the Father, and the Son,
   And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
   Or saints to love the Lord!
134. The All-seeing God.—Psalm 139.
1 Lord, thou hast searched and seen me through;
   Thine eye commands, with piercing view,
   My rising and my resting hours,
   My heart and flesh, with all their powers.
2 My thoughts before they are my own,
   Are to my God distinctly known;
   He knows the words I mean to speak,
   Ere from my opening lips they break.
3 Within thy circling power I stand;
   On every side I find thy hand:
   Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
   I am surrounded still with God.
4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great!
   What large extent! what lofty height!
   My soul, with all the powers I boast,
   Is in the boundless prospect lost.
5 Oh, may these thoughts possess my breast,
   Where'er I rove, where'er I rest!
   Nor let my weaker passions dare
   Consent to sin, for God is there.

601. "My soul waiteth for Thee."—Psalm 130.
1 From deep distress and troubled thoughts,
   To thee, my God, I raise my cries;
   If thou severely mark our faults,
   No flesh can stand before thine eyes.
2 But thou hast built thy throne of grace,
   Free to dispense thy pardons there;
   That sinners may approach thy face,
   And hope and love, as well as fear.
3 As the benighted pilgrims wait,
   And long and wish for breaking day,
   So waits my soul before thy gate:
   When will my God his face display?
4 My trust is fixed upon thy word,
   Nor shall I trust thy word in vain;
   Let mourning souls address the Lord,
   And find relief from all their pain.
5 Great is his love, and large his grace,
   Through the redemption of his Son;
   He turns our feet from sinful ways,
   And pardons what our hands have done.

615. The Joy of Pardon.
1 Thou Prince of glory, slain for me,
   Breathing forgiveness in thy prayer;
   That loving, melting look I see,
   That bursting sigh, that tender tear.
2 Can I behold that closing eye,
   Still fixed on me, still beaming love!
   And can I see my Saviour die,
   Nor feel one holy passion move?
3 Let me but hear thy dying voice
   Pronounce forgiveness in my breast;
   My trembling spirit shall rejoice,
   And feel the calm of heavenly rest.
4 Lord, thine atoning blood apply,
   And life or death is sweet to me;
   In life's last hour, thy presence, nigh,
   From fear shall set my spirit free.

727. The only Plea.
1 Jesus, the sinner's Friend, to thee,
   Lost and undone, for aid I flee;
   Weary of earth, myself, and sin,
   Open thine arms and take me in.
2 Pity and save my ruined soul;
   'Tis thou alone canst make me whole;
   Dark, till in me thine image shine,
   And lost I am till thou art mine.
3 At last I own it can not be
   That I should fit myself for thee:
   Here, then, to thee I all resign;
   Thine is the work, and only thine.
4 What can I say thy grace to move
   Lord, I am sin,—but thou art love:
   I give up every plea beside,
   Lord, I am lost,—but thou hast died!
62. "Great is Thy faithfulness."

1 My God, how endless is thy love!
   Thy gifts are every evening new;
   And morning mercies, from above,
   Gently distill, like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
   Great Guardian of my sleeping hours!
   Thy sovereign word restores the light,
   And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 I yield my powers to thy command;
   To thee I consecrate my days:
   Perpetual blessings from thy hand
   Demand perpetual songs of praise.

198. "The Lord of hosts is with us."—Psalm 46.

1 Gon is our refuge and defense,
   In trouble our unfailing aid;
   Secure in his omnipotence,
   What foe can make our souls afraid?

2 There is a river, pure and bright,
   Whose streams make glad the heavenly plains;
   There, in eternity of light,
   The city of our God remains.

3 Not on a seraph's wing of fire,—
   But on the mightier wings of prayer
   We reach that home of pure desire,
   And feel his cloudless presence there.

4 But soon, how soon! our spirits droop,
   Unwont the air of heaven to breathe:
   Yet God, in very deed, will stoop,
   And dwell himself with men beneath.

5 Come to thy living temples, then;
   As in the ancient times appear:
   Let earth be paradise again,
   And man, O God, thine image here!

237. "How unsearchable are Thy judgments."

1 Lord, my weak thought in vain would climb
   To search the starry vault profound;
   In vain would wing her flight sublime,
   To find creation's outmost bound.

2 But weaker yet that thought must prove
   To search thy great eternal plan,—
   Thy sovereign counsels, born of love
   Long ages ere the world began.

3 When my dim reason would demand
   Why that, or this, thou dost ordain,
   By some vast deep I seem to stand,
   Whose secrets I must ask in vain.

4 When doubts disturb my troubled breast,
   And all is dark as night to me,
   Here, as on solid rock, I rest;
   That so it seemeth good to thee.

5 Be this my joy, that evermore
   Thou rulest all things at thy will:
   Thy sovereign wisdom I adore,
   And calmly, sweetly, trust thee still.

806. Imitation of Christ in Suffering.

1 Dear Lord, amid the throng that pressed
   Around thee on the cursed tree,
   Some loyal, loving hearts were there,
   Some pitying eyes that wept for thee.

2 Like them may we rejoice to own
   Our dying Lord, though crowned with thorn;
   Like thee, thy blessed self, endure
   The cross with all its joy and scorn.

3 Thy cross, thy lonely path below,
   Show what thy brethren all should be:
   Pilgrims on earth, disowned by those
   Who see no beauty, Lord, in thee.
372. "Plead Thou my cause."

1 Plead thou, oh, plead my cause!
Each self-excusing plea
My trembling soul withdraws,
And flies to thee.
When justice rears her throne,
Ah! who, save thee alone,
May stand, O spotless One?
Plead thou my cause!

2 Ah! plead not aught of mine
Before thine altar throne—
Fragments, when all is thine,
All, all thine own!
Thou seest what stains they bear,
Oh, since each tear, each prayer,
Hath need of pardon there,
Plead thou my cause!

ELAND. 6s & 4s.

427. "The Light of Life."

1 On earth was darkness spread—
One boundless night;
"Let there be light," God said,—
And there was light!

2 There hung a deeper gloom
O'er quick and dead,
But Jesus burst the tomb,
And darkness fled.

3 God by his word arrayed
Darkness with light:

God by his Son displayed
Day without night.

4 For thee, O man, arose
Creation's ray!
For thee, too, brighter glows
Salvation's day.

5 The beams first poured on earth
For mortals shone:
The light of later birth
Immortals own.
542.
1 Child of sin and sorrow,
    Filled with dismay,
    Wait not for to-morrow,
    Yield thee to-day:
    Heaven bids thee come,
    While yet there's room;
    Child of sin and sorrow,
    Hear and obey.

2 Child of sin and sorrow,
    Why wilt thou die!
    Come, while thou canst borrow
    Help from on high:
    Grieve not that love,
    Which, from above,
    Child of sin and sorrow,
    Would bring thee nigh.

RYLE. 6s & 5s.

569. Yielding Earth for Heaven.—Heb. 11: 16.

1 My soul, go boldly forth,
    Forsake this sinful earth;
    What hath it been to thee
    But pain and sorrow?
    And think'st thou it will be Better to-morrow?

2 Why wilt thou still delay?
    Thou canst not here to stay:
    What tak'st thou for thy part
    But heavenly pleasure?
    Where thou should be thy heart,
    But where's thy treasure?

3 Thy God, thy Head's above;
    There is the world of love;
    Mansions there purchased are
    By Christ's own merit;
    For these he doth prepare
    Thee, by his Spirit.

4 Lord Jesus, take my spirit;
    I trust thy love and merit:
    Take home thy wandering sheep,
    For thou hast sought it:
    My soul in safety keep,
    For thou hast bought it.
989. "Nearer, my God, to Thee."

1 Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee:
Ev'n though it be a cross
That raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be,
||: Nearer, my God, to thee, ;|
Nearer to thee.

2 Though like a wanderer,
Daylight all gone,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams, I'd be
||: Nearer, my God, to thee, ;|
Nearer to thee.

3 There let the way appear
Steps up to heaven;
All that thou sendest me
In mercy given,
Angels to beckon me
||: Nearer, my God, to thee, ;|
Nearer to thee.

4 Then with my waking thoughts,
Bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs,
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
||: Nearer, my God, to thee, ;|
Nearer to thee.

5 Or if on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
||: Nearer, my God, to thee, ;|
Nearer to thee.

1224. "Strangers and pilgrims on the earth."

1 I'm but a stranger here,
Heaven is my home;
Earth is a desert drear,
Heaven is my home:
Danger and sorrow stand
Round me on every hand;
Heaven is my fatherland—
Heaven is my home.

2 What though the tempest rage,
Heaven is my home;
Short is my pilgrimage,
Heaven is my home:
Time's cold and wintry blast
Soon will be overpast;
I shall reach home at last—
Heaven is my home.

3 There, at my Saviour's side,
Heaven is my home;
I shall be glorified—
Heaven is my home:
There are the good and blest,
Those I loved most and best,
And there I, too, shall rest;—
Heaven is my home!
1 There is a happy land,
   Far, far away,
   Where saints in glory stand,
   Bright, bright as day;
   Oh, how they sweetly sing,
   Worthy is our Saviour King!
   Loud let his praises ring,
   Praise, praise for aye.

2 Come to that happy land,—
   Come, come away;
   Why will ye doubting stand,
   Why still delay?

Oh! we shall happy be,
   When from sin and sorrow free;
   Lord, we shall live with thee,
   Blest, blest for aye!

3 Bright, in that happy land,
   Beams every eye;
   Kept by a Father's hand,
   Love can not die:
   Oh, then to glory run!
   Be a crown and kingdom won;
   And bright, above the sun,
   We reign for aye!

1 Father, oh, hear me now!
   Father divine!
   Thou, only thou, canst see
   The heart's deep agony:
   Help me to say to thee
   "Thy will, not mine!"

2 O God! be thou my stay,
   In this dark hour;
   Kindly each sorrow hear,
   Hush every troubled fear,
   Thee let me still revere,
   Still own thy power.

3 In thee alone I trust,
   Thou Holy One!
   Humbly to thee I pray
   That through each troubled day
   Of life, I still may say,
   "Thy will be done!"
545. Pleading with Sinners.

1 Heart of stone, relent, relent!
Break, by Jesus' cross subdued;
See his body mangled, rent,
Covered with his flowing blood:
Sinful soul, what hast thou done!
Crucified th' incarnate Son!

2 Yes: thy sins have done the deed,
Driven the nails that fixed him there;
Crowned with thorns his sacred head,
Pierced him with the cruel spear,
Made his soul a sacrifice,
While for sinful man he dies.

3 Wilt thou let him bleed in vain?
Still to death thy Lord pursue?
Open all his wounds again,
And the shameful cross renew?
No: with all my sins I'll part:
Break, oh, break, my bleeding heart!

632. Conflict with Sin.

1 Once I thought my mountain strong,
Firmly fixed, no more to move;
Then my Saviour was my song,
Then my soul was filled with love:
Those were happy, golden days,
Sweetly spent in prayer and praise.

2 Little then myself I knew,
Little thought of Satan's power;
Now I feel my sins anew,
Now I feel the stormy hour:
Sin has put my joys to flight,
Sin has turned my day to night.

3 Saviour! shine, and cheer my soul;
Bid my dying hopes revive;
Make my wounded spirit whole;
Far away the tempter drive:
Speak the word and set me free;
Let me live alone to thee.
711. "Jesus, Saviour, pity me."

1 Pity, Lord! this child of clay,
   Who can only weep and pray—
Only on thy love depend:
Thou who art the sinner's Friend
Thou, the sinner's only plea—
Jesus, Saviour, pity me!

2 From thy flock, a straying lamb,
   Tender Shepherd, though I am;
Now, upon the mountain cold,
Lost, I long to gain the fold,
And within thine arms to be:
Jesus, Saviour, pity me!

3 Oh, where stillest streams are poured,
   In green pastures lead me, Lord!
Bring me back, where angels sound
Joy to the poor wanderer found:
Evermore my Shepherd be:
Jesus, Saviour, pity me!

740. Prayer for Audience with the God-man.

1 Saviour, when in dust to thee
   Low we bow th' adoring knee;
Pleading all thy pain and woe
Suffered once for man below;
Turn on us a favoring eye,
Hear, oh, hear our humble cry!

2 By thine hour of dire despair,
   By thine agony of prayer,
By thy wounds, and pangs, and cries,
By thy perfect sacrifice,—
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear, oh, hear our humble cry!

3 By thy tomb, whose dark abode
   Held in vain the rising God,
Oh, from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty reascedded Lord!
On thy seat above the sky,
Hear, oh, hear our humble cry!

1 Son of God! to thee I cry:
   By the holy mystery
Of thy dwelling here on earth,
By thy pure and holy birth,
Hear, oh, hear my lowly plea:
Manifest thyself to me!

2 Lamb of God! to thee I cry:
   By thy bitter agony,
By thy pangs to us unknown,
By thy spirit's parting groan,
Hear, oh, hear my lowly plea:
Manifest thyself to me!

3 Prince of Life! to thee I cry:
   By thy glorious majesty,
By thy triumph o'er the grave,
Meek to suffer, strong to save,
Hear, oh, hear my fervid plea:
Manifest thyself to me!

4 Lord of glory, God most high!
   Man exalted to the sky,
With thy love my bosom fill;
Prompt me to perform thy will:
Then thy glory I shall see—
Thou wilt bring me home to thee.
571. Joy in Heaven over one Penitent.
1 Who can describe the joys that rise
Through all the courts of paradise,
To see a prodigal return,
To see an heir of glory born?
2 With joy the Father doth approve
The fruit of his eternal love;
The Son with joy looks down and sees
The purchase of his agonies.
3 The Spirit takes delight to view
The holy soul he formed anew;
And saints and angels join to sing
The growing empire of their King.

756. "The faith of joys to come."
1 'Tis by the faith of joys to come
We walk thro' deserts dark as night;
Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.
2 The want of sight she well supplies;
She makes the pearly gates appear;
Far into distant worlds she pries,
And brings eternal glories near.
3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
While faith inspires a heavenly ray;
Though lions roar, and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.

853. The Worth of Prayer.
1 What various hindrances we meet
In coming to a mercy-seat!
Yet who that knows the worth of prayer
But wishes to be often there?
2 Prayer makes the darkened clouds withdraw,
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.
3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.
4 Have you no words? ah! think again;
Words flow apace when you complain,
And fill a fellow-creature's ear
With the sad tale of all your care.
5 Were half the breath thus vainly spent
To heaven in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord hath done for me!"

866. Nothing without Love.—1 Cor. 13: 1—3.
1 Had I the tongues of Greeks and Jews,
And nobler speech than angels use,
If love be absent, I am found,
Like tinkling brass, an empty sound.
2 Were I inspired to preach and tell
All that is done in heaven or hell,
Or could my faith the world remove,
Still am I nothing without love.
3 Should I distribute all my store,
To feed the hungry, clothe the poor,—
Or give my body to the flame,
To gain a martyr's glorious name,—
4 If love to God and love to men
Be absent, all my hopes are vain:
Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal,
The work of love can e'er fulfill.

886. "When I am weak, then am I strong."—2 Cor. 12: 7.
1 Let me but hear my Saviour say,
"Strength shall be equal to thy day;"
Then I rejoice in deep distress,
Leaning on all-sufficient grace.
2 I can do all things—or can bear
   All suffering, if my Lord be there;
   Sweet pleasures mingle with the pains,
   While he my sinking head sustains.

3 I glory in infirmity,
   That Christ's own power may rest on me;
   When I am weak, then am I strong;
   Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.

1005. "It is God that justifieth."
   Rom. 3: 20-22.
1 Who shall condemn the Lord's elect?
   'Tis God who justifies their souls;
   And mercy, like a mighty stream,
   O'er all their sins divinely rolls.

2 Who shall adjudge the saints to hell?
   'Tis Christ who suffered in their stead;
   And, the salvation to fulfill,
   Behold him rising from the dead!

3 He lives! he lives! and sits above,
   For ever interceding there;
   Who shall divide us from his love,
   Or what should tempt us to dispair?

4 Shall persecution, or distress,
   Famine, or sword, or nakedness?
   He who hath loved us bears us through,
   And makes us more than conquerors, too.

5 Not all that men on earth can do,
   Nor powers on high, nor powers below,
   Shall cause his mercy to remove,
   Or wean our hearts from Christ, our love.

1008. "Not by works of righteousness which we have done."
1 Now to the power of God supreme
   Be everlasting honors given;
   He saves from hell—we bless his name—
   He guides our wandering feet to heaven.

2 Not for our duties or deserts,
   But of his own abundant grace,
   He works salvation in our hearts,
   And forms a people for his praise.

3 'Twas his own purpose that began
   To rescue rebels doomed to die;
   He gave us grace in Christ his Son,
   Before he spread the starry sky.

4 Jesus, the Lord, appears at last,
   And makes his Father's counsels known,
   Declares the great transaction past,
   And brings immortal blessings down.

5 He dies—and, in that dreadful night,
   Did all the powers of hell destroy;
   He rose, and brought our heaven to light,
   And took possession of the joy.

1 "Go, preach my gospel," saith the Lord;
   "Bid the whole earth my grace receive;
   He shall be saved who trusts my word;
   And they condemned who disbelieve.

2 "I'll make your great commission known,
   And ye shall prove my gospel true
   By all the works that I have done,
   By all the wonders ye shall do.

3 "Teach all the nations my commands;
   I'm with you till the world shall end;
   All power is trusted in my hands;
   I can destroy, and I defend."

4 He spake, and light shone round his head;
   On a bright cloud to heaven he rode;
   They to the farthest nations spread
   The grace of their ascended God.

Doxology.
To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Be honor, praise, and glory given,
By all on earth, and all in heaven!

1 Oh, for that tenderness of heart
   Which bows before the Lord!
   Owning how just and good thou art,
   And trembling at thy word.

2 Oh, for those humble, contrite tears
   Which from repentance flow!
   Oh, for that sense of guilt which fears
   The long-suspended blow!

3 Saviour, to me in pity give,
   For sin, the deep distress—
   The pledge thou wilt at last receive;
   And bid me die in peace.

4 Oh, fill my soul with faith and love,
   And strength to do thy will!
   Raise my desires and hopes above;
   Thyself to me reveal.

579. "Oh, wretched man that I am!"

1 Writ tears of anguish I lament,
   Here, at thy feet, my God,
   My passion, pride, and discontent,
   And vile ingratitude.

2 Sure, there was ne'er a heart so base,
   So false as mine has been;
   So faithless to its promises,
   So prone to every sin!

3 How long, dear Saviour, shall I feel
   These struggles in my breast?
   When wilt thou bow my stubborn will,
   And give my conscience rest?

4 Break, sovereign Grace, oh, break the charm,
   And set the captive free!
   Reveal, almighty God, thine arm,
   And haste to rescue me.

591. "O Lord, in wrath remember mercy."
   Psalm 85.

1 And thy wrath remember love;
   Restore thy servant, Lord;

Nor let a Father's chastening prove
   Like an avenger's sword.

2 My sins a heavy load appear,
   And o'er my head are gone;
   Too heavy they for me to bear,
   Too hard for me t' atone.

3 My thoughts are like a troubled sea,
   My head still bending down;
   And I go mourning all the day,
   Beneath my Father's frown.

4 All my desire to thee is known;
   Thine eye counts every tear;
   And every sigh, and every groan,
   Is noticed by thine ear.

5 My God, forgive my follies past,
   And be for ever nigh;
   Thou God of my salvation, haste,
   Before thy servant die.

600. "There is forgiveness with Thee."
   Psalm 130.

1 Out of the deeps of long distress,
   The borders of despair,
   I sent my cries to seek thy grace,
   My groans to move thine ear.

2 Great God! should thy severer eye,
   And thine impartial hand,
   Be strict to mark iniquity,
   No mortal flesh could stand.

3 But there are pardons with my God,
   For crimes of high degree;
   Thy Son has bought them with his blood,
   To draw us near to thee.

4 I wait for thy salvation, Lord;
   With strong desires I wait:
   My soul, invited by thy word,
   Stands watching at thy gate.

5 In God the Lord let Israel trust;
   O sinners, seek his face:
   The Lord is good, as well as just,
   And plenteous is his grace.
611. "Turn us, O God of our salvation.
Psalm 58.

1 Lord! at thy feet we sinners lie,
And knock at mercy's door:
With heavy heart and downcast eye,
Thy favor we implore.

2 On us the vast extent display
Of thy forgiving love;
Take all our heinous guilt away;
This heavy load remove.

3 'Tis mercy—mercy we implore;
We would thy pity move;
Thy grace is an exhaustless store,
And thou thyself art love.

4 Oh, for thine own, for Jesus' sake
Our numerous sins forgive!
Thy grace our rocky hearts can break:
Heal us, and bid us live.

5 Thus melt us down, thus make us bend,
And thy dominion own;
Nor let a rival more pretend
To reposest thy throne.

613. "I have trusted in Thy mercy."
Psalm 13.

1 How long wilt thou forget me, Lord?
Must I for ever mourn?
How long wilt thou withdraw from me?
Oh! never to return?

2 Hear thou, and to my longing eyes
Restore thy wonted light,
And suddenly, or I shall sleep
In everlasting night.

3 Since I have always placed my trust
Beneath thy mercy's wing,
Thy saving health will come, and then
My heart with joy shall spring.

4 Then shall I raise glad songs of praise
To my forgiving Lord;
And thou wilt ever be my Help,
My Hope, my large Reward.

620. "Turn Thee unto me, and have mercy upon me."

1 O thou, whose tender mercy hears
Contrition's humble sigh:
Whose hand indulgent wipes the tears
From sorrow's weeping eye.

2 See, Lord, before thy throne of grace
A wretched wanderer mourns;
Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
Hast thou not said—"Return?"

3 And shall my guilty fears prevail
To drive me from thy feet?
Oh, let not this dear refuge fail,
This only safe retreat!

4 Absent from thee, my Guide! my Light!
Without one cheering ray,
Through dangers, fears, and gloomy night,
How desolate my way!

5 Oh, shine on this benighted heart,
With beams of mercy shine!
And let thy healing voice impart
A taste of joy divine.

712. A weeping Saviour.

1 And can mine eyes, without a tear,
A weeping Saviour see?
Shall I not weep his groans to hear
Who groaned and died for me?

2 Blest Jesus! let those tears of thine
Subdue each stubborn foe;
Come, fill my heart with love divine,
And bid my sorrows flow.

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore!
510. Gentleness of God's Commands.

Psalm 55.

1 How gentle God's commands! How kind his precepts are! Come, cast your burdens on the Lord, And trust his constant care.

2 Beneath his watchful eye His saints securely dwell; That hand which bears all nature up, Shall guard his children well.

3 Why should this anxious load Press down your weary mind? Haste to your heavenly Father's throne, And sweet refreshment find.

4 His goodness stands approved, Unchanged from day to day; I'll drop my burden at his feet, And bear a song away.

861. Blessings of Christian Unity.—Psalm 133.

1 Blest are the sons of peace Whose hearts and hopes are one; Whose kind designs to serve and please Through all their actions run.

2 Blest is the pious house Where zeal and friendship meet: Their songs of praise, their mingled vows, Make their communion sweet.

3 From those celestial springs Such streams of pleasure flow, As no increase of riches brings, Nor honors can bestow.

4 Thus on the heavenly hills The saints are blest above; Where joy, like morning dew, distills, And all the air is love!

907. "My peace I give unto you."

1 Let not your heart be faint, My peace I give to you,— Such peace as reason never planned, Nor sinners ever knew.

2 It tells of joys to come; It soothes the troubled breast; It shines, a star amid the storm— The harbinger of rest.

3 Then murmur not, nor mourn, My people faint and few; Though earth to its foundation shake, My peace I leave with you.

998. "The Spirit of God dwelleth in you."

1 Blest are the pure in heart, For they shall see their God; The secret of the Lord is theirs; Their soul is Christ's abode.

2 The Lord, who left the heavens, Our life and peace to bring; To dwell in lowliness with men, Their pattern and their King;—

3 He to the lowly soul Doth still himself impart, And for his dwelling, and his throne, Chooseth the pure in heart.

4 Lord, we thy presence seek: May ours this blessing be; Oh, give the pure and lowly heart A temple meet for thee!

403. "I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me."

Psalm 23.

1 While my Redeemer's near, My shepherd and my guide, I bid farewell to anxious fear; My wants are all supplied.
To ever fragrant meads,
Where rich abundance grows,
His gracious hand indulgent leads,
And guards my sweet repose.

Dear Shepherd, if I stray,
My wandering feet restore;
To thy fair pastures guide my way,
And let me rove no more.

How large his bounties are!
What various stores of good,
Diffused from our Redeemer's hand,
And purchased with his blood!

Jesus, our living Head!
We bless thy faithful care,—
Our Advocate before the throne,
And our Forerunner there.

Here fix, my roving heart;
Here wait, my warmest love;
Till the communion be complete,
In nobler scenes above.

The Father and the Son
And Spirit we adore;
We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
Both now and evermore!

DENNIS. S. M.

1 With a broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry;
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free:
O God, be merciful to me!

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed;
Christ and his cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me!

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But thou dost all my anguish see:
O God, be merciful to me!

4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee:
O God, be merciful to me!

5 And when redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God has been merciful to me!

4 No more on promises I'll rest,
Nor resolutions vainly made;
But leaning on my Saviour's breast,
Implore his Spirit's gracious aid.

1186. “I have fought a good fight.”—2 Tim. 4:6-8.

1 The hour of my departure's come;
I hear the voice that calls me home;
Now, O my God! let trouble cease,
And let thy servant die in peace.

2 The race appointed I have run;
The combat's o'er, the prize is won;
And now my witness is on high,
And now my record's in the sky.

3 Not in mine innocence I trust;
I bow before thee in the dust;
And through my Saviour's blood alone
I look for mercy at thy throne.

4 I come, I come, at thy command;
I give my spirit to thy hand;
Stretch forth thine everlasting arms,
And shield me in the last alarms.

633. Penitence for broken vows.

1 When silent steal across my soul
Remembrances of broken vows,
And tears, almost beyond control,
Flow, as my guilty spirit bows,—

2 'Tis then I've caught the Saviour's eye,
Viewing with looks of injured love,
A soul, for whom he deigned to die,
Inconstant and ungrateful prove.

3 Oh! had he not so kindly glanced
(My weeping soul in anguish cries,)
I could have borne that searching look;
But now I yield: my spirit dies.

1283. The Day of Wrath.
(A Hymn of the Thirteenth Century.)

1 That day of wrath! that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away!
What power shall be the sinner's stay?
How shall he meet that dreadful day?

2 When, shriveling like a parched scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll;
When louder yet, and yet more dread,
Swells the high trump that wakes the dead!—

3 Oh! on that day—that wrathful day,
When man to judgment wakes from clay,
Be thou the trembling sinner's stay;
Tho' heaven and earth shall pass away!
548. The narrow Way.—Matt. 7: 13, 14.
1 Broad is the road that leads to death,
   And thousands walk together there;
   But wisdom shows a narrow path,
   With here and there a traveler.
2 "Deny thyself, and take thy cross,"
   Is the Redeemer’s great command:
   Nature must count her gold but dross,
   If she would gain this heavenly land.
3 The fearful soul that tires and faints,
   And walks the ways of God no more,
   Is but esteemed almost a saint,
   And makes his own destruction sure.
4 Lord! let not all my hopes be vain;
   Create my heart entirely new:
   Which hypocrites could ne’er attain;
   Which false apostates never knew.

1166. "Whose foundation is in the dust."
Job 4: 17—21.
1 Shall the vile race of flesh and blood
   Contend with their Creator, God?
   Shall mortal worms presume to be
   More holy, wise, or just, than he?
2 Behold, he puts his trust in none
   Of all the spirits round his throne;
   Their natures, when compared with his,
   Are neither holy, just, nor wise.
3 But how much meaner things are they
   Who spring from dust, and dwell in clay!
   Touched by the finger of thy wrath,
   We faint and vanish like the moth.
4 From night to day, from day to night,
   We die by thousands in thy sight;
   Buried in dust whole nations lie,
   Like a forgotten vanity.
5 Almighty Power! to thee we bow;
   How frail are we! how glorious thou!
   No more the sons of earth shall dare
   With an eternal God compare.

1187. "Alone with Thee, in that dread strife."
1 The moment comes, when strength shall fall,
   When, health, and hope, and courage flown,
   I must go down into the vale
   And shade of death, with thee alone.
2 Alone with thee! in that dread strife
   Uphold me in mine agony;
   And gently be this dying life
   Exchanged for immortality.
3 Then, when th’ unembodied spirit lands
   Where flesh and blood hath never trod,
   And in the unvailed presence stands
   Of thee, my Saviour and my God,—
4 Be mine eternal portion this,
   Since thou wert always here with me,
   That I may view thy face in bliss,
   And be for evermore with thee.

1289. Trembling in Fear of Hell.
1 Father!—if I may call thee so,—
   I tremble with my one desire:
   Lift up this heavy load of woe,
   Nor let me in my sins expire!
2 I tremble, lest the wrath divine,
   Which bruises now my sinful soul,
   Should bruise and break this soul of mine,
   Long as eternal ages roll.
3 Thy wrath I fear, thy wrath alone,
   This endless exile, Lord, from thee!
   Oh, save! oh, give me to thy Son,
   Who trembled, wept, and bled for me!

Doxology.
Glory to thee, O God, most high!
Father, we praise thy majesty!
The Son, the Spirit, we adore,
One Godhead, blest for evermore!
757. "Faith which worketh by love."

1 Faith is the polar star
That guides the Christian's way,
Directs his wanderings from afar
To realms of endless day:
It points the course, where'er he roam,
And safely leads the pilgrim home.

2 Faith is the rainbow's form
Hung on the brow of heaven,
The glory of the passing storm,
The pledge of mercy given:
It is the bright triumphal arch
Through which the saints to glory march.

3 The faith that works by love,
And purifies the heart,
A foretaste of the joys above
To mortals can impart:
It bears us through this earthly strife,
And triumphs in immortal life.

1214. "Neither shall there be any more pain."

1 Friend after friend departs:
Who hath not lost a friend?

RUNDELL. C. H. M.

There is no union here of hearts
That finds not here an end:
Were this frail world our final rest,
Living or dying, none were blest.

2 Beyond the flight of time,
Beyond this vale of death,
There surely is some blessed clime
Where life is not a breath,—
Nor life's affections transient fire,
Whose sparks fly upward to expire.

3 There is a world above,
Where parting is unknown,
A whole eternity of love,
Formed for the good alone;
And faith beholds the dying here
Translated to that happier sphere.

4 Thus star by star declines,
Till all are passed away,
As morning high and higher shines
To pure and perfect day:
Nor sink those stars in empty night—
They hide themselves in heaven's own light.

1112.
"Save Thy people, and bless Thine inheritance."

1 From foes that would the land devour;
From guilty pride, and lust of power;
From wild sedition's lawless hour;
From yoke of slavery;
From blinded zeal, by faction led;
From giddy change, by fancy bred;
From poisoned error's serpent head,
Good Lord, preserve us free!

2 Defend, O God, with guardian hand,
The laws and rulers of our land,
And grant thy churches grace to stand
In faith and unity!
Thy Spirit's help of thee we crave,
That thy Messiah, sent to save,
Returning to the world, might have
A people serving thee!

937.
"Sorrowing, yet always rejoicing."

1 When I can trust my all with God,
In trial's fearful hour,
Bow, all resigned, beneath his rod,
And bless his sparing power,
A joy springs up amid distress,—
A fountain in the wilderness.

2 Oh! to be brought to Jesus' feet,
Though sorrows fix me there,
Is still a privilege; and sweet

The energy of prayer,
Though sighs and tears its language be,
If Christ be nigh, and smile on me.

3 Then bles'sd be the hand that gave;
Still bles'sd when it takes;
Blessed be he who smites to save,
Who heals the heart he breaks:
Perfect and true are all his ways,
Whom heaven adores, and death obeys.
1144. "I will praise the name of God with a song."

1 Let every heart rejoice and sing;
   Let choral anthems rise;
Ye reverend men, and children, bring
To God your sacrifice:
For he is good,—the Lord is good,
   And kind are all his ways:
With songs and honors sounding loud,
The Lord Jehovah praise;
While the rocks and the rills,
While the vales and the hills
A glorious anthem raise,
Let each prolong the grateful song,
And the God of our fathers praise.

2 He bids the sun to rise and set;
   In heaven his power is known;
And earth, subdued to him, shall yet
   Bow low before his throne:
For he is good,—the Lord is good,
   And kind are all his ways:
With songs and honors sounding loud,
The Lord Jehovah praise;
While the rocks and the rills,
While the vales and the hills
A glorious anthem raise,
Let each prolong the grateful song
And the God of our fathers praise.
945.

"Blessed are they that mourn."—Matt. 5: 4.

1 I heard the voice of love divine,
   Addressing man to trouble born;
   What accents, Saviour, then were thine!
   "Blessèd are they that mourn!"

2 Again it spoke: "Come unto me,
   Thou with distress and labor worn;
   Rest and refreshment are for thee:
   "Blessèd are they that mourn!"

3 I heard a voice in truth's pure word,
   A saint who sorrow's yoke hadborne:
   "Blessèd are they that mourn!"

877.

Prayer for Christ's Aid in Toil.

1 Lo! the storms of life are breaking;
   Faithless fears our hearts are shaking:
   For our succor undertaking,
   Lord and Saviour, help us!

2 Lo! the world, from thee rebelling,
   Round thy church in pride is swelling!
   With thy word their madness quelling,
   Lord and Saviour, help us!

3 On thine own command relying,
   We our onward task are plying;
   Unto thee for safety sighing,
   Lord and Saviour, help us!

4 By thy birth, thy cross, and passion,
   By thy tears of deep compassion,
   By thy mighty intercession,
   Lord and Saviour, help us!
450. Prayer for the Indwelling of the Spirit.

1 Holy Spirit! Love Divine!
   Let thy light within me shine;
   Breathe thyself into my breast:
   Earnest of immortal rest.

2 Let me never from thee stray,
   Keep me in the narrow way;
   Keep me thine, for ever thine;
   Let thy love and joy be mine.

513. The Prodigal invited.

1 Brother, hast thou wandered far
   From thy Father's happy home,
   With thyself and God at war?
   Turn thee, brother; homeward come.

2 Hast thou wasted all the powers
   God for noble uses gave?
   Squandered life's most golden hours?
   Turn thee, brother; God can save.

3 He can heal thy bitterest wound,
   He thy gentlest prayer can hear:
   Seek him, for he may be found;
   Call upon him; he is near.

539. Why will ye die?

1 Sinners, turn; why will ye die?
   God, your Maker, asks you why—
   God, who did your being give,
   Made you with himself to live.

2 Sinners, turn! why will ye die?
   God, your Saviour, asks you why—
   He who did your souls retrieve,
   He who died, that ye might live.

3 Will you let him die in vain?
   Crucify your Lord again?
   Why, ye ransomed sinners, why
   Will ye slight his grace, and die?

4 Sinners, turn; why will ye die?
   God, the Spirit, asks you why—
   He who all your lives hath strove,
   Wooed you to embrace his love.

5 Will ye not his grace receive?
   Will ye still refuse to live?
   Oh! ye dying sinners, why
   Will ye grieve your God, and die?

612. Deep regret for follies past.

1 God of mercy! God of love!
   Hear our sad, repentant song;
   Sorrow dwells on every face,
   Penitence on every tongue.

2 Deep regret for follies past,
   Talents wasted, time misspent;
   Hearts debased by worldly cares,
   Thankless for the blessings lent.

3 Foolish fears and fond desires,
   Vain regrets for things as vain;
   Lips too seldom taught to praise,
   Oft to murmur and complain;
4 These, and every secret fault,
   Filled with grief and shame, we own;
Humbled at thy feet we lie,
   Seeking pardon from thy throne.

5 God of mercy! God of grace!
   Hear our sad, repentant songs;
Oh, restore thy suppliant race,
   Thou to whom all praise belongs!

---

589. "Lovest thou Me?"

1 Could my heart so hard remain,
   Prayer a task and burden prove,
Every trifle give me pain,
   If I knew a Saviour's love?

2 When I turn my eyes within,
   All is dark, and vain, and wild;
Filled with unbelief and sin,
   Can I deem myself a child?

3 Yet I mourn my stubborn will,
   Find my sin a grief and thrall;
Should I grieve for what I feel,
   If I did not love at all?

4 Lord, decide the doubtful case;
   Thou who art thy people's Sun,
Shine upon thy work of grace,
   If it be, indeed, begun.

5 Let me love thee more and more,
   If I love at all, I pray;
If I have not loved before,
   Help me to begin to-day.

---

623. Confession.

1 Oh these eyes, how dark and blind!
   Oh this foolish, earthy mind!
Oh this froward, selfish will,
   Which refuses to be still!

2 Oh these ever roaming eyes,
   Upward that refuse to rise!
Oh these wayward feet of mine,
   Found in every path but thine!

3 Oh this stubborn, prayerless knee,
   Hands so seldom clasped to thee,
Longings of the soul that go,
   Like the wild wind, to and fro!

4 To and fro, without an aim,
   Turning idly whence they came;
Bringing in no joy, no bliss,
   Adding to my weariness.

5 Giver of the heavenly peace,
   Bid, oh, bid these tumults cease;
Minister thy holy balm,
   Fill me with thy Spirit's calm.

6 Thou, the Life, the Truth, the Way,
   Leave me not in sin to stay;
Bearer of the sinner's guilt,
   Lead me, lead me, as thou wilt!

---

838. "No more my own, but Thine."

1 Let me dwell on Golgotha,
   Weep and love my life away!
While I see him on the tree
   Weep, and bleed, and die for me!

2 Hark! his dying word: "Forgive!
   Father, let the sinner live;
Sinner, wipe thy tears away,
   I thy ransom freely pay."

3 While I hear this grace revealed,
   And obtain a pardon sealed,
All my warm affections move,
   Wakened by his dying love.

4 He hath dearly bought my soul;
   Lord, accept, and claim the whole!
To thy will I all resign,
   Now no more my own, but thine.
1228.

"Thou art to pass over Jordan this day!"

1 My days are gliding swiftly by,
   And I, a pilgrim stranger,
Would not detain them as they fly,—
   Those hours of toil and danger:
For now we stand on Jordan's strand,
   Our friends are passing over;
And, just before, the shining shore
   We may almost discover.

2 Our absent king the watchword gave,—
   "Let every lamp be burning;"
We look afar, across the wave,
   Our distant home discerning:
For now, etc.

3 Should coming days be dark and cold,
   We will not yield to sorrow,
For hope will sing, with courage bold,
   "There's glory on the morrow!"
   For now, etc.

4 Let storms of woe in whirlwinds rise,
   Each cord on earth to sever,—
There—bright and joyous in the skies—
   There—is our home for ever:
For now we stand on Jordan's strand,
   Our friends are passing over;
And, just before, the shining shore
   We may almost discover.

796. Soon and for ever with Christ.

1 Soon—soon and for ever our union shall be
   Made perfect, our glorious Redeemer, in thee;
   The sins and the sorrows of time shall be o’er,
   Its pangs and its partings remembered no more:
   When life can not fail, and when death can not sever,
   Then Christians with Christ shall be—soon and for ever.

2 Yes, soon and for ever, we’ll see as we’re seen,
   And learn the deep meaning of things that have been;
   Then droop not in sorrow, despond not in fear,—
   A glorious to-morrow is bright’ning and near;
   When—blesséd reward of each faithful endeavor!—
   True Christians with Christ shall be—soon and for ever!

1108. The Guiding Star.

1 Star of peace! to wanderers weary,
   Bright the beams that smile on me;
   Cheer the pilot’s vision dreary,
   Far, far at sea.

2 Star of hope! gleam on the billow,
   Bless the soul that sighs for thee;
   Bless the sailor’s lonely pillow,
   Far, far at sea.

3 Star of faith! when winds are mocking
   All his toil, he flies to thee;
   Save him, on the billows rocking,
   Far, far at sea.

4 Star divine! oh, safely guide him,—
   Bring the wanderer home to thee!
   Sore temptations long have tried him,
   Far, far at sea.
936. My Jesus, as thou wilt.

1 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
   Oh, may thy will be mine!
Into thy hand of love
   I would my all resign:
Through sorrow, or through joy,
   Conduct me as thine own,
And help me still to say,
   My Lord, thy will be done!

2 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
   Though seen through many a tear,
Let not my star of hope
   Grow dim or disappear:
Since thou on earth hast wept,
   And sorrowed oft alone,
If I must weep with thee,
   My Lord, thy will be done!

3 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
   All shall be well for me:
Each changing future scene,
   I gladly trust with thee:
Then to my home above
   I travel calmly on,
And sing, in life or death,
   My Lord, thy will be done!

4 Then the fierce tempest broke;
   I knew from whom it came;
I read in that sharp stroke
   A Father's hand and name.

5 Must I be smitten, Lord?
   Are gentler measures vain?
Must I be smitten, Lord?
   Can nothing save but pain?

6 I said, "My God! at length
   This stony heart remove;
Deny all other strength,
   But give me strength to love."

950. The Discipline of Joy and Sorrow.

1 My sky was once noon-bright,
   My day was calm the while;
I loved the pleasant light,
   The sunshine's happy smile.

2 I said, "My God, oh! sure
   This love will kindle mine;
Let but this calm endure,
   Then all my heart is thine."

3 Thou trustedst me awhile;
   O Lord! I was deceived;
I reviled in the smile,
   Yet to the dust I cleaved.

4 I drod thee wrong, my God;
   I wronged thy truth and love;
I fretted at the rod,—
   Against thy power I strove.

5 Less, less of self each day,
   And more, my God, of thee;
Oh, keep me in the way,
   However rough it be.

6 More molded to thy will,
   Lord, let thy servant be;
Higher and higher still,
   More, and still more, like thee!
663. No Rest, but in God.

1 My soul doth long for thee
   To dwell within my breast;
   Unworthy though I be
   Of so divine a Guest!

2 Of so divine a Guest
   Unworthy though I be,
   Yet hath my heart no rest
   Until it come to thee!

3 Until it come to thee,
   In vain I look around;
   In all that I can see
   No rest is to be found!

4 No rest is to be found,
   But in thy bleeding love:
   Oh, let my wish be crowned,
   And send it from above!

804. Imitation of Christ in Youth.

1 I feel within a want
   For ever burning there;
   What I so thirst for, grant,
   O thou who hearest prayer!

2 This is the thing I crave:
   A likeness to thy Son;
   This would I rather have
   Than call the world my own.

3 Like him, now in my youth,
   I long, O God, to be,—
   In tenderness and truth,
   In sweet humility.

4 "Tis my most fervent prayer:
   Be it more fervent still—
   Be it my highest care;
   Be it my settled will!

904. "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

1 Cheer up, desponding soul!
   Thy longing pleased I see;
   "Tis part of that great whole
   Wherewith I longed for thee—

2 Wherewith I longed for thee,
   And left my Father's throne:
   From death to set thee free,
   And claim thee for my own—

3 To claim thee for my own,
   I suffered on the cross:
   Oh, were my love but known,
   All else would be as dross!—

4 All else would be as dross!
   And souls, through grace divine,
   Would count their gain but loss
   To live for ever mine!

925. Upward!

1 Go up, go up, my heart!
   Dwell with thy God above;
   For here thou canst not rest,
   Nor here give out thy love.

2 Go up, go up, my heart!
   Be not a trifler here;
   Ascend above these clouds,—
   Dwell in a higher sphere.

3 Let not thy love flow out
   To things so soiled and dim;
   Go up to heaven and God;
   Take up thy love to him.

4 Waste not thy precious stores
   On pleasure here below:
   To God that wealth belongs;
   On him that wealth bestow.

5 Go up, reluctant heart!
   Take up thy rest above;
   Arise, earth-clinging thoughts;
   Ascend, my lingering love!

928. "Choose Thou for me."

1 Thy way, not mine, O Lord,
   However dark it be!
   Lead me by thine own hand;
   Choose out the path for me.

2 I dare not choose my lot:
   I would not, if I might;
   Choose thou for me, my God,
   So shall I walk aright.

3 The kingdom that I seek
   Is thine: so let the way
   That leads to it be thine,
   Else I must surely stray.

4 Take thou my cup, and it
   With joy or sorrow fill,
   As best to thee may seem;
   Choose thou my good and ill.

5 Choose thou for me my friends,
   My sickness or my health;
   Choose thou my cares for me,
   My poverty or wealth.

6 Not mine, not mine the choice,
   In things or great or small;
   Be thou my Guide, my Strength,
   My Wisdom, and my All.
906. The inner Calm.

1 Calm me, my God, and keep me calm:
   Let thine outstretched wing
   Be like the shade of Elim's palm,
   Beside her desert spring.

2 Yes, keep me calm, though loud and rude
   The sounds my ear that greet,—
   Calm in the closet's solitude,
   Calm in the bustling street,—

3 Calm in the hour of buoyant health,
   Calm in the hour of pain,
   Calm in my poverty or wealth,
   Calm in my loss or gain,—

4 Calm in the sufferance of wrong,
   Like him who bore my shame,
   Calm 'mid the threatening, taunting throng;
   Who hate thy holy name.

5 Calm me, my God, and keep me calm,
   Soft resting on thy breast;
   Soothe me with holy hymn and psalm,
   And bid my spirit rest.

914. "Teach me the way of Thy statutes."

Psalm 119.

1 Oh that the Lord would guide my ways
   To keep his statutes still!
   Oh that my God would grant me grace
   To know and do his will!

2 Oh, send thy Spirit down, to write
   Thy law upon my heart;
   Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,
   Nor act the liar's part.

3 Order my footsteps by thy word,
   And make my heart sincere;
   Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
   But keep my conscience clear.

4 Make me to walk in thy commands—
   'Tis a delightful road;
   Nor let my head, nor heart, nor hands
   Offend against my God.

919. "Old things are passed away."

1 We praise and bless thee, gracious Lord,
   Our Saviour kind and true,
   For all the old things passed away,
   For all thou hast made new.

2 But yet how much must be destroyed,
   How much renewed must be,
   Ere we can fully stand complete
   In likeness, Lord, to thine!

3 Whate'er would tempt the soul to stray,
   Or separate from thee,
   That, Lord, remove, however dear
   To our poor hearts it be!

4 When flesh declines, then strengthen thou
   The spirit from above;
   Make us to feel thy service sweet,
   And light thy yoke of love.

5 So shall we faultless stand at last
   Before thy Father's throne;
   The blessedness for ever ours,
   The glory all thine own!

978. "Firmly I build my hope on Thee."

1 I know thy thoughts are peace toward me;
   Safe am I in thy hands;
   Firmly I build my hope on thee,
   For sure thy counsel stands!

2 Whate'er thy word hath promised, all
   Wilt thou full surely give!
   Wherefore, from thee I will not fall;
   Thy word doth make me live.

3 Though mountains crumble into dust,
   Thy covenant standeth fast;
   Who follows thee in pious trust,
   Shall reach the goal at last.
MEDFIELD. C. M.

4 Though strange and winding seems the way,
   While yet on earth I dwell,
In heaven my heart shall gladly say,
   Thou, God, dost all things well!

1208.  "Dust to dust."
1 CALM on the bosom of thy God,
   Young spirit, rest thee now!
Ev'n while with us thy footsteps trod,
   His seal was on thy brow.

2 Dust, to its narrow house beneath!
   Soul, to its place on high!
T'hey that have seen thy look in death
   No more may fear to die.

3 Lone are the paths, and sad the bowers,
   Whence thy meek smile is gone;
   But, oh! a brighter home than ours,
   In heaven, is now thine own.

1256.  "Lord, I believe a rest remains."
1 Lord, I believe a rest remains,
   To all thy people known;
A rest where pure enjoyment reigns,
   And thou art loved alone;—

2 A rest where all our souls' desire
   Is fixed on things above;
Where fear and sin and grief expire,
   Cast out by perfect love.

3 Oh that I now the rest might know,
   Believe and enter in!
Now, Saviour! now the power bestow,
   And let me cease from sin.

4 Remove the hardness of my heart,
   The unbelief remove;
To me the rest of faith impart—
   The Sabbath of thy love.

1257.  Holiness of Heaven.
1 Nor eye hath seen, nor ear hath heard,
   Nor sense nor reason known,
What joys the Father has prepared
   For those that love his Son.

2 But the good Spirit of the Lord
   Reveals a heaven to come;
The beams of glory in his word
   Allure and guide us home.

3 Pure are the joys above the sky
   And all the region peace;
No wanton lips, nor envious eye
   Can see or taste the bliss.

4 These holy gates for ever bar
   Pollution, sin, and shame;
None shall obtain admittance there,
   But followers of the Lamb.

1265.  "Now they desire a better country."
1 On! could our thoughts and wishes fly,
   Above these gloomy shades,
To those bright worlds beyond the sky,
   Which sorrow never invades!

2 There joys unseen by mortal eyes,
   Or reason's feeble ray,
In ever-blooming prospect rise,
   Unconscious of decay.

3 Lord! send a beam of light divine
   To guide our upward aim;
With one reviving touch of thine
   Our languid hearts inflame.

4 Then shall, on faith's sublimest wing,
   Our ardent wishes rise
To those bright scenes, where pleasures spring
   Immortal in the skies.
1 Thou, who didst stoop below
To drain the cup of woe,
And wear the form of frail mortality,
Thy blessed labors done,
Thy crown of vict'ry won,
Hast passed from earth—passed to thy home on high.

2 It was no path of flowers,
Through this dark world of ours,
Beloved of the Father! thou didst tread;
And shall we in dismay
Shrink from the narrow way,
When clouds and darkness are around it spread?

3 O thou who art our Life,
Be with us through the strife;
Was not thy head by earth's rude tempests
Raise thou our eyes above [bowed?]
To see a Father's love
Beam, like the bow of promise, through the cloud.

4 Ev'n through the awful gloom
Which hovers o'er the tomb,
That light of love our guiding star shall be;
Our spirits shall not dread
The shadowy way to tread,
Friend, Guardian, Saviour! which doth lead to thee.
264.  The Contrast.

1  Blessed night, when first that plain
    Echoed with the joyful strain,—
    "Peace has come to earth again!"

2  Happy shepherds, on whose ear
    Fell the tidings glad and dear,—
    "God to man is drawing near!"

3  Babe of weakness, can it be
    That the earth's great victory
    Is to be achieved by thee?

4  Child of poverty, art thou
    He to whom all heaven shall bow,
    And all earth shall pay the vow?

5  Heir of pain and toil, whom none
    In this evil day will own,
    Art thou the Eternal One?

6  Thou, o'er whom the sword and rod
    Wave, in haste to drink thy blood,
    Art thou very Son of God?

7  We adore thee as our King,
    And to thee our song we sing;
    Our best offering to thee bring.

8  Guarded by the shepherds' rod,
    'Mid their flock, thy poor abode;
    Thus we own thee, Lamb of God.

9  Lamb of God, thy lowly name;
    King of kings, we thee proclaim:
    Heaven and earth shall hear its fame.

10 Mighty King of righteousness,
    King of glory, King of peace,
    Never shall thy kingdom cease!

50.  Christ the Sun of Righteousness.

1  Jesus, Sun of righteousness,
    Brightest beam of love divine,
    With the early morning rays
    Do thou on our darkness shine,
    And dispel with purest light
    All our night!

2  Like the sun's reviving ray,
    May thy love, with tender glow,
    All our coldness melt away,

3  Thou our only Life and Guide!
    Never leave us nor forsake:
    In thy light may we abide
    Till the eternal morning break;
    Moving on to Zion's hill
    Homeward still!
180. "How firm a foundation!"

1 How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say than to you he hath said.
Who unto the Saviour for refuge have fled:

2 "Fear not, I am with thee, oh, be not dismayed;
For I am thy God, I will still give thee aid:
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

3 "When through the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not overflow;
For I will be with thee thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.

4 "The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to his foes:
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never—no, never—no, never forsake!"

782. Looking off.

1 O eyes that are weary, and hearts that are sore!
Look off unto Jesus, now sorrow no more!
The light of his countenance shineth so bright,
That here, as in heaven, there need be no night.

2 While looking to Jesus, my heart can not fear;
I tremble no more when I see Jesus near;
I know that his presence my safeguard will be,
For, "Why are ye troubled?" he saith unto me.

3 Still looking to Jesus, oh, may I be found,
When Jordan's dark waters encompass me round:
They bear me away in his presence to be:
I see him still nearer whom always I see.
4 Then, then shall I know the full beauty and grace
   Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face;
Shall know how his love went before me each day,
   And wonder that ever my eyes turned away.

1 Though faint, yet pursuing, we go on our way;
The Lord is our Leader, his word is our stay;
Though suffering, and sorrow, and trial be near,
The Lord is our refuge, and whom can we fear?

2 He raiseth the fallen, he cheereth the faint;
The weak, and oppressed—he will hear their complaint;
The way may be weary, and thorny the road,
   But how can we falter? our help is in God!

3 And to his green pastures our footsteps he leads;
   His flock in the desert how kindly he feeds!
   The lambs in his bosom he tenderly bears,
   And brings back the wanderers all safe from the snares.

4 Though clouds may surround us, our God is our light;
   Though storms rage around us, our God is our might;
   So faint, yet pursuing, still onward we come;
   The Lord is our Leader, and heaven is our home!

1006. "He shall be called the Lord our Righteousness."

1 I once was a stranger to grace and to God;
   I knew not my danger, and felt not my load;
Though friends spoke in rapture of Christ on the tree,
   Jehovah, my Saviour, seemed nothing to me.

2 When free grace awoke me by light from on high,
   Then legal fears shook me; I trembled to die:
   No refuge, no safety, in self could I see;
   Jehovah, thou only my Saviour must be.

3 My terrors all vanished before his sweet name;
   My guilty fears banished, with boldness I came
   To drink at the fountain, so copious and free:
   Jehovah, my Saviour, is all things to me.

4 Jehovah, the Lord, is my treasure and boast;
   Jehovah my Saviour,—I ne'er can be lost:
   In thee I shall conquer, by flood and by field,
   Jehovah my anchor, Jehovah my shield!

5 Ev'n treading the valley, the shadow of death,
   This watchword shall rally my faltering breath;
   For, while from life's fever my God sets me free,
   Jehovah, my Saviour, my death-song shall be!

Doxology.

O Father Almighty, to thee be addressed,
   With Christ and the Spirit, one God ever blest,
All glory and worship, from earth and from heaven,
   As was, and is now, and shall ever be given!
Come, Holy Spirit, come!
Let thy bright beams arise;
Dispel the sorrow from our minds,
The darkness from our eyes.

2 Convince us of our sin;
Then lead to Jesus' blood,
And to our wondering view reveal
The secret love of God.

3 Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,
And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.

4 'Tis thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,
And new-create the whole.

Dwell, Spirit, in our hearts;
Our minds from bondage free;
Then shall we know, and praise, and love,
The Father, Son, and Thee.

Lord, draw reluctant souls,
And feast them with thy love;
Then will the angels swiftly fly
To bear the news above.

Shall we go on to sin
Because thy grace abounds?
Or crucify the Lord again,
And open all his wounds?

Forbid it, mighty God!
Nor let it e'er be said
That we, whose sins are crucified,
Should raise them from the dead.

We will be slaves no more,
Since Christ has made us free,—
Has nailed our tyrants to his cross,
And bought our liberty.

A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify;
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.

To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill;—
Oh, may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.

Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And oh! thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give.

Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely;
Assured if I my trust betray,
I shall for ever die.
918. Prayer for Likeness to Christ.

1 Thou art, O Christ, the Way:
Thyself reveal to me;
And let me humbly, day by day,
Live, move, and walk in thee.

2 Thou art the Truth divine:
Its fullness may I see;
Believe, and find the promise mine,—
"The Truth shall make you free."

3 Thou art the Life of God;
By thee the dying live;
In me diffuse thyself abroad,
And life eternal give.

4 Thus, by thyself, the Way,
I to the Father come;
Led by the Truth, I can not stray;
The Life and I are one.

OLMUTZ. S. M.

1147. Fasting and Prayer for a Revival of Religion.

1 O Lord, thy work revive,
In Zion's gloomy hour;
And make her dying graces live
By thy restoring power.

2 Awake thy chosen few
To fervent, earnest prayer;
Again their sacred vows renew;
Thy blessed presence share.

3 Thy Spirit then will speak
Through lips of feeble clay,
And hearts of adamant will break,
And rebels will obey.

4 Lord! lend thy gracious ear;
Oh, listen to our cry!
Oh, come and bring salvation here!
Our hopes on thee rely.
41. "Give thy heart."

1 When, as returns this solemn day,
   Man comes to meet his God,
   What rites, what honors shall he pay?
   How spread his praise abroad?

2 From marble domes and gilded spires
   Shall clouds of incense rise?
   And gems, and gold, and garlands deck
   The costly sacrifice?

3 Vain, sinful man!—creation's Lord
   Thine offerings well may spare;
   But give thy heart, and thou shalt find
   Thy God will hear thy prayer.

122. God, All in All.

1 Where'er, through all his works, we send
   Our roving eyes abroad,
   The various objects all conspire
   To lead us home to God;—

2 That God, whose word all nature formed,
   Whose eye all nature sees;
   Whose hand all nature rules, sustains,
   Or crushes, as he please;—

3 Before whose high and dazzling throne
   Myriads of angels bow;
   Whose smile is everlasting bliss,
   Whose frown is endless woe.

4 Low at his feet, then, O my soul!
   In prostrate homage fall;
   Make him thy fear, thy love, thy trust,
   Thy joy, thy God, thy all.

135. "Whither shall I flee from Thy Presence?"
   Psalm 139.

1 In all my vast concerns with thee,
   In vain my soul would try
   To shun thy presence, Lord, or flee
   The notice of thine eye.

2 Thine all-surrounding sight surveys
   My rising and my rest;
   My public walks, my private ways,
   The secrets of my breast.

3 My thoughts lie open to the Lord,
   Before they're formed within;
   And, ere my lips pronounce the word,
   He knows the sense I mean.

4 Oh, wondrous knowledge, deep and high!
   Where can a creature hide?
   Within thy circling arms I lie,
   Beset on every side.

5 So let thy grace surround me still,
   And like a bulwark prove,
   To guard my soul from every ill,
   Secured by sovereign love.

142. "The living God."

1 Great God! how infinite art thou!
   What worthless worms are we!
   Let the whole race of creatures bow,
   And pay their praise to thee.

2 Thy throne eternal ages stood,
   Ere seas or stars were made;
   Thou art the ever-living God,
   Were all the nations dead.

3 Eternity, with all its years,
   Stands present in thy view;
   To thee there's nothing old appears,
   Great God! there's nothing new.

4 Our livethrough various scenes are drawn,
   And vexed with trifling cares;
   While thine eternal thoughts move on
   Thine undisturbed affairs.
5 Great God! how infinite art thou!
What worthless worms are we!
Let the whole race of creatures bow,
And pay their praise to thee.

1 How sad our state by nature is!
Our sin—how deep it stains!
And Satan holds our captive minds
Fast in his slavish chains.

2 But there's a voice of sovereign grace
Sounds from the sacred word:
"Ho! ye despairing sinners, come,
And trust upon the Lord."

3 My soul obeys th' almighty call,
And runs to this relief;
I would believe thy promise, Lord:
Oh, help my unbelief!

4 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm,
On thy kind arms I fall:
Be thou my strength and righteousness,
My Saviour and my All.

549. Need of Regeneration.
1 How helpless guilty nature lies,
Unconscious of her load!
The heart unchanged can never rise
To happiness and God.

2 Can aught beneath a power divine
The stubborn will subdue?
'Tis thine, almighty Saviour, thine,
To form the heart anew.

3 'Tis thine the passions to recall,
And upward bid them rise;
To make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes;—

4 To chase the shades of death away,
And bid the sinner live:
A beam of heaven, a vital ray,
'Tis thine alone to give.

5 Oh, change these wretched hearts of ours,
And give them life divine!
Then shall our passions and our powers,
Almighty Lord, be thine.

1 And are we wretches yet alive!
And do we yet rebel!
'Tis boundless, 'tis amazing love,
That bears us up from hell!

2 The burden of our weighty guilt
Would sink us down to flames:
And threatening vengeance rolls above,
To crush our feeble frames.

3 Almighty goodness cries, "Forbear!"
And straight the thunder stays;
And dare we now provoke his wrath,
And weary out his grace?

4 Lord, we have long abused thy love,
Too long indulged our sin;
Our aching hearts now bleed to see
What rebels we have been.

5 No more, ye lusts, shall ye command;
No more will we obey:
Stretch out, O God, thy conquering hand,
And drive thy foes away.

Doxology.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore!
465. The Power of the Holy Spirit.

1 Eternal Spirit, we confess
   And sing the wonders of thy grace:
   Thy power conveys our blessings down
   From God the Father and the Son.

2 Enlightened by thy heavenly ray,
   Our shades and darkness turn to day;
   Thine inward teachings make us know
   Our danger, and our refuge, too.

3 Thy power and glory work within,
   And break the chains of reigning sin;
   All our imperious lusts subdue,
   And form our wrenched hearts anew.

4 The troubled conscience knows thy voice;
   Thy cheering words awake our joys;
   Thy words allay the stormy wind,
   And calm the surges of the mind.

946. "He shall sit as a refiner of silver."

1 Why should I murmur or repine,
   O Lamb of God, who bled for me?
   What are my griefs compared with thine,
   Thy tears, thy groans, thine agony!

2 If thou the furnace dost employ,
   Thou sittest as refiner near,
   To purge away the base alloy,
   Till thine own image bright appear.

3 Though oft thy way is in the sea,
   Thy footsteps in the winged storm;
   Though crested billows threaten me,—
   Love slumbers in their frowning form!

4 Submissive would I kiss the rod,
   Needful each stroke, I humbly own:
   Help me to trust thee, O my God!
   If now thy wisdom be unknown.

1254. The Heavenly Rest.

(Abridged Form.)

1 Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love,—
   But there's a nobler rest above:
   To that our laboring souls aspire,
   With ardent pangs of strong desire.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
   Nor sin nor hell shall reach the place;
   No groans to mingle with the songs
   Which warble from immortal tongues.

3 O long-expected day, begin!
   Dawn on these realms of woe and sin;
   Fain would we leave this weary road,
   And sleep in death, to rest with God.

1253. The Heavenly Rest.

(Original Form.)

1 Lord of the Sabbath hear our vows,
   On this thy day, in this thy house;
   And own as grateful sacrifice,
   The songs which from the desert rise.

2 Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love,—
   But there's a nobler rest above:
   To that our laboring souls aspire,
   With ardent pangs of strong desire.
6. Watchfulness and Prayer.—Psalm 141.

1. My God, accept my early vows,
   Like morning incense in thy house;
   And let my nightly worship rise
   Sweet as the evening sacrifice.

2. Watch o'er my lips, and guard them, Lord,
   From every rash and heedless word;
   Nor let my feet incline to tread
   The guilty path where sinners lead.

3. Oh, may the righteouse, when I stray,
   Smite and reprove my wandering way!
   Their gentle words, like ointment shed,
   Shall never bruise, but cheer my head.

4. When I behold them pressed with grief,
   I'll cry to heaven for their relief;
   And, by my warm petitions, prove
   How much I prize their faithful love.

921. "Who shall abide in Thy Tabernacle?"
Psalm 15.

1. Who shall ascend thy heavenly place,
   Great God, and dwell before thy face?
   The man who minds religion now,
   And humbly walks with God below;

2. Whose hands are pure, whose heart is clean;
   Whose lips still speak the thing they mean;
   No slanders dwell upon his tongue;
   He hates to do his neighbor wrong.

3. He loves his enemies, and prays
   For those who curse him to his face;
   And does to all men still the same
   That he would hope or wish from them.

4. Yet when his holiest works are done,
   His soul depends on grace alone:
   This is the man thy face shall see,
   And dwell for ever, Lord, with thee.

948. "Joy cometh in the morning.

1. O, deem not they are blest alone,
   Whose lives a peaceful tenor keep;
   For God, who pitied man, hath shown
   A blessing for the eyes that weep.

2. The light of smiles shall fill again
   The lids that overflow with tears;
   And weary hours of woe and pain
   Are promises of happier years.

3. There is a day of sunny rest
   For every dark and troubled night;
   And grief may hide an evening guest;
   But joy shall come with early light.

4. Nor let the good man's trust depart,
   Though life its common gifts deny;
   Though with a pierced and broken heart,
   And spurned of men, he goes to die.

5. For God has marked each sorrowing day,
   And numbered every secret tear;
   And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
   For all his children suffer here.
78. "Ask, and it shall be given you."—Matt. 7:11.

1 O thou that hearest prayer!
Attend our humble cry;
And let thy servants share
Thy blessing from on high:
We plead the promise of thy word;
Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord!

2 If earthly parents hear
Their children when they cry;
If they, with love sincere,
Their children's wants supply;
Much more wilt thou thy love display,
And answer when thy children pray.

3 Our heavenly Father, thou;
We, children of thy grace:
Oh, let thy Spirit now
Descend and fill the place!
That all may feel the heavenly flame,
And all unite to praise thy name.

1 Ye dying sons of men,
Immerged in sin and woe,
The gospel's voice attend,
While Jesus sends to you:
Ye perishing and guilty, come;
In Jesus' arms there yet is room.

2 No longer now delay,
Nor vain excuses frame;
He bids you come to-day,
Though poor, and blind, and lame:
All things are ready; sinner, come;
For every trembling soul there's room.

3 Drawn by his bleeding love,
Ye wand'ring sheep, draw near;
Christ calls you from above;
The Shepherd's voice now hear:
Let whosoever will, now come;
In Jesus' arms there still is room.

575. "The sacrifice of God are a broken spirit."—Psalm 51.

1 A broken heart, O Lord!
Thou never wilt despise;
'Tis written in thy word,
This is the sacrifice:
The sacrifice that thou wilt own—
It is the broken heart alone.

2 Break thou my heart, O Lord;
The rock within me break;
To tremble at thy word,
And at thine anger quak;
Let me in deep contrition lie,
And heave the penitential sigh.

3 For mercy dwells with thee;
Compassion, all divine;
That mercy show to me;
Be that compassion mine;
For sinners did not Jesus bleed?
And Jesus' blood alone I plead.
942. Consolation in Christ.

1 Where is my Saviour now,
    Whose smiles I once possessed?
    Till he return, I bow,
    By heaviest grief oppressed:
My days of happiness are gone,
And I am left to weep alone.

2 Where can the mourner go,
    And tell his tale of grief?
    Ah! who can soothe his woe,
    And give him sweet relief?
Earth can not heal the wounded breast,
Or give the troubled sinner rest.

3 Jesus! thy smiles impart;
    My dearest Lord return,
    And ease my wounded heart,
    And bid me cease to mourn:
Then shall this night of sorrow flee,
And peace and heaven be found in thee.

1203. An ancient Burial Hymn.

1 The pangs of death are near,
    Amid the joys of life;
    And when, in guilty fear,
    We end our dying strife,
To whom, most holy Lord,
    Shall we for succor flee?
O thou most mighty God!
    Our help is laid on thee:
Lord Jesus! by thy bloody stains,
Save, save us from hell's bitter pains.

2 The bitter pains of hell
    Awaken our alarm;
    We merit only ill
    From thine avenging arm;
Most holy Lord our God,
    To whom but unto thee,
Most merciful and good,
    Can we for refuge flee?
Suffer us not to fall away
    From Jesus in our dying day.

3 Our dying day will come,
    And call our crimes to mind;
    And when in sorrow dumb,
    No hope on earth we find,
To thee, O Christ, we fly,—
    To thine outflowing blood;
Look with thy pitying eye,
    Spare us, most holy Lord:
Nor let us lose the joys that rise
    From thine atoning sacrifice.

* Let the first eight measures of the tune be repeated for this Hymn.
138. "Seeing Him who is invisible."

1 Beyond, beyond that boundless sea,
   Above that dome of sky,
   Further than thought itself can flee,
   Thy dwelling is on high:
   Yet dear the awful thought to me,
   That thou, my God, art nigh:—

2 Art nigh, and yet my laboring mind
   Feels after thee in vain,
   Thee in these works of power to find,
   Or to thy seat attain,
   Thy messenger, the stormy wind;
   Thy path, the trackless main:

3 These speak of thee with loud acclaim;
   They thunder forth thy praise,
   The glorious honor of thy name,
   The wonders of thy ways;
   But thou art not in tempest-flame,
   Nor in the noontide blaze.

4 We hear thy voice when thunders roll
   Through the wide fields of air;
   The waves obey thy dread control;
   But still, thou art not there:
   Where shall I find him, O my soul!
   Who yet is every where?

5 Oh! not in circling depth or height,
   But in the conscious breast,
   Present to faith, though vailed from sight;
   There doth his Spirit rest:
   Oh, come, thou Presence infinite!
   And make thy creature blest.

1 Father, I know that all my life
   Is portioned out for me;
   The changes that will surely come
   I do not fear to see:
   I ask thee for a present mind,
   Intent on pleasing thee.

2 I ask thee for a thoughtful love,
   Through constant watching wise,
   To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
   And wipe the weeping eyes;
   A heart at leisure from itself,
   To soothe and sympathize.

3 I would not have the restless will
   That hurries to and fro,
   That seeks for some great thing to do,
   Or secret thing to know:
   I would be treated as a child,
   And guided where I go.

4 Wherever in the world I am,
   In whatso'er estate,
   I have a fellowship with hearts,
   To keep and cultivate;
   A work of lowly love to do
   For him on whom I wait.

5 I ask thee for the daily strength,
   To none that ask denied,
   A mind to blend with outward life,
   While keeping at thy side;
   Content to fill a little space,
   If thou be glorified.

6 And if some things I do not ask,
   Among my blessings be,
   I'd have my spirit filled the more
   With grateful love to thee;
   More careful—not to serve thee much,
   But please thee perfectly.

305. "By Thy death we live."

1 In vain we seek for peace with God
   By methods of our own;
   Blest Saviour! nothing but thy blood
   Can bring us near the throne.
2 The threatenings of thy broken law
Impress the soul with dread:
If God his sword of vengeance draw,
It strikes the spirit dead.

3 But thine atoning sacrifice
Hath answered all demands;
And peace and pardon from the skies
Are offered by thy hands.

4 'Tis by thy death we live, O Lord!
'Tis on thy cross we rest:
Forever be thy love adored,
Thy name for ever blest.

478. "All glory to the united Three."

1 Let them neglect thy glory, Lord,
Who never knew thy grace;
But our loud songs shall still record
The wonders of thy hands.

2 We raise our shouts, O God, to thee,
And send them to thy throne:
All glory to the united Three,
The undivided One!

3 'Twas he (and we'll adore his name)
That formed us by a word;
'Tis he restores our ruined frame;
Salvation to the Lord!

4 Hosanna! let the earth and skies
Repeat the joyful sound;
Rocks, hills, and vales, reflect the voice
In one eternal round!

629. * Why so far from God?

My heart presumes I can not lose
The relish all my days.

3 But, ere one fleeting hour is past,
The flattering world employs
Some sensual bait to seize my taste,
And to pollute my joys.

4 Wretch that I am to wander thus
In chase of false delight!
Let me be fastened to thy cross,
Rather than lose thy sight.

5 Make haste, my days, to reach the goal,
And bring my heart to rest
On the dear center of my soul,
My God, my Saviour's breast!

642. "God is my portion for ever."
Psalm 73.

1 Whom have we, Lord, in heaven, but thee,
And whom on earth beside?
Where else for succor can we flee,
Or in whose strength confide?

2 Thou art our portion here below,
Our promised bliss above;
Ne'er may our souls an object know
So precious as thy love.

3 When heart and flesh, O Lord, shall fail,
Thou wilt our spirit cheer,
Support us through life's thorny vale,
And calm each anxious fear.

4 Yes, thou shalt be our guide through life,
And help and strength supply,
Sustain us in death's fearful strife,
And welcome us on high.

Doxology.
Let God the Father, and the Son,
And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
Or saints to love the Lord!
1248. The Song of the Hundred and forty and four thousand.—Rev. 7: 11-17.

1 What are these in bright array,
   This innumerable throng,
Round the altar night and day,
   Hymning one triumphant song?—
"Worthy is the Lamb once slain,
   Blessing, honor, glory, power,
Wisdom, riches to obtain,
   New dominion every hour!"

2 These through fiery trials trod;
These from great affliction came;
Now before the throne of God,
Sealed with his almighty name:
Clad in raiment pure and white,
Victor-palms in every hand,
Through their dear Redeemer's might,
More than conquerors they stand.

3 Hunger, thirst, disease unknown,
On immortal fruits they feed;
Then the Lamb amid the throne
Shall to living fountains lead:
Joy and gladness banish sighs;
Perfect love dispels all fear;
And for ever from their eyes
God shall wipe away the tear.

1249. "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

1 Here in yonder realms of light,
   Dwell the raptured saints above;
Far beyond our feeble sight,
   Happy in Immanuel's love;
Pilgrims in this vale of tears,
   Once they knew, like us below,
Gloomy doubts, distressing fears,
Torturing pain and heavy woe.

2 But these days of weeping o'er,
   Passed this scene of toil and pain,
They shall feel distress no more—
   Never, never weep again:
'Mid the chorus of the skies,
   'Mid th' angelic lyres above,
Hark! their songs melodious rise,
   Songs of praise to Jesus' love!

3 All is tranquil and serene,
   Calm and undisturbed repose:
There no cloud can intervene,
   There no angry tempest blows:
Every tear is wiped away,
Sighs no more shall heave the breast,
Night is lost in endless day,
   Sorrow—in eternal rest.

25. * "All the sons of God shouted for joy."

1 Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
   When he spake, and it was done,
   Songs of praise arose, when he
   Captive led captivity.
   Songs of praise must pass away;
   Songs of praise shall crown that day;
   God will make new heavens and earth;
   Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

4 Saints below, with heart and voice,
   Still in songs of praise rejoice;
   Learning here, by faith and love,
   Songs of praise to sing above.

5 Borne upon their latest breath
   Songs of praise shall conquer death;
   Then, amid eternal joy,
   Songs of praise their powers employ.

   * Commence the fifth stanza with the latter part of the tune.
WHITE. 7s. Double.

896. * Onward go.

1 Oft in sorrow, oft in woe,
   Onward, Christian, onward go!
   Fight the fight, maintain the strife,
   Strengthened with the bread of life.

2 Onward, Christian, onward go!
   Join the war and face the foe:
   Will you flee in danger's hour?
   Know you not your Captain's power?

3 Let your drooping heart be glad;
   March, in heavenly armor clad;
   Fight! nor think the battle long;
   Soon shall victory tune your song.

4 Let not sorrow dim your eye;
   Soon shall every tear be dry:
   Let not fears your course impede;
   Great your strength, if great your need.

5 Onward, then, to battle move!
   More than conqueror you shall prove;
   Though opposed by many a foe,
   Christian soldier, onward go!

Hold the cross of Jesus fast;
Thou shalt overcome at last.
4 Faint not, Christian! though within
   There's a heart so prone to sin;
   Christ, the Lord, is over all;
   He'll not suffer thee to fall.

5 Faint not, Christian! Jesus near
   Soon in glory will appear;
   And his love will then bestow
   Power to conquer every foe.

6 Faint not, Christian! look on high;
   See the harpers in the sky:
   Patient wait, and thou wilt join—
   Chant with them of love divine.

891. "Let us not sleep, as do others."

1 Sleep not, soldier of the Cross!
   Foes are lurking all around;
   Look not here to find repose:
   This is but thy battle-ground.

2 Up! and take thy shield and sword;
   Up! it is the call of Heaven:
   Shrink not faithless from thy Lord;
   Nobly strive as he hath striven.

3 Break through all the force of ill;
   Tread the might of passion down,
   Struggling onward, onward still,
   To the conqu'ring Saviour's crown!

4 Through the midst of toil and pain,
   Let this thought ne'er leave thy breast:
   Every triumph thou dost gain
   Makes more sweet thy coming rest.
418.

1 I close my heavy eye,
    Saviour, ever near!
I lift my soul on high,
    Through the darkness dear:
Be thou my light, I cry,
    Saviour, ever dear!

2 I feel thine arms around,
    Saviour, ever near!
With thee if I am found,
    Never can I fear,
Whatever ills abound;—
    Saviour, ever dear!

3 Thine is the day and night,
    Saviour, ever near!
Thine is the dark and light,
    Be my covert here:
Oh, shield me with thy might,
    Saviour, ever dear!

4 And when I come to die,
    Saviour, ever near,
Receive my parting sigh;
    In the hour of fear,
Be to my spirit nigh,
    Saviour, ever dear!

1262.

1 Will that not joyful be,
    When we walk by faith no more,
When the Lord we loved before,
    As Brother-man we see;
When he welcomes us above,
    When we share his smile of love,
Will that not joyful be?

2 Will that not joyful be,
    When to meet us rise and come
All our buried treasures home,
    A gladsome company!
When our arms embrace again
    Those we mourned so long in vain,
Will that not joyful be?

[For 3d and 4th stanzas see next page.]
991. "I have longed for Thy salvation, O Lord."

1 Purer yet and purer
I would be in mind,
Dearer yet and dearer
Every duty find;
2 Hoping still and trusting
God without a fear,
Patiently believing
He will make all clear;
3 Calmer yet and calmer
Trial bear and pain,
Surer yet and surer
Peace at last to gain;
4 Suffering still and doing,
To his will resigned,
And to God subduing
Heart and will and mind.
5 Higher yet and higher
Out of clouds and night,
Nearer yet and nearer
Rising to the light—
6 Light serene and holy,
Where my soul may rest,
Purified and lowly,
Sanctified and blest;
7 Quicker yet and quicker
Ever onward press,
Firmer yet and firmer
Step as I progress:

8 Oft these earnest longings
Swell within my breast,
Yet their inner meaning
Ne'er can be expressed.

679. "I am thy God; I will strengthen thee."

1 On, let him whose sorrow
No relief can find,
Trust in God, and borrow
Ease for heart and mind!
Where the mourner, weeping,
Sheds the sacred tear,
God his watch is keeping,
Though none else is near.
2 God will never leave us;
All our wants he knows;
Feels the pains that grieve us,
Sees our cares and woes:
When in grief we languish,
He will dry the tear
Who his children's anguish
Soothes with succor near.
3 All our woe and sadness
In this world below,
Equal not the gladness
We in heaven shall know,—
When our gracious Saviour,
In the realms above,
Crowns us with his favor,
Fills us with his love.

4 Yes! that will joyful be;
Let the world her gifts recall;
There is bitterness in all:
Her joys are vanity!
Courage, dear ones of my heart!
Though it grieves us here to part,
There we shall joyful be!

1 Did Christ o'er sinners weep,
   And shall our cheeks be dry?
   Let floods of penitential grief
   Burst forth from every eye.

2 The Son of God in tears
   The wondering angels see!
   Be thou astonished, O my soul!
   He shed those tears for thee.

3 He wept that we might weep;
   Each sin demands a tear;
   In heaven alone no sin is found,
   And weeping is not there.

499. "How should man be just with God?"
   Job 9: 2.

1 Ah, how shall fallen man
   Be just before his God!
   If he contend in righteousness,
   We fall beneath his rod.

2 If he our ways should mark,
   With strict inquiring eyes,
   Could we for one of thousand faults
   A just excuse devise?

3 All-seeing, powerful God!
   Who can with thee contend?
   Or who that tries th' unequal strife,
   Shall prosper in the end?

4 The mountains, in thy wrath,
   Their ancient seats forsake;
   The trembling earth deserts her place,
   Her rooted pillars shake.

5 Ah, how shall guilty man
   Contend with such a God!
   None, none can meet him and escape,
   But through the Saviour's blood.

599. "Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee."
   Psalm 130.

1 Out of the depths of woe,
   To thee, O Lord! I cry;
   Darkness surrounds me, yet I know
   That thou art ever nigh.

2 I cast my hopes on thee;
   Thou canst, thou wilt forgive;
   If thou shouldst mark iniquity,
   Who in thy sight could live?

3 I wait for thee; I wait,
   Confessing all my sin:
   Lord! I am knocking at thy gate;
   Open, and take me in.

4 Glory to God above!
   The waters soon will cease;
   For lo! the swift-returning dove
   Brings home the pledge of peace.

5 Though storms his face obscure,
   And dangers threaten loud,
   Jehovah's covenant is sure,
   His bow is in the cloud!

567. Hope in the Cross.

1 My former hopes are fled,
   My terror now begins;
   I feel, alas! that I am dead
   In trespasses and sins.

2 Ah! whither shall I fly?
   I hear the thunder roar:
   The law proclaims destruction nigh,
   And vengeance at the door.

3 When I review my ways,
   I dread impending doom;
   But sure a friendly whisper says,
   "Flee from the wrath to come."

4 I see, or think I see,
   A glimmering from afar;
   A beam of day that shines for me,
   To save me from despair.

5 Forerunner of the sun,
   It marks the pilgrim's way;
   I'll gaze upon it while I run,
   And watch the rising day.
625. "O Lord, hear me, for I am poor and needy."

1 My God, my prayer attend;
   Oh, bow thine ear to me—
   Without a hope, without a friend,
   Without a help but thee!

2 Oh, guard my soul around,
   Which loves and trusts thy grace;
   Nor let the powers of hell confound
   The hopes on thee I place!

3 Thy mercy I entreat:
   Let mercy hear my cries,
   While, humbly waiting at thy feet,
   My daily prayers arise.

4 Oh, bid my heart rejoice,
   And every fear control!
   Since at thy throne with suppliant voice
   To thee I lift my soul.

848. Confiding Prayer.

1 And shall I sit alone,
   Oppressed with grief and fear?

Olmutz. S. M.
WARE. L. M. Double.

61. "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy."

1 Another six days' work is done; Another Sabbath is begun: Return, my soul, unto thy rest; Enjoy the day thy God hath blest.

2 Oh that our thoughts and thanks may rise, As grateful incense to the skies! And draw from heaven that calm repose, Which none but he who feels it knows;

3 That heavenly calm within the breast! It is the pledge of that dear rest Which for the church of God remains,— The end of cares, the end of pains.

4 In holy duties let the day, In holy pleasures, pass away. How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend, In hope of one that never shall end!

739. "Is there no Physician there?" Jer. 8:22.

1 Why droops my soul, with grief oppressed? Whence these wild tumults in my breast? Is there no balm to heal my wound? No kind physician to be found?

2 Raise to the cross thy weeping eyes; Behold, the Prince of glory dies! He dies extended on the tree, Thence sheds a sovereign balm for thee.

3 Dear Saviour! at thy feet I lie, Here to receive a cure, or die; But grace forbids that painful fear— Oh, boundless grace! it triumphs here.

4 Expand, my soul, with holy joy; Hosannas be thy blest employ, Salvation thy eternal theme,— And swell the song with Jesus' name!

1 What sinners value, I resign; Lord, 'tis enough that thou art mine: I shall behold thy blissful face, And stand complete in righteousness.

2 This life's a dream, an empty show; But the bright world to which I go Hath joys substantial and sincere: When shall I wake and find me there?

3 Oh, glorious hour! oh, blest abode! I shall be near and like my God; And flesh and sin no more control The sacred pleasures of the soul.

4 My flesh shall slumber in the ground Till the last trumpet's joyful sound; Then burst the chains with sweet surprise, And in my Saviour's image rise!

1168. "It is even a vapor."

1 How vain is all beneath the skies! How transient every earthly bliss! How slender all the fondest ties, That bind us to a world like this!

2 The evening cloud, the morning dew, The withering grass, the fading flower, Of earthly hopes are emblems true— The glory of a passing hour!

3 But though earth's fairest blossoms die, And all beneath the skies is vain, There is a land, whose confines lie Beyond the reach of care and pain.

4 Then let the hope of joys to come Dispel our cares, and chase our fears; If God be ours, we're traveling home, Though passing through a vale of tears.
75. Sabbath Evening.

1 Sweet is the light of Sabbath eve,
And soft the sunbeams lingering there;
For these blest hours the world I leave,
Wafted on wings of faith and prayer.

2 Season of rest! the tranquil soul
Feels the sweet calm, and melts in love;
And while these sacred moments roll,
Faith sees a smiling heaven above.

3 Nor will our days of toil be long;
Our pilgrimage will soon be trod;
And we shall join the ceaseless song,
The endless Sabbath of our God.

755. With Christ in Heaven.

1 As when the weary traveler gains
The height of some o'erlooking hill,
His heart revives, if o'er the plains
He sees his home, though distant still,—

2 So when the Christian pilgrim views,
By faith, his mansion in the skies,
The sight his fainting strength renewes,
And wings his speed to reach the prize.

3 "Tis there," he says, "I am to dwell
With Jesus in the realms of day;
Then shall I bid my cares farewell,
And he will wipe my tears away."

845. The Mercy-seat.

1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,—
A place, than all besides, more sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat!

4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar,
And sense and sin molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat!

5 Oh! let my hand forget her skill,
My tongue be silent, cold, and still,
This throbbing heart forget to beat,
If I forget the mercy-seat.

864. "How blest the sacred tie!"

1 How blest the sacred tie that binds,
In union sweet, according minds!
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts and faith and hopes are one!

2 To each the soul of each how dear!
What jealous care, what holy fear!
How doth the generous flame within,
Refine from earth and cleanse from sin!

3 Their streaming tears together flow
For human guilt and human woe;
Their ardent prayers united rise,
Like mingling flames in sacrifice.

4 Together oft they seek the place
Where God reveals his awful face;
How high, how strong their raptures swell
There's none but kindred minds can tell.

5 Nor shall the glowing flame expire
Mid nature's drooping, sickening fire:
Soon shall they meet in realms above,
A heaven of joy, because of love.
146. "Our dwelling-place in all generations."
Psalm 90.
1 Our God, our help in ages past,
   Our hope for years to come,
   Our shelter from the stormy blast,
       And our eternal home!
2 Under the shadow of thy throne,
   Thy saints have dwelt secure;
   Sufficient is thine arm alone,
       And our defense is sure.
3 Before the hills in order stood,
   Or earth received her frame,
   From everlasting thou art God,
       To endless years the same.
4 Thy word commands our flesh to dust:
   "Return, ye sons of men;"
   All nations rose from earth at first,
       And turn to earth again.
5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
   Bears all its sons away;
   They fly, forgotten, as a dream
       Dies at the opening day.
6 Our God, our help in ages past,
   Our hope for years to come,
   Be thou our guard while troubles last,
       And our eternal home!

4 From strife of tongues, and bitter words,
   My spirit flies to thee;
   Joy to my heart the thought affords,
       My Saviour died for me!
5 And when thine awful voice commands
   This body to decay,
   And life, in its last lingering sands,
       Is ebbing fast away;—
6 Then, though it be in accents weak,
   My voice shall call on thee,
   And ask for strength in death to speak,
       "My Saviour died for me."

637. "Wilt not Thou deliver my feet from falling?"
1 Alas, what hourly dangers rise!
   What snares beset my way!
   To heaven, oh, let me lift mine eyes,
       And hourly watch and pray.
2 How oft my mournful thoughts complain,
   And melt in flowing tears!
   My weak resistance, ah, how vain!
       How strong my foes and fears!
3 O gracious God! in whom I live,
   My feeble efforts aid;
   Help me to watch, and pray, and strive,
       Though trembling and afraid.
4 Increase my faith, increase my hope,
   When foes and fears prevail;
   And bear my fainting spirit up,
       Or soon my strength will fail.
5 Whene'er temptations fright my heart,
   Or lure my feet aside,
   My God, thy powerful aid impart,
       My Guardian and my Guide.
6 Oh, keep me in thy heavenly way,
   And bid the tempter flee!
   And let me never, never stray
       From happiness and thee.

1 That awful day will surely come,
Th' appointed hour makes haste,
When I must stand before my Judge,
And pass the solemn test.

2 Thou lovely Chief of all my joys,
Thou Sovereign of my heart!
How could I bear to hear thy voice
Pronounce the sound, "Depart!"

3 Oh, wretched state of deep despair!
To see my God remove,—
And fix my doleful station where
I must not taste his love!

4 Jesus, I throw my arms around,
And hang upon thy breast:
Without a gracious smile from thee,
My spirit can not rest.

5 Oh, tell me that my worthless name
Is graven on thy hands!
Show me some promise in thy book,
Where my salvation stands.

6 Give me one kind, assuring word,
To sink my fears again;
And cheerfully my soul shall wait
Her threescore years and ten.

580. Inconstancy lamented.

1 Long have I sat beneath the sound
Of thy salvation, Lord;
Yet still how weak my faith is found,
And knowledge of thy word!

2 How cold and feeble is my love!
How negligent my fear!
How low my hope of joys above!
How few affections there!

3 Great God! thy sovereign power impart,
To give thy word success;
Write thy salvation in my heart,
And make me learn thy grace.

4 Show my forgetful feet the way
That leads to joys on high;
Where knowledge grows without decay,
And love shall never die.

1280. "Oh, how shall I appear!"

1 When, rising from the bed of death,
O'erwhelmed with guilt and fear,
I see my Maker face to face—
Oh, how shall I appear!

2 If now, while pardon may be found,
And mercy may be sought,
My heart with inward horror shrinks,
And trembles at the thought;

3 When thou, O Lord! shalt stand disclosed
In majesty severe,
And sit in judgment on my soul,
Oh, how shall I appear!

4 Then, see my sorrows, gracious Lord!
Let mercy set me free,
While in the confidence of prayer
My heart takes hold of thee.

5 For never shall my soul despair
Thy mercy to procure,
Since thy beloved Son hath died
To make that mercy sure.

Doxology.

Let God the Father, and the Son,
And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
Or saints to love the Lord!
42. "I will that men pray every where."

1 Jesus, where'er thy people meet,
There they behold thy mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek thee, thou art found,
And every place is hallowed ground.

2 For thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabittest the humble mind;
Such ever bring thee where they come,
And going, take thee to their home.

3 Great Shepherd of thy chosen few!
Thy former mercies here renew;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of thy saving name.

89. "The love of Christ, which passeth knowledge."

1 Come, dearest Lord! descend and dwell
By faith and love in every breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel
The joys that can not be expressed.

2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength,
Make our enlarged souls possess,
And learn the height, and breadth, and length,
Of thine immeasurable grace.

3 Now to the God whose power can do
More than our thoughts and wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done
By all the church, through Christ his Son!

437. "No other Friend can I desire."

1 My precious Lord, for thy dear name
I bear the cross, despise the shame;
Nor do I faint while thou art near;
I lean on thee; how can I fear?

2 No other name but thine is given
To cheer my soul in earth or heaven;
No other wealth will I require;
No other friend can I desire.

3 Yea, into nothing would I fall
For thee alone, my All in All;
To feel thy love, my only joy;
To tell thy love, my sole employ.

988. "Let Thy presence set me free."

1 My soul before thee prostrate lies;
To thee, her Source, my spirit flies:
My wants I mourn, my chains I see,—
Oh, let thy presence set me free!

2 Undone and lost, for aid I cry;
In thy death, Saviour, let me die;
Grieved with thy grief, pain'd with thy pain,
Ne'er let me live for self again.

3 In life's short day, let me yet more
Of thine enlivening love implore;
My mind must deeper sink in thee,
My foot stand firm, from wandering free.

1200. "Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb."

1 Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb;
Take this new treasure to thy trust,
And give these sacred relics room
To slumber in the silent dust.

2 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
Invade thy bounds; no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
While angels watch the soft repose.

3 So Jesus slept; God's dying Son
Passed thro' the grave, and blest the bed:
Rest here, blest saint, till from his throne
The morning break, and pierce the shade.

4 Break from his throne, illustrious morn!
Attend, O earth! his sovereign word:
Restore thy trust: a glorious form
Shall then ascend to meet the Lord!
316. "When I survey the wondrous cross."

1 When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ my God:
All the vain things that charm me most—
I sacrifice them to his blood.

3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down!
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small:
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all!

501. Probation in this Life only.
Eccles. 9: 10.

1 Life is the time to serve the Lord,
The time to insure the great reward;
And while the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return.

2 Life is the hour that God has given
To escape from hell and fly to heaven;
The day of grace,—and mortals may Secure the blessings of the day.

3 Then what my thoughts design to do,
My hands, with all your might pursue,
Since no device, nor work is found,
Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.

4 There are no acts of pardon passed
In the cold grave to which we haste;
But darkness, death, and long despair
Reign in eternal silence there.

811. "With my soul have I desired Thee."

1 My God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and thee;
Amid a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.

2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heavenly birth?
Why should I cleave to things below,
And let my God, my Saviour, go?

3 Call me away from flesh and sense;
One sovereign word can draw me thence;
I would obey the voice divine,
And all inferior joys resign.

4 Be earth, with all her scenes, withdrawn;
Let noise and vanity be gone;
In secret silence of the mind
My heaven, and there my God, I find.

923. Faith exemplified in the Life.
Tit. 2: 10-13.

1 So let our lips and lives express,
The holy gospel we profess;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Saviour God;
When his salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Our flesh and sense must be denied,
Passion and envy, lust and pride;
While justice, temperance, truth, and love,
Our inward piety approve.

4 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearance of the Lord,—
And faith stands leaning on his word.
88. "Keep us, Lord."

1 Keep us, Lord, oh, keep us ever!
   Vain our hope, if left by thee;
   We are thine; oh, leave us never,
   Till thy glorious face we see!
   Then to praise thee
   Through a bright eternity.

2 Precious is thy word of promise,
   Precious to thy people here;
   Never take thy presence from us,
   Jesus, Saviour, still be near:
   Living, dying,
   May thy name our spirits cheer.

297. The Voice from Calvary.—John 19: 30.

1 Hark! the voice of love and mercy
   Sounds aloud from Calvary;
   See! it rends the rocks asunder,
   Shakes the earth, and vails the sky:
   "It is finished!"
   Hear the dying Saviour cry.

2 "It is finished!"—Oh, what pleasure
   Do these charming words afford!
   Heavenly blessings, without measure,
   Flow to us from Christ, the Lord:
   "It is finished!"
   Saints, the dying words record.

3 Tune your harps anew, ye seraphs;
   Join to sing the pleasing theme:
   All on earth, and all in heaven,
   Join to praise Immanuel's name:
   Hallelujah!
   Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

536. Hasten to the Saviour.

1 Hear, O sinner! mercy hails you;
   Now with sweetest voice she calls;
   Bids you haste to seek the Saviour,
   Ere the hand of justice falls:
   Hear, O sinner!
   'Tis the voice of mercy calls.

2 Haste, O sinner, to the Saviour!
   Seek his mercy while you may;
   Soon the day of grace is over;
   Soon your life will pass away:
   Haste, O sinner!
   You must perish if you stay.

1287. "The Judgment of the great day."

1 Day of Judgment—day of wonders!
   Hark!—the trumpet's awful sound,
   Louder than a thousand thunders,
   Shakes the vast creation round!
   How the summons
   Will the sinner's heart confound!

2 See the Judge our nature wearing,
   Clothed in majesty divine!
   You, who long for his appearing,
   Then shall say, "This God is mine!"
   Gracious Saviour,
   Own me in that day for thine!

3 At his call the dead awaken,
   Rise to life from earth and sea;
   All the powers of nature, shaken
   By his looks, prepare to flee:
   Careless sinner,
   What will then become of thee?

4 But to those who have confessed,
   Loved and served the Lord below,
   He will say, "Come near, ye blessed,
   See the kingdom I bestow;
   You for ever
   Shall my love and glory know!"
772. "Draw near unto my soul, and redeem it."

1 When I listen to thy word,
    In thy temple, cold and dead;
When I can not see thee, Lord,
    All faith's little daylight fled,—
    Sun of glory,
Beam again around my head.

2 When thy statutes I forsake;
    When my graces dimly shine;
When thy covenant I break,—
    Jesus, then remember thine:
    Check my wanderings
By a look of love divine.

3 When heavenly dew distills,
    And my views, O Lord, are clear—
Clear and bright from Zion's hills,
    Temper joy with holy fear;
    Keep me watchful,
Only safe when thou art near.

4 When afflictions cloud my sky,
    When the tide of sorrow flows,
When thy rod is lifted high,
    Let me on thy love repose:
    Stay the rough wind,
When thy chilling east wind blows.

5 When the vale of death appears,
    Faint and cold this mortal clay,
Kind Forerunner! soothe my fears,
    Light me through the darksome way:
    Break the shadows—
Usher in eternal day!

517. Free Forgiveness.

1 Sinners, will you scorn the message
    Sent in mercy from above?
* Observe the tie for this Hymn.

Every sentence, oh, how tender!
    Every line is full of love;
    Hear, oh, hear it!
    Every line is full of love.

2 Hear the heralds of the gospel
    News from Zion's King proclaim:
"To each rebel sinner pardon,
    Free forgiveness in his name!"
    Oh, receive it!
    "Free forgiveness in his name."

3 Now, ye angels, hovering round us,
    Waiting spirits, speed your way;
Haste ye to the court of heaven,
    Tidings bear without delay:
    Rebel sinners
Glad the message will obey.

518. "Look unto My and be ye saved."

1 Come, ye sinners, poor and wretched,
    This is your accepted hour:
Jesus ready stands to save you,
    Full of pity, love, and power:
    He is able,
    He is willing; doubt no more.

2 Agonizing in the garden,
    Lo! the Saviour prostrate lies;
On the bloody tree behold him!
    Hear him cry before he dies,
"It is finished!"
    Sinners, will not this suffice?

3 Lo! th'incarnate God ascended
    Pleads the merit of his blood;
Venture on him, venture wholly,
    Let no other trust intrude:
    None but Jesus
Can do helpless sinners good.
257. "I will declare what He hath done for my soul."—Psalm 66.

1 O all ye lands, rejoice in God!
   Sing praises to his name;
   Let all the earth, with one accord,
   His wondrous acts proclaim;

2 And let his faithful servants tell
   How, by redeeming love,
   Their souls are saved from death and hell,
   To share the joys above;—

3 Tell how the Holy Spirit's grace
   Forbids their feet to slide;
   And, as they run the Christian race
   Vouchsafes to be their guide.

4 Oh, then, rejoice, and shout for joy,
   Ye ransomed of the Lord!
   Be grateful praise your sweet employ,
   His presence your reward.

1234. "When shall I see my Father's face?"

1 On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
   And cast a wishful eye
   To Canaan's fair and happy land,
   Where my possessions lie.

2 Oh, the transporting, rapturous scene,
   That rises to my sight!
   Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
   And rivers of delight.

3 O'er all those wide extended plains
   Shines one eternal day;
   There God, the Sun, for ever reigns,
   And scatters night away.

4 No chilling winds, no poisonous breath,
   Can reach that healthful shore;
   Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
   Are felt and feared no more.

5 When shall I reach that happy place,
   And lie for ever blest?
   When shall I see my Father's face,
   And in his bosom rest?

6 Filled with delight, my raptured soul
   Can here no longer stay;
   Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
   Fearless I'd launch away.

958. "Happy is the man that findeth wisdom."
Prov. 3: 13.

1 Oh, happy is the man who hears
   Instruction's warning voice;
   And who celestial wisdom makes
   His early, only choice.

2 For she hath treasures greater far
   Than east and west unfold;
   And her rewards more precious are
   Than all their stores of gold.

3 She guides the young with innocence,
   In pleasure's paths to tread;
   A crown of glory she bestows
   Upon the hoary head.

4 According as her labors rise,
   So her rewards increase;
   Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
   And all her paths are peace.

1236. No Sin in Heaven.

1 Far from these narrow scenes of night,
   Unbounded glories rise,
   And realms of infinite delight,
   Unknown to mortal eyes.

2 Fair, distant land! could mortal eyes
   But half its charms explore.
   How would our spirits long to rise,
   And dwell on earth no more!
3 No clouds those blissful regions know—
Realms ever bright and fair!
For sin, the source of mortal woe,
Can never enter there.

4 Oh, may the heavenly prospect fire
Our hearts with ardent love!
Till wings of faith, and strong desire,
Bear every thought above.

5 Prepare us, Lord, by grace divine,
For thy bright courts on high;
Then bid our spirits rise and join
The chorus of the sky.

1250. "He that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them."—Rev. 7: 11—17.

1 How bright these glorious spirits shine!
Whence all their white array?
How came they to the blissful seats
Of everlasting day?

2 Lo! these are they from sufferings great
Who came to realms of light,
And in the blood of Christ have washed
Those robes which shine so bright.

3 Now, with triumphal palms, they stand
Before the throne on high,
And serve the God they love, amid
The glories of the sky.

4 His presence fills each heart with joy,
Tunes every voice to sing;
By day, by night, the sacred courts
With glad hosannas ring.

5 The Lamb, that dwells amid the throne,
Shall o'er them still preside,
Feed them with nourishment divine,
And all their footsteps guide.

6 In pastures green he'll lead his flock,
Where living streams appear;
And God, the Lord, from every eye
Shall wipe off every tear.

1 Lo! what a glorious sight appears
To our believing eyes!
The earth and seas are passed away,
And the old rolling skies.

2 From the third heaven, where God resides,
That holy, happy place,
The New Jerusalem comes down,
Adorned with shining grace.

3 Attending angels shout for joy,
And the bright armies sing:
"Mortals! behold the sacred seat
Of your descending King.

4 "The God of glory down to men:
Removes his blест abode,—
Men, the dear objects of his grace,
And he, the loving God.

5 "His own soft hands shall wipe the tears
From every weeping eye;
And pains, and groans, and griefs, and fears,
And death itself, shall die."

6 How long, dear Saviour! oh, how long
Shall this bright hour delay?
Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time,
And bring the welcome day!

Doxology.
To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.
197. "The Rock that is higher than I." Psalm 61.
1 When overwhelmed with grief,
My heart within me dies,
Helpless, and far from all relief,
To heaven I lift mine eyes.
2 Oh, lead me to the Rock
That's high above my head!
And make the covert of thy wings
My shelter and my shade.
3 Within thy presence, Lord,
For ever I'll abide:
Thou art the tower of my defense,
The refuge where I hide.
4 Thou givest me the lot
Of those that fear thy name;
If endless life be their reward,
I shall possess the same.

607. "My soul, wait thou only upon God."
1 Thou Lord of all above,
And all below the sky,
Prostrate before thy feet I fall,
And for thy mercy cry.
2 Forgive my follies past,
The crimes which I have done;
Bid a repenting sinner live,
Through thine incarnate Son.
3 Guilt, like a heavy load,
Upon my conscience lies;
To thee I make my sorrows known,
And lift my weeping eyes.
4 The burden which I feel,
Thou only canst remove;
Do thou display thy pardoning grace,
And thine unbounded love.
5 One gracious look of thine
Will ease my troubled breast;
Oh, let me know my sins forgiven,
And I shall then be blest!

634. "Watch unto Prayer."
1 O God! my Strength, my Hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up,
And know thou hear'st prayer.
2 Oh for a godly fear,
A quick, discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly!—
3 A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer!—
4 A soul injured to pain,
To hardship, grief, and loss;
Bold to take up, firm to sustain
My dear Redeemer's cross!
5 Lord, let me still abide,
Nor from my hope remove,
Till thou my patient spirit guide
Into thy perfect love.

656. "My times are in Thy hand." Psalm 31.
1 "My times are in thy hand:"
My God! I wish them there;
My life, my friends, my soul, I leave
Entirely to thy care.
2 "My times are in thy hand,"
Whatever they may be;
Pleasing or painful, dark or bright,
As best may seem to thee.
3 "My times are in thy hand;"
Why should I doubt or fear?
My Father's hand will never cause
His child a needless tear.
4 "My times are in thy hand,"—
Jesus, the crucified!
The hand my cruel sins had pierced,
Is now my guard and guide.

5 "My times are in thy hand;"
I'll always trust in thee;
And, after death, at thy right hand
I shall for ever be.

1 From lowest depths of woe,
To God I send my cry:
Lord! hear my supplicating voice,
And graciously reply.

2 Shouldst thou severely judge,
Who can the trial bear?
But thou forgivest, lest we despond,
And quite renounce thy fear.

3 My soul with patience waits
For thee, the living Lord;
My hopes are on thy promise built,
Thy never-failing word.

4 My longing eyes look out
For thine enlivening ray,
More duly than the morning watch
To spy the dawning day.

5 Let Israel trust in God;
No bounds his mercy knows—
The plenteous source and spring from whence
Eternal succor flows.

1279. "Every one of us shall give account of himself to God."
1 Thou Judge of quick and dead,
Before whose bar severe,
With holy joy, or guilty dread,
We all shall soon appear!—

2 Our anxious souls prepare
For that tremendous day;
Come, fill us now with watchful care,
And stir us up to pray;—

3 To pray, and wait the hour,
That awful hour unknown,
When robed in majesty and power,
Thou shalt from heaven come down!

4 Oh, may we all be found
Obedient to thy word,—
Attentive to the trumpet's sound,
And looking for our Lord!

5 Oh, may we all insure
A home among the blest;
And watch a moment to secure
An everlasting rest!

1288. "Knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men."
1 And will the Judge descend,
And must the dead arise,
And not a single soul escape
His all discerning eyes?

2 How will my heart endure
The terrors of that day,
When earth and heaven before his face
Astonished shrink away?

3 But, ere the trumpet shakes
The mansions of the dead,
Hark, from the Gospel's cheering sound
What joyful tidings spread!

4 Ye sinners! seek his grace
Whose wrath ye can not bear;
Fly to the shelter of his cross,
And find salvation there.
940.

Father! who in the olive shade,
When the dark hour came on,
Didst, with a breath of heavenly aid,
Strengthen thy Son,—
Oh, by the anguish of that night,
Send thou us blest relief;
Or to the chastened, let thy might
Hallow this grief!

And thou, that, when the starry sky
Saw the dread strife begun,
Didst teach adoring faith to cry,
"Thy will be done!"—
By thy meek Spirit, thou of all
That e'er have mourned the chief—
Thou Saviour! if the stroke must fall,
Hallow this grief!

ACTON. 8s & 6.

1182.

Father! when thy child is dying,
On the bed of anguish lying,
Then, my every want supplying,
To me thy love display!

Ere my soul her bonds hath broken,
Grant some bright and cheering token,
That for me the words are spoken,
"Thy sins are washed away!"

When the lips are dumb which blessed me,
And withdrawn the hand that pressed me,
Then let sweeter sounds arrest me,
To call my soul away!

Guide me to that world of spirits,
Where, through thine atoning merits,
Ev'n thy weakest child inherits
The joys which ne'er decay.
Sing of Jesus, sing for ever
Of the love that changes never:
Who or what from him can sever
Those he makes his own?

With his blood the Lord hath bought them,
When they knew him not, he sought them,
And from all their wand'ring brought
His the praise alone.

Through the desert Jesus leads them,
With the bread of heaven he feeds them,
To their home above.

There they see the Lord who bought them,
Him who came from heaven, and sought them,
Him who by his spirit taught them:
Him they serve and love.

Sing of Jesus, sing for ever,
Sing the love that changes never:
Who or what from him can sever
Those he makes his own?

Hallelujah.

1 Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Now is the battle done,
Now is the vict'ry won;
Let us joy, and sing
Hallelujah!

2 Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
Suff'ring death's cruel doom,
Jesus hath hell o'ercome:
Let us praise, and shout
Hallelujah!

3 Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
He rose by his own might
In heavenly love and light:
Let us joy, and sing
Hallelujah!

4 Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
Closed are the gates below,
Heaven's halls are open now:
Let us praise, and shout
Hallelujah!

5 Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
Lord, by thy passion, save
Us from the endless grave:
Let us ever sing
Hallelujah!
235. "Keep silence, all created things."

1 Keep silence, all created things,
    And wait your Maker's nod!
My soul stands trembling while she sings
    The honors of her God.

2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown,
    Hang on his firm decree;
He sits on no precarious throne,
    Nor borrows leave to be.

3 Before his throne a volume lies,
    With all the fates of men;
With every angel's form and size,
    Drawn by th' eternal pen.

4 His providence unfolds the book,
    And makes his counsels shine;
Each opening leaf, and every stroke,
    Fulfills some deep design.

5 My God, I would not long to see
    My fate with curious eyes;—
What gloomy lines are writ for me,
    Or what bright scenes may rise.

6 In thy fair book of life and grace,
    May I but find my name
Recorded in some humble place,
    Beneath my Lord, the Lamb!

284. Learning of Thee.

1 O Lord, when we the path retrace
    Which thou on earth hast trod;
To man thy wondrous love and grace,
    Thy faithfulness to God:—
Thy love, by man so sorely tried,
    Proved stronger than the grave;
The very spear that pierced thy side
    Drew forth the blood to save:—

2 Faithful amid unfaithfulness,
    'Mid darkness only light,
Thou didst thy Father's name confess
    And in his will delight;
Unmoved by Satan's subtle wiles,
    Or suffering shame and loss;
Thy path, uncheered by earthly smiles,
    Led only to the cross:—

3 O Lord! with sorrow and with shame,
    Before thee we confess
How little we, who bear thy name,
    Thy mind, thy ways express.
Give us thy meek, thy lowly mind:
    We would obedient be;
And all our rest and pleasure find
    In learning, Lord, of thee.

320. "Whom, having not seen, ye love."

1 To Calvary, Lord, in spirit now,
    Our weary souls repair,
To dwell upon thy dying love,
    And taste its sweetness there.

2 Sweet resting-place of every heart
    That feels the plague of sin,
Yet knows the deep, mysterious joy
    Of peace with God within.

3 Dear suffering Lamb! thy bleeding wounds,
    With cords of love divine,
Have drawn our willing hearts to thee,
    And linked our life with thine.

4 Thy sympathies and hopes are ours:
    Dear Lord! we wait to see
Creation, all below, above,
    Redeemed and blest by thee.

5 Our longing eyes would fain behold
    That bright and blessed brow,
Once wrung with bitterest anguish, wear
    Its crown of glory now.
6 Why linger, then? Come, Saviour, come,
    Responsive to our call!
Come, claim thine ancient power, and reign
The heir and Lord of all.

73. "I lay me down to rest."

1 Dread Sovereign! let my evening song
    Like holy incense rise;
    Assist the offering of my tongue
    To reach the lofty skies.

2 Through all the dangers of the day
    Thy hand was still my guard;
    And still to drive my wants away
    Thy mercy stood prepared.

3 Perpetual blessings from above
    Encompass me around;
    But, oh, how few returns of love
    Hath my Redeemer found!

4 What have I done for him who died
    To save my guilty soul?
    How are my follies multiplied,
    Fast as the minutes roll!

5 Lord! with this sinful heart of mine,
    To thy dear cross I flee,
    And to thy grace my soul resign,
    To be renewed by thee.

6 Sprinkled afresh with pardoning blood,
    I lay me down to rest,
    As in th' embraces of my God,
    On my Saviour's breast.

311. "His own self bare our sins."

1 And did the Holy and the Just,
    The Sovereign of the skies,
    Stoop down to wretchedness and dust
    That guilty man might rise?

2 Yes: the Redeemer left his throne,
    His radiant throne on high—
    Surprising mercy! love unknown!—
    To suffer, bleed, and die.

3 He took the dying traitor's place,
    And suffered in his stead;
    For man—oh, miracle of grace!—
    For man the Saviour bled.

4 Dear Lord, what heavenly wonders dwell
    In thine atoning blood!
    By this are sinners saved from hell,
    And rebels brought to God.

765. An ancient Hymn of Trust in Christ.

1 Jesus! our fainting spirits cry,
    When wilt thou show thy face?
    Oh! when our longings satisfy,
    And fill us with thy grace?

2 We sinners, Lord, with earnest heart,
    With sighs, and prayers, and tears,
    To thee our inmost cares impart,
    Our burdens and our fears.

3 Thy sovereign grace can give relief,
    Thou Source of peace and light!
    Dispel the gloomy cloud of grief,
    And make our darkness bright.

4 Around thy Father's throne on high,
    All heaven thy glory sings;
    And earth, for which thou cam'st to die,
    Loud with thy praises rings.

5 Dear Lord! to thee our prayers ascend;
    Our eyes thy face would see:
    Oh! let our weary wanderings end,
    Our spirits rest in thee!

Doxology.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
    One God, whom we adore,
    Be glory as it was, is now,
    And shall be evermore!
254. "The Word was God."—John 1:4.

1 Ere the blue heavens were stretched abroad,
   From everlasting was the Word:
   With God he was; the Word was God,
   And must divinely be adored.

2 By his own power were all things made;
   By him supported, all things stand:
   He is the whole creation's head,
   And angels fly at his command.

3 But lo! he leaves those heavenly forms:
   The Word descends and dwells in clay,
   That he may hold converse with worms,
   Dressed in such feeble flesh as they.

4 Mortals with joy behold his face,
   Th' eternal Father's only Son;
   How full of truth, how full of grace,
   When thro' his eyes the Godhead shone!

5 Archangels leave their high abode
   To learn new mysteries here, and tell
   The love of our descending God,
   The glories of Immanuel.

417. "Lord, save us; we perish!"

1 The billows swell, the winds are high;
   Clouds overcast my wintry sky:
   Out of the depths to thee I call;
   My fears are great, my strength is small.

2 O Lord, the pilot's part perform,
   And guide and guard me thro' the storm;
   Defend me from each threatening ill:
   Control the waves; say, "Peace! be still."

3 Amid the roaring of the sea,
   My soul still hangs her hope on thee;
   Thy constant love, thy faithful care,
   Is all that saves me from despair.

4 Tho' tempest-tossed and half a wreck,
   My Saviour through the floods I seek:
   Let neither winds nor stormy main
   Force back my shattered bark again.

749. The Hiding-place.

1 Hail, sovereign Love! that formed the plan
   To save rebellious, ruined man;
   Hail! matchless, free, eternal Grace,
   That gave my soul a hiding-place.

2 Against the God who rules the sky
   I fought, with hand uplifted high;
   I madly ran the sinful race,
   Regardless of a hiding-place.

3 Indignant Justice stood in view;
   To Sinai's burning mount I flew;
   But Justice cried, with frowning face,
   "This mountain is no hiding-place."

4 Ere long a heavenly voice I heard;
   A bleeding Saviour then appeared:
   Led by the Spirit of his grace,
   I found in him a hiding-place.

5 On him the weight of vengeance fell,
   That else had sunk a world to hell;
   Then, O my soul! for ever praise
   Thy Saviour God, thy hiding-place!

1129. "He shall have dominion also from sea to sea."—Psalm 72.

1 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
   Does his successive journeys run;
   His kingdom stretch from shore to shore.
   Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2 People and realms of every tongue
   Dwell on his love with sweetest song;
   And infant voices shall proclaim
   Their early blessings on his name.

3 Blessings abound where'er he reigns;
   The prisoner leaps to loose his chains;
   The weary find eternal rest,
   And all the sons of want are blest.

4 Let every creature rise and bring
   Peculiar honors to our King:
   Angels descend with songs again,
   And earth repeat the loud Amen!
MISSIONARY CHANT. L. M.

962. Light in Darkness.—Psalm 112.
1 That man is blest, who stands in awe
   Of God, and loves his sacred law;
   His seed on earth shall be renowned,
   And with successive honors crowned.
2 The soul that's filled with virtue's light
   Shines brightest in affliction's night;
   His conscience bears his courage up;
   He sees in darkness beams of hope.
3 Beset with threatening dangers round,
   Unmoved shall he maintain his ground;
   The sweet remembrance of the just
   Shall flourish when he sleeps in dust.

1121. The Song of Triumph.
1 Soon may the last glad song arise
   Through all the millions of the skies—
   That song of triumph which records
   That all the earth is now the Lord's!
2 Let thrones and powers and kingdoms be
   Obedient, mighty God, to thee!
   And, over land and stream and main,
   Wave thou the scepter of thy reign!
3 Oh, let that glorious anthem swell,
   Let host to host the triumph tell,
   That not one rebel heart remains,
   But over all the Saviour reigns!

1136. "Go ye into all the world."
1 Ye Christian heralds! go, proclaim
   Salvation through Immanuel's name;
   To distant climes the tidings bear,
   And plant the rose of Sharon there.
2 He'll shield you with a wall of fire,
   With flaming zeal your breasts inspire,
   Bid raging winds their fury cease,
   And hush the tempest into peace.
3 And when our labors all are o'er,
   Then we shall meet to part no more,—
   Meet with the blood-bought throng, to fall,
   And crown our Jesus—Lord of all!

1195. "Asleep in Jesus."
1 Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep!
   From which none ever wake to weep;
   A calm and undisturbed repose,
   Unbroken by the last of woes.
2 Asleep in Jesus! oh, how sweet
   To be for such a slumber meet!
   With holy confidence to sing
   That death hath lost its venomous sting!
3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest!
   Whose waking is supremely blest;
   No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour
   Which manifests the Saviour's power.
4 Asleep in Jesus! oh, for me
   May such a blissful refuge be!
   Securely shall my ashes lie,
   And wait the summons from on high.

1223. "Here have we no abiding city."
1 "We've no abiding city here:"
   Sad truth, were this to be our home;
   But let this thought our spirits cheer,
   "We seek a city yet to come."
2 "We've no abiding city here;"
   We seek a city out of sight:
   Zion its name—the Lord is there,
   It shines with everlasting light.
3 O sweet abode of peace and love,
   Where pilgrims freed from toil are blest!
   Had I the pinions of the dove,
   I'd fly to thee, and be at rest.
4 But hush, my soul! nor dare repine;
   The time my God appoints is best:
   While here, to do his will be mine,
   And his to fix my time of rest.
602. Pleading the Promise.

1 Lorn, I approach the mercy-seat,
Where thou dost answer prayer;
There humbly fall before thy feet,
For none can perish there.

2 Thy promise is my only plea;
With this I venture nigh:
Thou callest burdened souls to thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.

3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely pressed,
By war without, and fear within,
I come to thee for rest.

4 Be thou my shield and hiding-place;
That, sheltered near thy side,
I may my fierce accuser see,
And tell him thou hast died.

5 Oh, wondrous love!—to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead thy gracious name.

1164. "Our days on earth are as a shadow."

1 How short and hasty is our life!
How vast our soul's affairs!
Yet senseless mortals vainly strive
To lavish out their years.

2 Our days run thoughtlessly along,
Without a moment's stay;
Just like a story, or a song,
We pass our lives away.

3 God from on high invites us home,
But we march heedless on,
And, ever hastening to the tomb,
Stoop downward as we run.

4 How we deserve the deepest hell,
Who slight the joys above!
What chains of vengeance should we feel,
Who break such cords of love!

5 Draw us, O God, with sovereign grace,
And lift our thoughts on high,
That we may end this mortal race,
And see salvation nigh.

1172. "And after death the judgment."

1 Stoop down, my thoughts, that used to rise;
Converse a while with death;
Think how a gasping mortal lies,
And pants away his breath!

2 But, oh! the soul, that never dies!
At once it leaves the clay;
Ye thoughts, pursue it where it flies,
And track its wondrous way.

3 Up to the courts where angels dwell
It mounts, triumphant there;
Or plunges guilty down to hell,
In infinite despair.

4 And must my body faint and die?
And must this soul remove?
Oh for some guardian angel nigh,
To bear it safe above!

5 Jesus! to thy dear, faithful hand
My naked soul I trust;
And my flesh waits for thy command
To drop into my dust.

1205. "Turn, mortal, turn! thy danger know."

1 Beneath our feet, and o'er our head,
Is equal warning given;
Beneath us lie the countless dead,
Above us is the heaven!
2 Death rides on every passing breeze;
He lurks in every flower;
Each season has his own disease,
Its peril every hour!

3 Turn, mortal, turn! thy danger know;
Where'er thy foot can tread,
The earth rings hollow from below,
And warns thee of her dead!

4 Turn, Christian, turn! thy soul apply
To truths divinely given;
The bones that underneath thee lie
Shall live for hell or heaven!

77. "Increase our faith."

1 Frequent the day of God returns
To shed its quickening beams;
And yet, how slow devotion burns!
How languid are its flames!

2 Accept our faint attempts to love;
Our follies, Lord, forgive:
We would be like thy saints above,
And praise thee while we live.

3 Increase, O Lord, our faith and hope,
And fit us to ascend
Where the assembly ne'er breaks up,
And Sabbaths never end;—

4 Where we shall breathe in heavenly air,
With heavenly luster shine;
Before the throne of God appear,
And feast on love divine.

5 There shall we join, and never tire,
To sing immortal lays;
And, with the bright, seraphic choir,
Sound forth Immanuel's praise.

136. "Whither shall I go from Thy Spirit?"
Psalm 119.

1 Lord, where shall guilty souls retire,
Forgotten and unknown!

In hell they meet thy dreadful fire,
In heaven thy glorious throne.

2 Should I suppress my vital breath,
To escape the wrath divine,
Thy voice would break the bars of death,
And make the grave resign.

3 If, winged with beams of morning light,
I fly beyond the west,
Thy hand which must support my flight,
Would soon betray my rest.

4 If o'er my sins I think to draw
The curtains of the night,
Those flaming eyes that guard thy law,
Would turn the shades to light.

5 The beams of noon, the midnight hour,
Are both alike to thee:
Oh, may I ne'er provoke that power
From which I can not flee!

155. "Thrice Holy Lord."

1 Holy and reverend is the name
Of our eternal King:
"Thrice holy Lord!" the angels cry;
"Thrice holy!" let us sing.

2 The deepest reverence of the mind,
Pay, O my soul! to God;
Lift, with thy hands, a holy heart,
To his sublime abode.

3 With sacred awe pronounce his name,
Whom words nor thoughts can reach;
A broken heart shall please him more
Than noblest forms of speech.

4 Thou holy God! preserve my soul
From all pollution free;
The pure in heart are thy delight,
And they thy face shall see.
1192. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."—Rev. 14:13.

1 How blest the righteous when he dies!
   When sinks a weary soul to rest!
   How mildly beam the closing eyes!
   How gently heaves th' expiring breast!
2 So fades a summer cloud away;
   So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
   So gently shuts the eye of day;
   So dies a wave along the shore.
3 A holy quiet reigns around,
   A calm which life nor death destroys;
   And naught disturbs that peace profound,
   Which his unfettered soul enjoys.
4 Farewell, conflicting hopes and fears,
   Where lights and shades alternate dwell;
   How bright th' unchanging morn appears!
   Farewell, inconstant world, farewell!
5 Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
   Light from its load the spirit flies,
   While heaven and earth combine to say,
   "How blest the righteous when he dies."

1193. "That they may rest from their labors." [Another form of the preceding Hymn.]

1 Sweet is the scene when Christians die,
   When holy souls retire to rest;
   How mildly beams the closing eye!
   How gently heaves th' expiring breast!
2 So fades a summer cloud away;
   So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
   So gently shuts the eye of day;
   So dies a wave along the shore.
3 Triumphant smiles the victor's brow,
   Fanned by some guardian angel's wing;
   O Grave! where is thy victory now?
   And where, O Death! where is thy sting?

1194. "So He giveth his beloved sleep."

1 Why should we start, and fear to die!
   What timorous worms we mortals are!
   Death is the gate of endless joy,
   And yet we dread to enter there.
2 The pains, the groans, and dying strife
   Fright our approaching souls away;
   We still shrink back again to life,
   Fond of our prison and our clay.
3 Oh, if my Lord would come and meet,
   My soul should stretch her wings in haste,
   Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
   Nor feel the terrors as she passed!
4 Jesus can make a dying bed
   Feel soft as downy pillows are,
   While on his breast I lean my head,
   And breathe my life out sweetly there!

1216. "They are not lost, but gone before."

1 Dear is the spot where Christians sleep,
   And sweet the strains their spirits pour;
   Oh, why should we in anguish weep—
   They are not lost, but gone before.
2 Secure from every mortal care,
   By sin and sorrow vexed no more,
   Eternal happiness they share
   Who are not lost, but gone before.
3 To Zion's peaceful courts above
   In faith triumphant may we soar,
   Embracing, in the arms of love,
   The friends not lost, but gone before.
4 To Jordan's bank where'er we come,
   And hear the swelling waters roar;
   Jesus! convey us safely home,
   To friends not lost, but gone before.
ALBEC. L. M. 6 lines.

47. The Morning and Evening Light.

1 When, streaming from the eastern skies,
The morning light salutes mine eyes,
O Sun of righteousness divine,
On me with beams of mercy shine!
Oh! chase the clouds of guilt away,
And turn my darkness into day.

2 And when to heaven's all glorious King
My morning sacrifice I bring,
And, mourning o'er my guilt and shame,
Ask mercy in my Saviour's name;
Then, Jesus, cleanse me with thy blood,
And be my Advocate with God.

3 When each day's scenes and labors close,
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy richly blest,
Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest;
And, as each morning sun shall rise,
Oh, lead me onward to the skies!

4 And at my life's last setting sun,
My conflicts o'er, my labors done,
Jesus, thy heavenly radiance shed,
To cheer and bless my dying bed;
And, from death's gloom my spirit raise,
To see thy face, and sing thy praise.

219. "I will fear no evil."—Psalm 23.

1 The Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye:
My noon-day walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.

2 When in the sultry globe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales, and dewy meads,
My weary, wandering steps he leads;
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

3 Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For thou, O Lord, art with me still:
Thy friendly rod shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.

4 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
Thy presence shall my pains beguile,
The barren wilderness shall smile,
With sudden greens and herbage crown'd;
And streams shall murmur all around.

412. Jesus receiv'd.

1 When gathering clouds around I view,
And days are dark, and friends are few,
On him I lean, who not in vain
Experienced every human pain:
He sees my wants, allays my fears,
And counts and treasures up my tears.

2 If anath should tempt my soul to stray
From heavenly wisdom's narrow way,
To fly the good I would pursue,
Or do the ill I would not do;
Still he who felt temptation's power
Will guard me in that dangerous hour.

3 When sorrowing o'er some stone I bend,
Which covers all that was a friend,
And from his hand, his voice, his smile,
Divides me for a little while;
Thou, Saviour, seest the tears I shed,
For thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.

4 And, oh! when I have safely passed
Through every conflict but the last,
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My painful bed, for thou hast died;
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe the latest tear away!
1209. "Weep not: She is not dead, but sleepeth."
1 Sister, thou wast mild and lovely,
   Gentle as the summer breeze,
Pleasant as the air of evening,
   When it floats among the trees.

2 Peaceful be thy silent slumber—
   Peaceful in the grave so low:
Thou no more wilt join our number;
   Thou no more our songs shalt know.

3 Dearest sister! thou hast left us;
   Here thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
   He can all our sorrows heal.

4 Yet again we hope to meet thee,
   When the day of life is fled:
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
   Where no farewell tear is shed!

AMOY. 6s & 4s.

1213. "And there shall be no more death."
1 Cease, ye mourners, cease to languish
   O'er the grave of those you love;
Pain and death, and night and anguish
   Enter not the world above.

2 While our silent steps are straying
   Lonely thro' night's deepening shade,
Glory's brightest beams are playing
   Round the happy Christian's head.

3 Light and peace at once deriving,
   From the hand of God most high,
In his glorious presence living,
   They shall never, never die.

4 Now, ye mourners, cease to languish
   O'er the grave of those you love;
Far removed from pain and anguish
   They are chanting hymns above.

515. "To-day the Saviour calls."—Heb. 3: 15.
1 To-day the Saviour calls:
   Ye wanderers, come!
Oh, ye benighted souls,
   Why longer roam?

2 To-day the Saviour calls:
   Oh, listen now!
Within these sacred walls
   To Jesus bow.

3 To-day the Saviour calls:
   For refuge fly:
The storm of justice falls,
   And death is nigh.

4 The Spirit calls to-day:
   Yield to his power;
Oh, grieve him not away!
   'Tis mercy's hour.
1 Father, thy Son hath died
   The sinner's death of woe;
Stooping in love from heaven to earth,
   Our curse to undergo—
   Our curse to undergo,
   Upon the hateful tree:
Give glory to thy Son, O Lord!
Put honor on that Name of names
   By blessing me!

2 Father, thy Son hath poured
   His life-blood on this earth,
To cleanse away our guilt and stains,
   To give us second birth—
   To give us second birth,
   From sin to set us free:
Give glory to thy Son, O Lord!
Put honor on that Name of names
   By cleansing me!

3 Father, thy Son on earth
   No one to own him found:
He passed among the sons of men
   Rejected and disowned—
   Rejected and disowned,
   That we received might be:
Give glory to thy Son, O Lord!
Put honor on that Name of names
   By owning me!

4 Father, thy Son is king:
   Heaven's crown, and earth's is his!
For us, for us he bought the crown,
   For us he earned the bliss—
   For us he earned the bliss:
   Amen, so let it be!
Give glory to thy Son, O Lord!
Put honor on that Name of names
   By crowning me!
202. "How are Thy servants blest, O Lord!"

1 How are thy servants blest, O Lord!
   How sure is their defense!
   Eternal wisdom is their guide,
   Their help, omnipotence.

2 In foreign realms, and lands remote,
   Supported by thy care,
   Through burning climes they pass unhurt,
   And breathe in tainted air.

3 When by the dreadful tempest borne
   High on the broken wave,
   They know thou art not slow to hear,
   Nor impotent to save.

4 The storm is laid, the winds retire,
   Obedient to thy will;
   The sea, that roars at thy command,
   At thy command is still.

5 In midst of dangers, fears, and deaths,
   Thy goodness I'll adore;
   I'll praise thee for thy mercies past,
   And humbly hope for more.

6 My life, while thou preserv'st that life,
   Thy sacrifice shall be;
   And death, when death shall be my lot,
   Shall join my soul to thee.

1210. "Having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ."

1 Why do we mourn departing friends,
   Or shake at death's alarms?
   'T is but the voice that Jesus sends
   To call them to his arms.

2 Are we not tending upward, too,
   As fast as time can move?
   Nor would we wish the hours more slow
   To keep us from our love.

3 Why should we tremble to convey
   Their bodies to the tomb?

4 The graves of all his saints he blessed,
   And softened every bed;
   Where should the dying members rest,
   But with the dying Head?

5 Thence he arose, ascending high,
   And showed our feet the way;
   Up to the Lord our souls shall fly,
   At the great rising day.

6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
   And bid our kindred rise;
   Awake! ye nations under ground;
   Ye saints! ascend the skies.

1219. "A name better than of sons and of daughters."—Isaiah 56: 4, 5.

1 Ye mourning saints, whose streaming tears
   Flow o'er your children dead,
   Say not, in transports of despair,
   That all your hopes are fled.

2 While, cleaving to that darling dust,
   In fond distress ye lie,
   Rise, and with joy and reverence view
   A heavenly Parent nigh!

3 Though, your young branches torn away,
   Like withered trunks ye stand;—
   With fairer verdure shall ye bloom,
   Touched by th' Almighty's hand.

4 "I'll give the mourner," saith the Lord,
   "In my own house a place;
   No names of daughters and of sons
   Could yield so high a grace.

5 "Transient and vain is every hope
   A rising race can give;
   In endless honor and delight
   My children all shall live."
6 We welcome, Lord, those rising tears,
Through which thy face we see;
And bless those wounds which through our hearts
Prepare a way for thee.

1276. "Behold, I show you a mystery."
1 Turn sorrow's night, and danger's path,
Amid the deepening gloom,
We, followers of our suffering Lord,
Are marching to the tomb.
2 There, when the turmoil is no more,
And all our powers decay,
Our cold remains in solitude
Shall sleep the years away.
3 Our labors done, securely laid
In this, our last retreat,
Unheeded, o'er our silent dust,
The storms of earth shall beat.
4 Yet not thus buried, or extinct,
The vital spark shall lie,
For, o'er life's wreck that spark shall rise,
To seek its kindred sky.
5 These ashes, too, this little dust,
Our Father's care shall keep,
Till the last angel rise and break
The long and dreary sleep.
6 Then love's soft dew o'er every eye
Shall shed its mildest rays;
And the long silent voice awake
With shouts of endless praise.

220. Old Scotch Version of the Twenty-third Psalm.
1 The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want:
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.
2 My soul he doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Ev'n for his own name's sake.
3 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale
Yet will I fear no ill;
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.
4 My table thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.
5 Goodness and mercy, all my life,
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling place shall be.

303. "My Jesus and my God."
1 Dearest of all the names above,
My Jesus and my God,
Who can resist thy heavenly love,
Or trifle with thy blood?
2 'Tis by the merits of thy death
Thy Father smiles again;
'Tis by thine interceding breath
The Spirit dwells with men.
3 Till God in human flesh I see,
My thoughts no comfort find:
The holy, just, and sacred Three
Are terror to my mind.
4 But if Immanuel's face appear,
My hope, my joy, begin:
His name forbids my slavish fear;
His grace removes my sin.
5 While Jews on their own law relax,
And Greeks of wisdom boast,
I love th' incarnate Mystery,
And there I fix my trust.

1 Can sinners hope for heaven,
   Who love this world so well?
   Or dream of future happiness,
   While on the road to hell?

2 Shall they hosannas sing,
   With an unhallowed tongue?
   Shall palms adorn the guilty hand
   Which does its neighbor wrong?

3 Can sin's deceitful way
   Conduct to Zion's hill?
   Or those expect with God to reign
   Who disregard his will?

4 Thy grace, O God, alone,
   Good hope can e'er afford!
   The pardoned and the pure shall see
   The glory of the Lord.

1169. Now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

1 One sweetly solemn thought
   Comes to me o'er and o'er,
   Nearer my parting hour am I
   Than e'er I was before.

2 Nearer my Father's house,
   Where many mansions be;
   Nearer the throne where Jesus reigns,—
   Nearer the crystal sea;

3 Nearer my going home,
   Laying my burden down,
   Leaving my cross of heavy grief,
   Wearing my starry crown;

4 Nearer that hidden stream,
   Winding through shades of night,
   Rolling its cold, dark waves between
   Me and the world of light.

5 Jesus! to thee I cling:
   Strengthen my arm of faith;
   Stay near me while my way-worn feet
   Press through the stream of death.

1178. Whoso believeth in Me shall never die.

1 It is not death to die—
   To leave this weary road,
   And, 'mid the brotherhood on high,
   To be at home with God.

2 It is not death to close
   The eye long dimmed by tears,
   And wake, in glorious repose
   To spend eternal years.

3 It is not death to bear
   The wrench that sets us free
   From dungeon chain,—to breathe the air
   Of boundless liberty.

4 It is not death to fling
   Aside this sinful dust,
   And rise, on strong, exulting wing,
   To live among the just.

5 Jesus, thou Prince of life!
   Thy chosen can not die;
   Like thee, they conquer in the strife,
   To reign with thee on high.

1207. At midnight there was a cry made.

1 Servant of God, well done!
   Rest from thy loved employ:
   The battle fought, the victory won,
   Enter thy Master's joy.

2 The voice at midnight came;
   He started up to hear:
   A mortal arrow pierced his frame;
   He fell, but felt no fear.

3 At midnight came the cry,
   "To meet thy God prepare!"
   He woke,—and caught his Captain's eye;
   Then, strong in faith and prayer,
4 His spirit with a bound
   Left its encumbering clay:
   His tent, at sunrise, on the ground
   A darkened ruin lay.

5 The pains of death are past;
   Labor and sorrow cease;
   And life's long warfare closed at last,
   His soul is found in peace.

6 Soldier of Christ, well done!
   Praise be thy new employ;
   And, while eternal ages run,
   Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

1271. "My flesh also shall rest in hope."

1 Rest for the toiling hand,
   Rest for the anxious brow,
   Rest for the weary, way-worn feet,
   Rest from all labor now;

2 Rest for the fevered brain,
   Rest for the throbbing eye;

Through these parched lips of thine no more
   Shall pass the moan or sigh.

3 Soon shall the trump of God
   Give out the welcome sound,
   That shakes thy silent chamber-walls,
   And breaks the turf-sealed ground.

4 Ye dwellers in the dust,
   Awake! come forth and sing;
   Sharp has your frost of winter been,
   But bright shall be your spring.

5 "T was sown in weakness here;
   'T will then be raised in power:
   That which was sown an earthly seed,
   Shall rise a heavenly flower!

Doxology.
The Father and the Son
   And Spirit we adore;
   We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
   Both now and evermore!

1 If human kindness meets return,
   And owns the grateful tie;
   If tender thoughts within us burn,
   To feel a friend is nigh;

2 Oh, shall not warmer accents tell
   The gratitude we owe
   To him who died our fears to quell—
   Our more than orphan's woe?

3 While yet in anguish he surveyed
   Those pangs he would not flee,
   What love his latest words displayed:
   "Meet and remember me!"

4 Remember thee—thy death, thy shame!
   Our sinful hearts to share!
   O memory! leave no other name
   But his recorded there.

1057. "Even the death of the cross."

1 How condescending and how kind
   Was God's eternal Son!
   Our misery reached his heavenly mind,
   And pity brought him down.

2 He sank beneath our heavy woes,
   To raise us to his throne;
   There's ne'er a gift his hand bestows,
   But cost his heart a groan.

3 This was compassion like a God—
   That, when the Saviour knew
   The price of pardon was his blood,
   His pity ne'er withdrew.

4 Now, though he reigns exalted high,
   His love is still as great;
   Well he remembers Calvary,
   Nor let his saints forget.

5 Here let our hearts begin to melt,
   While we his death record,
   And, with our joy for pardoned guilt,
   Mourn that we pierced the Lord.

1165. "As a flower of the field, so he flourisht."

1 Let others boast how strong they be,
   Nor death nor danger fear;
   But we confess, O Lord! to thee,
   What feeble things we are.

2 Fresh as the grass our bodies stand,
   And flourish bright and gay:
   A blasting wind sweeps o'er the land,
   And fades the grass away.

3 Our life contains a thousand springs,
   And dies, if one be gone;
   Strange that a harp of thousand strings
   Should keep in tune so long!

4 But 'tis our God supports our frame—
   The God who made us first;
   Salvation to th' almighty Name
   That reared us from the dust!

1171. "It is appointed unto men once to die."

1 If I must die, oh! let me die
   With hope in Jesus' blood—
   The blood that saves from sin and guilt,
   And reconciles to God.

2 If I must die, then let me die
   In peace with all mankind,
   And change these fleeting joys below
   For pleasures all refined.

3 If I must die—and die I shall—
   Let some kind seraph come,
   And bear me on his friendly wing
   To my celestial home.

4 Of Canaan's land, from Pisgah's top,
   May I but have a view,
   Though Jordan should o'erflow its banks,
   I'll boldly venture through.
1180. "When blooming youth is snatched away."

1 When blooming youth is snatched away
By death's restless hand,
Our hearts the mournful tribute pay,
Which pity must demand.

2 While pity prompts the rising sigh,
Oh, may this truth, impressed
With awful power, "I, too, must die,
Sink deep in every breast!

3 Let this vain world engage no more:
Behold the opening tomb!
It bids us seize the present hour;
To morrow, death may come.

4 Oh, let us fly—to Jesus fly!
Whose powerful arm can save;
Then shall our hopes ascend so high,
And triumph o'er the grave.

5 Great God! thy sovereign grace impart,
With cleansing, healing power;
This only can prepare the heart
For death's surprising hour.

1196. "There the weary be at rest."
Job 3: 17—29.

1 How still and peaceful is the grave!
Where, life's vain tumults past,
Th' appointed house, by heaven's decree,
Receives us all at last.

2 The wicked there from troubling cease;
Their passions rage no more;
And there the weary pilgrim rests
From all the toils he bore.

3 There rest the prisoners now released
From slavery's sad abode;
No more they hear th' oppressor's voice,
Or dread the tyrant's rod.

4 There servants, masters, small and great,
Partake the same repose;
And there, in peace, the ashes mix
Of those who once were foes.

5 All, leveled by the hand of death,
Lie sleeping in the tomb,
Till God in judgment calls them forth
To meet their final doom.

1201. "What is your life?"

1 Life is a span—a fleeting hour:
How soon the vapor flies!
Man is a tender, transient flower,
That ev'n in blooming—dies.

2 The once loved form, now cold and dead,
Each mournful thought employs;
And nature weeps her comforts fled,
And withered all her joys.

3 Hope looks beyond the bounds of time,
When what we now deplore
Shall rise in full, immortal prime,
And bloom to fade no more.

4 Cease then, fond nature, cease thy tears!
Religion points on high;
There everlasting spring appears,
And joys that can not die.

1212. "And their works do follow them."

1 Hear what the voice from heaven proclaims
For all the pious dead;
Sweet is the savour of their names,
And soft their sleeping bed.

2 They die in Jesus, and are blest;
How kind their slumbers are!
From sufferings and from sin released,
And freed from every snare.

3 Far from this world of toil and strife,
They're present with the Lord;
The labors of their mortal life
End in a large reward.
471. Salvation sought from the Trinity.

1 Father of heaven! whose love profound
A ransom for our souls hath found,
Before thy throne we sinners bend:
To us thy pardoning love extend.

2 Almighty Son! incarnate Word!
Our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord!
Before thy throne we sinners bend:
To us thy saving grace extend.

3 Eternal Spirit! by whose breath
The soul is raised from sin and death,
Before thy throne we sinners bend:
To us thy quickening power extend.

4 Jehovah! Father, Spirit, Son!
Mysterious Godhead! Three in One!
Before thy throne we sinners bend:
Grace, pardon, life, to us extend!

1 With tearful eyes I look around;
Life seems a dark and stormy sea;
Yet, 'mid the gloom, I hear a sound,
A heavenly whisper, "Come to me."

2 It tells me of a place of rest;
It tells me where my soul may flee;
Oh, to the weary, faint, oppressed,
How sweet the bidding, "Come to me!"

3 "Come, for all else must fail and die;
Earth is no resting-place for thee;
To heaven direct thy weeping eye,
I am thy portion; come to me."

4 O voice of mercy! voice of love!
In conflict, grief, and agony,
Support me, cheer me from above!
And gently whisper, "Come to me."

556. "God calling yet."

1 God calling yet!—shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?

Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumbers lie?

2 God calling yet!—shall I not rise?
Can I his loving voice despise,
And basely his kind care repay?
He calls me still: can I delay?

3 God calling yet!—and shall he knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare his Spirit grieve?

4 God calling yet!—and shall I give
No heed, but still in bondage live?
I wait, but he does not forsake;
He calls me still!—my heart, awake!

5 God calling yet!—I can not stay;
My heart I yield without delay:
Vain world, farewell! from thee I part;
The voice of God hath reached my heart!

718. "To are not your own."—1 Cor. 6:19.

1 Oh, not my own these verdant hills
And fruits and flowers and stream and wood;
But his who all with glory fills,
Who bought me with his precious blood.

2 Oh, not my own this wondrous frame,
Its curious work, its living soul;
But his who for my ransom came:
Slain for my sake, he claims the whole.

3 Oh, not my own the grace that keeps
My feet from fierce temptations free;
Oh, not my own the thought that leaps,
Adoring, blessed Lord, to thee!

4 "Oh, not my own!" I'll soar and sing,
When life, with all its toils, is o'er,
And thou thy trembling lamb shalt bring
Safe home, to wander never more.
5. "Praise waiteth for Thee, O God, in Zion."—Psalm 62.

1 For thee, O God, our constant praise In Zion waits, thy chosen seat; Our promised altars there we'll raise, And all our zealous vows complete.

2 Though now ascended up on high, He bends on earth a brother's eye; Partaker of the human name, He knows the frailty of our frame.

3 Our Fellow-sufferer yet retains A fellow-feeling of our pains; And still remembers, in the skies, His tears, his agonies, and cries.

4 In every pang that rends the heart The Man of sorrows had a part; He sympathizes in our grief, And to the sufferer sends relief.

5 With boldness, therefore, at the throne, Let us make all our sorrows known; And ask the aid of heavenly power, To help us in the evil hour.

781. Trust in Christ, at the Hour of Death.

1 Jesus, in whom but thee above Can I repose my trust, my love? And shall an earthly object be Loved in comparison with thee?

2 How soon, O Lord, will life decay! How soon this world will pass away! Ah! what can mortal friends avail, When heart and strength and life shall fail?

3 Oh, then, be thou, my Saviour, nigh, And I will triumph while I die; My strength, my portion, is divine, And Jesus is for ever mine!

855. "In whom we have boldness."

1 Where high the heavenly temple stands, The house of God not made with hands, A great High Priest our nature wears,— The Guardian of mankind appears.

2 Though now ascended up on high, He bends on earth a brother's eye; Partaker of the human name, He knows the frailty of our frame.

3 Our Fellow-sufferer yet retains A fellow-feeling of our pains; And still remembers, in the skies, His tears, his agonies, and cries.

4 In every pang that rends the heart The Man of sorrows had a part; He sympathizes in our grief, And to the sufferer sends relief.

5 With boldness, therefore, at the throne, Let us make all our sorrows known; And ask the aid of heavenly power, To help us in the evil hour.

1003. "Ye have put on Christ."—Gal. 3:27.

1 Jesus! thy blood and righteousness My beauty are, my glorious dress; 'Mid flaming worlds, in these arrayed, With joy shall I lift up my head.

2 When from the dust of earth I rise To claim my mansion in the skies; Ev'n then shall this be all my plea; "Jesus hath lived and died for me."

3 This spotless robe the same appears, When ruined nature sinks in years; No age can change its glorious hue,— The robe of Christ is ever new.

4 Oh, let the dead now hear thy voice Now bid thy banished ones rejoice; Their beauty this, their glorious dress— Jesus! thy blood and righteousness!
500. Conviction by the Law.—Rom. 7: 9.

1 Lord, how secure my conscience was,
   And felt no inward dread!
   I was alive without the law,
   And thought my sins were dead.

2 My hopes of heaven were firm and bright;
   But since the precept came
   With such convincing power and light,
   I find how vile I am.

3 My guilt appeared but small before,
   Till I with terror saw
   How perfect, holy, just, and pure
   Is thine eternal law.

4 Then felt my soul the heavy load;
   My sins revived again:
   I had provoked a dreadful God,
   And all my hopes were slain.

5 My God! I cry with every breath,
   For some kind power to save;
   Oh, break the yoke of sin and death,
   And thus redeem the slave.

543. "He will abundantly pardon." Isaiah 58: 7, 8.

1 Sinners, the voice of God regards;
   His mercy speaks to-day:
   He calls you, by his sovereign word,
   From sin's destructive way.

2 Why will you in the crooked ways
   Of sin and folly go?
   In pain you travel all your days,
   To reap eternal woe!

3 But he that turns to God shall live,
   Through his abounding grace;
   His mercy will the guilt forgive
   Of those who seek his face.

4 His love exceeds your highest thoughts;
   He pardons like a God:
   He will forgive your numerous faults
   Through a Redeemer's blood.

939. "Lord, remember me." Luke 23: 43.

1 O thou, from whom all goodness flows,
   I lift my soul to thee;
   In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
   O Lord, remember me!

2 When on my aching, burdened heart,
   My sins lie heavily,
   Thy pardon grant, new peace impart;
   Then, Lord, remember me!

3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
   And ills I can not flee,
   Oh, let my strength be as my day—
   Dear Lord, remember me!

4 When in the solemn hour of death
   I wait thy just decree;
   Be this the prayer of my last breath:
   Now, Lord, remember me!

5 And when before thy throne I stand,
   And lift my soul to thee,
   Then with the saints at thy right hand,
   O Lord, remember me!

954. "Unto the Lord did I make my supplication."—Psalm 142.

1 To God I made my sorrows known;
   From God I sought relief;
   In long complaints before his throne
   I poured out all my grief.

2 On every side I cast mine eye,
   And found my helpers gone;
   While friends and strangers passed me by,
   Neglected or unknown.

3 Then did I raise a louder cry,
   And called thy mercy near:
   "Thou art my Portion when I die,—
   Be thou my Refuge here!"
4 Lord! I am brought exceeding low;
   Now let thine ear attend,
   And make my foes, who vex me, know
   I've an almighty Friend.

1173. "Be not dismayed, for I am thy God."

1 Thou must go forth alone, my soul!
   Thou must go forth alone,
   To other scenes, to other worlds,
   That mortal hath not known.

2 Thou must go forth alone, my soul,
   To tread the narrow vale;
   But he, whose word is sure, hath said
   His mercy shall not fail.

3 Thou must go forth alone, my soul,
   To meet thy God above:
   But shrink not—he has said, my soul,
   He is a God of love!

4 His rod and staff shall comfort thee
   Across the dreary road,
   Till thou shalt join the blestéd ones
   In heaven's serene abode.

1174. "I must die alone."

1 That solemn hour will come for me,
   When, though their charms I own,
   All human ties resigned must be;
   For I must die alone.

2 All earthly pleasures will be o'er,
   All earthly labors done,
   And I shall tread th' eternal shore,
   And I must die alone.

3 But, oh, I will not view with dread
   That shadowy vail unknown:
   I see a light within it shed;
   I shall not die alone!

4 One will be with me there, whose voice
   I long have loved and known;
   To die is now my wish, my choice:
   I shall not die alone!

1185. "Forsake me not when my strength faileth."

1 When bending o'er the brink of life
   My trembling soul shall stand,
   Waiting to pass death's awful flood,
   Great God! at thy command;

2 O thou great Source of joy supreme!
   Whose arm alone can save,
   Dispel the darkness that surrounds
   The entrance to the grave.

3 Lay thy supporting, gentle hand
   Beneath my sinking head,
   And, with a ray of love divine,
   Illume my dying bed.

1197. "In Christ shall all be made alive."

1 When downward to the darksome tomb
   I thoughtfuól turn my eyes,
   Frail nature trembles at the gloom,
   And anxious fears arise.

2 Why shrinks my soul?—in death's embrace
   Once Jesus captive slept;
   And angels, hovering o'er the place,
   His lowly pillow kept.

3 Thus shall they guard my sleeping dust;
   And, as the Saviour rose,
   The grave again shall yield her trust,
   And end my deep repose.

4 My Lord, before to glory gone,
   Shall bid me come away;
   And calm and bright shall break the dawn
   Of heaven's eternal day.

5 Then let my faith each fear dispel,
   And gild with light the grave;
   To him my loftiest praises swell,
   Who died from death to save.
149. "God is Love."—1 John 4: 8.

1 I can not always trace the way
   Where thou, almighty One, dost move;
   But I can always, always say
   That God is love.

2 When fear her chilling mantle flings
   O'er earth, my soul to heaven above,
   As to her native home, upsprings;
   For God is love.

3 When myst'ry clouds my darkened path,
   I'll check my dread, my doubts remove;
   In this my soul sweet comfort hath,
   That God is love.

4 Oh may this truth my heart employ,
   Bid every gloomy thought remove,
   And turn all tears, all woes to joy,—
   Thou, God, art Love.

929. "Thy will be done."—Matt. 6: 10.

1 My God, my Father, while I stray
   Far from my home, on life's rough way,
   Oh, teach me from my heart to say,
   "Thy will be done!"

2 What though in lonely grief I sigh
   For friends beloved no longer nigh;
   Submissive still would I reply,
   "Thy will be done!"

3 If thou shouldst call me to resign
   What most I prize,—it ne'er was mine;
   I only yield thee what was thine:
   "Thy will be done!"

4 If but my fainting heart be blest
   With thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
   My God, to thee I leave the rest:
   "Thy will be done!"

5 Renew my will from day to day;
   Blend it with thine, and take away
   Whate'er now makes it hard to say,
   "Thy will be done!"

6 Then when on earth I breathe no more,
   The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
   I'll sing upon a happier shore:
   "Thy will be done!"

1198. "There is a calm for those who weep."

1 There is a calm for those who weep,
   A rest for weary pilgrims found;
   They softly lie, and sweetly sleep,
   Low in the ground.

2 The storm that racks the wintry sky,
   No more disturbs their deep repose
   Than summer evening's latest sigh,
   That shuts the rose.

3 I long to lay this painful head
   And aching heart beneath the soil;
   To slumber, in that dreamless bed,
   From all my toil.

4 The soul, of origin divine,
   God's glorious image, freed from clay,
   In heaven's eternal sphere shall shine,
   A star of day.

5 The sun is but a spark of fire,
   A transient meteor in the sky;
   The soul, immortal as its Sire,
   Shall never die.
3. Third Version of the Lord's Prayer.

1 Our Father in heav'n, We hallow thy name!
May thy kingdom holy On earth be the same!
Oh, give to us daily Our portion of bread:
It is from thy bounty That all must be fed.

2 Forgive our transgressions, And teach us to know
That humble compassion Which pardons each foe;
Keep us from temptation, From evil and sin,
And thine be the glory For ever! Amen!

1 Acquaint thee, O mortal, acquaint thee with God,
And joy, like the sunshine, shall beam on thy road;
And peace, like the dew-drop, shall fall on thy head;
And sleep, like an angel, shall visit thy bed.

2 Acquaint thee, O mortal, acquaint thee with God,
And he shall be with thee when fears are abroad;
Thy safeguard in danger that threatens thy path;
Thy joy in the valley and shadow of death.

1176.* "I would not live alway."—Job 7: 16.

1 I would not live alway: I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way;
The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.

2 I would not live alway: no, welcome the tomb!
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom;
There sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

3 Who, who would live alway, away from his God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns;

4 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet;
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul!

* The small notes will be required in singing this Hymn.
208. "Return unto thy rest, O my soul!"
Psalm 116.

1 Return, my soul, and sweetly rest
On thy almighty Father's breast;
The bounties of his grace adore,
And count his wondrous mercies o'er.

2 Thy mercy, Lord, preserved my breath,
And snatched my fainting soul from death;
Removed my sorrows, dried my tears,
And saved me from surrounding snares.

3 What shall I render to the Lord?
Or how his wondrous grace record?
To him my grateful voice I'll raise,
With just thanksgiving to his praise.

4 O Zion! in thy sacred courts,
Where glory dwells, and joy resorts,
To notes divine I'll tune the song,
And praise shall flow from every tongue.

788. The hidden Life.

1 On that I could for ever dwell,
Delighted at the Saviour's feet;
Behold the form I love so well,
And all his tender words repeat!

2 The world shut out from all my soul,
And heaven brought in with all its bliss,
Oh! is there aught, from pole to pole,
One moment to compare with this?

3 This is the hidden life I prize—
A life of penitential love;
When most my follies I despise,
And raise my highest thoughts above;

4 When all I am I clearly see,
And freely own with deepest shame;
When the Redeemer's love to me
Kindles within a deathless flame.

5 Thus would I live till nature fail,
And all my former sins forsake;
Then rise to God within the veil,
And of eternal joys partake.

1215. "Why should we weep for those who die?"

1 Why should we weep for those who die,
Those blessed ones who weep no more?
Jesus hath called them to the sky,
And gladly have they gone before.

2 A few short days they lingered here,
Th' appointed span of trial knew;
Dropped—early dropped the parting tear,
And early now have parted, too.

3 Up, up, in swift ascent, they rise,
Star after star of living light!
Why should we mourn that midnight skies
Become with added glories bright?

4 Far in the distant heavens they shine,
But still with borrowed luster glow:
Saviour, the beams are only thine,
Of saints above, or saints below.

5 For them no bitter tear we shed,—
Their night of pain and grief is o'er,—
But weep our lonely path to tread,
And see the forms we loved, no more.

1244. "One in our hope of rest above."

1 Still one in life and one in death,
One in our hope of rest above;
One in our joy, our trust, our faith,
One in each other's faithful love.

2 Yet must we part, and, parting, weep;
What else has earth for us in store?
Our farewell pangs, how sharp and deep!
Our farewell words, how sad and sore!
CAIRO. L. M.

3 Yet shall we meet again in peace,
To sing the song of festal joy,
Where none shall bid our gladness cease,
And none our fellowship destroy.

4 Where none shall beckon us away,
Nor bid our festival be done;
Our meeting-time th' eternal day,
Our meeting-place th' eternal throne.

5 There, hand in hand, firm-linked at last,
And, heart to heart, enfolded all,
We'll smile upon the troubled past,
And wonder why we wept at all.

691. "I love the Lord who died for me,”
1 John 4:19.
1 I love the Lord who died for me;
I love his grace divine and free;
I love his word, for there I read
That he loved me, and for me bled.

2 I love to hear that he was slain;
I love his every grief and pain;
I love to think on him by faith,
And muse upon his cruel death.

3 I love his people and their ways;
I love with them to pray and praise;
I love the Father and the Son;
I love the Spirit he sent down.

4 I love to think the time will come
When I shall be with him at home,—
When I shall love as he loves me,
And praise him through eternity.

1041. "Jesus, thine own Messiah, reigns,”
1 John 1:2.
1 Thy Father's house!—thine own bright home!
And thou hast there a place for me!
Though yet an exile here I roam,
That distant home by faith I see.

2 I see its domes resplendent glow,
Where beams of God's own glory fall;
And trees of life immortal grow,
Whose fruits o'erhang the sapphire wall.

3 I know that thou, who on the tree
Didst deign our mortal guilt to bear,
Wilt bring thine own to dwell with thee,
And waitest to receive me there!

4 Thy love will there array my soul
In thine own robe of spotless hue;
And I shall gaze, while ages roll,
On thee, with raptures ever new!

5 Oh, welcome day! when thou my feet
Shalt bring the shining threshold o'er;
A Father's warm embrace to meet,
And dwell at home for evermore!

1010. "In my Father's house are many mansions.,”—John 14:2.
1 Thy Father's house!—thine own bright home!
And thou hast there a place for me!
Though yet an exile here I roam,
That distant home by faith I see.
What is Prayer?

1 Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
   Uttered or unexpressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
   That trembles in the breast.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
   The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
   When none but God is near.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
   That infant lips can try;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
   The Majesty on high.

4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
   Returning from his ways;
While angels in their songs rejoice,
   And cry, "Behold, he prays!"

5 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
   The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gates of death:
   He enters heaven with prayer.

6 O thou, by whom we come to God,
   The Life, the Truth, the Way!
The path of prayer thyself hast trod;
   Lord! teach us how to pray.

In that dear fountain which his Son
   Poured from his dying veins.

4 There shall his sacred Spirit dwell,
   And deep engrave his law;
And every motion of our souls
   To swift obedience draw.

5 Thus will he pour salvation down,
   And we shall render praise,—
We, the dear people of his love,
   And he, our God of grace.

Do it heartily as to the Lord, and not unto men."

1 Not only when ascends the song,
   And soundeth sweet the word,—
Not only 'mid the Sabbath throng,
   Our souls would seek the Lord;

2 For, while we every yoke would break,
   And every captive free,
And every sluggish soul awake,—
   Lord, we are seeking thee!

3 Oh, mean may seem the work we do,
   And vile the name we earn;
But thou, O Lord, dost search us through,
   Our loyal hearts discern.

4 We lose, we lack, that men may gain,
   We suffer, and we smile:
But why this joy amid the pain?
   We seek our Lord the while!

5 Oh, every where, oh, every day,
   Thy grace is still outpoured;
We work, we wait, we smile, we pray—
   Behold, we seek thee, Lord!

And the city had no need of the sun."

1 Ye golden lamps of heaven! farewell,
   With all your feeble light;
Farewell, thou ever-changing moon,
   Pale empress of the night!
2 And thou refulgent orb of day,
   In brighter flames arrayed,
My soul, that springs beyond thy sphere,
   No more demands thine aid.

3 Ye stars are but the shining dust
   Of my divine abode;
The pavement of those heavenly courts,
   Where I shall reign with God.

4 The Father of eternal light
   Shall there his beams display;
Nor shall one moment’s darkness mix
   With that unvaried day.

5 No more the drops of piercing grief
   Shall swell into my eyes;
Nor the meridian sun decline
   Amid those brighter skies.

6 There all the millions of his saints
   Shall in one song unite,
And each the bliss of all shall view,
   With infinite delight.

1199. "He fell asleep."

1 Behold the western evening light!
   It melts in evening gloom:
So calmly Christians sink away,
   Descending to the tomb.

2 The winds breathe low, the withering leaf
   Scarce whispers from the tree;
So gently flows the parting breath,
   When good men cease to be.

3 How beautiful on all the hills
   The crimson light is shed!
’Tis like the peace the Christian gives
   To mourners round his bed,

4 How mildly on the wandering cloud
   The sunset beam is cast!
’Tis like the memory left behind,
   When loved ones breathe their last.

5 And now above the dews of night
   The rising star appears;
So faith springs in the heart of those Whose eyes are bathed in tears.

6 But soon the morning’s happier light
   Its glory shall restore,
And eyelids that are sealed in death
   Shall wake to close no more.

1240. "Caught up together with them in the clouds."

1 Hope of our hearts! O Lord, appear,
   Thou glorious Star of day!
Shine forth, and chase the dreary night,
   With all our tears, away.

2 Strangers on earth, we wait for thee:
   Oh, leave the Father’s throne!
Come with a shout of victory, Lord,
   And claim us as thine own!

3 Oh, bid the bright archangel then
   The trump of God prepare,
To call thy saints, the quick, the dead,
   To meet thee in the air!

4 No resting-place we seek on earth,
   No loveliness we see;
Our eye is on the royal crown
   Prepared for us and thee,

5 But, oh! the thought of sharing, Lord,
   Thy glorious throne above,
What is it to the brighter hope
   Of dwelling in thy love?

Doxology.

Let God the Father, and the Son,
   And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
   Or saints to love the Lord!
597. "Have mercy upon me, O God!"
Psalm 51.

1 Turn not thy face away, O Lord!
   From them that lowly lie,
   Lamenting sore their sinful life
   With tears and bitter cry:
   Thy mercy-gate stands open wide
   To them that mourn their sin;
   Shut not that gate against us, Lord!
   But let us enter in.

2 Thou knowest, Lord, what things be past
   And all the things that be;
   Thou knowest well what is to come;
   There's nothing hid from thee:
   So press we to thy mercy-gate,
   Where mercy doth abound,
   Imploring pardon for our sin
   To heal our deadly wound.

3 O Lord! we need not to repeat
   What we do beg and crave;
   For thou dost know, before we ask,
   The blessing we would have:
   Mercy, O Lord! we mercy seek;
   This is the height and sum;
   For mercy, Lord, is all our prayer,
   Oh, let thy mercy come!

I trembled on my feverish bed,
   And rose to sin anew.
4 Yet could I hear him once again,
   As I have heard of old,
   Methinks he should not call in vain
   His wanderer to the fold.
5 O thou, who every thought dost know,
   And answerest every prayer!
   Try me with sickness, want, or woe,
   But snatch me from despair.
6 My struggling will by grace control;
   Renew my broken vow;
   What blessed light breaks on my soul!
   My God! I hear thee now.

1012. "According to His mercy He saved us,"

1 Lorn, we confess our numerous faults,
   How great our guilt has been;
   Foolish and vain we were all our thoughts,
   And all our lives were sin.
2 But, O my soul! for ever praise,
   For ever love his name,
   Who turns thy feet from dangerous ways
   Of folly, sin, and shame.
3 'Tis not by works of righteousness,
   Which our own hands have done;
   But we are saved by sovereign grace,
   Abounding through his Son.
4 'Tis from the mercy of our God,
   That all our hopes begin;
   'Tis by the water, and the blood,
   Our souls are washed from sin.
5 'Tis through the purchase of his death
   Who hung upon the tree,
   The Spirit is sent down to breathe
   On such dry bones as we.
6 Raised from the dead, we live anew;
   And, justified by grace,
   We shall appear in glory, too,
   And see our Father's face.
1050. "This do in remembrance of Me."
1 According to thy gracious word,
In meek humility,
This will I do, my dying Lord!
I will remember thee.
2 Thy body, broken for my sake,
My bread from heaven shall be;
Thy testimonial cup I take,
And thus remember thee.
3 Gethsemane can I forget?
Or there thy conflict see,
Thine agony and bloody sweat—
And not remember thee?
4 When to the cross I turn my eyes,
And rest on Calvary,
O Lamb of God! my Sacrifice,
I must remember thee!
5 Remember thee, and all thy pains,
And all thy love to me—
Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
Will I remember thee!
6 And when these failing lips grow dumb,
And mind and memory flee,
When thou shalt in thy kingdom come,
Jesus, remember me!

608. "I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."
1 Dear Saviour, when my thoughts recall
The wonders of thy grace,
Low at thy feet, ashamed I fall,
And hide this wretched face.
2 Shall love like thine be thus repaid?
Ah, vile, ungrateful heart!
By earth's low cares so oft betrayed
From Jesus to depart.
3 But he, for his own mercy's sake,
My wandering soul restores;
He bids the mourning heart partake
The pardon it implores.
4 Oh, while I breathe to thee, my Lord,
The deep, repentant sigh,
Confirm the kind, forgiving word,
With pity in thine eye!
5 Then shall the mourner at thy feet
Rejoice to seek thy face;
And, grateful, own how kind, how sweet
Thy condescending grace!

617. "Oh, that I were as in months past!"
Job 29: 2.
1 Sweet was the time when first I felt
The Saviour's pardoning blood
Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.
2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue;
And, when the evening shade prevailed,
His love was all my song.
3 In prayer, my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.
4 But now, when evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns;
And when the morn the light reveals,
No light to me returns.
5 Rise, Saviour! help me to prevail,
And make my soul thy care;
I know thy mercy can not fail;
Let me that mercy share.

Doxology.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore!
161. "He hath not dealt with us after our sins." Psalm 103.

1 My soul, repeat his praise,
Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.

2 God will not always chide;
And when his wrath is felt,
Its strokes are fewer than our crimes,
And lighter than our guilt.

3 His power subdues our sins,
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west
Doth all our guilt remove.

4 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.

481. The Bible above Nature.—Psalm 19.

1 Behold, the morning sun
Begin his glorious way;
His beams through all the nations run,
And life and light convey.

2 But where the Gospel comes,
It spreads diviner light;
It calls dead sinners from their tombs,
And gives the blind their sight.

3 Thy laws are just and pure,
Thy truth without deceit;
Thy promises for ever sure,
And thy rewards are great.

4 My gracious God, how plain
Are thy directions given!
Oh, may I never read in vain,
But find the path to heaven!

482. "The law of the Lord is perfect." Psalm 103.

1 How perfect is thy word,
And all thy judgments just;
For ever sure thy promise, Lord,
And men securely trust.

2 I hear thy word with love,
And I would fain obey;
Send thy good Spirit from above,
To guide me, lest I stray.

3 Warn me of every sin;
Forgive my secret faults;
And cleanse this guilty soul of mine,
Whose crimes exceed my thoughts.

4 While, with my heart and tongue,
I spread thy praise abroad;
Accept the worship and the song,
My Saviour and my God.

535. "So run that ye may obtain." Psalm 19.

1 My soul, it is thy God
Who calls thee by his grace;
Now loose thee from each cumbering load,
And bend thee to the race.

2 Make thy salvation sure;
All sloth and slumber shun;
Nor dare a moment rest secure,
Till thou the goal hast won.

3 Thy crown of life hold fast;
Thy heart with courage stay;
Nor let one trembling glance be cast
Along the backward way.

4 Thy path ascends the skies,
With conquering footsteps bright;
And thou shalt win and wear the prize
In everlasting light.

| 1      | Hark! through the courts of heaven
Angelic voices sound:
He that was dead now lives again;
He that was lost is found. |
| 2      | God of unfailing grace,
Send down thy Spirit now;
Oh, raise the lowly soul to hope,
And make the lofty bow. |
| 3      | In countries far from home,
On earthly husks who feed,
Back to their Father's house, O Lord,
Their wandering footsteps lead. |
| 4      | Then at each soul's return,
The heavenly harp shall sound:
He that was dead now lives again;
He that was lost is found! |

| 1      | My God, my Life, my Love,
To thee, to thee I call;
I can not live if thou remove,
For thou art all in all. |
| 2      | To thee, and thee alone,
The angels owe their bliss:
They sit around thy gracious throne,
And dwell where Jesus is. |
| 3      | Not all the harps above
Can make a heavenly place,
If God his residence remove,

No, not a drop of real joy—
Without thy presence, Lord. |

Where all my pleasures roll;
The circle where my passions move,
And center of my soul. |

On thee I calmly rest:

Doxology.

The Father and the Son,
And Spirit we adore;
We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
Both now and evermore!
304. "The darkness is past."—1 John 2: 8.
1 'Tis past—the dark and dreary night,
And, Lord, we hail thee now,
Our Morning Star, without a cloud
Of sadness on thy brow,
Thy path on earth, the cross, the grave,
Thy sorrows all are o'er;
And oh, sweet thought! thy eye shall weep,
Thy heart shall bleed, no more.

2 Deep were those sorrows,—deeper still
The love that brought thee low;
That bade the streams of life from thee,
A willing victim, flow.
The soldier, as he pierced thee, proved
Man's hatred, Lord, to thee;
While in the blood that stained the spear,
Love, only love, we see.

3 Drawn from thy pierced and bleeding side
That pure and cleansing flood
Speaks peace to every heart that knows
The virtues of thy blood.
Yes, 't is not that we know the joy
Of canceled sin alone,
But, happier far, thy saints are called,
To share thy glorious throne.

4 So closely are we linked in love,
So wholly one with thee,
That all thy bliss and glory then
Our bright reward shall be.
Yes, when the storm of life is calmed,
The weary desert passed,
Our way-worn hearts shall find in thee
Their full repose at last.

Behold! I give my love, my heart,
My life, my all, to thee.
2 I love thee for the glorious worth
In thy great self I see;
I love thee for that shameful cross
Thou hast endured for me.
3 No man of greater love can boast
Than for his friend to die;
But for thy feet, Lord, thou wast slain:
What love with thine can vie!
4 Though in the very form of God,
With heavenly glory crowned,
Thou wouldst partake of human flesh
Beset with troubles round.
5 Thou wouldst, like wretched man, be made
In every thing but sin;
That we as like thee might become,
As we unlike have been.
6 O Lord, I'll treasure in my soul
The memory of thy love;
And thy dear name shall still to me
A grateful odor prove.

927. "Make Thy pleasure mine."
1 O Lord, my best desire fulfill,
And help me to resign
Life, health, and comfort to thy will,
And make thy pleasure mine.
2 Why should I shrink at thy command,
Whose love forbids my fears?
Or tremble at the gracious hand
That wipes away my tears?
3 No: rather let me freely yield
What most I prize to thee,
Who never hast a good withheld,
Or wilt withhold, from me.
LITCHFIELD.  C. M.

4 Thy favor, all my journey through,
   Thou art engaged to grant:
   What else I want, or think I do,
     'T is better still to want.

5 Wisdom and mercy guide my way:
   Shall I resist them both?
   A poor, blind creature of a day,
     And crushed before the might!

6 But ah! my inward spirit cries,
   Still bind me to thy sway;
   Else the next cloud that vails my skies
     Drives all these thoughts away.

931. "I welcome all Thy sovereign will."

1 My God! the covenant of thy love
   Abides for ever sure;
   And in its matchless grace I feel
     My happiness secure.

2 Since thou, the everlasting God,
   My Father art become,
   Jesus my Guardian and my Friend,
     And heaven my final home,—

3 I welcome all thy sovereign will,
   For all that will is love;
   And when I know not what thou dost
     I wait the light above.

4 Thy covenant in the darkest gloom
   Shall heavenly rays impart,
   And when my eyelids close in death,
     Sustain my fainting heart.

Who hath an undisputed right
   To govern me and mine.

2 It is the Lord—who gives me all,
   My wealth, my friends, my ease;
   And of his bounties may recall
     Whatever part he please.

3 It is the Lord, my covenant God,—
   Thrice blessed be his name,—
   Whose gracious promise, sealed with blood,
     Must ever be the same.

4 Can I, with hopes so firmly built,
   Be sullen, or repine?
   No: gracious God! take what thou wilt:
     To thee I all resign.

974. The hidden Life of the Christian.

1 Oh, happy soul, that lives on high,
   While men are groveling here!
   His hopes are fixed above the sky,
     And faith forbids his fear.

2 His conscience knows no secret stings,
   While peace and joy combine
   To form a life, whose holy springs
     Are hidden and divine.

3 He waits in secret on his God;
   His God in secret sees:
   Let earth be all in arms abroad;
     He dwells in heavenly peace.

4 His pleasures rise from things unseen,
   Beyond this world of time,
   Where neither eyes nor ears have been,
     Nor thoughts of mortals climb.

5 He wants no pomp nor royal throne
   To raise his honor here:
   Content and pleased to live unknown,
     Till Christ his life appear.
661. "Draw us, and we will run after Thee."

1 Along my earthly way,
How many clouds are spread!
Darkness, with scarce one cheerful ray,
Seems gathering o'er my head.

2 Yet, Father, thou art Love;
Oh, hide not from my view!
But when I look, in prayer, above,
Appear in mercy through!

3 My pathway is not hid;
Thou knowest all my need;
And I would do as Israel did,—
Follow where thou wilt lead.

4 Lead me, and then my feet
Shall never, never stray;
But safely I shall reach the seat
Of happiness and day.

5 And, oh! from that bright throne
I shall look back, and see,—
The path I went, and that alone
Was the right path for me.

803. "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

1 Oh, arm me with the mind,
Saviour, that was in thee!
And let my fervid zeal be joined
With perfect charity.

2 Control my every thought;
And all my sin remove;
Let all my works in thee be wrought;
Let all be wrought in love.

3 Lord, do not let me trust
In any arm but thine!
Humble, oh! humble to the dust
This stubborn soul of mine.

4 Help me to love like thee,
In all thy footsteps tread:
Thou hastest all iniquity,
But nothing thou hast made.

5 Oh, may I learn the art
With meekness to reprove;
To hate the sin with all my heart,
But still the sinner love!

831. Call to Renewal of Covenant.

1 Come, ye that fear the Lord,
And love him while ye fear;
Come, and with heart and hand record
Your vow and covenant here.

2 Here to his altar brought,
Your holy rows renew,
To be, in word, and deed, and thought,
Faithful to him and true.

3 And true and faithful he
To you will ever prove,
Though hills were swept into the sea,
And mountains should remove.

4 Then be his law our choice,
The joy of young and old,
As sheep that hear their shepherd's voice,
And follow to the fold.

5 So shall his staff and rod
Conduct us and defend:
God is a covenant-keeping God,
And loves unto the end.

876. Doing all things to God's Glory.

1 Teach me, my God and King,
In all things thee to see;
And what I do in any thing,
To do it as for thee!
2 To scorn the senses' sway,
While still to thee I tend;
In all I do, be thou the way,
In all, be thou the end.

3 All may of thee partake;
Nothing so small can be
But draws, when acted for thy sake,
Greatness and worth from thee.

4 If done beneath thy laws,
Ev'n servile labors shine;
Hallowed is toil, if this the cause;
The meanest work, divine.

2 Good, everlasting good—
Glad tidings, full of joy,
Flow from thy lips, the lips of truth,
And flow without alloy.

3 The broken heart, the poor,
The bruised, the deaf, the blind,
The dumb, the dead, the captive wretch,
In thee compassion find.

4 Lord Jesus! speed the day—
The promised day of grace—
To all the poor, the dumb, the deaf,
The dead of Adam's race.

1 Saviour! what gracious words
Are ever, ever thine!
Thy voice is music to the soul,
And life and peace divine.

1093 "Good tidings of great joy."

Doxology.
The Father and the Son
And Spirit we adore;
We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
Both now and evermore!
185. "Who hath known the mind of the Lord?"
Job 11:7, 8.

1 What finite power, with ceaseless toil,
Can fathom the eternal Mind?
Or who th' almighty Three in One,
By searching, to perfection find?

2 Angels and men in vain may raise,
Harmonious, their adoring songs:
The laboring thought sinks down oppressed,
And praises die upon their tongues.

3 Yet would I lift my trembling voice,
A portion of his ways to sing;
And, mingling with his meanest works,
My humble, grateful tribute bring.

234. The Mystery of Providence.

1 Lord, how mysterious are thy ways!
How blind are we! how mean our praise!
Thy steps can mortal eyes explore?
'Tis ours to wonder and adore.

2 Thy deep decrees from our dim sight
Are hid in shades of awful night;
Amid the lines, with curious eye,
Not angel minds presume to pry.

3 Great God! I would not ask to see
What in my coming life shall be;
Enough for me if love divine,
At length, thro' every cloud shall shine.

4 Are darkness and distress my share?
Then let me trust thy guardian care;
If light and bliss attend my days,
Then let my future hours be praise.

5 Yet this my soul desires to know,
Be this my only wish below,
That Christ be mine;—this great request
Grant, bounteous God, and I am blest!

540. One Thing needful.

1 Why will ye waste on trifling cares
That life which God's compassion spares?
While, in the various range of thought,
The one thing needful is forgot.

2 Shall God invite you from above?
Shall Jesus urge his dying love?
Shall troubled conscience give you pain?
And all these pleas unite in vain?

3 Not so your eyes will always view
Those objects which you now pursue;
Not so will heaven and hell appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.

4 Almighty God! thy grace impart;
Fix deep conviction on each heart;
Nor let us waste on trifling cares
That life which thy compassion spares.

619. The Hiding of God's Countenance.
Psalm 13.

1 How long, O Lord, shall I complain,
Like one who seeks his God in vain?
Still shall my soul thine absence mourn,
And still despair of thy return?

2 Hear, Lord! and grant me quick relief,
Before my death conclude my grief:
If thou withhold thy heavenly light,
I sleep in everlasting night.

3 How will the powers of darkness boast,
If but one praying soul be lost!
But I have trusted in thy grace,
And shall again behold thy face.

4 Whate'er my fears or foes suggest,
Thou art my hope, my joy, my rest;
My heart shall feel thy love, and raise
My cheerful voice to songs of praise.
144. God's Eternity, and Man's Mortality.
Psalm 90.

1 Through every age, eternal God,
Thou art our rest, our safe abode;
High was thy throne ere heaven was made,
Or earth thy humble footstool laid.

2 Long hadst thou reigned ere time began,
Or dust was fashioned into man;
And long thy kingdom shall endure,
When earth and time shall be no more.

3 But man, weak man, is born to die,
Made up of guilt and vanity;
Thy dreadful sentence, Lord, was just—
"Return, ye sinners, to your dust."

4 Death, like an overflowing stream,
Sweeps us away; our life's a dream—
An empty tale—a morning flower,
Cut down and withered in an hour!

5 Teach us, O Lord, how frail is man;
And kindly lengthen out our span,
Till, by thy grace, we all may be prepared to die, and dwell with thee.

310. Hope through the Sorrows of Christ.
Psalm 69.

1 Deep in our hearts let us record
The deeper sorrows of our Lord;
Behold the rising billows roll,
To overwhelm his holy soul!

2 Yet, gracious God, thy power and love
Have made the curse a blessing prove;
Those dreadful sufferings of thy Son
Atoned for crimes which we had done.

3 Oh, for his sake, our guilt forgive,
And let the mourning sinner live!
The Lord will hear us in his name,
Nor shall our hope be turned to shame.

598. "Cast me not away from Thy presence."
Psalm 51.

1 On, turn, great Ruler of the skies!
Turn from my sin thy searching eyes;
Nor let th' offenses of my hand
Within thy book recorded stand.

2 Give me a will to thine subdued,—
A conscience pure, a soul renewed;
Nor let me, wrapt in endless gloom,
An outcast from thy presence roam.

3 Oh, let thy Spirit to my heart
Once more its quickening aid impart;
My mind from every fear release,
And soothe my troubled thoughts to peace.

1162. "Lord, make me to know the measure of my days."—Psalm 90.

1 Almighty Maker of my frame,
Teach me the measure of my days;
Teach me to know how frail I am,
And spend the remnant to thy praise.

2 My days are shorter than a span,
A little point my life appears;
How frail at best is dying man!
How vain are all his hopes and fears!

3 Oh, spare me, and my strength restore,
Ere my few hasty minutes flee!
And when my days on earth are o'er,
Let me for ever dwell with thee.

4 Oh, be that noble portion mine
My God, I bow before thy throne;
Earth's fleeting treasures I resign,
And fix my hopes on thee alone.

Doxology.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!
Praise him, all creatures here below!
Praise him above, ye heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
232. "To heaven I lift my waiting eyes." Psalm 121.

1 To heaven I lift my waiting eyes:
There all my hopes are laid;
The Lord that built the earth and skies
Is my perpetual aid.
2 Their steadfast feet shall never fall
Whom he designs to keep;
His ear attends the softest call,
His eyes can never sleep.
3 Israel, rejoice, and rest secure;
Thy keeper is the Lord:
His wakeful eyes employ his power
For thine eternal guard.
4 He guards thy soul, he keeps thy breath,
Where thickest dangers come;
Go and return, secure from death,
Till God commands thee home.

577. "Oh for a lovely, contrite heart."

1 Oh for a heart to praise my God!
A heart from sin set free;
A heart that's sprinkled with the blood
So freely shed for me;
2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My dear Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone.
3 Oh for a lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean;
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within!
4 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above;
Write thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new, best name of Love.

689. Christ loved Unseen.—1 Peter 1: 8.

1 Jesus, these eyes have never seen
That radiant form of thine!

The vail of sense hangs dark between
Thy blessed face and mine!
2 I see thee not, I hear thee not,
Yet art thou oft with me;
And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot,
As where I meet with thee.
3 Like some bright dream that comes unsought,
When slumbers o'er me roll,
Thine image ever fills my thought,
And charms my ravished soul.
4 Yet though I have not seen, and still
Must rest in faith alone;
I love thee, dearest Lord!—and will,
Unseen, but not Unknown.
5 When death these mortal eyes shall seal,
And still this throbbing heart,
The rending vail shall thee reveal,
All glorious as thou art!
To live for him who died for man—
Oh, that is life to me!

432. "Elec, precious."

1 Jesus! I love thy charming name;
'Tis music to mine ear:
Fain would I sound it out so loud,
That earth and heaven should hear.

2 All that my loftiest powers can wish,
In thee doth richly meet;
Not to mine eyes is light so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.

3 Thy grace still dwells upon my heart,
And sheds its fragrance there—
The noblest balm of all my wounds,
The cordial of my care.

4 I'll speak the honors of thy name
With my last laboring breath;
Then, speechless, clasp thee in mine arms,
The Conqueror of death.

707. Living with Christ.

1 Oh, could I find, from day to day,
A nearness to my God!
Then should my hours glide sweet away,
While leaning on his word.

2 Lord, I desire with thee to live
A new from day to day;
In joys the world can never give,
Nor ever take away.

3 Blest Jesus! come and rule my heart,
And make me wholly thine,
That I may never more depart,
Nor grieve thy love divine.

4 Thus, till my last, expiring breath,
Thy goodness I'll adore;
And when my frame dissolves in death,
My soul shall love thee more.

779. "Lord, I believe; help Thou mine unbelief."

Mark 9: 24.

1 Lord, I believe; thy power I own,
Thy word I would obey;
I wander comfortless and lone,
When from thy truth I stray.

2 Lord, I believe; but gloomy fears
Sometimes bedim my sight;
I look to thee with prayers and tears,
And cry for strength and light.

3 Lord, I believe; but oft, I know,
My faith is cold and weak;
My weakness strengthen, and bestow
The confidence I seek!

4 Yes! I believe; and only thou
Canst give my soul relief;
Lord! to thy truth my spirit bow;
"Help thou mine unbelief!"

1098. "O Lord, truly I am Thy servant."

1 Oh, not to fill the month of fame
My longing soul is stirred:
Oh, give me a diviner name!
Call me thy servant, Lord!

2 No longer would my soul be known
As uncontrolled and free;
Oh, not mine own, oh, not mine own!
Lord, I belong to thee!

3 Thy servant,—me thy servant choose;
Naught of thy claim abate!
The glorious name I would not lose,
Nor change the sweet estate.

4 In life, in death, on earth, in heaven,
This is the name for me!
The same sweet style and title given
Through all eternity.
72. "Myself I can not save."

1 Thou seest my feebleness,
    Jesus, be thou my power,—
    My help and refuge in distress,
    My fortress and my tower.

2 Give me to trust in thee;
    Be thou my sure abode:
    My horn, and rock, and buckler be,
    My Saviour and my God.

3 Myself I can not save,
    Myself I can not keep;
    But strength in thee I surely have,
    Whose eyelids never sleep.

4 My soul to thee alone,
    Now, therefore, I commend:
    Lord Jesus, love me as thine own,
    And love me to the end.

526. Rest in God.—Gen. 8: 9.

1 Oh, cease, my wandering soul,
    On restless wing to roam;
    All this wide world, to either pole,
    Hath not for thee a home.

2 Behold the ark of God!
    Behold the open door!
    Oh, haste to gain that dear abode,
    And rove, my soul, no more.

3 There safe thou shalt abide,
    There sweet shall be thy rest,
    And every longing satisfied,
    With full salvation blest.

563. "Lord, to whom shall we go?"
    John 6: 63.

1 Ah! what avails my strife,
    My wandering to and fro!
    Thou hast the words of endless life;
    Ah! whither should I go?

2 Thy condescending grace
    To me did freely move;
    It calls me still to seek thy face,
    And stoops to ask my love.

3 My worthless heart to gain,
    The God of all that breathe,
    Was found in fashion as a man,
    And died a cursed death.

4 And can I yet delay
    My little all to give?
    To tear my soul from earth away,
    For Jesus to receive?

5 Ah! no: I all forsake,
    My all to thee resign:
    Gracious Redeemer, take, oh, take,
    And seal me ever thine!

496. "Where shall rest be found?"

1 Oh, where shall rest be found—
    Rest for the weary soul?
    'T were vain the ocean depths to sound,
    Or pierce to either pole.

2 The world can never give
    The bliss for which we sigh:
    'T is not the whole of life to live,
    Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears
    There is a life above,
    Unmeasured by the flight of years;
    And all that life is love.

4 There is a death whose pang
    Outlasts the fleeting breath:
    Oh, what eternal horrors hang
    Around the second death!

5 Lord God of truth and grace,
    Teach us that death to shun;
    Lest we be banished from thy face,
    And evermore undone.
622. "A broken heart Thou wilt not despise."

1 Still wilt thou, Lord, be found?
   And may I still draw near?
   Then listen to the plaintive sound—
   A sinner's earnest prayer.

2 Jesus, thine aid afford,
   For still the same thou art;
   To thee I look, to thee, my Lord,
   Lift up a helpless heart.

3 Though late, I all forsake;
   My friends, my life resign;
   Gracious Redeemer, take, oh, take,
   And seal me ever thine!

4 O my offended Lord!
   Restore my inward peace:
   I know thou canst;—pronounce the word,
   And bid the tempest cease.

5 I yield to thy control;
   Thou my Redeemer art;
   Enter and calm my troubled soul,
   And soothe my bleeding heart.

1160. "Our days are as an hand-breath."

1 My few revolving years,
   How swift they glide away!
   How short the term of life appears,
   When past—but as a day!—

2 A dark and cloudy day,
   Made up of grief and sin;
   A host of enemies without,
   Of guilty fears within.

3 Lord, through another year,
   If thou permit my stay,
   With watchful care may I pursue
   The true and living way!

   Doxology.

   The Father and the Son
   And Spirit we adore;
   We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
   Both now and evermore!
618. Prayer in extreme Distress.—Psalm 102.

1 Hear me, O God, nor hide thy face,
But answer, lest I die!
Hast thou not built a throne of grace,
To hear when sinners cry?

2 As on some lonely building's top
The sparrow tells her morn,
Far from the tents of joy and hope,
I sit and grieve alone.

3 But thou for ever art the same,
O my Eternal God!
Ages to come shall know thy name,
And spread thy works abroad.

4 Thou wilt arise, and show thy face,
Nor will my Lord delay,
Beyond th' appointed hour of grace,
That long expected day.

5 He hears his saints, he knows their cry;
And by mysteries ways
Redeems the prisoners doomed to die,
And fills their tongues with praise.

630. Wanderings from God.

1 How oft, alas! this wretched heart
Has wandered from the Lord!
How oft my roving thoughts depart,
Forgetful of his word!

2 Yet sovereign mercy calls—"Return!"
Dear Lord, and may I come?
My vile ingratitude I mourn:
Oh, take the wanderer home!

3 And canst thou,—wilt thou yet forgive,
And bid my crimes remove?
And shall a pardoned rebel live,
To speak thy wondrous love?

4 Almighty grace, thy healing power,
How glorious, how divine!
That can to life and bliss restore
A heart so vile as mine.

5 Thy pardoning love, so free, so sweet,
Dear Saviour, I adore;
Oh, keep me at thy sacred feet,
And let me rove no more!

748. The Shadow of the Cross.

1 Oppress'd with noon-day's scorching heat,
To yonder cross I flee;
Beneath its shelter take my seat:
No shade like this for me!

2 Beneath that cross clear waters burst—
A fountain sparkling free;
And there I quench my desert thirst:
No spring like this for me!

3 A stranger here, I pitch my tent
Beneath this spreading tree;
Here shall my pilgrim life be spent:
No home like this for me!

4 For burdened ones a resting-place,
Beside that cross I see;
I here cast off my weariness:
No rest like this for me!

774. "Jesus, I'll turn to Thee".

1 Jesus, in sickness and in pain,
Be near to succor me;
My sinking spirit still sustain:
To thee I turn, to thee.

2 When cares and sorrows thicken round,
And nothing bright I see,
In thee alone can help be found;
To thee I turn, to thee.

3 Should strong temptations fierce assail,
And Satan buffet me,
Then in thy strength will I prevail,
While still I turn to thee.

4 Through all my pilgrimage below,
Whate'er my lot may be,
In joy or sadness, weal or woe,
Jesus, I'll turn to thee.
621. Peace restored.

1 Oh, speak that gracious word again,
   And cheer my broken heart!
No voice but thine can soothe my pain,
   Or bid my fears depart.

2 And canst thou still vouchsafe to own
   A wretch so vile as I?
And may I still approach thy throne,
   And "Abba, Father," cry?

3 Oh, then, let saints and angels join,
   And help me to proclaim
The grace that healed a soul like mine,
   And put my foes to shame!

4 My Saviour, by his powerful word,
   Has turned my night to day;
And his salvation's joy restored,
   Which I had sinned away.

5 Dear Lord, I wonder and adore;
   Thy grace is all divine;
Oh, keep me, that I sin no more
   Against such love as thine!

4 My God will pity my complaints,
   And drive my foes away;
He knows the meaning of his saints,
   When they in sorrow pray.

5 Arise, my soul! from deep distress,
   And banish every fear;
He calls thee to his throne of grace,
   To spread thy sorrows there.

667. "O Lord, save me, and I shall be saved."

1 Great Source of boundless power and grace!
   Attend my mournful cry;
In hours of dark and deep distress,
   To thee alone I fly.

2 Thou art my Strength, my Life, my Stay:
   Assist my feeble trust;
Oh, drive my gloomy fears away,
   And raise me from the dust!

3 Pain would I call thy grace to mind,
   And trust thy glorious name;
Jehovah, powerful, wise, and kind,
   For ever is the same.

4 Thy presence, Lord, can cheer my heart,
   When earthly comforts die;
Thy voice can bid my pains depart,
   And raise my pleasures high.

5 Here let me rest—on thee depend,
   My God, my Hope, my All;
Be thou my everlasting Friend,
   And I shall never fall.

655. "Oh that I knew where I might find Him."
   Job 23:3,4.

1 On that I knew the secret place
   Where I might find my God!
I'd spread my wants before his face,
   And pour my woes abroad.

2 I'd tell him how my sins arise,
   What sorrows I sustain;
How grace decays, and comfort dies,
   And leaves my heart in pain.

3 He knows what arguments I'd take
   To wrestle with my God;
I'd plead for his own mercy's sake—
   I'd plead my Saviour's blood.

4 Thy presence, Lord, can cheer my heart,
   When earthly comforts die;
Thy voice can bid my pains depart,
   And raise my pleasures high.

5 Here let me rest—on thee depend,
   My God, my Hope, my All;
Be thou my everlasting Friend,
   And I shall never fall.

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
   And shall be evermore!

1 Stay, thou insulted Spirit, stay!
Though I have done thee such despite,
Cast not a sinner quite away,
Nor take thine everlasting flight.

2 Though I have most unfaithful been
Of all who e'er thy grace received;
Ten thousand times thy goodness seen,
Ten thousand times thy goodness grieved;

3 Yet, oh, the chief of sinners spare,
In honor of my Great High Priest!
Nor, in thy righteous anger, swear
I shall not see thy people's rest.

4 O Lord, my weary soul release,
Upraise me by thy gracious hand;
Guide me into thy perfect peace,
And bring me to the promised land.

492. "I was shapen in iniquity."—Psalm 51.

1 Lord, I am vile—conceived in sin,
And born unholy and unclean;
Sprung from the man whose guilty fall
Corrupts the race, and taints us all.

2 Soon as we draw our infant breath,
The seeds of sin grow up for death:
Thy law demands a perfect heart;
But we're defiled in every part.

3 Behold, I fall before thy face;
My only refuge is thy grace:
Great God! create my heart anew,
And form my spirit pure and true.

4 No bleeding bird, nor bleeding beast,
Nor hyssop branch, nor sprinkling priest,
Nor running brook, nor flood, nor sea,
Can wash the dismal stain away.

5 Jesus, my God! thy blood alone
Hath power sufficient to stone:
Thy blood can make me white as snow;
No Jewish types could cleanse me so.

6 While guilt disturbs and breaks my peace,
Nor flesh nor soul hath rest or ease:
Lord, let me hear thy pardoning voice,
And make my broken bones rejoice.

498. "Thou didst set them in slippery places."—Psalm 73.

1 Lord, what a thoughtless wretch was I
To mourn, and murmur, and repine,
To see the wicked, placed on high,
In pride and robes of honor shine!

2 But oh, their end, their dreadful end!
Thy sanctuary taught me so:
On slippery rocks I see them stand,
And fiery billows roll below.

3 Their fancied joys—how fast they flee!
Just like a dream when man awakes;
Their songs of softest harmony
Are but a prelude to their plagues.

4 Now I esteem their mirth and wine
Too dear to purchase with my blood:
Lord, 'tis enough that thou art mine,
My life, my portion, and my God!

584. "Hide Thy face from my sins."—Psalm 51.

1 Have mercy on me, O my God!
In loving kindness hear my prayer;
Withdraw the terror of thy rod;
Lord, in thy tender mercy, spare.

2 Offenses rise wherever I look,
But I confess their guilt to thee;
Blot my transgressions from thy book;
Wash me from all iniquity.

3 Not streaming blood nor cleansing fire
Thy seeming anger can appease;
Burnt offerings thou dost not require,
Or gladly I would render these.
WINDHAM. L. M.

4 The broken heart in sacrifice,
   Alone, will thine acceptance meet:
   My heart, O God, do not despise,
   Abased and contrite at thy feet.

594. "Show pity, Lord! O Lord, forgive."
   Psalm 51.
1 Show pity, Lord! O Lord, forgive;
   Let a repenting rebel live;
   Are not thy mercies large and free?
   May not a sinner trust in thee?
2 My crimes are great, but ne'er surpass
   The power and glory of thy grace:
   Great God! thy nature hath no bound,
   So let thy pardoning love be found.
3 Oh, wash my soul from every sin,
   And make my guilty conscience clean!
   Here on my heart the burden lies,
   And past offenses pain mine eyes.
4 My lips with shame my sins confess,
   Against thy law, against thy grace;
   Lord, should thy judgment grow severe,
   I am condemned, but thou art clear.
5 Should sudden vengeance seize my breath,
   I must pronounce thee just in death;
   And if my soul were sent to hell,
   Thy righteous law approves it well.
6 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord!
   Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
   Would light on some sweet promise there,
   Some sure support against despair.

595. "Blot out my transgressions."—Psalm 51.
1 O thou that hearest when sinners cry,
   Though all my crimes before thee lie,
   Behold me not with angry look,
   But blot their memory from thy book.

2 Create my nature pure within,
   And form my soul averse to sin;
   Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart,
   Nor hide thy presence from my heart.
3 I can not live without thy light,
   Cast out and banished from thy sight;
   Thy holy joys, my God, restore,
   And guard me that I fall no more.
4 Though I have grieved thy Spirit, Lord,
   His help and comfort still afford;
   And let a sinner seek thy throne,
   To plead the merits of thy Son.

596. "Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation."
   Psalm 51.
1 A broken heart, my God, my King,
   Is all the sacrifice I bring;
   The God of grace will ne'er despise
   A broken heart for sacrifice.
2 My soul lies humbled in the dust,
   And owns thy dreadful sentence just;
   Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,
   And save the soul condemned to die.
3 Then will I teach the world thy ways;
   Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace:
   I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood,
   And they shall praise a pardoning God.
4 Oh, may thy love inspire my tongue!
   Salvation shall be all my song;
   And all my powers shall join to bless
   The Lord, my Strength and Righteousness.

Doxology.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
   The God whom earth and heaven adore
   Be glory as it was of old,
   Is now, and shall be evermore!
464. "Spirit of Power and Might."

1 Spirit of power and might, behold
   A world by sin destroyed!
Creator Spirit, as of old,
   Move on the formless void.

2 Give thou the word: that healing sound
   Shall quell the deadly strife,
And earth again, like Eden crowned,
   Produce the tree of life.

3 If sang the morning stars for joy
   When nature rose to view,
What strains will angel harps employ
   When thou shalt all renew!

4 And if the sons of God rejoice
   To hear a Saviour's name,
How will the ransomed raise their voice,
   To whom that Saviour came!

5 Lo! every kindred, tongue, and tribe,
   Assembling round the throne,
The new creation shall ascribe
   To sovereign love alone.

999. "The sons of God."—Rom. 8: 19-23.

1 The whole creation groans and waits
   Till we, who love thee, Lord,
Shall stand within thy temple gates,
   And shine,—the sons of God.

2 The sons of God,—how bright they shine!
   No mortal eye can see;
We, sinners, shall be made divine!
   We shall be one with thee!

3 One with the Lord and all his saints!
   Thy nature in our own!
Thy crown our rich inheritance!
   Heirs to thy royal throne!

4 Thy throne no joy to us would bring,
   If we from thee were riven;
For all our joy is in our King,
   And thou art all our heaven.

1000. "My Father, God."

1 Lord, I address thy heavenly throne;
   Call me a child of thine;
Send down the Spirit of thy Son,
   To form my heart divine.

2 There shed thy choicest love abroad,
   And make my comforts strong:
Then shall I say—"My Father, God,"
   With an unwavering tongue.

1038. "Mark ye well her works."

1 Oh, where are kings and empires now,
   Of old that went and came?
But, Lord, thy church is praying yet,
   A thousand years the same.

2 We mark her goodly battlements,
   And her foundations strong;
We hear within the solemn voice
   Of her unending song.

3 For not like kingdoms of the world
   Thy holy church, O God!
Though earthquake shocks are threatening her,
   And tempests are abroad;

4 Unshaken as eternal hills,
   Immovable she stands,
A mountain that shall fill the earth,
   A house not made by hands.

1246. "He, being dead, yet speaketh."—Heb. 11.

1 Rise, O my soul, pursue the path
   By ancient worthies trod;
Aspiring, view those holy men,
   Who lived and walked with God.

2 Though dead, they speak in reason's ear,
   And in example live;
Their faith, and hope, and mighty deeds
   Still fresh instruction give.
3 'Twas through the Lamb's most precious blood,
   They conquered every foe;
And to his power and matchless grace
   Their crowns of life they owe.

4 Lord! may I ever keep in view
   The patterns thou hast given,
And never forsake the blessed road
   That led them safe to heaven.

1251. "There the wicked cease from troubling."

1 Our sins, alas! how strong they are!
   And, like a raging flood,
They break our duty, Lord, to thee,
   And force us from our God.

2 The waves of trouble—how they rise!
   How loud the tempests roar!
But death shall land our weary souls
   Safe on the heavenly shore.

3 There to fulfill his sweet commands
   Our speedy feet shall move;
No sin shall clog our winged zeal,
   Or cool our burning love.

4 There shall we sit, and sing, and tell
   The wonders of his grace,
Till heavenly raptures fire our hearts,
   And smile in every face.

5 For ever his dear, sacred name
   Shall dwell upon our tongue,
And Jesus and salvation be
   The close of every song.

1273. "In my flesh shall I see God."

1 My faith shall triumph o'er the grave,
   And trample on the tomb;
I know that my Redeemer lives,
   And on the clouds shall come.

2 I know that he shall soon appear
   In power and glory meet;
And death, the last of all his foes,
   Lie vanquished at his feet.

3 Then, though the grave my flesh devour,
   And hold me for its prey,
I know my sleeping dust shall rise
   On the last judgment-day.

4 I, in my flesh, shall see my God,
   When he on earth shall stand;
I shall with all his saints ascend
   To dwell at his right hand.

5 Then shall he wipe all tears away,
   And hush the rising groan;
And pains and sighs and griefs and fears
   Shall ever be unknown.

1275. "Then also which sleep in Jesus."
   1 Thess. 4: 14—17.

1 As Jesus died and rose again,
   Victorious, from the dead;
So his disciples rise, and reign
   With their triumphant Head.

2 The time draws nigh, when, from the clouds,
   Christ shall with shouts descend;
And the last trumpet's awful voice
   The heavens and earth shall rend.

3 Then they who live shall change'd be,
   And they who sleep shall wake;
The graves shall yield their ancient charge,
   And earth's foundation shake.

4 The saints of God, from death set free,
   With joy shall mount on high;
The heavenly host with praises loud
   Shall meet them in the sky.

5 Together to their Father's house
   With joyful hearts they go;
And dwell for ever with the Lord,
   Beyond the reach of woe.

1 O thou, who hast redeemed of old,
   And bidst me of thy strength lay hold,
   Help me thy benefits to own,
   O dying Lamb! for me.

2 Love; only love, thy heart inclined,
   And brought thee, Saviour of mankind,
   Distressed thee sore for my relief:
   Oh, mystery of Love!

3 As thou hast loved and died for me,
   So grant me, Saviour, love to thee,
   My life be all with thine the same:
   Lord, thou hast won.

554. Surrender to the Love of God.

1 Lo, on a narrow neck of land,
   Twixt two unbounded seas, I stand,
   Removest me to that heavenly place,
   Against thy terrors long I strove;

2 O God, my inmost soul convert,
   And deeply on my thoughtful heart
   Distress me, O, my bleeding Saviour,
   See all my powers in waiting stand.

3 Before me place, in dread array,
   The pomp of that tremendous day,
   Now, Lord, I would be thine alone;
   To be employed by thee.

4 O Saviour, then my soul receive,
   Then bid me in thy presence live,
   And who can stand against thy love?
   And everlasting love.

5 Lord, thou hast won; at length I yield;
   My heart, by mighty grace compelled,
   Love conquers even me.
   Lord, I would be thine alone;

6 O thou, who hast redeemed of old,
   And bidst me of thy strength lay hold,
   Help me thy benefits to own,
   To meet a joyful doom?
603. "Remember Thou me."

1 When thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come
To take thy ransomed people home,
Shall I among them stand?
Shall such a worthless worm as I,
Who sometimes am afraid to die,
Be found at thy right hand?

2 I love to meet among them now,
Before thy gracious feet to bow,
Though vilest of them all;
But—can I bear the piercing thought?
What if my name should be left out,
When thou for them shalt call!

3 Prevent, prevent it by thy grace;
Be thou, dear Lord, my hiding-place,
In this th' accepted day:
Thy pardoning voice, oh, let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear;
Nor let me fall, I pray!

4 Let me among thy saints be found,
Whene'er th' archangel's trump shall sound,
To see thy smiling face;
Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With shouts of sovereign grace.

725. "No Refuge of my own."

1 O thou, who hearest the prayer of faith,
Wilt thou not save a soul from death,
That casts itself on thee?

I have no refuge of my own,
But fly to what my Lord hath done,
And suffered once for me.

2 Slain in the guilty sinner's stead,
His spotless righteousness I plead,
And his availing blood;
Thy merit, Lord, my robe shall be;
Thy merit shall alone for me,
And bring me near to God.

3 Then save me from eternal death,
The Spirit of adoption breathe,
His consolations send;
By him some word of life impart,
And sweetly whisper to my heart,
"Thy Maker is thy Friend."

4 The king of terrors then would be
A welcome messenger to me,
To bid me come away;
Unclogged by earth, or earthly things,
I'd mount, I'd fly with eager wings
To everlasting day!

Doxology.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God, whom Heaven's triumphant host
And saints on earth adore,
Be glory as in ages past,
Is now, and shall for ever last,
When time shall be no more!
573. "I have found my sheep."

1 There was joy in heaven!
There was joy in heaven!
When this goodly world to frame
The Lord of might and mercy came:
Shouts of joy were heard on high,
And the stars sang from the sky—
"Glory to God in heaven!"

2 There was joy in heaven!
There was joy in heaven!

LEWIN. 5s & 8s.

When of love the midnight beam
Dawned on the tower of Bethlehem:
And along the echoing hill
Angels sang—"On earth good will,
Glory to God in heaven!"

3 There is joy in heaven!
There is joy in heaven!
When the sheep that went astray
Returns in love to virtue's way;
When the soul, by grace subdued,
Sobs its prayer of gratitude,
Then is there joy in heaven!

1 Jesus, still lead on,
Till our rest be won;
And although the way be cheerless,
We will follow, calm and fearless:
Guide us by thy hand
To our Fatherland!

2 If the way be drear,
If the foe be near,
Let not faithless fears o'ertake us,
Let not faith and hope forsake us;
For, through many a foe,
To our home we go!

3 When we seek relief
From a long-felt grief;
When temptations come alluring,
Make us patient and enduring:
Show us that bright shore
Where we weep no more!

4 Jesus, still lead on,
Till our rest be won;
Heavenly Leader, still direct us,
Still support, console, protect us,
Till we safely stand
In our Fatherland!
423. "Touched with the feeling of our infirmities."

1 When our heads are bowed with woe;
   When our bitter tears o'erflow;
   When we mourn the lost, the dear,
   Gracious Saviour, hear!

2 Thou our feeble flesh hast worn;
   Thou our mortal griefs hast borne;
   Thou hast shed the human tear:
   Gracious Saviour, hear!

3 When the heart is sad within,
   With the thought of all its sin;
   When the spirit shrinks with fear,
   Gracious Saviour, hear!

4 Thou the shame, the grief, hast known;
   Though the sins were not thine own,
   Thou hast deigned their load to bear:
   Gracious Saviour, hear!

5 When our eyes grow dim in death;
   When we heave the parting breath;
   When our solemn doom is near,
   Gracious Saviour, hear!

6 Thou hast bowed the dying head;
   Thou the blood of life hast shed;
   Thou hast filled a mortal bier:
   Gracious Saviour, hear!

443. Christ our Life.

1 Lord of mercy and of might,
   Of mankind the life and light,
   Maker, Teacher, Infinite—
   Jesus, hear and save!

2 Strong Creator, Saviour mild,
   Humbled to a little child,
   Captive, beaten, bound, reviled—
   Jesus, hear and save!

3 Borne aloft on angels' wings,
   Throned above celestial things,
   Lord of lords, and King of kings—
   Jesus, hear and save!

4 Soon to come to earth again,
   Judge of angels and of men,
   Hear us now, and hear us then:
   Jesus, hear and save!

1 Holy Ghost, the Infinite!
   Shine upon our nature's night
   With thy blessed inward light,
   Comforter Divine!

2 We are sinful: cleanse us, Lord;
   We are faint; thy strength afford;
   Lost,—until by thee restored,
   Comforter Divine!

3 Like the dew, thy peace distill;
   Guide, subdue our wayward will,
   Things of Christ unfolding still,
   Comforter Divine!

4 In us, for us, intercede,
   And, with voiceless groanings, plead
   Our unutterable need,
   Comforter Divine!

5 In us "Abba, Father," cry—
   Earnest of our bliss on high,
   Seal of immortality,—
   Comforter Divine!

6 Search for us the depths of God;
   Bear us up the starry road,
   To the height of thine abode,
   Comforter Divine!

938. "Saviour, comfort me."

1 In the dark and cloudy day,
   When earth's riches fce away,
   And the last hope will not stay,
   Saviour, comfort me!

2 When the secret idol's gone
   That my poor heart yearned upon,— Desolate, bereft, alone,
   Saviour, comfort me!

3 Thou, who wast so sorely tried,
   In the darkness crucified,
   Bid me in thy love confide!
   Saviour, comfort me!

4 Comfort me; I am cast down;
   'Tis my heavenly Father's frown;
   I deserve it all, I own:
   Saviour, comfort me!

5 So it shall be good for me
   Much afflicted now to be,
   If thou wilt but tenderly,
   Saviour, comfort me!
559. "Just as I am."

1 Just as I am, without one plea,
   But that thy blood was shed for me,
   And that thou bid'st me come to thee,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
   To rid my soul of one dark blot,
   To thee whose blood can cleanse each spot,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
   With many a conflict, many a doubt,
   Fighting within, and fears without,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

4 Just as I am—poor, wretched, blind;
   Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
   Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

5 Just as I am—thou wilt receive,
   Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
   Because thy promise I believe,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

6 Just as I am—thy love unknown
   Hath broken every barrier down.
   Now, to be thine, yea, thine alone,
   O Lamb of God, I come!

532. "If any man thirst, let him come unto Me."

1 Burdened with guilt, wouldst thou be blest?
   Trust not the world; it gives no rest;
   I bring relief to hearts oppressed;
   O weary sinner, come!

2 Come, leave thy burden at the cross;
   Count all thy gains but empty dross;
   My grace repays all earthly loss:
   O needy sinner, come!

3 Come, hither bring thy boding fears,
   Thine aching heart, thy bursting tears;
   'Tis mercy's voice salutes thine ears:
   O trembling sinner, come!

4 "The Spirit and the bride say, Come!"
   Rejoicing saints repeat, Come!
   Who faints, who thirsts, who will, may come;
   Thy Saviour bids thee come.

373. Prayer for Christ's Intercession.

1 O Thou, the contrite sinners' Friend!
   Who, loving, lov'st them to the end,
   On this alone my hopes depend,
   That thou wilt plead for me.

2 When weary in the Christian race,
   Far off appears my resting place,
   And, fainting, I mistrust thy grace,
   Then, Saviour, plead for me,

3 When I have erred and gone astray,
   Afar from thine and wisdom's way,
   And see no glimmering, guiding ray,
   Still, Saviour, plead for me.

4 When Satan, by my sins made bold,
   Strives from thy cross to loose my hold,
   Then with thy pitying arms enfold,
   And plead, oh, plead for me!
5 And when my dying hour draws near,
Darkened with anguish, guilt, and fear,
Then to my fainting sight appear,
Pleading in heaven for me.

6 When the full light of heavenly day,
Reveals my sins in dread array,
Say thou hast washed them all away;
Oh, say thou plead'st for me!

771. The unseen Friend.
1 O holy Saviour! Friend unseen,
Since on thine arm thou bid'st me lean,
Help me, throughout life's changing scene,
By faith to cling to thee!

2 Blest with this fellowship divine,
Take what thou wilt, I'll not repine;
For, as the branches to the vine,
My soul would cling to thee.

3 Though far from home, fatigued, oppressed,
Here have I found a place of rest;
An exile still, yet not unblest,
Because I cling to thee.

4 What though the world deceitful prove,
And earthly friends and hopes remove;
With patient, uncomplaining love
Still would I cling to thee.

5 Though oft I seem to tread alone
Life's dreary waste, with thorns overgrown,
Thy voice of love, in gentlest tone,
Still whispers, "Cling to me!"

6 Though faith and hope are often tried,
I ask not, need not aught beside;
So safe, so calm, so satisfied,
The soul that clings to thee!

844. The Hour of Prayer.
1 My God! is any hour so sweet,
From blush of morn to evening star,
As that which calls me to thy feet—
The hour of prayer?

2 Blest is the tranquil hour of morn.
And blest that hour of solemn eve,
When, on the wings of prayer up-borne,
The world I leave.

3 Then is my strength by thee renewed;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.

4 No words can tell what sweet relief
There for my every want I find;
What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind!

5 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And ev'n the penitential tear
Is wiped away.

6 Lord! till I reach that blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to thee.

* Observe the tie for this Hymn.

1 Come, Holy Ghost,—in love
   Shed on us from above
   Thine own bright ray!
   Divinely good thou art;
   Thy sacred gifts impart
   To gladden each sad heart:
   Oh, come to-day!

2 Come, tend'rest Friend, and best,
   Our most delightful guest,
   With soothing power:
   Rest, which the weary know,
   Shade, 'mid the noontide glow,
   Peace, when deep griefs overflow,—
   Cheer us, this hour!

3 Come, Light serene, and still
   Our inmost bosoms fill:
   Dwell in each breast:
   We know no dawning light;
   Send forth thy beams divine,
   On our dark souls to shine,
   And make us blest!

4 Exalt our low desires;
   Extinguish passion's fires;
   Heal every wound;
   Our stubborn spirits bend;
   Our icy coldness end;
   Our devious steps attend,
   While heavenward bound.

5 Come, all the faithful bless;
   Let all, who Christ confess
   His praise employ:
   Give virtue's rich reward;
   Victorious death accord,
   And, with our glorious Lord,
   Eternal joy!

1 O thou best gift of heaven,
   Thou who thyself hast given,—
   For thou hast died!
   This thou hast done for me:
   What have I done for thee?
   Thou crucified?

2 I long to serve thee more;
   Reveal an open door
   Saviour, to me:
   Then, counting all but loss,
   I'll glory in thy cross,
   And follow thee.

3 Do thou but point the way,
   And give me strength t'obey;
   Thy will be mine:
   Then can I think it joy
   To suffer or to die,
   Since I am thine.

1084. "He took them up in His arms."

1 Shepherd of tender youth,
   Guiding in love and truth
   Through devious ways—
   Christ, our triumphant King,
   We come thy name to sing,
   And here our children bring
   To shout thy praise.

2 Thou art our holy Lord,
   O all-subduing Word,
   Healer of strife:
   Thou didst thyself abase,
   That from sin's deep disgrace
   Thou mightest save our race,
   And give us life.
THE SABBATH HYMN AND TUNE BOOK.

OLIVET. 6s & 4s.

3 Ever be near our side,
Our Shepherd and our Guide,
Jesus, thou Christ of God,
By thine enduring word
Lead us where thou hast trod;
Make our faith strong.

4 So now, and till we die,
Sound we thy praises high,
And joyful sing:
Let all the holy throng,
Who to thy church belong,
Unite and swell the song
To Christ our King!

Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Saviour! then, in love,
Fear and distrust remove;
Oh, bear me safe above—
A ransomed soul!

1202. "Forsake me not when my strength faileth."

1 Lowly and solemn be
Thy children's cry to thee,
Father divine!
A hymn of supplicant breath,
[]: Owning that life and death [:]
Alike are thine.

2 O Father! in that hour
When earth all succoring power
Shall disavow,
When spear, and shield, and crown
[]: In faintness, and shield, and crown
Sustain us thou!

3 By him who bowed to take
The death-cup for our sake,
The thorn, the rod,—
From whom the last dismay
[]: Was not to pass away, [:]
Aid us, O God!

4 Trembling beside the grave,
We call on thee to save,
Father divine!
Hear, hear our supplicant breath;
[]: Keep us, in life and death, [:]
Thine, only thine.
293. "O sacred Head, now wounded!"

1 O sacred Head, now wounded!
   With grief and shame weighed down;
O sacred brow, surrounded
   With thorns, thine only crown!
Once on a throne of glory,
   Adorned with light divine,
Now all despised and gory,
   I joy to call thee mine.

2 On me, as thou art dying,
   Oh, turn thy pitying eye!
To thee for mercy crying,
   Before thy cross I lie.
Thine, thine the bitter passion,
   Thy pain is all for me;
Mine, mine the deep transgression,
   My sins are all on thee.

3 What language can I borrow
   To thank thee, dearest Friend,
For all this dying sorrow,
   Of all my woes the end?

4 Be near when I am dying;
   Then close beside me stand;
Let me, while faint and sighing,
   Lean calmly on thy hand:
These eyes new faith receiving,
   From thine eye shall not move;
For he who dies believing,
   Dies safely in thy love.

Doxology.

To thee be praise for ever,
   Thon glorious King of kings!
Thy wondrous love and favor
   Each ransomed spirit sings:
We'll celebrate thy glory
   With all thy saints above,
And shout the joyful story
   Of thy redeeming love.
326. "The exceeding riches of His Grace."

1 O Lord, thy love's unbounded!
   So full, so sweet, so free!
   Our thoughts are all confounded,
   Whene'er we think on thee:
   For us, thou can'st from heaven,
   For us to bleed and die;
   That, purchased and forgiven,
   We might ascend on high.

2 Oh, let this love constrain us
   To give our hearts to thee;
   Let nothing henceforth pain us,
   But that which paineth thee!
   Our joy, our one endeavor,
   Through suffering, conflict, shame,
   To serve thee, gracious Saviour,
   And magnify thy name!

Oh! miracle of mercy,
   That rebels should be blest!—

2 That we, with sin polluted,
   Should have our home on high!
   That we should dwell in mansions
   Beyond the starry sky!
   And now we fight the battle,
   And then we wear the crown
   Of full and everlasting,
   And ever bright renown!

3 I know not, oh! I know not
   What social joys are there;
   What pure, unfading glory,
   What light beyond compare;—
   And when I fain would sing them,
   My spirit fails and faints,—
   And vainly strives to image
   Th' assembly of the saints.

1230. Contrast of Heaven with Earth.
   (An ancient Hymn.)

1 Brief life is here our portion,
   Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
   The life that knows no ending,
   The tearless life is there;
   Reward of grace how wondrous!
   Short toil,—eternal rest!

4 There is the throne of David,
   And there from toil released,
   The shout of them that triumph,
   The song of them that feast:
   O Garden free from sorrow!
   O Plains that fear no strife!
   O princely Bowers, all blooming!
   O Realms and Home of life!
1. "After this manner, therefore pray ye."

1 Our Father, God, who art in heaven,
All hallowed be thy name!
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done,
In earth and heaven the same!

2 Give us, this day, our daily bread;
And, as we those forgive
Who sin against us, so may we
Forgiving grace receive.

3 Into temptation lead us not;
From evil set us free;
And thine the kingdom, thine the power
And glory, ever be.

67. "Thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety."

1 LORD, thou wilt hear me when I pray;
I am for ever thine;
I fear before thee all the day,
Nor would I dare to sin.

2 And while I rest my weary head,
From cares and business free,
'Tis sweet conversing on my bed
With my own heart and thee.

3 I pay this evening sacrifice;
And when my work is done,
Great God! my faith and hope relies
Upon thy grace alone.

4 Thus, with my thoughts composed to peace,
I give mine eyes to sleep;
Thy hand in safety keeps my days,
And will my slumbers keep.

80. Blessing in the Sanctuary.

1 Again our earthly cares we leave,
And in thy courts appear;
Again with joyful feet we come
To meet our Saviour here.

2 Within these walls let holy peace,
And love and concord dwell;
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.

3 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind bestow;
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.

4 In faith may we receive thy word,
In faith present our prayers;
And in the presence of our Lord
Unbosom all our cares.

5 Show us some token of thy love,
Our fainting hope to raise;
And pour thy blessings from above,
That we may render praise.

127. The Tempest still'd.

1 Great Ruler of all nature's frame!
We own thy power divine;
We hear thy breath in every storm,
For all the winds are thine.

2 Wide as they sweep their sounding way,
They work thy sovereign will;
And, awed by thy majestic voice,
The tempest shall be still.

3 Thy mercy tempers every blast
To those who seek thy face;
And mingles with the tempest's roar
The whispers of thy grace.

4 Those gentle whispers let me hear,
Till all the tumults cease;
And gales of paradise cease
My weary soul to peace.
PHUVAH. C. M.

172. "Herein is Love.
1 My God, how wonderful thou art,
   Thy majesty how bright!
   How glorious is thy mercy seat,
   In depths of burning light!
2 Yet I may love thee too, O Lord,
   Almighty as thou art;
   For thou hast stooped to ask of me
   The love of my poor heart.
3 No earthly father loves like thee,
   No mother half so mild
   Bears and forbears, as thou hast done
   With me, thy sinful child.
4 My God, how wonderful thou art,
   Thou everlasting Friend!
   On thee I stay my trusting heart,
   Till faith in vision end.

186. "Thy judgments are a great deep."
1 Thy way, O Lord, is in the sea;
   Thy paths I can not trace,
   Nor comprehend the mystery
   Of thine unbounded grace.
2 'Tis but in part I know thy will;
   I bless thee for the sight:
   When will thy love the rest reveal
   In glory's clearer light?
3 With rapture shall I then survey
   Thy providence and grace;
   And spend an everlasting day
   In wonder, love, and praise.

213. "O God, Thou hast taught me from my youth."—Psalm 71.
1 Almighty Father of mankind!
   On thee my hopes remain;
   And when the day of trouble comes,
   I shall not trust in vain.
2 In early years, thou wast my guide,
   And of my youth, the friend;
   And, as my days began with thee,
   With thee my days shall end.
3 I know the Power in whom I trust,
   The arm on which I lean;
   He will my Saviour ever be,
   Who has my Saviour been.
4 Thou wilt not cast me off, when age
   And evil days descend;
   Thou wilt not leave me in despair,
   To mourn my latter end.
5 Therefore, in life I'll trust in thee;
   In death I will adore;
   And after death will sing thy praise,
   When time shall be no more.

1 O God of Bethel! by whose hand
   Thy people still are fed;
   Who through this weary pilgrimage
   Hast all our fathers led;—
2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present
   Before thy throne of grace;
   God of our fathers! be the God
   Of their succeeding race.
3 Through each perplexing path of life
   Our wandering footsteps guide;
   Give us, each day, our daily bread,
   And raiment fit provide.
4 Oh, spread thy covering wings around,
   Till all our wanderings cease,
   And at our Father's loved abode,
   Our souls arrive in peace.
5 Such blessings from thy gracious hand
   Our humble prayers implore;
   And thou shalt be our chosen God,
   Our portion evermore.
578.  Prayer for a broken Heart.

1 Saviour, Prince, enthroned above,
   Repentance to impart,
Give me, through thy dying love,
   The humble, contrite heart;
Give what I have long implored—
   Let me share thy grief unknown:
Turn and look upon me, Lord,
   And break my heart of stone.

2 See me, Saviour, from above,
   Nor suffer me to die:
Life, and happiness, and love
   Beam from thy gracious eye:
Speak the reconciling word,
   All its melting power make known;
Turn and look upon me, Lord,
   And break my heart of stone.

3 Look, as when thy dying eye
   Was closed, that we might live;
When thy supplicating cry
   To God was heard, "Forgive!"
Surely, with that dying word,
   Jesus turns and says, "tis done:
Oh, my bleeding, loving Lord,
   This breaks my heart of stone!

728. * "Thy blood was shed for me."

1 God of my salvation, hear,
   And help me to believe;
Simply do I now draw near
   Thy blessing to receive:
Full of guilt, alas! I am,
   But to thy wounds for refuge flee:
Friend of sinners, spotless Lamb!
   Thy blood was shed for me.

2 Standing now as newly slain,
   To thee I lift mine eye;
Balm of all my grief and pain,
   Thy blood is always nigh:
Now as yesterday the same
   Thou art, and wilt for ever be:
Friend of sinners, spotless Lamb!
   Thy blood was shed for me.

3 Saviour! from thy wounded side
   I never will depart;
Here will I my spirit hide,
   When I am pure in heart:
Till my place above I claim,
   This only shall be all my plea:
Friend of sinners, spotless Lamb!
   Thy blood was shed for me.

* Observe the small notes for this Hymn.
1049. "My peace I give unto you."

1 LAMB of God! whose bleeding love
   We now recall to mind,
   Send the answer from above,
   And let us mercy find:
   Think on us, who think on thee;
   Every burdened soul release;
   Oh, remember Calvary,
   And bid us go in peace!

2 By thine agonizing pain,
   And bloody sweat, we pray—
   By thy dying love to man,
   Take all our sins away:
   Burst our bonds and set us free,
   From our crime and guilt release;
   Oh, remember Calvary,
   And bid us go in peace!

3 Through thy blood, by faith applied,
   Do thou our pardon seal;
   Speak us freely justified,
   Our wounded spirits heal;
   By thy passion on the tree,
   Let our griefs and troubles cease;
   Oh, remember Calvary,
   And bid us go in peace!

1 Time is winging us away
   To our eternal home;
   Life is but a winter's day—
   A journey to the tomb;
   Youth and vigor soon will flee,
   Blooming beauty lose its charms;
   All that's mortal soon shall be
   Enclosed in death's cold arms.

2 Time is winging us away
   To our eternal home;
   Life is but a winter's day—
   A journey to the tomb;
   But the Christian shall enjoy
   Health and beauty, soon, above,
   Far beyond the world's alloy,
   Secure in Jesus' love.

1238. "I press toward the mark for the prize."

1 Rise, my soul! and stretch thy wings,
   Thy better portion trace;
   Rise, from transitory things,
   Toward heaven, thy native place:
   Sun, and moon, and stars decay,
   Time shall soon this earth remove;
   Rise, my soul, and haste away
   To seats prepared above!

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
   Nor stay in all their course;
   Fire ascending, seeks the sun,—
   Both speed them to their source;
   So a soul that's born of God,
   Pants to view his glorious face,
   Upward tends to his abode,
   To rest in his embrace.

1167. "We all do fade as a leaf."

1 Time is winging us away
   To our eternal home;
   Life is but a winter's day—
   A journey to the tomb;
   Youth and vigor soon will flee,
   Blooming beauty lose its charms;
   All that's mortal soon shall be
   Enclosed in death's cold arms.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims! cease to mourn,—
   Press onward to the prize;
   Soon your Saviour will return
   Triumphant in the skies:
   Yet a season, and you know
   Happy entrance will be given,
   All your sorrows left below,
   And earth exchanged for heaven.
742. Prayer for Deliverance from Evil.

1 Suffering Son of Man, be near me,
    All my sufferings to sustain,
    By thy sorrows to cheer me,
    By thy more than mortal pain;
    By thy fainting in the garden,
    By thy bloody sweat, I pray,
    Write upon my heart the pardon;
    Take my sins and fears away.

2 By the travail of thy spirit,
    By thine agony on the tree,
    In my pangs, remember me!
    By my death I now implore thee,
    Lord! my dying soul befriended;
    Make me lovingly adore thee,
    Make me faithful to the end.

745. "Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow."

1 Jesus! who on Calvary's mountain
    Poured thy precious blood for me,
    Wash me in its flowing fountain,
    That my soul may spotless be.

2 I have sinned, but, oh, restore me;
    For, unless thou smile on me,
    Dark is all the world before me,
    Darker yet eternity!

3 In thy word I hear thee saying,
    "Come, and I will give you rest;"
    Glad the gracious call obeying,
    See, I hasten to thy breast.

4 Grant, oh, grant thy spirit's teaching,
    That I may not go astray,
    Till, the gate of heaven reaching,
    Earth and sin are passed away!

1119. "Remember not against us former iniquities."

1 Dread Jehovah! God of nations!
    From thy temple in the skies,
    Hear thy people's supplications;
    Now for their deliverance rise.

2 Though our sins, our hearts confounding,
    Long and loud for vengeance call,
    Thou hast mercy more abounding:
    Jesus' blood can cleanse them all.

3 Let that love vail our transgression;
    Let that blood our guilt efface;
    Save thy people from oppression;
    Save from spoil thy holy place.

4 Lo! with deep contrition turning,
    Humbly at thy feet we bend;
    Hear us, fasting, praying, mourning;
    Hear us, spare us, and defend!

1281. "That great day of wrath and terror."

1 That great day of wrath and terror,
    That last day of woe and doom,
    Like a thief that comes at midnight,
    On the sons of men shall come;

2 When the King of heavenly glory
    Shall assume his throne on high;
    When the bands of all his angels
    Shall be near him in the sky;

* Commence with the latter part of the tune for the 5th stanza.
3 When the sun shall turn to sackcloth,
And the moon be red as blood;
When the stars shall fall from heav'n
As the leaves fall in a wood.

4 Therefore, man, while yet thou mayest,
From the tempter's malice fly!
Give thy bread to feed the hungry,
If thou seek'st to win the sky.

5 Let thy loins be straitly girded,
Life be pure, and heart be right,
That, whence'er the Bridegroom cometh,
Full thy lamp may shine, and bright.

91. Apostolic Benediction.
1 May the grace of Christ the Saviour,
And the Father's boundless love,
With the Holy Spirit's favor,
Rest upon us from above.

2 Thus may we abide in union
With each other and the Lord,
And possess, in sweet communion,
Joys which earth can not afford.

561. Penitent Entreaty.
1 Jesus, full of all compassion,
Hear thine humble suppliants' cry;
Let me know thy great salvation;
See! I languish, faint, and die.
Guilty, but with heart relenting,
Overwhelmed with helpless grief,
Prostrate at thy feet repenting—
Send, oh, send me quick relief!

2 Whither should a wretch be flying,
But to him who comfort gives?
Whither, from the dread of dying,
But to him who ever lives?
While I view thee, wounded, grieving,
Breathless, on the cursed tree,
Fain I'd feel my heart believing
Thou didst suffer thus for me.

3 In the world of endless ruin,
Let it never, Lord, be said,
"Here's a soul that perished, suing
For the boasted Saviour's aid!"
Saved!—the deed shall spread new glory
Through the shining realms above;
Angels sing the pleasing story,
All enraptured with thy love.

867. * "The greatest of these is Charity." (1 Cor. 13)
1 Meek and lowly, pure and holy,
Chief among the blessed three,
Turning sadness into gladness,
Heaven-born art thou, Charity!

2 Pity dwelleth in thy bosom,
Kindness reigneth o'er thy heart;
Gentle thoughts alone can sway thee—
Judgment hath in thee no part.

3 Hoping ever, failing never,
Though deceived, believing still;
Long abiding, all-confiding
To thy heavenly Father's will;

4 Never weary of well-doing,
Never fearful of the end;
Claiming all mankind as brothers,
Thou dost all alike befrend.

5 Meek and lowly, pure and holy,
Chief among the blessed three,
Turning sadness into gladness,
Heaven-born art thou, Charity!

Doxology.
Praise the God of our salvation,
Praise the Father's boundless love;
Praise the Lamb, our expiation;
Praise the Spirit from above;
Praise the fountain of salvation,
Him by whom our spirits live;
Undivided adoration
To the one Jehovah give!

* Commence with the latter part of the tune for the 5th stanza.
388. "At the right hand of the Majesty on high."

1 He who on earth as man was known,
   And bore our sins and pains,
Now, seated on th' eternal throne,
   The God of glory reigns.
2 His hands the wheels of nature guide
   With an unerring skill,
And countless worlds, extended wide,
   Obey his sovereign will.
3 While harps unnumbered sound his praise
   In yonder world above,
His saints on earth admire his ways,
   And glory in his love.
4 When troubles, like a burning sun,
   Bent heavy on their head,
To this almighty Rock they run,
   And find a pleasing shade.
5 How glorious he! how happy they,
   In such a glorious Friend!
Whose love secures them all the way,
   And crowns them at the end.

455. Prayer for the Witness of the Spirit.

1 Why should the children of a King
   Go mourning all their days?
Great Comforter! descend and bring
   Some tokens of thy grace.
2 Dost thou not dwell in all thy saints,
   And seal them heirs of heaven?
When wilt thou banish my complaints,
   And show my sins forgiven?
3 Assure my conscience of her part
   In my Redeemer's blood;
And bear thy witness with my heart,
   That I am born of God.
4 Thou art the earnest of his love,
   The pledge of joys to come;
And thy soft wings, celestial Dove,
   Will safe convey me home.

489. "The Bible for the Young."
Psalm 119.

1 How shall the young secure their hearts,
   And guard their lives from sin?
Thy word the choicest rules imparts,
   To keep the conscience clean.
2 'Tis like the sun, a heavenly light,
   That guides us all the day;
And, through the dangers of the night,
   A lamp to lead our way.
3 Thy precepts make me truly wise:
   I hate the sinner's road;
I hate my own vain thoughts that rise,
   But love thy law, my God.
4 Thy word is everlasting truth,
   How pure is every page!
That holy book shall guide our youth,
   And well support our age.

512. "Return, O wanderer."

1 Return, O wanderer, now return,
   And seek thy Father's face!
Those new desires, which in thee burn,
   Were kindled by his grace.
2 Return, O wanderer, now return!
   He hears thy humble sigh;
He sees thy softened spirit mourn,
   When no one else is nigh.
3 Return, O wanderer, now return!
   Thy Saviour bids thee live:
Go to his bleeding feet, and learn
   How freely he'll forgive.
4 Return, O wanderer, now return,
   And wipe the falling tear!
Thy Father calls—no longer mourn:
   His love invites thee near.

635. Prayer for a tender Conscience.

1 On for a principle within
   Of jealous, godly fear!
Oh for a tender dread of sin—
A pain to feel it near!
2 That I from thee no more may part,
No more thy goodness grieve,
The filial awe, the fleshly heart,
The tender conscience, give.
3 Quick as the apple of the eye,
O God! my conscience make;
Awake my soul when sin is nigh,
And keep it still awake.
4 If to the right or left I stray,
That moment, Lord, reprove;
And let me weep my life away,
For having grieved thy love.
5 Oh, may the least omission pain
My well-instructed soul;
And drive me to the blood again,
Which makes the wounded whole!

Nor turned from him my poor request,
Nor turned his heart from me.

865. The new Commandment.—John 13: 34.
1 With love the Saviour's heart o'erflowed;
Love spoke in every breath;
Supreme it reigned, throughout his life,
And triumphed in his death.
2 Behold, this new command he gives
To those who bear his name,—
That they shall one another love,
As he hath loved them.
3 In every action, every thought,
Be this great law fulfilled;
Forgotten be each selfish aim,
Each angry passion stilled.
4 Let all who bear the name of Christ,
While they his sufferings view,
Think of his words, "Each other love,
As I have loved you."

1217. "And entered into rest."
1 Why should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls his own,
And bids them leave a world of woe
For an immortal crown?
2 Is not ev'n death a gain to those Whose life to God is given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
To open them in heaven.
3 Their toils are past, their work is done,
And they are fully blest:
They fought the fight, the victory won,
And entered into rest.
4 Then let our sorrows cease to flow:
God has recalled his own:
And let our hearts, in every woe,
Still say—"Thy will be done!"
1220. The Pilgrim's Song.

1 A few more years shall roll,
   A few more seasons come;
   And we shall be with those that rest,
   Asleep within the tomb:
   Then, O my Lord, prepare
   My soul for that great day;
   Oh, wash me in thy precious blood,
   And take my sins away!

2 A few more storms shall beat
   On this wild, rocky shore;
   And we shall be where tempests cease,
   And surges swell no more:
   Then, O my Lord, prepare
   My soul for that calm day;
   Oh, wash me in thy precious blood,
   And take my sins away!

3 A few more struggles here,
   A few more partings o'er,
   A few more toils, a few more tears,
   And we shall weep no more:
   Then, O my Lord, prepare
   My soul for that blest day;
   Oh, wash me in thy precious blood,
   And take my sins away!

4 A few more Sabbaths here
   Shall cheer us on our way;
   And we shall reach the endless rest,
   Th' eternal Sabbath-day:
   Then, O my Lord, prepare
   My soul for that sweet day;
   Oh, wash me in thy precious blood,
   And take my sins away!

5 'Tis but a little while,
   And he shall come again,
   Who died that we might live, who lives
   That we with him may reign:
   Then, O my Lord, prepare
   My soul for that glad day;
   O wash me in thy precious blood,
   And take my sins away!

1019. The Church in the Wilderness.

1 Far down the ages now,
   Much of her journey done,
   The pilgrim church pursues her way,
   Until her crown be won.

2 The story of the past
   Comes up before her view;
   How well it seems to suit her still—
   Old, and yet ever new!

3 It is the oft-told tale
   Of sin and weariness,
   Of grace and love yet flowing down
   To pardon and to bless.

4 No wider is the gate,
   No broader is the way,
   No smoother is the ancient path,
   That leads to life and day.

5 No sweeter is the cup,
   Nor less our lot of ill:
   'T was tribulation ages since,
   'T is tribulation still.

6 No slacker grows the fight,
   No feeble is the foe,
   Nor less the need of armor tried,
   Of shield, and spear, and bow.

7 Thus onward still we press,
   Through evil and through good,—
   Through pain, and poverty, and want,
   Through peril and through blood.
8 Still faithful to our God,
   And to our Captain true,
We follow where he leads the way,
The kingdom in our view.

527. Invitation from Heaven to Earth.

1 Come to the land of peace;
   From shadows come away;
Where all the sounds of weeping cease,
   And storms no more have sway.

2 Fear hath no dwelling here;
   But pure repose and love
Breathe through the bright, celestial air
   The spirit of the dove.

3 Come to the bright and blest,
   Gathered from every land;
For here thy soul shall find its rest,
   Amid the shining band.

4 In this divine abode
   Change leaves no saddening trace;
   Come, trusting spirit, to thy God,
   Thy holy resting-place.

1 Sow in the morn thy seed,
   At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed;
   Broad-cast it o'er the land!

2 Then duly shall appear,
   In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
   And the full corn at length.

3 Thou canst not toil in vain:
   Cold, heat, and moist, and dry
Shall foster and mature the grain
   For garnerers in the sky.

4 Then, when the glorious end,
   The day of God, shall come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
   And heaven sing "Harvest-home!"
408. "Jesus, Lover of my soul."

1 Jesus, Lover of my soul,
   Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the waters near me roll,
   While the tempest still is high:
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
   Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide:
   Oh, receive my soul at last!

2 Other refuge have I none;
   Hangs my helpless soul on thee:
Leave, ah! leave me not alone;
   Still support and comfort me:
All my trust on thee is stayed,
   All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
   With the shadow of thy wing.

409. Christ a sufficient Saviour.

1 Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
   More than all in thee I find:
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
   Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name:
   I am all unrighteousness:
False and full of sin I am;
   Thou art full of truth and grace.

2 Plenteous grace with thee is found,
   Grace to cover all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
   Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art,
   Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart;
   Rise to all eternity.

410. "Looking unto Jesus."

1 When, along life's thorny road,
   Faints the soul beneath the load,
By its cares and sins oppressed,
   Finds on earth no peace or rest;
When the wily tempter's near,
   Filling us with doubts and fear:
Jesus, to thy feet we flee;
   Jesus, we will look to thee.

2 Thou, our Saviour, from the throne
   Listnest to thy people's moan:
Thou, the living Head, dost share
   Every pang thy members bear:
Full of tenderness thou art,
   Thou wilt heal the broken heart;
Full of power, thine arm shall quell
   All the rage and might of hell.

3 Mighty to redeem and save,
   Thou hast overcome the grave;
Thou the bars of death hast riven,
   Opened wide the gate of heaven:
Soon in glory thou shalt come,
   Taking thy poor pilgrims home:
Jesus, then we all shall be
   Ever, ever, Lord, with thee!

472. The Thrice Holy One.

1 Holy, holy, holy Lord
   God of Hosts! when heaven and earth
Out of darkness, at thy word
   Issued into glorious birth,
All thy works before thee stood,
   And thine eye beheld them good;
While they sung with sweet accord,
   Holy, holy, holy Lord.
2 Holy, holy, holy! thee,
One Jehovah evermore,
Father, Son, and Spirit! we,
Dust and ashes, would adore:
Lightly by the world esteemed,
From that world by thee redeemed,
Sing we here with glad accord,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!

3 Holy, holy, holy! all
Heaven's triumphant choir shall sing,
While the ransomed nations fall
At the footstool of their King:
Then shall saints and seraphim,
Harp and voices, swell one hymn,
Blending in sublime accord,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!

639. "Whom have I in heaven but Thee?"

1 Lord of earth! thy forming hand
Well this beauteous frame hath planned,—
Woods that wave, and hills that tower,
Ocean rolling in his power;
Yet, amid this scene so fair,
Should I cease thy smile to share,
What were all its joys to me?
Whom have I on earth but thee?

2 Lord of heaven! beyond our sight
Shines a world of purer light;
There, in love's unclouded reign,
Parted hands shall meet again:
Oh, that world is passing fair!
Yet, if thouwert absent there,
What were all its joys to me?
Whom have I in heaven but thee?

3 Lord of earth and heaven! my breast
Seeks in thee its only rest;
I was lost; thy accents mild
Homeward hied thy wandering child.
Oh! should once thy smile divine
Cease upon my soul to shine,

What were earth or heaven to me?
Whom have I in each but thee?

874. The accepted Offering.

1 Lord, what offering shall we bring,
   At thine altars when we bow?
Hearts, the pure unsullied spring;
   Whence the kind affections flow;
Soft compassion's feeling soul,
   By the melting eye expressed;
Sympathy, at whose control
   Sorrow leaves the wounded breast;

2 Willing hands to lead the blind,
   Bind the wounded, feed the poor;
Love, embracing all our kind;
   Charity, with liberal store:—
Teach us, O thou heavenly King,
   Thus to show our grateful mind,
Thus th' accepted offering bring,
   Love to thee, and all mankind.

1179. "The valley of the shadow of death."
Psalm 23.

1 Though I walk the downward shade,
   Deepening through the vale of death,
Yet I will not be afraid,
   But, with my departing breath,
I will glory in my God,
   In my Saviour I will trust,
Strengthened by his staff and rod,
   While this body falls to dust;

2 Soon on wings, on wings of love,
   My transported soul shall rise.
Like the home-returning dove,
   Vanishing through boundless skies;
Then, where death shall be no more,
   Sin nor suffering e'er molest,
All my days of mourning o'er,
   In his presence I shall rest.
4. Habitual Devotion.

1 While thee I seek, protecting Power!
   Be my vain wishes stilled;
   And may this consecrated hour
   With better hopes be filled!
2 Thy love the power of thought bestowed;
   To thee my thoughts would soar;
   Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed;
   That mercy I adore.
3 In each event of life, how clear
   Thy ruling hand I see!
   Each blessing to my soul more dear,
   Because conferred by thee.
4 In every joy that crowns my days,
   In every pain I bear,
   My heart shall find delight in praise,
   Or seek relief in prayer.

5 When gladness wings my favored hour,
   Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
   Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
   My soul shall meet thy will.
6 My lifted eye, without a tear,
   The gathering storm shall see;
   My steadfast heart shall know no fear;
   That heart will rest on thee.

211. Remembrance of Divine Mercies.

1 When all thy mercies, O my God,
   My rising soul surveys,
   Transported with the view, I'm lost
   In wonder, love, and praise!
2 Unnumbered comforts on my soul
   Thy tender care bestowed,
   Before my infant heart conceived
   From whom those comforts flowed.
3 When, in the slippery paths of youth,
   With heedless step I ran,
   Thine arm, unseen, conveyed me safe,
   And led me up to man.

4 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
   My daily thanks employ;
   Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
   That tastes those gifts with joy.
5 Through every period of my life
   Thy goodness I'll pursue;
   And, after death, in distant worlds,
   The glorious theme renew.
6 Through all eternity to thee
   A joyful song I'll raise:
   But, oh! eternity's too short
   To utter all thy praise.

222. "Your heavenly Father feedeth them."

1 On, why despond in life's dark vale?
   Why sink to fears a prey?
   Th'almighty power can never fail,
   His love can ne'er decay.
2 Behold the birds that wing the air,
   Nor sow nor reap the grain:
   Yet God, with all a father's care,
   Relieves when they complain.
3 Behold the lilies of the field:
   They toil nor labor know;
   Yet royal robes to theirs must yield,
   In beauty's richest glow.
4 That God who hears the raven's cry
   Who decks the lily's form,
   Will surely all your wants supply,
   And shield you in the storm.
5 Seek first his kingdom's grace to share;
   Its righteousness pursue:
   And all that needs your earthly care
   Will be bestowed on you.
6 Why then despond in life's dark vale?
   Why sink to fears a prey?
   Th'almighty power can never fail,
   His love can ne'er decay.
218. "Beside the still waters."—Psalm 23.

1 The Lord himself, the mighty Lord,
Vouchsafes to be my guide;
The Shepherd, by whose constant care
My wants are all supplied.

2 In tender grass he makes me feed,
And gently there repose;
Then leads me to cool shades, and where
Refreshing water flows.

3 He does my wandering soul reclaim,
And, to his endless praise,
Instruct with humble zeal to walk
In his most righteous ways.

4 I pass the gloomy vale of death,
From fear and danger free;
For there his aiding rod and staff
Defend and comfort me.

5 Since God doth thus his wondrous love
Through all my life extend,
That life to him I will devote,
And in his temple spend.

DOXOLOGY.
Let God the Father, and the Son,
And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
Or saints to love the Lord!
377. "Glory to our King."

1. Glory, glory to our King!
   Crowns unfading wreath his head;
   Jesus is the name we sing,—
   Jesus risen from the dead;
   Jesus, Conqueror o'er the grave;
   Jesus, mighty now to save.

2. Jesus is gone up on high,
   Angels come to meet their King;
   Shouts triumphant rend the sky,
   "Open now, ye heavenly gates!"
   'Tis the King of glory waits.

3. Now behold him high enthroned,
   Glory beaming from his face!
   By adoring angels owned,
   God of holiness and grace!
   Oh, for hearts and tongues to sing
   "Glory, glory to our King!"

4. Jesus, on thy people shine;
   Warm our hearts and tune our tongues,
   That with angels we may join,
   Share their bliss, and swell their songs;
   Glory, honor, praise, and power,
   Lord, be thine for evermore!

425. "I am the Light of the World."

1. Christ, whose glory fills the skies,
   Christ, the true, the only light,
   Sun of Righteousness! arise;

   Triumph o'er the shades of night;
   Day-spring from on high, be near;
   Day-star, in my heart appear!

   Dark and cheerless is the morn,
   If thy light is hid from me;
   Joyless is the day's return,
   Till thou inward light impart,
   Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.

3. Visit, then, this soul of mine;
   Pierce the gloom of sin and grief,
   Fill me, radiant Sun divine!
   Scatter all my unbelief:
   More and more thyself display,
   Shining to the perfect day.

106. "The Praise of all His saints."

Praise to God on high be given!
Praise him, all in earth and heaven;
Praise him at the dawn of light,
Praise him at returning night:
Saints below, and saints above,
Praise, oh, praise the God of love!

Doxology.

Praise the name of God most high;
Praise him, all below the sky;
Praise him, all ye heavenly host—
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
As through countless ages past,
Evermore his praise shall last.
714. "How much I owe."

1 When this passing world is done,—
   When has sunk yon glorious sun;
   When we stand with Christ in glory,
   Looking o'er life's finished story;
   Then, Lord, shall I fully know—
   Not till then—how much I owe!

2 When I hear the wicked call
   On the rocks and hills to fall;
   When I see them start and shrink,
   On the fiery deluge brink;
   Then, Lord, shall I fully know—
   Not till then—how much I owe!

3 When I stand before the throne,
   Clothed in beauty not my own;
   When I see thee as thou art,
   Love thee with unsinning heart;
   Then, Lord, shall I fully know—
   Not till then—how much I owe!

4 When the praise of heaven I hear,
   Loud as thunders to the ear,
   Loud as many waters' noise,
   Sweet as harp's melodious voice,
   Then, Lord, shall I fully know—
   Not till then—how much I owe!

715. Obligation to Christ manifested.

1 Chosen not for good in me,
   Wakened up from wrath to flee,
   Hidden in the Saviour's side,
   By the Spirit sanctified—
   Teach me, Lord, on earth to show,
   By my love, how much I owe.

2 Oft I walk beneath the cloud,
   Dark as midnight's gloomy shroud;
   But, when fear is at the height,
   Jesus comes, and all is light;
   Blessed Jesus! bid me show
   Doubting saints how much I owe.

3 Oft the nights of sorrow reign—
   Weeping, sickness, sighing, pain;
   But a night thine anger burns—
   Morning comes, and joy returns:
   God of comfort! bid me show
   To thy poor how much I owe.

4 When in flowery paths I tread,
   Oft by sin I'm captive led;
   Oft I fall, but still arise—
   Jesus comes—the tempter flies:
   Blessed Jesus! bid me show
   Weary sinners all I owe.
36. "Make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms."
Psalm 95.

1 Come, sound his praise abroad,
   And hymns of glory sing:
Jehovah is the sovereign God,
The universal King.

2 He formed the deeps unknown;
   He gave the seas their bound;
The watery worlds are all his own,
   And all the solid ground.

3 Come, worship at his throne,
   Come, bow before the Lord:
We are his work and not our own;
   He formed us by his word.

4 To-day attend his voice,
   Nor dare provoke his rod:
Come, like the people of his choice,
   And own your gracious God.

355. "The Lord is risen indeed."

1 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
   Now is his work performed;
   Now is the mighty Captive freed,
   And death our foe disarmed.

2 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
   The grave has lost his prey;
   With him is risen the ransomed seed
   To reign in endless day.

3 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
   He lives, to die no more;
   He lives, the sinner's cause to plead,
   Whose curse and shame he bore.

4 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
   Attending angels, hear;
   Up to the courts of heaven, with speed,
   The joyful tidings bear.

5 Then take your golden lyres,
   And strike each cheerful chord;
   Join all the bright, celestial choirs,
   To sing our risen Lord!

681. "I stand on Zion's mount."

1 I stand on Zion's mount,
   And view my starry crown;
   No power on earth my hope can shake,
   Nor hell can thrust me down.

2 The lofty hills and towers,
   That lift their heads on high,
   Shall all be leveled low in dust—
   Their very names shall die.

3 The vaulted heavens shall fall,
   Built by Jehovah's hands;
   But firmer than the heavens, the Rock
   Of my salvation stands.

892. "So fight I, not as one that beareth the air."

1 My soul! weigh not thy life
   Against thy heavenly crown,
   Nor suffer Satan's deadliest strife
   To beat thy courage down.

2 With prayer and crying strong,
   Hold on the fearful fight;
   And let the breaking day prolong
   The wrestling of the night.

3 The battle soon will yield,
   If thou thy part fulfill;
   For, strong as is the hostile shield,
   Thy sword is stronger still.

4 Thine armor is divine,—
   Thy feet with victory shod;
   And on thy head shall quickly shine
   The diadem of God!

1 Soldiers of Christ! arise,
    And put your armor on,—
Strong in the strength which God supplies
    Through his eternal Son,—

2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
    And in his mighty power:
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts,
    Is more than conqueror.

3 Stand, then, in his great might,
    With all his strength endued;
But take, to arm you for the fight,
    The panoply of God;

4 That, having all things done,
    And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone,
    And stand entire at last.

DOXOLOGY.

The Father and the Son,
    And Spirit we adore;
We praise, we bless, we worship thee,
    Both now and evermore!

SILVER STREET. S. M.
79. "Arise, O Lord God, into Thy resting-place."
2 Chron. 6: 41.
1 God in his temple let us meet;
Low on our knees before him bend;
Here hath he fixed his mercy-seat,
Here, on his Sabbath we attend.
2 Arise into thy resting-place,
Thou, and thy ark of strength, O Lord!
Shine through the vail—we seek thy face;
Speak, for we hearken to thy word.
3 With righteousness thy priests array;
Joyful thy chosen people be:
Let those who teach, and hear, and pray,
Let all, be holiness to thee.

82. Christ present in the Sanctuary.
1 How sweet to leave the world awhile,
And seek the presence of our Lord;
Dear Saviour, on thy people smile,
And come, according to thy word.
2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
That we may here converse with thee;
Ah, Lord, behold us at thy feet!
Let this the "gate of heaven" be.
3 "Chief of ten thousand!" now appear,
That we by faith may see thy face;
Oh, speak, that we thy voice may hear,
And let thy presence fill this place!

306. "Neither is there salvation in any other."
1 How shall the sons of men appear,
Great God! before thine awful bar?
How may the guilty hope to find
Acceptance with th' eternal Mind?
2 Not vows, nor groans, nor broken cries,
Not the most costly sacrifice,
Not infant blood, profusely spilt,
Will expiate a sinner's guilt.
3 Thy blood, dear Jesus, thine alone,
Hath sovereign virtue to atone:
Here will we rest our only plea,
When we approach, great God! to thee.

342. "Unto the Lamb for ever."
Rev. 5.
1 What equal honors shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing
Are far inferior to thy name?
2 Worthy is he who once was slain,
The Prince of Peace, who groaned
and died;
Worthy to rise, and live, and reign
At his almighty Father's side.
3 Blessings for ever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men:
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say, Amen!

1072. Solomon's Prayer.
2 Chron. 6.
1 When in these courts we seek thy face,
And dying sinners pray to live,
Hea r thou, in heaven, thy dwelling-place,
And when thou hearest, Lord! forgive.
2 When here thy messengers proclaim
The blessed gospel of thy Son,
Still by the power of his great name
Be mighty signs and wonders done.
3 Hosanna!—to the heavenly King
When children's voices raise that song—
Hosanna!—let their angels sing,
And heaven with earth the strain prolong.
4 But will, indeed, Jehovah deign
Here to abide, no transient guest?
Here will the world's Redeemer reign,
And here the Holy Spirit rest?
5 That glory never hence depart!
Yet choose not, Lord, this house alone:
Thy kingdom come to every heart;
In every bosom fix thy throne.

949. "Thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me."
1 Long unafflicted, undismayed,
In pleasure's path secure I strayed;
Thou mad'st me feel thy chastening rod,
And straight I turned unto my God.

2 What though it pierced my fainting heart,
I blessed thy hand that caused the smart;
It taught my tears awhile to flow,
But saved me from eternal woe.

3 Oh! hadst thou left me un chastised,
Thy precepts I had still despised;
And still the snare in secret laid
Had my unwary feet betrayed.

4 I love thee, therefore, O my God!
And long to reach thy dear abode;
Where, in thy presence fully blest,
Thy chosen saints for ever rest.

1124. "The world shall hear thy voice."
1 Sovereign of worlds! display thy power,
Be this thy Zion's favored hour;
Bid the bright morning Star arise,
And point the nations to the skies.

2 Set up thy throne where Satan reigns,—
On Afric's shore, on India's plains,
On wilds and continents unknown,—
And make the nations all thine own.

3 Speak! and the world shall hear thy voice;
Speak! and the deserts shall rejoice;
Scatter the gloom of heathen night,
And bid all nations hail the light.

1183. "Why is His chariot so long in coming?"
1 Gently, my Saviour, let me down,
To slumber in the arms of death;
I rest my soul on thee alone,
Ev'n till my last, expiring breath.

2 Soon will the storm of life be o'er,
And I shall enter endless rest;
There I shall live to sin no more,
And bless thy name, for ever blest.

3 Bid me possess sweet peace within;
Let childlike patience keep my heart;
Then shall I feel my heaven begin,
Before my spirit hence depart.

4 Oh, speed thy chariot, God of love,
And take me from this world of woe;
I long to reach those joys above,
And bid farewell to all below.

5 There shall my raptured spirit raise
Still louder notes than angels sing,—
High glories to Immanuel's grace,
My God, my Saviour, and my King!

1227. "My soul followeth hard after Thee."
Psalm 63,
1 We go with the redeemed to taste
Of joy supreme, that never dies;
Our feet still press the weary waste,
Our hearts, our home, are in the skies.

2 And, oh! while on to Zion's hill
The toilsome path of life we tread,
Around us, loving Father, still
Thy circling wings of mercy spread.

3 From day to day, from hour to hour,
Oh let our rising spirits prove
The strength of thine almighty power,
The sweetness of thy saving love!
574. "Renew a right spirit within me."

1 Great Author of my being,
   I am consumed with care;
The ills of thy decreeing,
   Enable me to bear:
The spirit of contrition,
   Oh, may I now receive;
For all my soul's ambition
   Is worthily to grieve!

2 The grief beyond expressing,
   To me, O Lord, impart;
I ask this only blessing—
   An humble, broken heart;
The justice of thy sentence
   With meekest awe to own;
And spend, in deep repentance,
   My last, expiring groan.

3 In that decisive hour,
   When pain, with life, shall end,
Then, O thou God of power,
   Thou God of love, attend!
And bear, oh, bear my burden,
   And help my last distress;
And give me back my pardon,
   And bid me die in peace!

972. "Take no thought for the morrow."

1 In holy contemplation,
   We sweetly now pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
   And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
   We cheerfully can say,
   "Ev'n let the unknown morrow
   Bring with it what it may."

2 It can bring with it nothing
   But he will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing
   Will clothe his people too:
Beneath the spreading heavens
   No creature but is fed;
And he who feeds the ravens
   Will give his children bread.

1137. Departure of Missionaries.

1 Roll on, thou mighty ocean!
   And, as thy billows flow,
Bear messengers of mercy
   To every land below:
Arise, ye gales! and waft them
   Safe to the destined shore;
That man may sit in darkness
   And death's black shade no more.

2 O thou eternal Ruler!
   Who holdest in thine arm
The tempests of the ocean,
   Protect them from all harm!
Thy presence still be with them,
   Wherever they may be:
Though far from us who love them,
   Still let them be with thee!"
330. "To Him that sitteth upon the Throne."

1 To thee, my God, my Saviour,
   My soul, exulting, sings,
   Rejoicing in thy favor,
   Almighty King of kings!
   I'll celebrate thy glory,
   With all the saints above,
   And tell the joyful story
   Of thy redeeming love.

2 Soon as the morn with roses
   Bedecks the dewy east,
   And when the sun reposes
   Upon the ocean's breast,
   My voice in supplication,
   My Saviour, thou shalt hear:
   Oh, grant me thy salvation,
   And to my soul draw near!

3 By thee through life supported,
   I pass the dangerous road,
   With heavenly hosts escorted
   Up to their bright abode:
   There cast my crown before thee,
   And, all my conflicts o'er,
   Unceasingly adore thee:
   What would an angel more?

He bears them all, and frees us
From the accursed load:
I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White in his blood most precious,
Till not a stain remains.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus;
   All fullness dwells in him;
   He heals all my diseases,
   He doth my soul redeem:
   I lay my griefs on Jesus,
   My burdens and my cares;
   He from them all releases,
   He all my sorrow shares.

3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
   This weary soul of mine;
   His right hand me embraces,
   I on his breast recline:
   I love the name of Jesus,
   Immanuel, Christ, the Lord;
   Like fragrance on the breezes,
   His name abroad is poured.

4 I long to be like Jesus,
   Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
   I long to be like Jesus,
   The Father's holy child:
   I long to be with Jesus
   Amid the heavenly throng,
   To sing with saints his praises,
   To learn the angels' song.

746. "He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows."—Isaiah 53: 4.

1 I lay my sins on Jesus,
   The spotless Lamb of God;

   I lay my sins on Jesus,
   The spotless Lamb of God;

1 Now may the God of peace and love,
   Who, from th' imprisoning grave,
   Restore! the Shepherd of the sheep,
   Omnipotent to save;

2 Through the rich merits of that blood,
   Which he on Calvary spilt,
   To make th' eternal cov'nant sure,
   On which our hopes are built;

3 Perfect our souls in every grace,
   To accomplish all his will;
   And all that's pleasing in his sight
   Inspire us to fulfill!

4 For Christ the Mediator's sake
   We every blessing pray;
   With glory let his name be crowned,
   Through heaven's eternal day!

494. "There is none that doeth good."
   Psalm 14.

1 The Lord, from his celestial throne,
   Looked down on things below,
   To find the man that sought his grace,
   Or did his justice know.

2 By nature all are gone astray,
   Their practice all the same;
   There's none that fears his Maker's hand;
   There's none that loves his name.

3 Their tongues are used to speak deceit,
   Their slanders never cease;
   How swift to mischief are their feet,
   Nor know the paths of peace!

4 Such seeds of sin—that bitter root—
   In every heart are found;
   Nor can they bear diviner fruit
   Till grace refine the ground.

281. All Virtues seen in Christ.

1 Behold, where, in a mortal form,
   Appears each grace divine;
   The virtues, all in Jesus met,
   With mildest radiance shine.

2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
   To give the mourner joy,
   To preach glad tidings to the poor,
   Was his divine employ.

3 'Mid keen reproach, and cruel scorn,
   Patient and meek he stood:
   His foes, ungrateful, sought his life;
   He labored for their good.

4 In the last hour of deep distress,
   Before his Father's throne,
   With soul resigned, he bowed, and said,
   "Thy will, not mine, be done!"

5 Be Christ our pattern and our guide;
   His image may we bear;

Oh, may we tread his holy steps,
   His joy and glory share!

935. "Blessed be the name of the Lord."
   Job, 1: 21.

1 Naked as from the earth we came,
   And entered life at first;
   Naked we to the earth return,
   And mix with kindred dust.

2 What'er we fondly call our own
   Belongs to heaven's great Lord;
   The blessings lent us for a day
   Are soon to be restored.

3 'Tis God that lifts our comforts high,
   Or sinks them in the grave:
   He gives; and when he takes away,
   He takes but what he gave.

4 Then ever blessed be his name!
   His goodness swelled our store;
   His justice but resumes its own;
   Still we the Lord adore.
1061. "They watch for your souls."

1 Let Zion's watchmen all awake,
   And take th' alarm they give:
   Now let them from the mouth of God
   Their solemn charge receive.

2 'Tis not a cause of small import
   The pastor's care demands;
   But what might fill an angel's heart,
   And filled a Saviour's hands.

3 They watch for souls, for which the Lord
   Did heavenly bliss forego;
   For souls which must for ever live
   In rapture or in woe.

4 May they that Jesus whom they preach,
   Their own Redeemer, see:
   Lord, watch thou daily o'er their souls,
   That they may watch for thee.

1070. "Come in, thou blessed of the Lord."
   Gen. 31: 31.

1 Come in, thou blessed of the Lord,
   Stranger nor foe art thou:
   We welcome thee with warm accord,
   Our friend, our brother, now.

2 The hand of fellowship, the heart
   Of love, we offer thee:
   Leaving the world, thou dost but part
   From lies and vanity.

3 Come with us,—we will do thee good,
   As God to us hath done;
   Stand but in him, as those have stood
   Whose faith the victory won.

4 And when, by turns, we pass away,
   And star by star grows dim,
   May each, translated into day,
   Be lost and found in him.

1229. "Our journey is a thorny maze."

1 Lord! what a wretched land is this,
   That yields us no supply:
   No cheering fruits, no wholesome trees,
   Nor streams of living joy!

2 Our journey is a thorny maze,
   But we press upward still,—
   Forget these troubles of the ways,
   And march to Zion's hill.

3 There, on a green and flowery mount,
   Our weary souls shall sit;
   And, with transporting joys, recount
   The labors of our feet.

4 Eternal glory to the King
   That brought us safely through!
   Our tongue shall never cease to sing,
   And endless praise renew.

1243. "I shall go to Him."

1 Blest hour, when righteous souls shall meet,
   Shall meet to part no more;
   And with celestial welcome greet
   On an immortal shore!

2 The parent finds his long lost child;
   Brothers on brothers gaze;
   The tear of resignation mild,
   Is changed to joy and praise.

3 Each tender tie, dissolved with pain,
   With endless bliss is crowned:
   All that was dead revives again,
   All that was lost is found.

4 Congenial minds, arrayed in light,
   High thoughts shall interchange:
   Nor cease, with ever new delight,
   On wings of love to range.

5 Their Father marks their generous flame,
   And looks complacent down;
   The smile that owns their filial claim
   Is their immortal crown.
680. "Not far from home."

1 Your harps, ye trembling saints,
   Down from the willows take;
   Loud to the praise of love divine
   Bid every string awake.

2 Though in a foreign land,
   We are not far from home;
   And nearer to our house above
   We every moment come.

3 His grace will to the end
   Stronger and brighter shine;
   Nor present things, nor things to come,
   Shall quench the spark divine.

4 When we in darkness walk,
   Nor feel the heavenly flame,
   Then is the time to trust our God,
   And rest upon his name.

5 Soon shall our doubts and fears
   Subside at his control;
   His loving kindness shall break through
   The midnight of the soul.

6 Blest is the man, O Lord,
   Who stays himself on thee;
   Who waits for thy salvation, Lord,
   Shall thy salvation see,

1237. "For ever with the Lord."

1 "For ever with the Lord!"
   Amen! so let it be:
   Life from the dead is in that word;
   'Tis immortality!

2 My Father's house on high,
   Home of my soul! how near,
   At times, to faith's aspiring eye,
   Thy golden gates appear!

3 "For ever with the Lord!"
   Father, if 'tis thy will,
   The promise of thy gracious word,
   Ev'n here to me fulfill.

4 Be thou at my right hand;
   So shall I never fail:
   Uphold thou me and I shall stand;
   Help, and I shall prevail.

5 So, when my latest breath
   Shall rend the vail in twain,
   By death I shall escape from death,
   And life eternal gain.

6 Knowing "as I am known,"
   How shall I love that word,
   And oft repeat before the throne,
   "For ever with the Lord!"

1 Come, Lord! and tarry not;
   Bring the long-looked-for day;
   Oh! why these years of waiting here,
   These ages of delay?

2 Come! for the good are few;
   They lift the voice in vain;
   Faith waxes fainter on the earth,
   And love is on the wane.

3 Come, for love waxes cold,
   Its steps are faint and slow;
   Faith now is lost in unbelief;
   Hope's lamp burns dim and low.

4 Come! for creation groans,
   Impatient of thy stay,
   Worn out with these long years of ill,
   These ages of delay.

5 Come, and make all things new,
   Build up this ruined earth;
   Restore our faded Paradise—
   Creation's second birth!
Come, and begin thy reign
Of everlasting peace;
Great King of righteousness!

Ye servants of the Lord,
Each in his office wait,
Observant of his heavenly word,
And watchful at his gate.

Let all our lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame:
Gird up your loins as in his sight,
For awful is his name.

"Watch ye, therefore."
1060.

Watch! 'tis your Lord's command;
And while we speak, he's near:
Mark the first signal of his hand,
And ready all appear.

Oh, happy servant he
In such a posture found!
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honor crowned.

O Lord, our heavenly King,
Thy name is all divine;
Thy glories round the earth are spread,
And o'er the heavens they shine.

When to thy works on high
I raise my wondering eyes,
And see the moon, complete in light,
Adorn the darksome skies;--

When I survey the stars,
And all their shining forms,
Lord, what is man, that worthless thing,
Akin to dust and worms!

Lord, what is worthless man,
That thou shouldst love him so!
Next to thine angels he is placed,
And Lord of all below.

O Lord, our heavenly King,
Thy name is all divine;
Thy glories round the earth are spread,
And o'er the heavens they shine.

1 God, in the high and holy place,
   Looks down upon the spheres;
   And in his providence and grace
   To every eye appears.

2 He bows the heavens; the mountains stand
   A highway for our God:
   He walks amid the desert land;
   ’T is Eden where he trod.

3 The forests in his strength rejoice;
   Hark! on the evening breeze,
   As once of old, the “Lord God’s voice”
   Is heard among the trees.

4 If God hath made this world so fair,
   Where sin and death abound,
   How beautiful beyond compare
   Will Paradise be found?

508. "Ho! every one that thirsteth."

   Isaiah 55:1, 2.

1 Let every mortal ear attend,
   And every heart rejoice;
   The trumpet of the Gospel sounds
   With an inviting voice.

2 Ho! all ye hungry, starving souls,
   That feed upon the wind,
   And vainly strive with earthly toys
   To fill an empty mind:

3 Eternal wisdom has prepared
   A soul-reviving feast,
   And bids your longing appetites
   The rich provision taste.

4 Ho! ye that pant for living streams,
   And pine away and die:
   Here you may quench your raging thirst
   With springs that never dry.

5 Rivers of love and mercy here
   In a rich ocean join;

Salvation in abundance flows,
   Like floods of milk and wine.

6 The happy gates of gospel-grace
   Stand open night and day:
   Lord, we are come to seek supplies,
   And drive our wants away.

758. Prayer for strong Faith.

1 On for a faith that will not shrink
   Though pressed by every foe;
   That will not tremble on the brink
   Of any earthly woe! —

2 That will not murmur nor complain
   Beneath the chastening rod,
   But, in the hour of grief or pain,
   Will lean upon its God; —

3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
   When tempests rage without;
   That, when in danger, knows no fear,
   In darkness, feels no doubt; —

4 A faith that keeps the narrow way
   Till life’s last hour is fled,
   And with a pure and heavenly ray
   Lights up a dying bed!

5 Lord, give us such a faith as this,
   And then, whatever may come,
   We’ll taste, ev’n here, the hallowed bliss
   Of an eternal home.

992. "He giveth power to the faint."

1 Supreme in wisdom as in power,
   The Rock of Ages stands;
   We see him not, yet may we trace
   The working of his hands.

2 He gives the conquest to the weak,
   Supports the fainting heart,
   And courage in the evil hour
   His heavenly aids impart.
3 Mere human power shall fast decay,
    And youthful vigor cease;
But they who wait upon the Lord
In strength shall still increase.

4 They with unwearyed feet shall tread
The path of life divine;
With growing ardor onward move,
With growing brightness shine.

5 On eagles' wings they mount, they soar—
The wings of faith and love;
Till, past the cloudy regions here,
They rise to heaven above.

1 Church of the ever-living God,
The Father's gracious choice,
Amid the voices of this earth
How feeble is thy voice!

2 A little flock!—so calls he thee
Who bought thee with his blood;
A little flock, disowned of men,
But owned and loved of God.

3 Not many rich or noble called,
Not many great or wise;
They whom God makes his kings and priests
Are poor in human eyes.

4 But the chief Shepherd comes at length;
Their feeble days are o'er,
No more a handful in the earth,
A little flock no more.

5 No more a lily among thorns,
Weary, and faint, and few;
But countless as the stars of heaven,
Or as the early dew.

6 Then entering th' eternal halls,
In robes of victory,
That mighty multitude shall keep
The joyous jubilee.

7 Unfading palms they bear aloft;
Unfaultering songs they sing;
Unending festival they keep,
In presence of the King.

1252. \textit{The Eternity of Heaven.}

1 From thee, my God, my joys shall rise.
    And run eternal rounds,
Beyond the limits of the skies,
    And all created bounds.

2 The holy triumphs of my soul
    Shall death itself outbrave,
Leave dull mortality behind,
    And fly beyond the grave.

3 There, where my blessed Jesus reigns,
    In heaven's unmeasured space,
I'll spend a long eternity
    In pleasure and in praise.

4 Millions of years my wondering eyes
    Shall o'er thy beauties rove,
And endless ages I'll adore
    The glories of thy love.

5 My Saviour! every smile of thine
    Shall fresh endearments bring,
And thousand tastes of new delight
    From all thy graces spring.

6 Haste, my Beloved! raise my soul
    Up to thy blest abode;
Fly! for my spirit longs to see
    My Saviour and my God!

\textit{Doxology.}

Let God the Father, and the Son.
    And Spirit, be adored,
Where there are works to make him known,
    Or saints to love the Lord!
207. "Truly, my soul waiteth upon God."

1 Father! thy paternal care
   Has my guardian been, my guide;
   Every hallowed wish and prayer
   Has thy hand of love supplied;
   Thine is every thought of bliss
   Left by hours and days gone by;
   Every hope thy oft spring is,
   Beaming from futurity.

2 Every sun of splendid ray,
   Every moon that shines serene,
   Every morn that welcomes day,
   Every evening's twilight scene.
   Every hour which wisdom brings,
   Every incense at thy shrine,
   These, and all life's holiest things,
   And its fairest—all are thine.

3 And for all, my hymns shall rise
   Daily to thy gracious throne;
   Thither let my asking eyes
   Turn unwearied, righteous One!
   Through life's strange vicissitude,
   There reposing all my care;
   Trusting still, through ill and good,
   Fixed, and cheered, and counseled there.

398. "My sheep hear my voice."

1 Jesus, seek thy wandering sheep;
   Bring me back, and lead, and keep;
   Take on thee my every care,
   Bear me, on thy bosom bear;
   Let me know my Shepherd's voice,
   More and more in thee rejoice;

More and more of thee receive;
   Ever in thy spirit live,—

2 Live till all thy life I know,
   Following thee, my Lord, below;
   Gladly then from earth remove,
   Gathered to the fold above;
   Oh, that I at last may stand
   With the sheep at thy right hand,
   Take the crown so freely given,
   Enter in by thee to heaven!

528. "Come up hither."—Rev. 4:1.

1 "Come up hither; come away!"
   Thus the ransomed spirits sing;
   Here is cloudless, endless day;
   Here is everlasting spring.

2 Come up hither; come and dwell
   With the living hosts above;
   Come, and let your bosoms swell
   With their burning songs of love.

3 Come up hither; come and share
   All the sacred joys that rise,
   Like an ocean, every where
   Through the myriads of the skies.

4 "Come up hither; come and shine
   In the robes of spotless white
   Palms, and harps, and crowns are thine;
   Hither, hither wing your flight.

5 Come up hither; hither speed:
   Rest is found in heaven alone;
   Here is all the wealth you need;
   Come, and make this wealth your own.

* Commence the fifth stanza with the latter part of the tune.
24. "Her saints shall shout aloud for joy."

1 Sweet the time, exceeding sweet!
When the saints together meet,
When the Saviour is the theme,
When they joy to sing of him.

2 Sing we then eternal love,
Such as did the Father move:
He beheld the world undone,
Loved the world, and gave his Son.

3 Sing the Son's amazing love;
How he left the realms above,
Took our nature and our place,
Lived and died to save our race.

4 Sing we, too, the Spirit's love;
With our stubborn hearts he strove,
Filled our minds with grief and fear,
Brought the precious Saviour near.

5 Sweet the place, exceeding sweet,
Where the saints in glory meet;
Where the Saviour's still the theme,
Where they see and sing of him.

85. "In Thy light shall we see light."

1 Stealing from the world away,
We are come to seek thy face;
Kindly meet us, Lord, we pray,
Grant us thy reviving grace.

2 Yonder stars that gild the sky,
Shine but with a borrowed light;
We, unless thy light be nigh,
Wander, wrapt in gloomy night.

3 Sun of righteousness! dispel
All our darkness, doubts, and fears;
May thy light within us dwell,
Till eternal day appears.

4 Warm our hearts in prayer and praise,
Lift our every thought above;
Hear the grateful songs we raise,
Fill us with thy perfect love.

93. Peace through the Blood of Christ.
(Heb. 13: 20, 21.)

1 Now may he, who from the dead
Brought the Shepherd of the sheep,
Jesus Christ, our King and Head,
All our souls in safety keep!

2 May he teach us to fulfill
What is pleasing in his sight;
Perfect us in all his will,
And preserve us day and night!

3 Great Redeemer! thee we praise,
Who the covenant sealed with blood;
While our hearts and voices raise
Loud thanksgivings unto God.

1069. "Thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God."

1 People of the living God,
I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

2 Now to you my spirit turns—
Turns, a fugitive unblest;
Brethren! where your altar burns,
Oh, receive me into rest!

3 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave:
Where you dwell shall be my home,
Where you die shall be my grave.

4 Mine the God whom you adore,
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my soul no more,
Every idol I resign.
9. "Return, we beseech Thee, O God of Hosts."

1 Lord, in the temples of thy grace
Thy saints behold thy smiling face;
And oft have seen thy glory shine,
With power and majesty divine.

2 Come, dearest Lord, thy children cry,
Our graces droop, our comforts die;
Return, and let thy glories rise
Again to our admiring eyes:

3 Till filled with light, and joy, and love,
Thy courts below, like those above,
Triumphant hallelujahs raise,
And heaven and earth resound thy praise.

84. "Kindred in Christ."

1 Kindred in Christ, for his dear sake,
A hearty welcome here receive;
May we together now partake
The joys which only he can give.

2 May he, by whose kind care we meet,
Send his good Spirit from above,
Make our communications sweet,
And cause our hearts to burn with love.

3 Forgotten be each worldly theme,
When Christians see each other thus;
We only wish to speak of him
Who lived, and died, and reigns for us.

4 We'll talk of all he did and said,
And suffered for us here below;
The path he marked for us to tread,
And what he's doing for us now.

5 Thus, as the moments pass away,
We'll love, and wonder, and adore;
And hasten on the glorious day
When we shall meet to part no more.

140. God with us every where.

1 O Lord, how full of sweet content
Our years of pilgrimage are spent!
Where'er we dwell, we dwell with thee,
In heaven, in earth, or on the sea.

2 To us remains nor place nor time;
Our country is in every clime;
We can be calm and free from care
On any shore, since God is there.

3 While place we seek, or place we shun,
The soul finds happiness in none;
But with our God to guide our way,
'Tis equal joy to go or stay.

4 Could we be cast where thou art not,
That were indeed a dreadful lot;
But regions none remote we call,
Secure of finding God in all.

164. "I sought the Lord, and he heard me."
Psalm 34.

1 Lord, I will bless thee all my days;
Thy praise shall dwell upon my tongue:
My soul shall glory in thy grace,
While saints rejoice to hear the song.

2 Come, magnify the Lord with me;
Come, let us all exalt his name;
I sought th'eternal God, and he
Has not exposed my hope to shame.

3 I told him all my secret grief,
My secret groaning reached his ears;
He gave my inward pains relief,
And calmed the tumult of my fears.

4 His holy angels pitch their tents
Around the men who serve the Lord;
Oh, fear and love him, all his saints!
Taste of his grace and trust his word.
51. "New-born, I bless the waking hour."

1 In sleep's serene oblivion laid,
   I safely passed the silent night;
   Again I see the breaking shade,
   And drink again the morning light.

2 New-born, I bless the waking hour,
   Once more with awe rejoice to be;
   My conscious soul resumes her power,
   And springs, my guardian God, to thee.

3 Oh, guide me through the various maze
   My doubtful feet are doomed to tread;
   And spread thy shield's protecting blaze
   Where dangers press around my head.

4 A deeper shade will soon impend,
   A deeper sleep mine eyes oppress;
   Yet then thy strength shall still defend,
   Thy goodness still delight to bless.

5 That deeper shade shall break away,
   That deeper sleep shall leave mine eyes;
   Thy light shall give eternal day;
   Thy love, the rapture of the skies.

174. "He raiseth up the poor out of the dust."

1 Up to the Lord, who reigns on high,
   And views the nations from afar,
   Let everlasting praises fly,
   And tell how large his bounties are.

2 God, who must stoop to view the skies,
   And bow to see what angels do,—
   Down to our earth he casts his eyes,
   And bends his footsteps downward, too.

3 He overrules all mortal things,
   And manages our mean affairs;
   On humble souls, the King of kings
   Bestows his counsels and his cares.

4 Our sorrows and our tears we pour
   Into the bosom of our God;
   He hears us in the mournful hour,
   And helps to bear the heavy load.

810. Aspiring after God.

1 Up to the fields where angels lie,
   And living waters gently roll,
   Fain would my thoughts leap out and fly!
   But sin hangs heavy on my soul.

2 Oh! might I once mount up and see
   The glories of th' eternal skies,
   What little things these worlds would be!
   How despicable to my eyes!

3 Had I a glance of thee, my God,
   Kingdoms and men would vanish soon—
   Vanish as though I saw them not,
   As a dim candle dies at noon.

4 Great All in All, eternal King!
   Let me but view thy lovely face,
   And all my powers shall bow and sing
   Thine endless grandeur and thy grace.

849. Prayer of the Heart and Lips.

1 O blessed God! to thee I raise
   My voice in thankful hymns of praise;
   And when my voice shall silent be,
   My silence shall be praise to thee.

2 For voice and silence both impart
   The filial homage of my heart;
   And both alike are understood
   By thee, thou Parent of all good,—

3 Whose grace is all unsearchable,
   Whose care for me no tongue can tell,
   Who loves my loudest praise to hear,
   And loves to bless my voiceless prayer.
491.  My Bible.

1 Holy Bible! book divine!
   Precious treasure! thou art mine;
   Mine to tell me whence I came;
   Mine to tell me what I am;

2 Mine to chide me when I rove;
   Mine to show a Saviour's love;
   Mine though art to guide and guard;
   Mine to punish or reward;

3 Mine to comfort in distress,
   If the Holy Spirit bless;
   Mine to show, by living faith,
   Man can triumph over death;

4 Mine to tell of joys to come,
   And the rebel sinner's doom;
   O thou holy book divine!
   Precious treasure, thou art mine!

1159.  "Spared to see another year."

1 While with ceaseless course the sun
   Hasted through the former year,
   Many souls their race have run,
   Never more to meet us here:
   Fixed in an eternal state,
   They have done with all below;
   We a little longer wait,
   But how little, none can know.

2 As the wing'd arrow flies
   Speedily the mark to find,—
   As the lightning from the skies
   Darts, and leaves no trace behind,—
   Swiftly thus our fleeting days
   Bear us down life's rapid stream:
   Upward, Lord, our spirits raise!
   All below is but a dream.

693.  The Three Mountains.

1 When on Sinai's top I see
   God descend in majesty
   To proclaim his holy law,
   All my spirit sinks with awe.

2 When, in ecstasy sublime,
   Tabor's glorious mount I climb,
   In the too transporting light,
   Darkness rushes o'er my sight.

3 When on Calvary I rest,
   God, in flesh made manifest,
   Shines in my Redeemer's face,
   Full of beauty, truth, and grace.

4 Here I would for ever stay,
   Weep and gaze my soul away;
   Thou art heaven on earth to me,
   Lovely, mournful Calvary!

3 Thanks for mercies past receive,
   Pardon of our sins renew;
   Teach us henceforth how to live,
   With eternity in view;
   Bless thy word to young and old;
   Fill us with a Saviour's love;
   When our life's short tale is told,
   May we dwell with thee above.

1 Hark! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King!"
Peace on earth, and mercy mild;
God and sinners reconciled.

2 Joyful, all ye nations, rise;
Join the triumphs of the skies;
With th'angelic hosts proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."

3 Mild he lays his glory by;
Born that man no more may die;
Born to raise the sons of earth;
Born to give them second birth.

4 Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all he brings,
Rises with healing in his wings.

5 Let us then with angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King!"
Peace on earth, and mercy mild;
God and sinners reconciled!"

276. "Watchman, what of the night?"
Isaiah 21: 11.

1 Watchman, tell us of the night,
What its signs of promise are.
Traveler, o'er yon mountain's height,
See that glory-beaming star!

2 Watchman, does its benignant ray
Aught of joy or hope foretell?
Traveler, yes: it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel.

3 Watchman, tell us of the night:
Higher yet that star ascends.
Traveler, blessedness and light,
Peace and truth, its course portends.

4 Watchman, will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveler, ages are its own:
See! it bursts o'er all the earth!

5 Watchman, tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn.
* Commence the fifth stanza with the latter part of the tune.

Traveler, darkness takes its flight,
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.

6 Watchman, let thy wanderings cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home.
Traveler, lo! the Prince of Peace,
Lo! the Son of God is come!

1042. "Give place to me that I may dwell."
Isaiah 40: 28.

1 "Give us room, that we may dwell,"
Zion's children cry aloud:
See their numbers—how they swell!
How they gather like a cloud!

2 Oh, how bright the morning seems!
Brighter from so dark a night:
Zion is like one that dreams,
Filled with wonder and delight.

3 Lo! thy sun goes down no more,
God himself will be thy light;
All that caused thee grief before
Buried lies in endless night.

4 Zion, now arise and shine!
Lo! thy light from heaven is come:
These that crowd from far are thine;
Give thy sons and daughters room.

1114. "Sing unto Him a new song."

1 Swell the anthem, raise the song;
Praises to our God belong;
Saints and angels! join to sing
Praises to the heavenly King.

2 Blessings from his liberal hand
Flow around this happy land;
Kept by him, no foes annoy;
Peace and freedom we enjoy.

3 Here, beneath a virtuous sway,
May we cheerfully obey;
Never feel oppression's rod,
Ever own and worship God.

4 Hark! the voice of nature sings
Praises to the King of kings;
Let us join the choral song,
And the grateful notes prolong.

1 Hark! ten thousand harps and voices
   Sound the note of praise above:
   Jesus reigns, and heaven rejoices;
   Jesus reigns, the God of love:
   See, he sits on yonder throne;
   Jesus rules the world alone.

2 King of glory, reign for ever!
   Thine an everlasting crown:
   Nothing from thy love shall sever
   Those whom thou hast made thine own:
   Happy objects of thy grace,
   Destined to behold thy face.

3 Saviour, hasten thine appearing;
   Bring, oh, bring the glorious day,
   When the awful summons hearing,
   Heaven and earth shall pass away!
   Then, with golden harps, we'll sing
   "Glory, glory to our King!"

70. Our Guardian.

1 Through the day thy love has spared us,
   Now we lay us down to rest;
   Through the silent watches guard us,
   Let no foe our peace molest;
   Jesus, thou our guardian be;
   Sweet it is to trust in thee.

2 Pilgrims here on earth, and strangers,
   Dwelling in the midst of foes;
   Us and ours preserve from dangers;
   In thine arms may we repose;
   And, when life's short day is past,
   Rest with thee in heaven at last.

640. "Thou knowest that I love Thee."

1 I will love thee, all my treasure;
   I will love thee, all my strength;
   I will love thee without measure,
   And without a stain at length:

   I will love thee, Light Divine,
   Till I die and find thee mine!

2 I will praise thee, Sun of glory!
   For the bliss thy beams have brought;
   I will praise thee, will adore thee,
   For the light I long had sought;
   Praise thee that thy words so blest
   Soothed my troubled soul to rest!

3 Be my heart more warmly glowing,
   Sweet and calm the tears I shed;
   And its love, its ardor, showing,
   Let my spirit onward tread;
   Near to thee, and nearer still,
   Draw this heart, this mind, this will.

4 I will love in joy or sorrow!
   While I in this body dwell;
   I will love to-day, to-morrow,
   With a love no words can tell;
   I will love thee, Light Divine,
   Till I die, and find thee mine!

980. "Neither shall any man pluck them out of My hand."—John 10: 28.

1 Clouds and darkness round about thee
   For a season vail thy face;
   Still I trust and can not doubt thee,
   Jesus, full of truth and grace:
   Resting on thy word I stand;
   None shall pluck me from thy hand.

2 Oh, rebuke me not in anger;
   Suffer not my faith to fail;
   Let not pain, temptation, langueur
   O'er my struggling heart prevail!
   Holding fast thy word I stand;
   None shall pluck me from thy hand.

3 In my heart thy word I cherish;
   Though unseen, thou still art near;
   Since thy sheep shall never perish,
   What have I to do with fear?
   Trusting in thy word I stand;
   None shall pluck me from thy hand.
1022.  Prayer for Peace to the Church.

1  O Christ, the leader of that war-worn host
   Who bear thy cross,—now help, or we are lost!
   Disperse the foes who long in deadly strife
   Have sought our life!

2  Come, Lord, and shield thy children with thine arm;
   Restrain the power of him who seeks our harm;
   O'er all that would thy members here as
   Do thou prevail!  [sail

3  And grant us peace within the church and school,
   Peace to the powers that our fair country rule;
   To every wounded conscience, aching heart,
   Thy peace impart!

4  And heaven and earth eternally shall raise
   (Thy goodness and thy boundless love to praise,)
   Glad songs to thee, the Guardian of thy flock,
   Our sheltering Rock!

296.  "It was for us."

1  Near the cross our station taking,
   Earthly cares and joys forsaking,
   Meet it is for us to mourn:
   'Twas for us he came from heaven,
   'Twas for us his heart was riven;
   All his griefs for us were borne.

2  When no eye its pity gave us,
   When there was no arm to save us,
   He his love and power displayed:

   By his stripes our help and healing,
   By his death our life revealing,
   He for us the ransom paid.

   3  Jesus, may thy love constrain us,
   That from sin we may refrain us,
   In thy griefs may deeply grieve;
   Thee our best affections giving,
   To thy praise and honor living,
   May we in thy glory live!
902. "Stand, therefore, having your loins girt about."

1 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From vict'ry unto vict'ry
His army shall be led,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this his glorious day:
"Ye that are men, now serve him,"
Against unnumbered foes;
Your courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you—
Ye dare not trust your own:
Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song:
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally!

884. "The Lord is my salvation; whom shall I fear?"—Psalm 27.

1 God is my strong salvation;
What foe have I to fear?
In darkness and temptation,
My Light, my Help is near.

2 Though hosts encamp around me,
Firm in the fight I stand;
What terror can confound me,
With God at my right hand?

3 Place on the Lord reliance;
My soul, with courage wait;
His truth be thine affiance,
When faint and desolate.

4 His might thy heart shall strengthen,
His love thy joy increase;
Mercy thy days shall lengthen;
The Lord will give thee peace!
1132. "Waft, waft, ye winds, his story!"

1 From Greenland's icy mountains,
   From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand,—
   From many an ancient river,
   From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
   Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
   Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
   And only man is vile;
In vain with lavish kindness
   The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness,
   Bows down to wood and stone!

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
   With wisdom from on high,—
Shall we, to men benightened,
   The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, oh, salvation!
   The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
   Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
   And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
   It spreads from pole to pole;
Till o'er our ransomed nature
   The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
   In bliss returns to reign!

1133. "O that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion."—Psalm 14.

1 On that the Lord's salvation
   Were out of Zion come,
To heal his ancient nation,
   To lead his outcasts home!
How long the holy city
   Shall heathen feet profane?
Return, O Lord, in pity;
   Rebuild her walls again.

2 Let fall thy rod of terror;
   Thy saving grace impart;
Roll back the veil of error;
   Release the fettered heart;
Let Israel, home returning,
   Their lost Messiah see;
Give oil of joy for mourning,
   And bind thy church to thee.
993. "I press toward the mark."—Phil. 3: 13, 14.

1 Breast the wave, Christian, when it is strongest;
Watch for day, Christian; when night is longest;
Onward and onward still be thine endeavor;
The rest that remaineth; endureth for ever.

2 Fight the fight, Christian, Jesus is o'er thee;
Run the race, Christian, heaven is before thee;
He who hath promised faileth never;
Oh, trust in the love that endureth for ever.

3 Lift the eye, Christian, just as it closeth;
Raise the heart, Christian, ere it reposeth:
Nothing thy soul from the Saviour shall sever;
Soon shalt thou mount upward to praise him for ever.

LANETON. 10s & 6s.

(For words (Hymn 647) see opposite page.)
1161.  "He shall fly away as a dream."

1 Come, let us anew our journey pursue—
Roll round with the year,
And never stand still till the Master appear;
His adorable will let us gladly fulfill,
And our talents improve
By the patience of hope, and the labor of love.

2 Our life is a dream; our time, as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay:
The arrow is flown; the moment is gone;

3 Oh that each, in the day of his coming,
May say, "I have fought my way through;
I have finished the work thou didst give me to do;"
Oh that each from his Lord may receive the glad word,
"Well and faithfully done!
Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne!"

647.  "I will love Thee, O Lord, my Strength."

Tune Lanerton, opposite page.

1 I love my God, but with no love of mine,
For I have none to give;
I love thee, Lord; but all the love is thine,
For by thy life I live:
I am as nothing, and rejoice to be emptied, and lost, and swallowed up in thee.

2 Thou, Lord, alone, art all thy children's need,
And there is none beside;
From thee the streams of blessedness proceed,
In thee the blest abide,—
Fountain of life and all-abounding grace,
Our Source, our Center, and our Dwelling-place.
1077. Child's Communion with Christ.

1 Dear Jesus, ever at my side,
How loving must thou be,
To leave thy home in heaven to guard
A little child like me.

2 I can not feel thee touch my hand,
With pressure light and mild,
To check me as my mother did,
When I was but a child.

3 But I have felt thee in my thoughts,
Rebuking sin for me;
And, when my heart loves God, I know
The sweetness is from thee.

4 And when, dear Saviour, I kneel down,
Morning and night, to prayer,
Something there is within my heart
Which tells me thou art there.

5 Yes! when I pray, thou prarest too—
Thy prayer is all for me;
But when I sleep, thou sleepest not,
But wakethest patiently.

6 To God the Father glory be,
And to his only Son;
The same, O Holy Ghost, to thee,
While ceaseless ages run!

1080. Child's Thoughts of God.

1 How glorious is our heavenly King,
Who reigns above the sky!
How shall a child presume to sing
His dreadful majesty?

2 How great his power is, none can tell,
Nor think how large his grace:
Not men below, nor saints that dwell
On high before his face.

3 Not angels that stand round the Lord
Can search his secret will;
But they perform his holy word,
And sing his praises still.

4 Then let me join this heavenly train,
And my first offerings bring;
Th' eternal God will not disdain
To hear an infant sing.

5 My heart resolves, my tongue obeys,
And angels shall rejoice
To hear their mighty Maker's praise
Sound from a feeble voice.

1081. Child's Trust in Christ.

1 See the kind Shepherd, Jesus, stands,
And calls his sheep by name;
Gathers the feeble in his arms,
And feeds each tender lamb.

2 He leads them to the gentle stream,
Where living water flows;
And guides them to the verdant fields,
Where sweetest herbage grows.

3 When, wandering from the peaceful fold,
We leave the narrow way,
Our faithful Shepherd still is near,
To seek us when we stray.

4 The weakest lamb amid the flock
Shall be its Shepherd's care;
While folded in our Saviour's arms,
We're safe from every snare.

1 There is a little, lonely fold,
Whose flock one Shepherd keeps,
Through summer's heat and winter's cold,
With eye that never sleeps.

2 By evil beast, or burning sky,
Or damp of midnight air,
Not one in all that flock shall die,
Beneath that Shepherd's care.

3 For, if unheeding or beguiled
In danger's path they roam,
His pity follows through the wild,
And guards them safely home.
4 O gentle Shepherd, still behold
Thy helpless charge in me;
And take a wanderer to thy fold,
That trembling turns to thee.

1083. Child's Thoughts of Heaven.
1 There is a glorious world of light,
Above the starry sky,
Where saints departed, clothed in white,
Adore the Lord most high.
2 And hark! amid the sacred songs
Those heavenly voices raise,
Ten thousand thousand infant tongues
Unite in perfect praise.
3 Those are the hymns that we shall know,
If Jesus we obey;
That is the place where we shall go,
If found in wisdom's way.
4 Soon will our earthly race be run,
Our mortal frame decay;
Parents and children, one by one,
Must die and pass away.
5 Great God! impress this solemn thought,
To-day, on every breast;
That both the teachers and the taught
May enter to thy rest.

1099. "How poor a lot was Thine!"
1 O Saviour! whom this holy morn
Gave to our world below!
To mortal want and labor born,
And more than mortal woe;
2 Incarnate Word! by every grief,
By each temptation tried;
Who lived to yield our ills relief,
And, to redeem us, died;
3 If richly clothed, and proudly fed,
In dangerous wealth we dwell,
Remind us of thy manger-bed,
And lowly cottage-cell.
4 If, pressed by poverty severe,
In envious want we pine,
Oh, may thy Spirit whisper near,
How poor a lot was thine!
5 Through fickle fortune's various scene,
From sin preserve us free;
Like us, a mourner thou hast been;
May we rejoice with thee.

1148. "Is it such a jest that I have chosen?"
Isaiah 58: 2-8.
1 Do I delight in sorrow's dress?
(Saith he who reigns above);
The hanging head and rueful look—
Will they attract my love?
2 Let such as feel oppression's load
Thy tender pity share;
And let the helpless, homeless poor
Be thy peculiar care.
3 Go, bid the hungry orphan be
With thine abundance blest;
Invite the wanderer to thy gate,
And spread the couch of rest.
4 Let him who pines with piercing cold
By thee be warmed and clad;
Be thine the blissful task to make
The downcast mourner glad.
5 Then, bright as morning, shall come forth
In peace and joy thy days;
And glory from the Lord above
Shall shine on all thy ways.

Doxology.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore!
39. "Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord."—Psalm 150.

1 Praise ye Jehovah's name,
   Praise through his courts proclaim;
   Rise and adore:
   High o'er the heavens above
   Sound his great acts of love,
   While his rich grace we prove,
   Vast as his power.

2 Now let the trumpet raise
   Sounds of triumphant praise.
   Wide as his fame:
   There let the harp be found;
   Organs, with solemn sound,
   Roll your deep notes around,
   Filled with his name.

3 While his high praise ye sing,
   Strike every sounding string;
   Sweet the accord!
   He vital breath bestows;
   Let every breath that flows
   His noblest fame disclose;
   Praise ye the Lord.

345. "At the name of Jesus every knee should bow."

1 Let us awake our joys;
   Strike up with cheerful voice;
   Each creature sing:
   Angels! begin the song;
   Mortals! the strain prolong,
   In accents sweet and strong,
   "Jesus is King!"

2 Proclaim abroad his name;
   Tell of his matchless fame;
   What wonders done!
   Above, beneath, around,
   Let all the earth resound,
   Till heaven's high arch rebound,
   "Vict'ry is won!"

3 He vanquished sin and hell,
   And our last foe will quell:
   Mourners, rejoice!
   His dying love adore;
   Praise him, now raised in power:
   Praise him for evermore,
   With joyful voice.

4 All hail the glorious day,
   When, through the heavenly way,
   Lo, he shall come!
   While they who pierced him wail,
   His promise shall not fail;
   Saints, see your King prevail:
   Great Saviour, come!

1138. "Keep not silence."

1 Sound, sound the truth abroad!
   Bear ye the word of God
   Through the wide world:
   Tell what our Lord hath done;
   Tell how the day was won,
   And from his lofty throne
   Satan is hurled.

2 Far over sea and land,
   'Tis our Lord's own command,
   Bear ye his name:
   Bear it to every shore;
   Regions unknown explore;
   Enter at every door—
   Silence is shame.

3 Ye, who, forsaking all
   At your loved Master's call,
   Comforts resign;
   Soon will the work be done;
   Soon will the prize be won;
   Brighter than yonder sun
   Then shall ye shine!
1111. "God save the State!"

1 God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of winds and wave,
Do thou our country save
By thy great might.

2 For her our prayer shall rise
To God, above the skies;
On him we wait:
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To thee aloud we cry,
God save the State!

Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,—
The sound prolong!

4 Our fathers! God! to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

1155. "The God of harvest praise."

1 The God of harvest praise;
In loud thanksgiving raise
Hand, heart, and voice!
The valleys laugh and sing;
Forests and mountains ring;
The plains their tribute bring;
The streams rejoice.

2 Yea, bless his holy name,
And joyous thanks proclaim
Through all the earth;
To glory in your lot
Is comely; but be not
God's benefits forgot
Amid your mirth.

3 The God of harvest praise,
 Hands, hearts, and voices raise,
 With sweet accord;
 From field to garner throng,
 Bearing your sheaves along,
 And in your harvest song
 Bless ye the Lord.
897. The Call to Victory.
1 Saints, for whom the Saviour bled,
   In your Captain's footsteps tread;
   Follow Jesus, and be led
   On to victory!
   See your foes take the ground;
   While the signal trumpets sound,
   Hear his accents pour around
   Cheering melody!
2 Christian soldier, on with me!
   Soon your enemies must flee;
   Your reward before you see

ROCKVALE. 7s & 5s.

1040. The Angel of the Lord.
1 Onward speed thy conquering flight,
   Angel, onward speed!
   Cast abroad thy radiant light,
   Bid the shades recede;
   Tread the idols in the dust,
   Heathen fanes destroy;
   Spread the gospel's love and trust,
   Spread the gospel's joy.
2 Onward speed thy conquering flight,
   Angel, onward fly!
   Long has been the reign of night;

   Sparkling from on high!
   Boldly take the glorious field;
   You may fall—but must not yield;
   You shall write upon your shield
   Victory, though you die!
3 By the ransom which he gave,
   By his triumph o'er the grave,
   Trust his mighty power to save;
   Firm and faithful be;
   And when death's dark hour is nigh,
   When the tear-drop dims the eye,
   You shall, in the parting sigh,
   Grasp the victory.

   Bring the morning nigh:
   Unto thee earth's sufferers lift
   Their imploring wail;
   Bear them heaven's holy gift,
   Ere their courage fail.
3 Onward speed thy conquering flight,
   Angel, onward speed!
   Morning bursts upon our sight,
   Lo! the time decreed:
   Now the Lord his kingdom takes,
   Thrones and empires fall;
   Now the joyous song awakes,
   "God is All in All!"
1284. "Behold the Judge of man appear."

(A Hymn of the Reformation.)

Great God! what do I see and hear?

The end of things created!

Behold the Judge of man appear,

On clouds of glory seated!

The trumpet sounds; the graves restore

The dead which they contained before;

Prepare, my soul, to meet him!

The dead in Christ shall first arise,

At the last trumpet-sounding,

Caught up to meet him in the skies,

With joy their Lord surrounding:

No gloomy fears their souls dismay;

His presence sheds eternal day

On those prepared to meet him.

O Jesus! friend to fallen man,

To me impart thy merit;

Forgive my sin, wash out its stain

By thine Almighty Spirit:

The trumpet sounds; the Judge is near,

But then my soul, devoid of fear,

Shall spring with joy to meet him.

1290.*

Eternity.

Eternity—eternity!

O bright, O blest eternity!

Which Jesus hath obtained for those

Who seek in him their sure repose;

A little while they suffer here,

But lo! eternity is near:

Eternity—eternity!

Eternity—eternity!

Soon shall these eyes thy wonders see;

Oh, may I now the world despise,

And upward raise my thankful eyes,

And seek the joys that shall abide,

From sin and sorrow purified:

O bright, O blest eternity!

Eternity—eternity!

Prepare me for eternity;

Now grant me, Lord, thy humble mind,

To all my Father's will resigned;

Now give me faith that rests on thee;

Lord! in thy love remember me

In time and in eternity.

* Omit the ties for this Hymn
547. "My Spirit yearns o'er dying men."

1 Arise, my tenderest thoughts, arise;
To torrents melt my streaming eyes;
And thou, my heart, with anguish feel
Those evils which thou canst not heal.

2 See human nature sunk in shame;
See scandals poured on Jesus' name:
The Father wounded through the Son;
The world abused, the soul undone.

3 My God, I feel the mournful scene;
My spirit yearns o'er dying men;
And fain my pity would reclaim
And snatch the firebrands from the flame.

4 But feeble my compassion proves,
And can but weep, where most it loves:
Thine own all-saving arm employ,
And turn these drops of grief to joy.

549. Searching the Heart.

1 Return, my roving heart, return,
And life's vain shadows chase no more;
Seek out some solitude to mourn,
And thy forsaken God implore.

2 O thou great God! whose piercing eye
Distinctly marks each deep retreat,
In these sequestered hours draw nigh,
And let me here thy presence meet.

3 Through all the windings of my heart,
My search let heavenly wisdom guide;
And still its beams unerring dart,
Till all be known and purified.

4 Then let the visits of thy love,
My inmost soul be made to share,
Till every grace combine to prove
That God has fixed his dwelling there.

734. Hope for the Chief of Sinners.

1 I left the God of truth and light;
I left the God who gave me breath,
To wander in the wilds of night,
And perish in the snares of death.

2 Sweet was his service, and his yoke
Was light and easy to be borne;
Through all his bonds of love I broke;
I cast away his gifts with scorn.

3 Heart-broken, friendless, poor, cast down,
Where shall the chief of sinners fly,
Almighty Vengeance! from thy frown?
Eternal Justice! from thine eye?

4 Lo! through the gloom of guilty fears,
My faith discerns a dawn of grace:
The Sun of Righteousness appears
In Jesus' reconciling face!

5 Prostrate before the mercy-seat,
I dare not, if I would, despair;
None ever perished at thy feet,
And I will lie for ever there.

777. Rest for the Weary.

1 My only Saviour! when I feel
O'erwhelmed in spirit, faint, oppressed,
'Tis sweet to tell thee, while I kneel
Low at thy feet, thou art my rest.

2 I'm weary of the strife within;
Strong powers against my soul contest;
Oh, let me turn from self and sin
To thy dear cross, for there is rest!

3 Oh! sweet will be the welcome day,
When, from her toils and woes released,
My parting soul in death shall say,
"Now, Lord! I come to thee for rest."
670. Looking to God in Trouble.

1 God of my life! to thee I call;
Afflicted, at thy feet I fall;
When high the water-floods prevail,
Leave not my trembling heart to fail.

2 Friend of the friendless and the faint,
Where should I lodge my deep complaint—
Where but with thee, whose open door
Invites the helpless and the poor?

3 Did ever mourner plead with thee,
And thou refuse that mourner's plea?
Doth not the word still fixed remain,
That none shall seek thy face in vain?

4 Poor though I am—despised, forgot,
Yet God, my God forgets me not;
And he is safe, and must succeed,
For whom the Lord vouchsafes to plead.

1 I thirst, but not as once I did,
The vain delights of earth to share;
Thy wounds, Immanuel, all forbid
That I should seek my pleasures there.

2 It was the sight of thy dear cross
First weaned my heart from earthly things,
And taught me to esteem as dross
The mirth of fools and pomp of kings.

3 Oh for that grace which springs from thee,
And quickens all things where it flows;
Which makes a wretched thorn like me,
Bloom as the myrtle or the rose!

4 For sure, of all the plants that share
The notice of thy Father's eye,
None proves less grateful to his care,
Or yields him meaner fruit than I.

1020. "We wept, when we remembered Zion."
Psalm 137.

1 When we, our wearied limbs to rest,
Sat down by proud Euphrates' stream,
We wept, with doleful thoughts oppressed,
And Zion was our mourful theme.

2 Our harps that, when with joy we sung,
Were wont their tuneful parts to bear,
With silent strings neglected hung
On willow trees that withered there.

3 How shall we tune our voice to sing,
Or touch our harps with skillful hands?
Shall hymns of joy, to God our King,
Be sung by slaves in foreign lands?

4 O Salem! our once happy seat,
When I of thee forgetful prove,
Let then my trembling hand forget
The tuneful strings with art to move.

5 If I to mention thee forbear,
Eternal silence seize my tongue,—
Or if I sing one cheerful air,
Till thy deliverance is my song.

1086. Prayer for erring Youth.

1 Dear Saviour, if these lambs should stray
From thy secure enclosure's bound,
And, lured by worldly joys away,
Among the thoughtless crowd be found,

2 Remember still that they are thine,
That thy dear, sacred name they bear;
Think that the seal of love divine,
The sign of covenant grace they wear.

3 In all their erring, sinful years,
Oh, let them ne'er forgotten be!
Remember all the prayers and tears
Which made them consecrate to thee.

4 And when these lips no more can pray,
These eyes can weep for them no more,
Turn thou their feet from folly's way;
The wanderers to thy fold restore.

1 Thou, O Lord, wilt never leave me,
Thou wilt never me forsake;
Thou wilt keep, and thou wilt save me,
While thy word my guide I make:
Save from evil
For thy name and mercy's sake!

2 When my soul is dark and clouded,
Torn with doubt, and worn with care,
Through the vail by which 'tis shrouded,
Light from heaven will soon appear;
And thy presence
Banish every doubt and fear.

3 When my sky above is glowing,
And around me all is bright;
Pleasure, like a river flowing,
Fills my soul with sweet delight:
Thou wilt keep me,
Thou wilt guide my steps aright.

4 When my feeble flame is dying,
And my soul about to soar
To that land where pain and sighing
Shall be heard and known no more,
Thou wilt fill me
With thy presence evermore.

953.  His compassions fail not.

1 Every human tie may perish;
Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
Mothers cease their own to cherish;
Heaven and earth at last remove:
But no changes
Can avert the Father's love.

2 In the furnace God may prove thee,
Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
But can never cease to love thee;
Thou art precious in his sight:
God is with thee:—
God, thine everlasting Light.

1048.  Looking to Jesus from his Table.

1 Now, my soul, thy voice upraising,
Sing the cross in mournful strain;
Tell the sorrows all-amazing,
Tell the wounds and dying pain,
Which our Saviour
Sinless, bore, for sinners slain.

2 He to freedom hath restored us
By the very bonds he bare;
And his flesh and blood afford us
Each a seal of mercy rare:
Lo! he draws us
To the cross, and keeps us there.

3 Jesus! may thy promised blessing
Comfort to our souls afford;
May we now thy love possessing,
And at length our full reward,
Ever praise thee,
Thine, our ever glorious Lord!

1 Yes, my native land! I love thee;
All thy scenes, I love them well:
Home and friends that smile around me,
Can I bid you all farewell?
Can I leave you,
Far in heathen lands to dwell?

2 Scenes of sacred peace and pleasure,
Holy days and Sabbath bell,
Richest, brightest, sweetest treasure,
Can I—can I say "Farewell?"
Can I leave you,
Far in heathen lands to dwell?

3 Yes! I hasten from you gladly:
To the strangers let me tell
How he died—the blessed Saviour—
To redeem a world from hell:
Let me hasten,
Far in heathen lands to dwell.

4 Bear me on, thou restless ocean;
Let the winds my canvas swell:
Heaves my heart with warm emotion,
While I go far hence to dwell,
Glad I bid thee,
Native land, farewell, farewell!
86. "Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing."

1 LORD, dismiss us with thy blessing,
    Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
Let us each, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace:
    Oh, refresh us,
Trav'ling through this wilderness!

2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
    For thy Gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

400. "He shall feed his flock."

1 SAVIOUR, like a shepherd lead us,
    Much we need thy tender care;
In thy pleasant pastures feed us;
    For our use thy folds prepare:
Blessed Jesus!
Thou hast bought us, thine we are.

2 Thou hast promised to receive us,
    Poor and sinful though we be;
Thou hast mercy to relieve us,
    Grace to cleanse, and power to free:
Blessed Jesus!
Let us early turn to thee.

3 Early let us seek thy favor;
    Early let us learn thy will;
Do, thou, Lord, our only Saviour,
    With thy love our bosoms fill:
Thou hast loved us,—love us still!

I am weak, but thou art mighty;
    Hold me with thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven!
    Feed me till I want no more.

2 Open thou the crystal fountain,
    Whence the healing streams do flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
    Lead me all my journey through:
Strong Deliverer!
Be thou still my strength and shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
    Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death! and hell's Destruction!
    Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

1222. The Pilgrim's Prayer.

(Another form of the preceding Hymn.)

1 SHEPHERD of thine Israel! lead us,
Pilgrims o'er this barren sand;
Thou who hast from bondage freed us,
    Guard us by thine outstretched hand:
Guide thy chosen
Safely to the promised land.

2 Feed us with the heavenly manna;
    Fainting, may we feel thy might;
Go before us as our banner,
    Cloud by day, and fire by night:
Great Redeemer,
Shine around us;—thou art light.

3 When we come to death's dark river,
    Bid the swelling stream divide;
Thou who canst our life deliver,
    Bear us through the sundered tide:
Praises, praises
Will we sing on Canaan's side!

1221. The Pilgrim's Prayer.

1 GUIDE me, O thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;

470. Prayer to the Trinity.

1 Holy Father, hear my cry;
Holy Saviour, bend thine ear;
Holy Spirit, come thou nigh:
Father, Saviour, Spirit, hear!

2 Father, save me from my sin;
Saviour, I thy mercy crave;
Gracious Spirit, make me clean:
Father, Son, and Spirit, save!

3 Father, let me taste thy love;
Saviour, fill my soul with peace;
Spirit, come my heart to move:
Father, Son, and Spirit, bless!

4 Father, Son, and Spirit—thou One Jehovah, shed abroad
All thy grace within me now;
Be my Father and my God!

592. "Humbled in the dust."

1 Sovereign Ruler, Lord of all!
Prostrate at thy feet we fall;
Hear, oh, hear our earnest cry!
Frown not, lest we faint and die.

2 Vilest of the sons of men,
Chief of sinners we have been:
Oft have sinned before thy face;
Trampled on thy richest grace.

3 Justly might the fatal dart
Pierce our guilty, broken heart;
Justly might thy righteous breath
Doom us to eternal death.

4 Jesus! save our dying soul;
Make our broken spirit whole:
Humbled in the dust we lie;
Saviour! leave us not to die.

604. Mercy for the Chief of Sinners.

1 Depth of mercy!—can there be
Mercy still reserved for me?
Can my God his wrath forbear?
Me, the chief of sinners, spare?

2 I have scorned the Son of God,
Trampled on his precious blood,
Would not hearken to his calls,
Grieved him by a thousand falls.

3 Lord, incline me to repent;
Let me now my fall lament—
Deeply my revolt deplore,
Weep, believe, and sin no more.

4 Still for me the Saviour stands,
Shows his wounds, and spreads his hands:
God is love! I know, I feel;
Jesus weeps, and loves me still.

908. A quiet Spirit.

1 Prince of Peace! control my will;
Bid this struggling heart be still;
Bid my fears and doubtings cease,—
Hush my spirit into peace.

2 Thou hast bought me with thy blood,
Opened wide the gate to God;
Peace I ask—but peace must be,
Lord, in being one with thee.

3 May thy will, not mine, be done;
May thy will and mine be one;
Chase these doubtings from my heart;
Now thy perfect peace impart.

4 Saviour! at thy feet I fall;
Thou my Life, my God, my All!
Let thy happy servant be
One for evermore with thee!
776. Weary of Self and Sin.

1. Jesus! full of truth and love,
   We thy kindest word obey;
   Faithful let thy mercies prove;
   Take our load of guilt away.

2. Weary of this war within,
   Weary of this endless strife,
   Weary of ourselves and sin,
   Weary of a wretched life;

3. Burdened with a world of grief,
   Burdened with our sinful load,
   Burdened with this unbelief,
   Burdened with the wrath of God:

4. Lo! we come to thee for ease,
   True and gracious as thou art:
   Now our weary souls release;
   Write forgiveness on each heart.

841. "A living Sacrifice."—Psalm 51.

1. Jesus, who upon the tree
   Wast an offering for me,
   Take this throbbing heart of mine,—
   Lay it on thy holy shrine,

2. As thy love accepteth naught
   Save what love itself hath wrought,
   Offer thou my sacrifice,
   Else to heaven it can not rise.

3. Take away my erring will;
   All my wayward passions kill;
   Tear my heart from out my heart,
   Though it cost me bitter smart.

4. Fain were I of self bereft,
   Naught but thee within me left;
   Living sacrifice I am,
   Offered only in thy name.

1044. "In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost."—Matt. 28: 19.

1. Heavenly Father! may thy love
   Beam upon us from above;
   Let this infant find a place
   In thy covenant of grace.

2. Son of God! be with us here;
   Listen to our humble prayer;
   Let thy blood, on Calvary split,
   Cleanse this child from nature's guilt.

3. Holy Ghost! to thee we cry:
   Thou this infant sanctify;
   Thine almighty power display;
   Seal [bless] to redemption's day.

4. Great Jehovah!—Father, Son,
   Holy Spirit—Three in One,
   Let the blessing come from thee;
   Thine shall all the glory be!
813. Prayer for Wisdom.

1 Almighty God, in humble prayer,
   To thee our souls we lift:
   Do thou our waiting minds prepare
   For thy most needful gift.

2 We ask not golden streams of wealth,
   Along our path to flow;
   We ask not undecaying health,
   Nor length of years below;

3 We ask not honors, which an hour
   May bring and take away;
   We ask not pleasure, pomp, and power,—
   Lest we should go astray:

4 We ask for wisdom: Lord, impart
   The knowledge how to live;
   A wise and understanding heart
   To all before thee give.

819. "Thine, wholly Thine, oh, let us be!"

1 Eternal Father, God of love,
   To thee our hearts we raise;
   Thy all-sustaining power we prove,
   And gladly sing thy praise.

2 Thine, wholly thine, oh, let us be!
   Our sacrifice receive;
   Made and preserved, and saved by thee,
   To thee ourselves we give.

3 Come, Holy Ghost! the Saviour's love
   Shed in our hearts abroad;
   So shall we ever live and move,
   And be, with Christ, in God.

834. Giving all for Christ.—Mark 8: 34.

1 And must I part with all I have,
   My dearest Lord, for thee?
   It is but right, since thou hast done
   Much more than this for me.

2 Yes, let it go!—one look from thee
   Will more than make amends
   For all the losses I sustain
   Of credit, riches, friends.

3 Ten thousand worlds, ten thousand lives—
   How worthless they appear,
   Compared with thee, supremely good,
   Divinely bright and fair!

4 Saviour of souls! could I from thee
   A single smile obtain,
   The loss of all things I could bear,
   And glory in my gain.

1 "The promise of my Father's love
   Shall stand for ever good;
   He said, and gave his soul to death,
   And sealed the grace with blood.

2 To this dear covenant of thy word
   I set my worthless name;
   I seal th' engagement to my Lord,
   And make my humble claim.

3 I call that legacy my own
   Which Jesus did bequeath;
   'Twas purchased with a dying groan,
   And ratified in death.

4 The light and strength, the pardoning grace,
   And glory shall be mine:
   My life and soul, my heart and flesh,
   And all my powers are thine.

1 We long to move and breathe in thee,
   Inspired with thine own breath,
   To live thy life, O Lord, and be
   Baptized into thy death;—

2 Thy death to sin we die below,
   But we shall rise in love;
   We here are planted in thy woe,
   But we shall bloom above;—

3 Above we shall thy glory share,
   As we thy cross have borne;
   Ev'n we shall crowns of honor wear,
   When we the thorns have worn.
DUNDEE. C. M.

4 Thy crown of thorns is all our boast,
    While now we fall before
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
    And tremble, love, adore.

1 See Israel's gentle Shepherd stand
    With all-engaging charms;
Hark, how he calls the tender lambs,
    And folds them in his arms!
2 "Permit them to approach," he cries,
    "Nor scorn their humble name;
For 'twas to bless such souls as these,
    The Lord of angels came."
3 We bring them, Lord, in thankful hands,
    And yield them up to thee;
Joyful that we ourselves are thine,—
    Thine let our offspring be.

1 On, wondrous is thy mercy, Lord!
    We hear thy word of grace,
"Forbid them not,"—oh, rich the word
    That calls our infant race!
2 Our infant race we bring to thee:
    Receive them as thine own!
Now and for ever may they be
    Thine wholly; thine alone.

1047. "A God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee."—Genesis 17: 7.
1 How large the promise! how divine!
    To Abraham and his seed:
"I'll be a God to thee and thine,
    Supplying all their need."
2 The words of his extensive love
    From age to age endure:
The angel of the covenant proves,
    And seals the blessings sure.
3 Jesus the ancient faith confirms,
    To our great fathers given;
He takes young children to his arms,
    And calls them heirs of heaven.
4 Our God!—how faithful are his ways!
    His love endures the same;
Nor from the promise of his grace
    Blots out the children's name.

1140. "They are no more twin, but one flesh."
1 We join to pray, with wishes kind,
    A blessing, Lord, from thee,
On those who now the bands have twined
    Which never may broken be.
2 We know that scenes not always bright
    Must unto them be given;
But over all shine the light
    Of love, and truth, and heaven.
3 Still hand in hand, their journey through,
    Joint pilgrims may they go;
Mingling their joys as helpers true,
    And sharing every woe.
4 May each in each still feed the flame
    Of pure and holy love;
In faith and trust and heart the same,
    The same their home above.

1141. "It is not good that man should be alone."
1 Nor for the summer hour alone,
    When skies resplendent shine,
And youth and pleasure fill the throne;
    Our hearts and hands we join;
2 But for those stern and wintery days
    Of sorrow, pain, and fear,
When heaven's wise discipline doth make
    Our earthly journey drear.
3 Not for this span of life alone,
    Which like a blast doth fly,
And, as the transient flowers of grass;
    Just blossom, droop, and die;
4 But for a being without end
    This vow of love we take:
Grant us, O Lord, one home at last,
    For thy great mercy's sake!
VITAL SPARK.

1189. "O Grave! where is thy victory?"—1 Cor. 15: 55.

1. Vital spark of heavenly flame! Quit, oh, quit this mortal frame;
   Trembling, hop-ing, lingering, fly-ing—Oh the pain,—the bliss of dying!

2. Hark! they whisper; angels say "Sister spirit, come away!"
   What is this ab-sorbs me quite?—Steals my sen-ses, shuts my sight,

Repeat for the Second Stanza.

Cease, fond na-ture, cease thy strife, And let me lan-guish into life!
Drowns my spi-rit, draws my breath?—Tell me, my soul, can this be death?

3. The world re-cedes—it dis-appears! Heaven op-ens on my eyes!—my ears With sounds se-raph-ic ring! Lend, lend your wings! I mount! I fly! "O Grave, where is thy vic-to-ry! O Death! where is thy sting! O Death, where is thy sting!"

We praise, we worship thee,
Blesséd and holy Three.
Wisdom, Love, Might!
Boundless as ocean's tide,
Rolling in fullest pride,
O'er the world far and wide,
"Let there be light!"
Selection, No. 1.

Psalm I.

1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, Nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law of the Lord; And in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, That bringeth forth his fruit in his season;

4 His leaf also shall not wither; And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

5 The ungodly are not so: But are like the chaff which the wind driveth a way.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous:

7 For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Selection, No. 2.

Psalm VIII.

1 O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! Who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, The moon and the stars which thou hast ordained;

4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? And the son of man that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, And hast crowned him with glory and honor.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; Thou hast put all things under his feet:

7 All sheep and oxen, Yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, And whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 O Lord our Lord, How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

Psalm XIX.

1 The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament showeth his handiwork.
2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.
3 Their line is gone out through all the earth, And their words to the end of the world.
4 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.
5 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it; And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
6 The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.
7 The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlivening the eyes.
8 The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever; The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
9 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: Sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.
10 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: And in keeping of them there is great reward.
11 Who can understand? stand his errors? Cleanse thou me from secret faults.
12 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: Then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.
13 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Selection, No. 4.

Psalm XXIII.

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters.
3 He re- storeth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: For thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
Selection, No. 5.

Psalm XXIV.

1 The Earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof.
   The world, and they that dwell there in.
2 For he hath founded it upon the seas,
   And established it upon the floods.
3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
   Or who shall stand in his holy place?
4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart;
   Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
   Neither sworn deceitfully.
5 He shall receive the blessing from the Lord,
   Righteousness from the God of his salvation.
6 This is the generation of them that seek him,
   Those that seek thy face, Jacob.

Psalm XXV. 1-14.

1 Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
   O my God, I trust in thee:
2 Let me not be ashamed,
   Let not mine enemies triumph over me.
3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed;
   Let them be ashamed which transgress and gress with me.
4 Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me paths.
   Lead me in thy truth, and teach me:
5 For thou art the God of my salvation;
   On thee do I wait all the day.
6 Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy kindnesses;
   For they have been ever of old.
7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions;
   According to thy mercy remember thou me, for thy goodness' sake, O Lord.
8 Goon and upright is the Lord:
Therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgment:
And the meek will he teach his way.

10 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth
Unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

11 For thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity;
For it is great.

12 What man is he that feareth the Lord?
Him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease;
And his seed shall inherit the earth.

14 The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him;
And he will shew them his covenant.

Selection, No. 7. From Psalm XXVII.

1 The Lord is my light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

2 Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear:
Though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

3 One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek — after:
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,

4 To behold the beauty of the Lord,
And to inquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion:
In the secret of his tabernacle he shall hide me; he shall set me up, up — on a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me:
Therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

7 Hear, O Lord, when I cry — with my voice:
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face;
My heart said unto thee, Thy face, O Lord, will I seek.

9 Hide not thy face — from me;
Put not thy servant away in anger:

10 Thou hast been my help;
Leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
Selection, No. 8.  Psalm XXXIII. 1-12.

1 Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: For praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the Lord with harp: Sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song; Play skillfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the Lord is right; And all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

6 By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathered the waters of the sea together as an heap: He layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the Lord: Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to naught: He maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsel of the Lord standeth forever, The thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; And the people whom he hath chosen for his inheritance.

Selection, No. 9.  From Psalm XXXIV.

1 I will bless the Lord at all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: The humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 Oh, magnify the Lord with me, And let us exalt his name together.
4 I sought the Lord, and he heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.

5 The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him,
And delivereth them.

6 Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good:
Blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

7 Oh, fear the Lord, ye his saints:
For there is no want to them that fear him.

8 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger:
But they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

9 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth,
And delivereth them out of all their troubles.

10 The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart;
And saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

11 Many are the afflictions of the righteous:
But the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

12 The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants;
And none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

Selection, No. 10. Psalm XXXVI. 5-10.

1 Thy mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens:
And thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

2 Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep:
O Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

3 How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God!
Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

4 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house;
And thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

5 For with thee is the fountain of life:
In thy light shall we see light.

6 Oh, continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee;
And thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

From Psalm LI.

1 Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving-kindness:
   According unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,
   And cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions:
   And my sin is ever before me.

4 Hide thy face from my sins,
   And blot out all mine iniquities.

5 Create in me a clean heart, O God;
   And renew a right spirit within me.

6 Cast me not away from thy presence;
   And take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

7 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation;
   And uphold me with thy free Spirit.

8 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways;
   And sinners shall be converted unto thee.

9 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation:
   And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

10 O Lord, open thou my lips:
    And my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

11 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it:
    Thou delightest not in burnt offering.

12 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:
   A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

1 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens;
   Let thy glory be above all the earth.

2 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed;
   I will sing and give praise.

3 Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp:
   I myself will awake early.

4 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people;
   I will sing unto thee among the nations.

5 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens,

Psalm LXIII. 1-7.

1 O God, thou art my God;
   Early will I seek thee:

2 My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee
   In a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;

3 To see thy power and thy glory,
   So as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

4 Because thy loving-kindness is better than life,
   My lips shall praise thee.

5 Thus will I bless thee while I live;
   I will lift up my hands in thy name.

6 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness;
   And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

7 When I remember thee upon my bed,
   And meditate on thee in the night watches.

8 Because thou hast been my help,
   Therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

Psalm LXV.

1 Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion:
   And unto thee shall the vow — be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer,
   Unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 Iniquities prevail against me:
   As for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest,
   And causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts:

5 We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,
   Even of thy holy temple.

6 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation:
   Who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off:

7 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains;
   Being girded with power:

8 Which stilleth the noise of the seas,
   The noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

9 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens:
   Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

10 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it:
    thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water:
    Thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

11 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly:
   thou settlest the furrows thereof:
   Thou makest it soft with showers:
   thou blessest the springing thereof.

12 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness:
   And thy paths — drop — fatness.

13 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness:
   And the little hills re-joice on every side.

14 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn;
   They shout for joy, they also sing.

1 God be merciful unto us, and bless us;
   And cause his face to shine upon us.

2 That thy way may be known upon earth,
   Thy saving health among all nations.
3 Let the people praise thee, O God;
   Let all the people praise thee.
4 Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy:
   For thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.
5 Let the people praise thee, O God;
   Let all the people praise thee.
6 Then shall the earth yield her increase;
   And God, even our own God, shall bless us.
7 God shall bless us;

Selection, No. 19. Psalm LXXXIV.
1 How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord;
   My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord:
   Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young;
   Even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God.
4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house:
   They will be still praising thee.
5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee;
   In whose heart are the ways of them,
6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well;
   The rain also filleth the pools.
7 They go from strength to strength,
   Every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.
8 O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer:
   Give ear, O God of Jacob.
9 Behold, O God our shield,
   And look upon the face of thine anointed.
10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.
   I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
11 For the Lord God is a sun and shield:
   The Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.
12 O Lord of hosts,
   Blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.
Selection, No. 20. Psalm LXXXV.

1 Lord, thou hast been favorable unto thy land:
   Thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people,
   Thou hast covered all their sin.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath:
   Thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation,
   And cause thine anger toward us to cease.

5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever?
   Wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

6 Wilt thou not revive us again:
   That thy people may rejoice in thee?

7 Shew us thy mercy, O Lord,
   And grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hear what God the Lord will speak:
   For he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn a gain to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him;
   That glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together;
   Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth;
   And righteousness shall look down from heaven.

12 Yea, the Lord shall give that which is good;
   And our land shall yield her increase.

13 Righteousness shall go before him;
   And shall set us in the way of his steps.

CHANT. No. XV.

I will sing of the mercies of the Lord for ever:
With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all — gener- ations.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever:
Thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen,
I have sworn unto David my servant,

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever,
And build up thy throne to all — gener- ations.

5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord:
Thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the Lord?
Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the Lord?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints,
And to be had in reverence of all them that are a- bout him.

8 O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee?
Or to thy faithfulness round about — thee?

9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea:
When the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain;
Thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong — arm.

11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine:
As for the world and the fullness thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 The north and the south thou hast created them:
Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arm:
Strong is thy hand, and — thy right hand.

14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne:
Mercy and truth shall go be- fore thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound:
They shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.

16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day:
And in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

17 For thou art the glory of their strength:
And in thy favor our horn shall be exalted.

18 For the Lord is our defense;
And the Holy One of Israel is our king.
Selection, No. 22.  Psalm xc.

1 Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place
   In all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,
   Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction;
   And sayest, Return, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past,
   And as a watch in the night.

5 Thou pourest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep:
   In the morning they are like grass which groweth up;

6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up;
   In the evening it is cut down and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger,
   And by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,
   Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath:
   We spend our years as a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten;
    And if by reason of strength they be fourscore years,

11 Yet is their strength labor and sorrow;
    For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

12 Who knoweth the power of thine anger?
    Even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

13 So teach us to number our days,
    That we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

14 Return, O Lord, how long?
    And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

15 O satisfy us early with thy mercy;
    That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

16 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,
    And the years wherein we have seen evil.

17 Let thy work appear unto thy servants,
    And thy glory unto their children.
18 And let the beauty of the Lord our God be up on us:
   And establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands es tablish thou it.

3 For he shall give his angels charge over thee,
   To keep thee in all thy ways.

4 They shall bear thee up in their hands,
   Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

5 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:
   The young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

6 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him:
   I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

7 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him:
   I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him.

8 With long life will I satisfy him,

2 The Lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself:
   The world also is established, that it can not be moved.

3 Thy throne is established of old:
   Thou art from ever lasting.

4 The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice;
   The floods lift up their waves.

5 The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters,
   Yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

6 Thy testimonies are very sure:
   Holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever.

Psalm XCV.

1 O come, let us sing unto the Lord:
Let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,
And make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For the Lord is a great God,
And a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth;
The strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it:
And his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down:
Let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

7 For he is our God;
And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

8 To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your heart,
As in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness.

9 When your fathers tempted me,
Proved me, and saw my work:

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation,
And said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath
That they should not enter into my rest.

Psalm XCVI.

1 O sing unto the Lord a new song:
Sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

2 Sing unto the Lord, bless his name;
Shew forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen,
His wonders among all people.

4 For the Lord is great, and greatly to be praised;
He is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the nations are idols:
But the Lord made the heavens.

Fear before him, | all the | earth.

10 Say among the heathen that the | Lord — | reigneth:
The world also shall be established, that it shall not be moved: he shall | judge | the | people | righteously.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the | earth be | glad:
Let the sea roar, and the | fullness | thereof — | of.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that | is there— | in:
Then shall all the trees of the wood re— | joice before the | Lord:

13 For he cometh, for he cometh to | judge the | earth:
He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the | people | with his | truth.

Selection, No. 27. Psalm XCVIII.

1 O sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done | marvelous | things:
His right hand, and his holy arm, hath | gotten | him the | victory.

2 The Lord hath made known | his salvation:
His righteousness hath he openly shewed in the | sight— | of the | heathen.

3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the | house of | Israel:
All the ends of the earth have seen the | salvation | of our | God.

4 Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, | all the | earth:
Make a loud noise, and re— | joice, and | sing — | praise.

5 Sing unto the Lord | with the | harp:
With the harp, and the | voice — | of a | psalm.

6 With trumpets and | sound of | cornet
Make a joyful noise before the | Lord, the | King.

7 Let the sea roar, and the | fullness | thereof — | of;
The world, and | they that | dwell therein.

8 Let the floods clap their | hands:
Let the hills be joyful together | fore the | Lord:

9 For he cometh to | judge the | earth:
With righteousness shall he judge the world, and the | people | with — | equity.

Psalm C.

1 Make a joyful noise unto the Lord | all ye | lands.
   Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his | presence | with— | singing.

2 Know ye that the Lord | he is | God:
   It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the | sheep of | his — | pasture.

3 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his | courts with | praise.
   Be thankful unto him, and | bless — | his — | name.

4 For the Lord is good; his mercy is | ever- | lasting;
   And his truth endureth to | all — | gener- | ations.

Psalm CII. 16-82.

1 When the Lord shall | build up | Zion,
   He shall appear in | his — | glory.

2 He will regard the prayer | of the | destitute,
   And | not despise their | prayer.

3 This shall be written for the generation, to come:
   And the people which shall be created, shall praise the | Lord.

4 For he hath looked down from the height | of his | sanctuary;
   From heaven did the | Lord begin to hold the | earth;

5 To hear the groaning | of the | prisoner,
   To loose those that are appointed to death;

6 To declare the name of the | Lord in | Zion,
   And his praise | in Jerusalem;

7 When the people are gathered, together,
   And the kingdoms, to serve the | Lord.

8 He weakened my strength, in the way;
   He shortened my days.

9 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days.
   Thy years are throughout all generations.

10 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth:
   And the heavens are the work of thy hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure:
   Yea, all of them shall wax old — like a garment;

12 As a vesture shalt thou change them,
   And they shall be changed:

13 But thou art the same,
   And thy years shall have no end.

14 The children of thy servants shall continue to shine,
   And their seed shall be established forever.

FROM PSALM CIII.

1 Bless the Lord, | O my | soul:
   And all that is within me, | bless his | holy | name.

2 Bless the Lord, | O my | soul,
   And for | get not | all his | benefits:

3 Who forgiveth all | thine iniquities;
   Who | healeth | all | thy diseases;

4 Who redeemeth thy life | from destruction;
   Who crowneth thee with loving kindness | and | tender mercies;

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things;
   So that thy youth is renewed | like | the | eagle's.

6 The Lord executeth | righteousness | and | judgment;
   For | all that | are opressed;

7 He made known his ways | unto | Moses,
   His acts unto the children, | of | Israel | el.

8 The Lord is | merciful | and | gracious,
   Slow to anger, and | plenteous | in | mercy.

9 He will not | always | chide:
   Neither will he | keep his | anger | for | ever.

10 He hath not dealt with us | after | our sins;
   Nor rewarded us according to | our iniquities.

11 For as the heaven is high above the earth,
   So great is his mercy toward them that | fear | him.

12 As far as the east is from the west,
   So far hath he removed | our transgressions | from us.

13 Like as a father | pitieth his | children,
   So the Lord | pitieth | them that | fear him.

14 For he knoweth | our frame;
   He remembereth that | we | are | dust.

15 As for man, his days | are as | grass:
   As a flower of the field | so he | flourisheth | eth.

16 For the wind passeth over it, | and | it is | gone;
   And the place thereof | of shall | know it | no | more.

17 But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that | fear him,
   And his righteousness | unto | children's children;

18 To such as | keep his | covenant,
   And to those that remember his commandments to do | them.

19 The Lord hath prepared his throne | in | the heavens;
   And his kingdom | ruleth | over | all.

20 Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excell in strength,
   That do his commandments, harkening unto the voice of his word.

21 Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts;
   Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

22 Bless the Lord, all his works, in all places of | his dominion:
   Bless the Lord, | O | my soul.
1 Praise ye the Lord.
I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the Lord are great;
Sought out of all them that have pleasure there — in.

3 His work is honorable and glorious;
And his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered:
The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him:
He will ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works,
That he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgment;
All his commandments are sure.

8 They stand fast forever, and ever,
And are done in truth and uprightness.

9 He sent redemption unto his people; he hath commanded his covenant, for ever:
Holy and reverend is his name.

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom:
A good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

From Psalm CXV.

1 Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us,
But unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

2 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God?
But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he pleased.

3 O Israel, trust thou in the Lord;
He is their help and their shield.

4 O house of Aaron, trust in the Lord;
He is their help and their shield.

5 Ye that fear the Lord, trust in the Lord;
He is their help and their shield.

6 The Lord hath been mindful of us: he will bless us;
He will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

7 He will bless them that fear the Lord,
Both small and great.

8 The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children.
Ye are blessed of the Lord which made heaven and earth.
9 The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's:
   But the earth hath he given to the children of men.

10 The dead praise not the Lord,
   Neither any that go down — into silence.

11 But we will bless the Lord from this time forth and for ever — more.
   Praise ye the Lord.

Selection, No. 33. From Psalm CXVI.

1 I love the Lord,
   Because he hath heard my voice, and my supplications.

2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me,
   Therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

3 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me:
   I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then called I upon the name of the Lord;
   O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous;
   Yea, our God is merciful.

6 The Lord preserveth the simple:
   I was brought low, and he helped me.

7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul;
   For the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death.
   Mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

9 What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?

10 I will take the cup of salvation,
   And call upon the name of the Lord.

11 I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.

12 Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

13 O Lord, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid:
   Thou hast loosed my bonds.

14 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanks — giving,
   And will call upon the name of the Lord.

15 I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people,

16 In the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.
   Praise ye the Lord.
1 The Lord is my strength and song,
And is become — my salvation.

2 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles
Of the righteous:
The right hand of the Lord — doeth valiantly.

3 The right hand of the Lord is exalted:
The right hand of the Lord — doeth valiantly.

4 I shall not die, but live,
And declare the works of the Lord.

5 The Lord hath chastened me sore:
But he hath not given me over unto death.

6 Open to me the gates of righteousness:
I will go into them, and I will praise the Lord:

7 This gate of the Lord,
Into which the righteous, shall enter.

8 I will praise thee:
For thou hast heard me, and art become — my salvation.

9 The stone which the builders refused
Is become the head stone of the corner.

10 This is the Lord's doing;
It is marvelous in our eyes.

11 This is the day which the Lord hath made;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.

12 Save now, I beseech thee, O Lord:
O Lord, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

13 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord:
We have blessed you out of the house — of the Lord.

14 God is the Lord, which hath shewed us light:
Bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns — of the altar:

15 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee:
Thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

16 O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good:
For his mercy endureth forever.

1 I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills,
From whence cometh my help.

2 My help cometh from the Lord,
Which made heaven and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved;
He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord is thy keeper:
The Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

6 The sun shall not smite thee by day,
Nor the moon by night.

7 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil;
He shall pre-serve thy soul.

Psalm CXXII.

1 I was glad when they said unto me,
Let us go into the house of the Lord.

2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates,
O Lord, in Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is builded as a city
That is com-pact together.

4 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord,
Unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

5 For there are set thrones of judgment,
The thrones of the house of David.

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
They shall prosper, that love thee.

7 Peace be with thee in thy walls,
And prosperity within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions
I will now say, Peace be with thee.

9 Because of the house of the Lord our God
I will seek thy good.

1. When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion,
   We were like them that dream.

2. Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
   And our tongue with singing:

3. Then said they among the heathen,
   The Lord hath done great things for them.

4. The Lord hath done great things for us;
   Whereof we are glad.

5. Turn again our captivity, O Lord,
   As the streams in the south.

6. They that sow in tears

3. If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities,
   O Lord — who shall stand?

4. But there is forgiveness with thee,
   That thou mayest be feared.

5. I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait,
   And in his word do I hope.

6. My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that wait for the morning:
   I say, more than they that wait for the morning.

7. Let Israel hope in the Lord:

3 Oh, give thanks to the Lord of lords:
   For his mercy, endureth, for ever.

4 To him who alone doeth great wonders:
   For his mercy, endureth, for ever.

5 To him that by wisdom made the heavens:
   For his mercy, endureth, for ever.

6 To him that stretched out the earth above the waters:
   For his mercy, endureth, for ever.

7 To him that made great lights:
   For his mercy, endureth, for ever.

8 The sun to rule by day:

2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth:
   For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.
3 In the day when I cried thou answerest me,
   And strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.
4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord,
   When they hear the words of thy mouth.
5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord:
   For great is the glory of the Lord.
6 Though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto his lowly:
   But the proud he knoweth afar off.
7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt restore me:
   Thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

Psalm CXLV.

1 I will extol thee, my God, O King;
And I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee;
And I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised;
And his greatness is unsearchable.

4 One generation shall praise thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious honor of thy majesty,
And of thy wondrous works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts:
And I will declare thy greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness,
And shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion and mercy;
Slow to anger, and of great kindness.

9 The Lord is good to all;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.

10 All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord;
And thy saints shall bless thee.

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,
And talk of thy power.

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,
And the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

14 The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee;
And thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand,
And satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his ways,
And holy, in all his works.

18 The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him,
To all that call up on him in truth.

19 He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him;
He will also hear their cry, and will save them.

20 The Lord preserveth all them that love him;
But all the wicked, will he destroy.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord;
And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.
CHANT. No. XXXI.

Selection, No. 44.

Praise ye the Lord.
Praise the Lord O my soul.

While I live will I praise the Lord:
I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

Put not your trust in princes,
Nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth;
In that very day his thoughts perish.

Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help.
Whose hope is in the Lord his God:

Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is:
Which keepeth truth for ever.

Which executeth judgment for the oppressed and the hungry:
Which giveth food to the hungry.

The Lord loseth not his own that are bow'd down:
The Lord loveth the righteous.

The Lord preserveth the strangers; he relieth the fatherless,
And the widow in their disquiets.

But the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

The Lord shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations.

Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm CXLVII. 12-20.

Praise the Lord, O Je- rusa- lem;
Praise thy God,— O Zion.

For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates;
He hath blessed thy children with thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders,
And filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth:
His word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wool:
He scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels;
Who can stand before his cold?

He sendeth out his word, and it melteth them:
He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

He showeth his word unto Jacob,
His statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not been known.

Praise ye the Lord.

1 Praise ye the Lord.
   Praise ye the Lord from the heavens: praise him in the heights.
2 Praise ye him, all his angels:
   Praise ye him, all his hosts.
3 Praise ye him, sun and moon:
   Praise him, all ye stars of light.
4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens,
   And ye waters that be above the heavens.
5 Let them praise the name of the Lord:
   For he commanded, and they were created.
6 He hath also established them for ever, and I ever.
   He hath made a decree which shall not pass.
7 Praise the Lord from the earth, ye dragons, and all—deeps:
   Fire, and hail; snow, and vapors; stormy wind filling his word:
8 Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all—cedars:
   Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl:
9 Kings of the earth, and all—people;
   Princes, and all judges of the earth:
10 Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:
   Let them praise the name of the Lord:
11 For his name alone is excellent;
   His glory is above the earth and heaven.

1 He is despised and rejected of men;
A man of sorrows, acquainted with grief:

2 And we hid as it were our faces from him;
He was despised, and we esteemed him not.

3 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows;
Yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

4 But he was wounded for our transgressions,
He was bruised, for our iniquities;

5 The chastisement of our peace was upon him
And with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray;
We have turned every one to his own way;

7 And the Lord hath laid on him
The iniquity of us all.

8 When thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin,

9 And the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.
He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied.

   For he hath visited and redeemed | his | people,
2 And hath raised up an horn of salvation | for us
   In the | house | of his | servant | David;
3 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets,
   Which have been | since the | world began;
4 That we should be saved | from our | enemies,
5 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers,
   And to remember his holy covenant;
6 That he would grant unto us,
   Might serve | him without fear.
7 In holiness and righteousness before him,
   All the | days of | our | life.

From Revelation iv & v.

1 Holy, holy, holy, Lord | God almighty.
   Which was, and is, and is to come;
2 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honor, and power;
   For thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.
3 Worthy is the Lamb that was slain,
   To receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing.
4 Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power,
   Be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

Selection, No. 54.

Te Deum Laudamus.*

1 We praise thee, O God;
   We acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
2 All the earth doth worship thee,
   The Father everlasting.
3 To thee all angels cry aloud,
   The heavens, and all the powers therein.

* This hymn is said to have been written by Ambrose of Milan, at the baptism of Augustine, about A.D. 383.
CHANT. No. XXXVI.

4 To thee cherubim, and seraphim,
   Con- tin - al | ly do | cry,

5 Holy, holy, holy,
   Lord | God of | Saba- | oth;

6 Heaven and earth are full
   Of the | majes - ty | of thy | glory.

7 The glories company of the apostles praise thee.
   The goodly fellowship of the | prophets | praise thee.

8 The noble army of martyrs praise thee.
   The holy church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee,

9 The Father, of an infinite majesty;
   Thine adorable, true and only Son;

10 Also the Holy Ghost,
    The Com - fort er,

11 Thou art the King of glory, O Christ,
   Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.

12 When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man,
   Thou didst humble thyself to be born | of a virgin.

13 When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
   Thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

14 Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.
   We believe that thou shalt come to be our judge.

15 We therefore pray thee, help thy servants,
   Whom thou hast redeemed | with thy precious blood.

16 Make them to be numbered with thy saints,
    In glory | ever- | lasting.

17 O Lord, save thy people, and bless thine heritage;
    Govern them and lift them up for ever.

18 Day by day we magnify thee;
    And we worship thy name ever, | world with | out - | end.

19 Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin;
    O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy up-
    | on | us.

20 O Lord, let thy mercy be up - on us,
   As our | trust — | is in thee.

21 O Lord, in thee have I trusted;
   Let me | never | be con - founded.
Selection, No. 55.

1 Glory be to God on high,
   And on earth peace, good will towards men.
2 We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee,
   We glorify thee, we give thanks to thee, for thy great glory,
3 O Lord God, heavenly King,
   God the Father Almighty,
4 O Lord, the only begotten Son, Jesus Christ,
   O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
5 That taketh away the sins of the world,
   Have mercy upon us.
6 Thou that takest away the sins of the world,
   Have mercy upon us.
7 Thou that takest away the sins of the world,
   Receive our prayer.
8 Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,
   Have mercy upon us.
9 For thou only art holy;
   Thou only art the Lord;
10 Thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost,
   Art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Selection, No. 56.

1 Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
   And to the Holy Ghost;
2 As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
   World without end. Amen.

* Ascribed to Telephorus, Bishop of Rome, A.D. 129-139.
Selection, No. 57.

Before the Administration.
Psalm 103: 17, 18.

1 The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,
And his righteousness unto children's children.

2 To such as keep his covenant;
And to those that remember his commandments to do—them.

Mark 10: 14.

3 Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not:
For of such is the kingdom of heaven.

After the Administration.
Ez. 86: 25, 26.

1 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you,
And I shall be—clean:

2 A new heart also will I give you,
And a new spirit will I put with— in you,

3 And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh,
And I will give you a heart of flesh.

Is. 44: 3, 4.

4 I will pour my spirit upon thy seed,
And my blessing upon thine offspring:

5 And they shall spring up as among the grass,
As willows by the watercourses.

6 For the promise is unto you, and to your children;
And to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

Selection, No. 58.

The Lord's Prayer.

1 Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be—thy name;

2 Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven.

3 Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

4 And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil;

5 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
For ever. A—men.
